The workshop will be open to the public; members of the public may attend to observe the proceedings. In order to follow federal, state, and local guidelines regarding public gatherings, and to protect residents, staff, and elected officials due to the COVID-19 virus, seating will be limited due to social distancing. Those wishing to attend the workshop in-person will be required to adhere to social distancing guidelines and sit in designated socially distanced seating.

Members of the public wishing to attend the workshop in person are advised of the following guidelines:

- Those in attendance will be required to adhere to social distancing guidelines, including only sitting in designated socially distanced seating.

- Those in attendance should practice social distancing when inside the building, entering the building, and exiting the building. The wearing of masks is encouraged.
- There will be limited designated socially distanced seating available in the Commission Chambers and in the atrium. All those in attendance must sit only in the designated socially distanced seating.
- If all available designated socially distanced seats are being utilized, overflow individuals will need to wait outside the building until space frees up.
