2. partner, director, officer, or board member (or equivalent position); or
3. independent contractor, of a named insured, but only while in the course of their performance of work or services on behalf of or at the direction of the named insured, and provided such individual would be eligible for coverage under your employers' liability coverage.

Employers' liability coverage means:

1. compulsory insurance coverage required by law in connection with your liability to employees, or, if such coverage is not required by law, then the functional equivalent of such coverage; and
2. insurance coverage for damages and/or claim expenses for a claim brought against you by an employee or other third party for conduct outside the normal risk of employment or where the employee is not subject to an applicable state's workers compensation law.

Extended period of indemnity means the actual amount of the reduction in sales sustained during the 90-day period after the period of restoration has ended, but only if resulting from:

1. Restoration efforts: efforts to physically restore the business to the condition that would have existed had no malicious attack occurred; or
2. Contract cancellation: cancellation of contracts you entered into prior to the malicious attack for sales that would have been earned during the 90-day period described above.

Extended period of indemnity will not include loss due to fines or penalties, or damages for breach of contract or late or non-completion of orders.

If you could have minimized the total reduction in sales by:

a. a complete or partial resumption of the business operations;

b. making use of merchandise, stock, or other property at the insured location or elsewhere; and/or

c. using or increasing business operations elsewhere, we will take such possible reduction of loss into account when calculating the amount of loss we will pay.

Extra expense means the reasonable and necessary expenses you incur to minimize the interruption to your business operations that are over and above the costs that normally would have been incurred in conducting the business during the same period had no malicious attack occurred.

Extra expense also includes the reasonable and necessary expenses you incur to relocate your business to a temporary location in order to avoid or mitigate your income loss directly caused by the interruption to your business operations.

At the end of the period of restoration, any remaining useful life or salvage value remaining in property for which extra expense was incurred during the period of restoration will be deducted and not included in extra expense.

The most we will pay for extra expense is the reasonable and necessary costs and expenses you actually incur to minimize the interruption to your business operations, or your expected income loss, whichever is less.

Funeral expenses means reasonable expenses for:

1. burial, cremation, or other funeral-related services; and
2. the transportation of bodily remains to a location where such burial, cremation, or other funeral-related services are performed.

Income loss means the sum of the following:

1. the net income you would have earned had no malicious attack occurred; and
2. continuing normal operating expenses you incur, including ordinary payroll.

Ingress/egress income loss means the income loss directly caused by the prevention of ingress to or egress from an insured location, whether by order of a civil or military authority or otherwise, sustained for a period greater than the waiting period but not to exceed ten days after the malicious attack.

Joint venture means a business enterprise in which you participate pursuant to a written agreement.

Loss of attraction means the actual amount of the reduction in sales you sustain for a period greater than the waiting period but not to exceed 30 days after the malicious attack.

Loss of limb means the physical separation of a hand at or above the wrists or of a foot at or above the ankle, including permanent total and irrecoverable loss of use of a hand, arm, foot, or leg.

Loss of sight means the permanent and total loss of sight, which we will consider as having happened:

1. in both eyes if, after correction by and on the authority of a qualified ophthalmic specialist, the degree of sight left in both eyes is 3/60 or less on the Snellen scale, meaning the affected person cannot see beyond three feet what he or she should be able to see at 60 feet; or
2. in one eye if, after correction by and on the authority of a qualified ophthalmic specialist, the degree of sight the affected person has left is 3/60 or less on the Snellen scale, meaning he or she cannot see beyond three feet what he or she should be able to see at 60 feet.

Medical expenses means reasonable expenses for necessary:

1. first aid administered at the time of a malicious attack;
2. medical, surgical, x-ray, and dental services, including prosthetic devices; and
3. ambulance, hospital, and professional nursing services.

Malicious attack means any event that:

1. involves the use of a firearm, handheld weapon, explosive device, moving vehicle, aircraft, or drone;
2. is intended to harm another person or group of persons; and
3. is carried out or attempted by any person or group of persons acting alone or on behalf of or in connection with any organization.

Occurrence means any one malicious attack or series of malicious attacks having the same purpose or cause occurring during any period of 72 consecutive hours, which results in a loss or series of losses. Each occurrence will be subject to one deductible and a single per occurrence limit.

If any part of the 72 consecutive hours of the malicious attack takes place after the end of the policy period, we will deem all loss as sustained during the policy period.

If a malicious attack or series of malicious attacks having the same purpose or cause first commences prior to the inception of the policy period, we will deem the entire malicious attack to have occurred prior to the policy period.

Period of restoration means the time period beginning on the date and time of the initial interruption of your business and ending on the date and time the interruption ends or could have ended had you acted with due diligence and dispatch. In no event will the period of restoration exceed 180 calendar days.

Permanent total disablement means disablement:

1. which prevents the affected person from attending completely to all aspects of any business or occupation for which he or she is specialized in by training, education, industry knowledge, or relevant experience;
2. lasting 12 consecutive months; and
3. at by end of such period, a qualified physician has confirmed that the affected person has reached maximum medical improvement, with no reasonable expectation of further improvement.

Pollutants means any solid, liquid, gaseous, or thermal irritant or contaminant, including smoke, vapor, asbestos, silica, dust, nanoparticles, fibers, mold, spores, fungi, soot, ash, fumes, acids, alkalis, chemicals, germs, and waste. Waste includes, but is not limited to, materials to be recycled, reconditioned, or reclaimed. However, smoke, soot, ash, or fumes from a fire caused by a malicious attack are not pollutants.

Potential claim means any bodily injury or property damage, or other circumstances reasonably likely to lead to a claim covered under this Coverage Part.

Property damage means physical loss of or physical damage to or destruction of any tangible property, including the resulting loss of use of that property.

Tenant improvements and betterments means fixtures, alterations, installations, or additions you:

1. make to a part of a building you occupy but do not own; and
2. acquire or make at your expense but cannot legally remove.

Waiting period means the number of hours stated as such in the Declarations commencing from the date and time on which:

1. the initial interruption to your business occurs;
2. your ingress to or egress from an insured location is prevented, whether by order of a civil or military authority or otherwise; or

3. the malicious attack first occurs at a location you do not own or operate situated within a one-mile radius of any insured location.

For any coverage to which a waiting period applies, we will pay otherwise covered loss only if the interruption to your business, prevention of ingress to or egress from the insured location, or reduction in sales at the insured location(s), continues for a period greater than the waiting period, in which case we will pay for income loss or extra expense sustained from the date and time the interruption, prevention, or reduction first began, and ending on the time limitation applicable to the coverage to which the waiting period applies.

In consideration of the premium charged, and on the understanding this endorsement leaves all other terms, conditions, and exclusions unchanged, it is agreed:

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary within this contract or any endorsement hereto, in respect of nonpayment of premium only, the following clause will apply.

The (Re)Insured undertakes that premium will be paid in full to (Re)Insurers within 30 days of inception of this contract (or, in respect of installment premiums, when due).

If the premium due under this contract has not been so paid to (Re)Insurers by the 30th day from the inception of this contract (and, in respect of installment premiums, by the date they are due) (Re) Insurers will have the right to cancel this contract by notifying the (Re)Insured via the broker in writing. In the event of cancellation, premium is due to (Re)Insurers on a pro rata basis for the period that (Re) Insurers are on risk but the full contract premium will be payable to (Re)Insurers in the event of a loss or occurrence prior to the date of termination which gives rise to a valid claim under this contract.

If not, the contract will automatically terminate at the end of the notice period.

If any provision of this clause is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability will not affect the other provisions of this clause which will remain in full force and effect.

E2017.3 Policyholder Disclosure Notice of Terrorism Insurance Cover

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT FOLLOWING THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002, AS AMENDED, COVERAGE PROVIDED BY THIS POLICY FOR LOSSES CAUSED BY CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM IS PARTIALLY REIMBURSED BY THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT UNDER A FORMULA ESTABLISHED BY FEDERAL LAW. UNDER THIS FORMULA, THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT REMIBURSES 80% OF COVERED TERRORISM LOSSES EXCEEDING THE STATUTORILY ESTABLISHED DEDUCTIBLE PAID BY THE INSURER(S) PROVIDING THE COVERAGE.

YOU SHOULD ALSO KNOW THAT THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT, AS AMENDED, CONTAINS A $100 BILLION CAP THAT LIMITS THE U.S. GOVERNMENT REIMBURSEMENT AS WELL AS INSURERS' LIABILITY FOR LOSSES RESULTING FROM CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM WHEN THE AMOUNT OF SUCH LOSSES IN ANY ONE CALENDAR YEAR EXCEEEDS $100 BILLION IN ANY ONE CALENDAR YEAR. IF THE AGGREGATE OF SUCH LOSSES FOR ALL INSURERS EXCEEDS $100 BILLION, COVERAGE MAY BE REDUCED.

As defined in Section 102(1) of the Act, as amended: The term "Act of Terrorism" means any act or acts that are certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of Homeland Security and the Attorney General of the United States, to be an Act of Terrorism; to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property, or infrastructure; to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside the United States in the case of certain air carriers or vessels or the premises of a United States mission; and to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

Notwithstanding the TRIA program, this Policy insures against all terrorism perils in accordance with the terms, conditions and exclusions of this insurance. Your policy includes coverage for terrorism losses that are outside the TRIA definition of an "Act of Terrorism" as above. It also provides coverage for you according to your Policy terms, conditions, exclusions and limits, irrespective of any cap.

The allocation of the premium for TRIA coverage is provided below and does not include any charges for the portion of loss covered by the United States government under the Act.

The allocation we have made in respect of US exposures to Acts of Terrorism, as defined under TRIA, is 80% of your current premium. This premium allocation applies to expiry of the risk or 12:00 midnight December 31, 2027, the date on which the TRIA program is scheduled to terminate, whichever is sooner.

THIS ENDORSEMENT CHANGES THE POLICY. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY.

EXCLUSION OF CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM AND EXCLUSION OF OTHER ACTS OF TERRORISM COMMITTED OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES

In consideration of the premium charged it is hereby agreed that:

A. The following exclusion is added to all coverage parts of this policy:

Terrorism

"Any injury or damage" arising directly, or indirectly, out of a "certified act of terrorism", or out of an "other act of terrorism" that is committed outside of the United States (including its territories and possessions and Puerto Rico), but within the "coverage territory". However, with respect to an "other act of terrorism", this exclusion applies only when one or more of the following are attributed to such act:

1. The total of insured damage to all types of property exceeds $25,000,000 (valued in U.S. dollars). In determining whether the $25,000,000 threshold is exceeded, we will include all insured damage sustained by property of all persons and entities affected by the terrorism and business interruption losses sustained by owners or occupants of the damaged property. For the purpose of this provision, insured damage means damage that is covered by any insurance plus damage that would have been covered by any insurance but for the application of any terrorism exclusions; or
2. Fifty or more persons sustain death or serious physical injury. For the purposes of this provision, serious physical injury means:
   a. Physical injury that involves a substantial risk of death; or
   b. Protracted and obvious physical disfigurement; or
   c. Protracted loss of or impairment of the function of a bodily member or organ; or
3. The terrorism involves the use, release or escape of nuclear materials, directly or indirectly results in nuclear reaction or radiation or radioactive contamination; or
4. The terrorism is carried out by means of the dispersal or application of pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials; or
5. Pathogenic or poisonous biological chemical materials are released, and it appears that one purpose of the terrorism was to release such materials.

With respect to this exclusion, Paragraphs 1. and 2. above describe the thresholds used to measure the magnitude of an incident of an "other act of terrorism" and the circumstances in which the threshold will apply for the purpose of determining whether this exclusion will apply to that incident.

B. The following definitions are added to this policy:

1. For the purposes of this endorsement, "any injury or damage" means any injury or damage under any coverage part to which this endorsement applies, and includes, but is not limited to, "damages", "bodily injury", "property damage", "personal and advertising injury", "cleanup costs" or "ultimate net loss" as may be defined in any applicable coverage part.
2. "Certified act of terrorism" means an act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, to be an act of terrorism pursuant to such Act. The criteria contained in the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act for a "certified act of terrorism" include the following:
   a. The act resulted in insured losses in excess of $5,000,000 in the aggregate, attributable to all types of insurance subject to the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act;
   b. The act resulted in damage:
      (1) Within the United States (including its territories and possessions and Puerto Rico); or

STORAGE TANK POLLUTION POLICY

THE COVERAGE AFFORDED UNDER THIS POLICY IS WRITTEN ON A CLAIMS-MADE AND REPORTED BASIS.
PLEASE READ THE ENTIRE FORM CAREFULLY.

Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage.

Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties, and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy the words 'you and your' refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations. The words 'we, us and our' refer to the Company providing this insurance.

The word insured means any person or organization qualifying as such under SECTION III - WHO IS AN INSURED.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotations have special meaning. Refer to SECTION XI - DEFINITIONS.

"Claim(s)" must first be made by or against the insured during the "policy period" and "claim(s)" must be reported to us by the insured during the "policy period"; or SECTION X - EXTENDED REPORTING PERIOD if applicable.

This policy is storage tank specific. Only "scheduled storage tank system(s)" are covered. Prior notice of any "scheduled storage tank system" removal or replacement is required under this policy.

In consideration of the payment of premium and your agreement to pay the Deductible as described in SECTION VII –DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT, and in reliance upon the statements in the application made a part hereof, and subject to SECTION V – LIMITS OF INSURANCE as set forth in the Declarations, and SECTION II – EXCLUSIONS and SECTION VIII – CONDITIONS and all other terms of this policy; we agree as follows:

SECTION I - POLLUTION LIABILITY COVERAGE

1. Insuring Agreement - "Bodily Injury" and "Property Damage" Liability

a. We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of a "confirmed release" that first commences on or after the "retroactive date" and is first discovered by the insured during the "policy period". The amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in SECTION V - LIMITS OF INSURANCE. We may at our discretion investigate any "pollution condition" and settle any "claim" or "suit" that may result.

b. This insurance applies only to "bodily injury" and "property damage" caused by a "confirmed release" that first commences on or after the "retroactive date" shown in the Declarations only if:

(i) the "confirmed release" is from a "scheduled storage tank system(s)" at a scheduled site(s) as shown in the declarations; and
(ii) the insured's responsibility to pay damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" is determined in a "claim" or "suit" on the merits in the "coverage territory" or in a settlement we agree to.

c. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" caused by a "confirmed release" only if a "claim" or "suit" for damages because of the "bodily injury" or "property damage" is first made against the insured and reported to us in writing during the "policy period" or extended reporting period, if applicable. Provided that:

(i) a "claim" or "suit" by a person or organization seeking damages will be deemed to have been made when written notice of such "claim" or "suit" is reported; and
(ii) two or more "claim(s)" arising out of the same, interrelated, associated, repeated or continuous "confirmed release(s)" or a series of related "confirmed release(s)" shall be considered a single "claim", and shall be subject to one Limit of Liability and only one Deductible as set out in the Declarations, regardless of the number of "insured(s)" or claimants involved or the number or amount of "loss" or "policy period(s)" for which "confirmed release(s)", "corrective action" or loss(es), occurred and regardless of the number of "confirmed release(s)" alleged to have occurred.

2. Insuring Agreement – "Corrective Action" Liability

(ii) the insured's obligation to pay for "corrective action" because of a "confirmed release" is asserted by the applicable "implementing agency" under "storage tank environmental regulations". Notice asserting such obligation must be first received by you and reported to us in writing, in such written form as we may require, during the "policy period" or the optional extended reported period, if applicable.

3. Insuring Agreement - Defense Costs

We have the right and duty to defend any "claim" or "suit" seeking damages. We will pay the costs to investigate, contest, defend or appeal "bodily injury", "property damage" and "corrective action" to which this insurance applies. We shall be permitted but not obligated to inspect, sample or monitor at any time the insured's "scheduled storage tank systems". Neither our right nor our undertaking to make inspections, sample or monitor shall constitute an undertaking on the insured's behalf to determine or warrant that the property or operations are safe, healthful, conform to acceptable engineering practice or are in compliance with any law, rule, or regulation.

The Company shall have the right to modify, amend or delete any of the terms and conditions of this policy including the rights to charge additional premium and the rights to withdraw, rescind or void the policy, if its examination, audit or inspection reveals any material risk, hazard or condition that was not previously disclosed by the insured in the application or supplemental material, or which deviated from the information disclosed in the application or supplemental material.

8. Other Insurance

The insurance provided under this policy is primary insurance, except when stated in the Declarations to apply in excess of or contingent upon the absence of other insurance. When this insurance is primary and the "Insured" has other insurance which is stated to be applicable to the "claim", "cleanup costs" or "loss" on an excess basis, the amount of our liability under this policy shall not be reduced by the existence of such excess insurance.

9. State Trust Funds, Programs, and Plans

In the event any insured recovers from any government funds available to you or others for any "claim", "corrective action" or "suit" covered under this policy, we shall be entitled to recover from the insured: the portion of recovery that is equal to the amount of such "claim", "corrective action" or "suit" paid by us in excess of any DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT paid by the insured.

10. Separation of Insureds

Except with respect to LIMITS OF INSURANCE, LIMIT OF DEFENSE, DEDUCTIBLE AMOUNT and any rights or duties specifically assigned to the first Named Insured, this insurance applies:

a. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and
b. Separately to each Named Insured against whom "claims" or "suits" are made.

11. Transfer of Rights of Recovery

If you have rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this policy from other parties, including insurers, state funds, programs or plans, those rights are transferred to us. You must do nothing after loss to impair those rights to recover. At our request, you will pursue those rights or transfer those rights to us and help us enforce those rights to recover.

12. When We Do Not Renew

If we decide not to renew this policy, we will mail or deliver, to the insured shown in the Declarations, written notice of the nonrenewal, not less than sixty (60) days before the expiration date.

13. Premiums

The first Named Insured shown on the Policy Declarations:

a. is responsible for the payment of all premiums; and
b. will be the payee for any return premiums we pay.

14. Cancellation

The first Named Insured shown on the Declarations may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to us advance written notice of cancellation. We may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to the first Named Insured written notice of cancellation. Cancellation for non-payment of premium or misrepresentation by the insured will be effective only upon written notice and only after expiration of a minimum of ten (10) days after a copy of such written notice is mailed or delivered to the first Named Insured. If we cancel for any other reason the cancellation will be effective only upon written notice and only after the expiration of sixty (60) days after a copy of such written notice is mailed or delivered to the first Named Insured. We will deliver our notice to the first Named Insured's last mailing address known to us.

Notice of cancellation will state the effective date of cancellation. The "policy period" will end on that date. If the first Named Insured cancels, the earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table. If we cancel, the earned premium shall be computed pro rata or as specified by state law or regulation. Any return premium is subject to our retaining a minimum earned premium not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount specified in the Declarations.

15. Legal Action Against Us

No person or organization has a right under this policy:

a. To join us as a party or otherwise bring us into a "suit" asking for damages from an insured; or
b. To sue us on this policy unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

A person or organization may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgment against an insured, but only after the actual trial. We will not be liable for damages that are not payable under the terms of this policy or that are in excess of the applicable LIMITS OF INSURANCE. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the insured and the claimant, or the claimant's legal representative.

16. Acquisition or Operational Changes

If at any time after signing the application the insured shall become aware of any material change in any of the facts declared or undeclared to the Company or if the insured shall subsequently receive information indicating a material increase in the exposure to which this policy relates, the insured shall, within thirty (30) days advise the Company in writing of such change or such exposure increase. The terms of this policy shall then be subject to renegotiation with regard to any new, additional or increased exposures resulting from such changes.

SECTION IX - DUTIES IN THE EVENT OF A "CONFIRMED RELEASE", "CLAIM" OR "SUIT"

1. Any "confirmed release" reported to us does not relieve you of any duties you may have under applicable laws or regulations for proper notification to the "implementing agency" which has jurisdiction over any such "confirmed release". Notwithstanding the above, all notices of a "confirmed release" or receipt of a "suit" or "claim" must be forwarded in writing to the address shown in the CLAIMS REPORTING notice attached to this policy.

a. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of any insured becoming aware of any "pollution condition" which may result in a "claim" or any action or proceeding to impose an obligation on the insured for any "corrective action". Notice should include:

(i) How, when and where the "pollution condition" took place;

(ii) The names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and

(ii) The nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the "pollution condition". Notice of a "pollution condition" is not notice of a "claim".

b. If a "claim" is made against any insured or any action or "suit" is initiated, you must see to it that we receive written notice of the "claim" or notice of action or "suit" as soon as practicable of any insured becoming aware of any such "claim", action or "suit'.

c. The insured must:

(i) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with any "claim" or "pollution condition" including but not limited to all correspondence between any insured and any third party claimant including but not limited to any "implementing agency"; and all demands, summonses, notices or other process or papers or papers filed with a court of law, administrative agency, "implementing agency" or an investigative body in connection with any "claim" or "pollution condition" or "confirmed release".

(ii) Authorize us to obtain records and other information including, but not limited to all technical reports, laboratory data, field notes or any other documents generated by persons the insured has hired to investigate or remediate a "pollution condition", all expert reports, investigations and data collected by experts the insured has retained, whether or not you intend to use the material for any purpose;

(iii) Cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the "claim"; and

(iv) Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may apply.

d. No insured will, except at their own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for minor first aid, without our consent.

e. We shall have the right, but not the duty, to participate in decisions regarding "corrective action" or remediation of a "pollution condition", or to assume direct control over all aspects of such "corrective action" or remediation and the adjustment of any "claim" up to the applicable limit of liability.

2. You must permit us to inspect the "scheduled storage tank system(s)" in order to substantiate that the "bodily injury", "property damage" or "pollution condition" was caused by a "confirmed release" from a "scheduled storage tank system(s)".

3. If requested you must permit us to question you under oath at such times as may be reasonably required about any matter relating to a "confirmed release" including your books and records. Such sworn statement must be signed.

4. You must comply with all local, state and federal reporting requirements.

5. You must take immediate action in accordance with "ASTM" risk based "corrective action" standards and any applicable "implementing agency" laws and regulations to stop or contain the "confirmed release".

SECTION X - EXTENDED REPORTING PERIOD

1. You shall be entitled to an automatic extended reporting period without additional charges upon termination of coverage as defined in this section. The automatic extended reporting period starts at the end of the "policy period" and lasts for six (6) months, except if the new or renewed policy following this policy has the same "retroactive date" or a "retroactive date" earlier than that of this policy. All coverage shall be subject to all of the policy terms, conditions and exclusions. The Automatic Extended Reporting Period shall only apply if no other similar insurance is in force at the time of the Automatic Extended Reporting Period. The Automatic Extended Reporting Period shall not in any way reinstate or increase the Limits of Insurance or extend the "policy period".

2. In addition to the automatic extended reporting period, you shall be entitled to purchase an extended reporting period for up to three years in duration, except in the event of nonpayment of premium. The charge for an extended reporting period for three years in duration shall not be more than one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the premium per "policy period". The extended reporting period starts when the automatic extended reporting period, set forth in the above paragraph, ends.

3. Upon payment of the additional premium we shall issue an endorsement providing for an extended reporting period for up to three years, provided that you:

   a. Make a written request for such endorsement which we receive within thirty (30) days after termination of coverage as defined herein; and

   b. Pay the additional premium when due. If such additional premium is paid when due, the extended reporting period may not be canceled by us provided that all other terms and conditions of policy are met.

4. The "claim" first reported to us within the automatic extended reporting period and extended reporting period, if purchased in accordance with this section, shall be deemed to have been made on the last day of the "policy period", and coverage shall apply under this policy provided that:

   a. The "confirmed release" first commenced on after the "retroactive date" and before the end of the "policy period" and you first discovered the "confirmed release" and provided notice to us during the "policy period".

   b. The "confirmed release" first commenced on or after the "retroactive date" and before the end of the "policy period"; and the "claim" is otherwise covered under the terms and conditions of this policy.

5. For the purpose of this automatic extended reporting period and extended reporting period, if purchased, termination of coverage means:

   a. In the event of cancellation, nonrenewal, or termination of this policy, except for non-payment of premium, fraud, or material changes in the use of "scheduled storage tank system"; and

   b. With respect to specific "scheduled storage tank system(s)":

      (i) the deletion of such, "scheduled storage tank system" from this policy by us upon your request; or

      (ii) the sale, leasing to others, giving away, or relinquishing of operational control of such "scheduled storage tank system(s)" by you.

6. If the automatic extended reporting period or an extended reporting period endorsement is in effect, we will provide LIMITS OF INSURANCE as shown in the Declarations but only for "claim(s)" first reported to us pursuant to the policy terms and conditions and the extended reporting period endorsement. The purchase of an extended reporting period does not reinstate or increase the limit of liability shown in the Declarations.

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is a request for a final plat submitted by Meritage Homes of Florida, Inc., for a subdivision consisting of 84 duplex lots and 202 single-family lots on approximately 103.45 acres, titled RidgeHaven. The RidgeHaven subdivision is located south of Plantation Oaks Boulevard, east of Addison Drive, north of the Village of Pine Run subdivision, and west of the Plantation Oaks subdivision and includes the following Volusia County parcel numbers: 3136-01-01-0011, 3136-01-01-0012, 3136-01-33-0110, 3136-01-25-0010, 3136-01-24-0060, 3136-01-33-0080, 3136-01-01-0020, 3136-01-23-0060, and 3136-01-24-0050.

SECTION 2, BACKGROUND:

The RidgeHaven subdivision includes nine parcels (Volusia County parcel numbers: 3136-01-01-0011, 3136-01-01-0012, 3136-01-33-0110, 3136-01-25-0010, 3136-01-24-0060, 3136-01-33-0080, 3136-01-01-0020, 3136-01-23-0060, and 3136-01-24-0050) that total 103.45 acres. Within the RidgeHaven subdivision land area there are eight (8) parcels individually owned (not owned by RidgeHaven) totaling approximately 5.7 acres. Seven (7) parcels are vacant and one parcel fronting Plantation Oaks Boulevard is developed with a single-family home. The RidgeHaven subdivision was located in unincorporated Volusia County with a desire to construct a subdivision. Representatives of the RidgeHaven subdivision had two options for subdivision development: (1) remain in unincorporated Volusia County and have Ormond Beach provide the project utilities or (2) become part of the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) area and develop the subdivision in Ormond Beach. The Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) allows the annexation of land while creating enclaves that remain in unincorporated Volusia County.

The City Commission adopted the original North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement on August 19, 2014 per Ordinance 2014-27. Concurrently, the Volusia County Council adopted the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement on August 21, 2014 by Volusia County Ordinance 2014-12. The original Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement established the Municipal Service Area (MSA) and joint planning and service delivery agreement to the North U.S. Highway 1 area. The first amendment to the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement was approved to add the land associated with Plantation Oaks Subdivision and the 13 enclaves surrounding the subdivision to the adopted Municipal Service Area. On August 20, 2019, the City Commission adopted the first amendment to the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement. The Volusia County Council subsequently adopted the agreement on September 17, 2019. The City of Ormond Beach (December 7, 2021 with Ordinance 2021-43) and Volusia County (February 15, 2022 with Ordinance 2022-9) approved the second amendment to the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement to add the land associated with the RidgeHaven subdivision and the individually owned parcels not owned by RidgeHaven to the adopted Municipal Service Area. During the County Council presentation and discussion, the RidgeHaven representative and city staff committed to establishing a limitation of 298 dwelling units for the entire RidgeHaven area. On March 22, 2022, the City Commission approved Ordinance 2022-05 that annexed the RidgeHaven subdivision.

With the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement and annexation approved, the next step for the RidgeHaven project was the assignment of a city land use designation. For the existing land use entitlements, the Volusia County staff analysis calculated a range of residential development of 716 to 1,052 dwelling units. The existing land use required a minimum of four units per acre. The city land use designation occurred with three separate actions:

1. Ordinance 2022-14 adopted July 19, 2022: The Ordinance amended the Future Land Use Element of the Comprehensive Plan to incorporate the second Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement and provided a text limitation within Policy 9.1.4 that states that the RidgeHaven land area shall not exceed 3 units per acre and no more than 298 dwelling units for the entire RidgeHaven property. The maximum theoretical residential density was reduced by 754 residential units. For the non-RidgeHaven properties, the Ordinance included the text restriction that these parcels would maintain a maximum gross residential density of eight (8) units per acre – the same density that existed in unincorporated Volusia County.
2. Ordinance 2022-18, adopted August 3, 2022: The Ordinance authorized the following actions:
    A. Amended the Future Land Use Map designation for the RidgeHaven subdivision property (totaling 84.26 acres) from Volusia County “Urban Medium Intensity” (UMI) to Ormond Beach “Low Density Residential” (LDR). The Ordinance included the map annotation that the RidgeHaven subdivision would have a density restriction of three (3) units per acre and shall not exceed 298 residential units for the entire RidgeHaven subdivision; and
    B. Amended the Future Land Use Map designation of the properties not associated with the RidgeHaven development from “Urban Medium Intensity” (UMI) to Ormond Beach “Medium Density Residential” (MDR). The Ordinance included the map annotation that these parcels would maintain a maximum gross residential density of eight (8) units per acre – the same density that existed in unincorporated Volusia County.
3. Ordinance 2022-12, adopted May 3, 2022: This Ordinance was for 19.19 acres owned by the RidgeHaven subdivision applicant that was part of the original Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area. The Ordinance amended the Future Land Use for the property from “Low Intensity Commercial” (LIC) to “Medium Density Residential” (MDR). The Ordinance contained a condition that the density shall be restricted to eight (8) units per acre within the 19.19 acres and the RidgeHaven subdivision, including the 84.26 acres, shall not exceed 298 residential units.

After the assignment of the land use, the following actions have occurred for the RidgeHaven land area:

1. Zoning Map Amendment: Approved June 6, 2023 with Ordinance 2023-25. Authorized a zoning map amendment from Volusia County R-4, Urban Single-Family Residential and Ormond Beach B-8, Commercial to Ormond Beach PRD, Planned Residential Development.

2. Issuance of a Development Order: Approved June 6, 2023 with Ordinance 2023-26. Authorized a development order for the RidgeHaven subdivision of 286 lots on approximately 103.45 acres and associated site improvements. See ATTACHMENT 4.
3. Preliminary Plat: Approved June 6, 2023 with Resolution 2023-109. Authorized a preliminary plat that includes the construction drawings for the subdivision. See ATTACHMENT 2.
4. Plat vacation: Approved June 6, 2023 with Resolution 2023-108. Authorized a plat vacation of portions of the National Gardens plat, recorded in map/plat book 10, pages 250-253 under certain conditions.
5. Proportionate Fair Share Agreement: Approved September 20, 2023 with Resolution 2023-152. Authorized the required proportionate fair share agreement for traffic impacts based on the approved traffic study.

SECTION 3, ANALYSIS: There was a determination by the City Attorney's Office that final plats should be reviewed by the Planning Board prior to action by the City Commission. There is a pending Land Development Code amendment to require final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. This application is being processed per the direction of the City Attorney's Office and the proposed Land Development Code amendment.

The site is designated "Low Density Residential" (LDR) and "Medium Density Residential" on the city's Future Land Use Map. The RidgeHaven land area contains a map annotation within the land use that limits the maximum residential density to 298 units.

North	Plantation Oaks PRD	"Low Density Residential"	PRD, Planned Residential Development
South	Across Addison Drive, Gardens of Bella Vita & MBA Business Center	"Medium Density Residential" and "Low Intensity Commercial"	PRD, Planned Residential Development and B-8, Commercial
West	Village of Pine Run	Volusia County "Rural"	Volusia County RR (Rural Residential)
East	Across Plantation Oaks Boulevard	"Medium Density Residential"	R4, Single-Family Cluster and townhouse

Key project attributes for the RidgeHaven subdivision include:

1. The total project size is 103.45 acres.

2. The development of consists of 286 lots. Any subdivision phasing may be reviewed and approved by the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC) as a minor amendment.
3. The project's gross density is 2.76 units per acre.
4. The project's net density (project acreage of 103.45 minus 6.49 acres of wetlands divided by 286 residential lots) is 2.95 units per acre.
5. The subdivision features three residential types: (a) duplex lots – 84 lots with a 35-foot lot frontage along the boundary of Addison Drive. These are allocated on the former B-8, Commercial land area that has a land use of "Medium Density Residential", (b) 50-foot lots – 136 lots that are located in the interior of the subdivision, and (c) 75-foot lots - 66 lots that are located at the rear of the subdivision, abutting the 35'-natural area that abuts the Village of Pine Run.
6. The project lots are proposed as follows:

Standards	Single-family, 50' by 110'	Single-family, 75' by 110'	Duplex, 35' by 110'
Number:	136	66	84
Minimum floor area:	1,400 SF	1,500 SF	1,400 SF
Maximum building coverage:	60%	60%	60%
Maximum lot impervious area:	80%	80%	80%
Maximum building height:	35 feet	35 feet	35 feet
Setbacks:
Front:	20 feet	20 feet	20 feet
Front (no garage access):	10 feet	15 feet	15 feet
Side:	5 feet	7.5 feet	5 feet, (0' common wall)
Rear:	20 feet	20 feet, 10 feet (lots 233-254)	10 feet
Waterfront:	20 feet	20 feet	10 feet
Accessory Structure setbacks:
Side yard:	5 feet	7.5 feet	NA
Side yard corner:	15 feet	15 feet	NA
Rear yard:	5 feet	5 feet	NA

7. There are two subdivision access points from Plantation Oaks Boulevard. No access is proposed from Addison Drive.
8. A traffic study was performed and reviewed by an independent traffic engineer employed by the City. The traffic study led to the proportionate fair share agreement.
9. The project proposes internal sidewalks on both sides of the streets within the RidgeHaven subdivision.
10. The project proposes a sidewalk connection off-site to connect to North U.S.

Highway 1.

11. An Environmental Assessment Analysis was reviewed as part of the zoning approval. A total of 8.04 acres of wetlands exists on the subject property. As designed, the project would have 1.75 acres of direct impacts to on-site wetlands.
12. St. Johns River Water Management District has issued permit #185591-1 for the RidgeHaven subdivision for stormwater management and wetland impacts.
13. Recreational improvements include a 33,000-square-foot-outdoor amenity area including a pool and pool deck, a dog park, playground and activity field. The project also includes two walking trails in the southeast corner of the property and along a lake and buffer area at the northeast corner.
14. The project proposes to preserve a total of 25.52 acres as natural preservation or 24.67% of the subject property. The Land Development Code requirement for natural preservation is 15% of the property and the Planned Residential Development standard is 20% of the property.
15. There is a 35-foot natural preservation area and existing ditch between the Ridgehaven subdivision and the Village of Pine Run. The Land Development Code requirement for a landscape buffer is six (6') feet.
16. Irrigation for the subdivision will be drawn from the stormwater ponds.
17. A street tree plan has been designed with 298 street trees.
18. For the project stormwater, the site is surrounded on three (3) sides by ditches that ultimately flow to the east. The drainage pattern of the pre-developed site flows to the Addison Canal, the canal between RidgeHaven project and the Village of Pine Run Subdivision, the wetland and a ditch on the north side of the project.
19. The proposed stormwater treatment methodology is wet detention with stormwater harvesting. The wet detention system has multiple ponds with an equalizer pipe system that will maintain the normal water elevation for all ponds. The drainage patterns for the post developed site includes the landscape/natural preservation that will continue to drain into the Addison Canal and the canal between Ridgehaven and Village of Pine Run subdivision. This acreage of this area has been significantly decreased. The area that drains to the north also has been decreased in the post development condition. The interior of the project will be directed onto the proposed stormwater treatment facility noted above. The stormwater wet detention will have an ultimate outfall to the swale along the northern border. This swale will intersect to the swale along the western edge of Village of Pine Run that flows to the north in the Plantation Oaks, Phase III. By directing the surface water runoff into the stormwater facility, there will be a delay in the surface flow exiting the site as well as reduction of the actual volume entering the canal/pipe system through the Village of Pine Run.
20. All three (3) historic trees on-site have been preserved.
21. The project buffers are as follows:

    A. Abutting Addison Drive. Required: 10'. Provided: ranges from 12' to 22'.

B. Abutting Plantation Oaks Boulevard. Required 20'. Provided: ranges from 30', 40, and 125' depending on the buffer location.

C. Abutting Plantation Oaks, Phase 3. Required 6'. Provided: Ranges with a minimum of 40'.

D. Abutting Village of Pine Run. Required: 6'. Provided: 35' natural area.

22. In December 2023, the project won the outstanding sustainability initiative from the Florida and Planning Zoning Association, Surfcoast Chapter.

Subdivision process:

The process for the subdivision of land involves a two (2)-step process, as discussed below:

1. Preliminary Plat: After a Planned Residential Development has been approved or based upon a property's zoning, if not a Planned Development, the following is required: (1) the applicant's engineered designs and drawings in terms of the stormwater design, utilities, lot grading, and road layout, and (2) the preparation of a preliminary plat document from a licensed surveyor. Preliminary plats are reviewed by the Planning Board and reviewed/approved by the City Commission to ensure compliance with the approved development order for the Planned Residential Development. There are two (2) options for development once a preliminary plat has been approved:

   Option 1 - Proceed with the application for construction for completion of the required subdivision improvements prior to recording the final plat (LDC, Section 4-18(8)(a)). When the required subdivision improvements are complete, the final plat along with the subdivision documents would be submitted by the applicant to the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC). The final plat would be reviewed by the Planning Board and acted upon by the City Commission. If approved, the plat would be recorded. This is the option that the RidgeHaven project has selected.

   Option 2 - Proceed with final plat review and approval, with the completion of required improvements after recording the plat (LDC, Section 4-18(8)(b)). With this option the applicant files surety documents guaranteeing that such improvements will be installed. All guarantees are incorporated in a bonded agreement for the construction of the required improvements in the form acceptable to the City Attorney's office. The final plat would be reviewed by the Planning Board and acted upon by the City Commission. If approved, the plat would be recorded.

2. Final Plat: The final plat is a legal document that is reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC), an independent City Surveyor and the City's Legal Department, to ensure compliance with State Statutes. Final plats are reviewed by the Planning Board and acted upon by the City Commission.

SECTION 4, CONCLUSION:

Section 4-18, Final plat approval procedures, of the Land Development Code establishes the final plat process. Per Section 4-18 of the Land Development Code, the following should be considered in the review of the final plat:

(1) All final plats shall be prepared by a professional authorized and licensed by the state to design and prepare subdivision plats.

The final plat, ATTACHMENT 3, has been prepared by a Florida licensed surveyor.

(2) The final plat shall demonstrate consistency with the approved development order or zoning district for the property under application.

The project has a Planned Residential Development zoning designation approved with Ordinance 2023-26 and the proposed final plat is consistent with the zoning approval as determined by the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC).

(3) The final plat shall demonstrate consistency with the preliminary plat.

The preliminary plat was approved with Resolution 2023-109 and the Resolution is included in ATTACHMENT 2. The final plat is consistent with the preliminary plat.

(4) Final plats shall be consistent with all applicable Florida Statutes.

The final plat has been reviewed by a Florida licensed surveyor employed by the city to review the final plat as the city surveyor. The city surveyor has concluded that the final plat is consistent with applicable Florida Statutes.

(5) Required documents, such as title opinion, proof of taxes paid, Homeowner's Association documents shall be submitted to the SPRC.

The required documents have been submitted to the Site Plan Review Committee and provided to the City Attorney's office for review.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the final plat for the RidgeHaven subdivision consisting of 84 duplex lots and 202 single-family lots on approximately 103.45 acres. The final plat is consistent with the approved preliminary plat (Resolution 2023-109) and the Planned Residential Development (PRD) development order (Ordinance 2023-26).

In the review of the plans and stormwater design, it appears that the existing swale invert is well above the invert to the discharge pipe from the stormwater pond in the north east corner of the site. What is any modifications to the canal will be done to ensure the flow is not impeded.

In previous comments, this basin was noted as land-locked. Response was that there were outlets for the basin. Please indicate the stage that this wetland will reach prior to the discharge. Will this stage adversely affect the two outparcels.?
The location of the outlets appear to be on the other side of the out parcels.

This basin appears to have multiple discharge points i.e.: north, south and east. Should this basin be divided by discharge points?

In the predeveloped condition an irregular weir separates portions of the basin. Was this removed? If not how does this affect the surface flow to the outlet structures?

In our meeting, we requested the impacts to the adjacent and down stream properties be evaluated. Provide documentation that there will not be adverse impacts to the adjacent properties. Second, the drainage swale/ditch that will be the ultimate discharge appears to be less than adequate for the proposed flows.

Will there be any grading in this area?

Stormwater Management Questions

1. The hydraulic grade line calculations should begin with the tailwater of the peak stage for 25yr/24hr storm event.
2. The 25 year 24 hour stage of the ponds is elevation 28.52 or 28.53. The top of the inlets noted as the overflow for the large wetland in the interior of the project range anywhere from elevation 26.00 to 27.50. The hydraulic grade line for the pipe system that end at these inlets will be above the top of the inlet. Please model the wetland and provide a peak stage for this basin.
3. When evaluating the overall plan, Sheet 2, the only inlet directly connected to the interior wetland is 113A at elevation 27.50 top. Show how the other inlets, 31, 14, 28, 110A, 114A will accept flow without crossing the roadway or the outparcels.
4. The stage of the ponds, elev. 28.52 when compared to the rear yard elevations there could be water within the lots.
5. Run No. 5 ends at Inlet 113A, the HGL appears well above the top of the inlet. Even with out the flow area including the entire interior wetland.
6. Basin 110A, shows flow arrows from the east to the west. However, there are no grades to provide evidence that this is the actual flow pattern.
7. Post Development Drainage Basins Plan

a. Post-Tree-Pres basin should be split at the north-eastern corner to allow for the flow through Lakes of Pine Run to be shown verse the existing flow pattern. Post Basin C and the Addison Canal and the eastern boundary canal appear to drain to the canal in Lakes of Pine Run.

b. In Post Basin A-there are two depressions, between the tier of lots on west side of Brookhaven Trail and the lots on the east side of Ridgehaven Avenue. Do either of these depressions stage up during the major storm events? If so, what would be the peak stage and would the rear of the lots be in danger of water encroachment?

c. There does not seems to be any information available for Lake E. Provide any stage information.

8. Comment Regarding questions above- In comparing the Pre-Basins and the Post Development basins, it appears that the interior wetland previously drained through Pre-DEP-D which has now been severed by the filling of the lots.

Ref. # 231, Civil Engineer, David Allen, Cycle 5
Markup: Civil--Swale, C012-CIVIL.pdf
The swale appears to be on the adjacent property, please provide written authorization for the connection from Ridgehaven to swale. As well as permission for the flow to now proceed to the north in the swale.
Has the County been notified of the connection to the existing ditch and the change to the surface water flow?

Markup: Eastern Channel Modifications?, C012-CIVIL.pdf
Please advise of any proposed construction activities on the eastern side of RidgeHaven within the existing channel. Verbally I have heard discussion regarding modifying the channel with the intent to prevent stormwater from the RidgeHaven outfall from traveling toward the existing channel serving the Village of Pine Run, but I have not seen any proposed plans to date.

Markup: Sizing of Channel to Outfall Point, C012-CIVIL.pdf
Please provide design documentation showcasing how the channel leading to the outfall point was sized.

Assumptions on my end: Q = (K/n) * ((A/P)^(2/3)) * S^(1/2) * A ; K = 1.49 ; n = 0.03 ; S = 0.0005 ; A = 67.3 Ft^2 ; P = 22.8 Ft. Values of A, P, and S were calculated utilizing as-built documentation of the existing channel. Utilizing these values, I calculate a theoretical max flow rate of 154 CFS for the channel leading to the outfall point.

The current stormwater report for RidgeHaven lists the peak discharge for the 25YR-24HR event as 139.69 CFS. The Plantation Oaks storwmater report lists the peak discharge for DITCH-POST in the 25YR-24HR event as 156.59 CFS. The peak discharge for RidgeHaven West will likely be somewhere around 100 CFS for the 25YR-24HR event (assumption made by me based off of acreage). All total, this suggests the channel conveying flow to the outfall would need to be able to accommodate 396.3 CFS, which is above my assumed calculations. Please advise if my assumptions have been made in error while reviewing your supplied documentation.

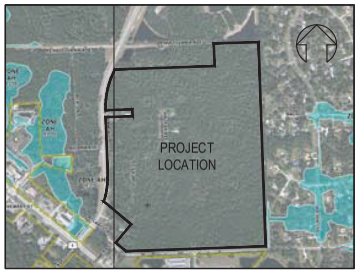
Ref. # 227, Utility 1, Mike Stephenson, Cycle 5
Markup: Sizing of RidgeHaven Discharge Channel, C012-CIVIL.pdf
Please provide design documentation showcasing how the outfall channel discharge on the northside of RidgeHaven was sized.



Assumptions on my end: Q = (K/n) * ((A/P)^(2/3)) * S^(1/2) * A ; K = 1.49 ; n = 0.030 ; S = 0.0005 ; A = 54.5 Ft^2 ; P = 26.1 Ft. Values of A, P, and S were calculated utilizing as-built documentation of the existing channel. Utilizing these values, I calculate a theoretical max flow rate of 98.9 CFS for the channel.

The current stormwater report for RidgeHaven showcases a peak discharge of 139.69 CFS for the existing channel in the 25YR-24HR event, which is above my theoretical calculations. Please advise if my assumptions have been made in error while reviewing your supplied documentation.

ramp existing that is at least 20 feet wide. Mr. Galloway emphasized that he would rather walk down the roadway than a sidewalk with a beach walkover. He highlighted the maintenance issue with Andy Romano beachfront park and the stair walkover access. Mr. Galloway concluded that he is supportive of removing the sidewalk and beach walkover and utilizing the existing Seminole Avenue beach ramp.

Ms. Shull sought to verify if there is existing beach access in this area. Mr. Spraker confirmed that the Seminole Avenue beach approach is existing. Ms. Shull stated that the project is not taking away public beach access and that they were to add additional access. Mr. Spraker stated that this is correct and consistent with the Volusia County e-mail regarding beach access. He continued that the original concept was to expand the access with a dedicated pedestrian walkway. Ms. Shull stated her concern was to maintain the existing beach access.

Mr. Galloway stated that he did not believe that the City should be accepting liability for the sidewalk if Volusia County does not.

Applicant's Presentation

Mr. Robert Merrell, III, Esquire, Cobb Cole, 149 South Ridgewood Avenue, stated that he uses the Seminole Avenue beach approach and it is easy to walk down the approach. He stated, like Mr. Galloway stated, that he would walk down the beach approach versus a sidewalk and beach walkover. Mr. Merrell stated that other areas, such as Neptune, Standish, Amsden, and Rockefeller only have the beach ramp access. He stated that the project wanted to construct the improvement and thought it would be a good gesture if Volusia County or the City wanted it. Mr. Merrell stated that the project team is still willing to perform the construction.

Chairman Thomas stated that the applicant does not want to maintain the improvement. Mr. Merrell stated that he did not believe that it would be appropriate as a public improvement.

Mr. Spraker stated that the project was awarded an Outstanding Sustainability Initiative from the Surfcoast Chapter of the Florida Planning and Zoning Association in December 2023.

Board Discussion and Questions

Mr. du Moulin asked if the irrigation for the subdivision was drawn from the stormwater pond. Mr. Spraker confirmed that was correct. Mr. du Moulin asked if the stormwater pond was not adequate if there is a secondary well. Mr. Spraker stated that this is correct and there is a well to supplement the stormwater pond if necessary.

Mr. Galloway stated there are a lot of homes getting ready to be built in this area.

Board Recommendation

Chairman Thomas opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Scudiero motioned to approve PZ 2024-009, RidgeHaven Subdivision, Final Plat. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

F. PZ 2024-015, Woodsprings Suites, Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map Amendment

Mr. Spraker stated that this is a request for a Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for an approximate 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Avenue, from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial". He reviewed the process for a land use amendment that includes: (1) review by Planning staff, (2) Planning Board review and recommendation, (3) City Commission action and if approved (4) transmittal to the Volusia County Growth Management Commission and Department of Florida Commerce.

Mr. Spraker reviewed the proposed Future Land Use Map with the amendment. He stated that the map amendment sought to go from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial". He stated that the goal of the application is to make the entire project a "Low Intensity Commercial" land use designation in order to construct a hotel. Mr. Spraker reviewed the uses in the area including U.S. Highway 1 and stated the subject property was in a transitional area where a hotel would be appropriate. He continued that the property is within the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) area that contains land use conditions of a maximum of 8 units per acre and a maximum Floor Area Ratio that shall not exceed 0.50 for retail and 0.55 for all other nonresidential uses. Mr. Spraker concluded that staff recommended approval of the land use amendment application.

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is an administrative amendment to the Land Development Code (LDC), Chapter 2, District and General Regulations, Article II, District Regulations: Section 2-17(B)(12)(b)(d), 2-18(B)(12)(b)(d), 2-19(A), 2-19(B)(12)(b)(d)(e) to (1) amend the rear yard setbacks from 25' to 20' for all uses except townhouses in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, (2) clarify street side corner label in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, (3) amend the purpose section for the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district, and (4) correct the additional waterbody setbacks label in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

SECTION 2, BACKGROUND:

Ordinance 2022-38 was adopted on January 10, 2023, and was an administrative amendment to the Land Development Code (LDC), Chapter 2, District and General Regulations, Article II, District Regulations, Section 2-17, R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse zoning district, Section 2-18, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density zoning district, and Section 2-19, Multifamily Medium High Density zoning district and Chapter 2, District and General Regulations, Article IV, Conditional and Special Exception Regulations, Section 2-57, Criteria for review of specific conditional and special exception, subsection (84), to amend the dimensional standards and conditional use criteria for townhouses.

Over the last year, staff has discovered the following issues with Ordinance 2022-38:

1. Rear yard setbacks. The amendments inadvertently changed the rear yard setback in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium High-Density zoning districts from 20' to 25'. Prior to the amendment, the rear yard setback was 20' within all three zoning districts (see ATTACHMENT 2). With the amendment (see ATTACHMENT 3) the rear yard setback was incorrectly shown as 25'. One purpose of this amendment to re-establish the rear yard setback as 20' in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts for all uses except townhouses which are shown with a 10' rear yard setback.
2. Street Side/Corner label. The amendments termed item 12(d) as Street Corner/Corner in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts. This amendment seeks to correct the item to Street Side/Corner in all three (3) zoning districts.

3. R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density purpose. The purpose section in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district shows the text of the R-5 zoning district. The purpose of this amendment is to re-establish the purpose section of the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

4. R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density additional waterbody setback label. With Ordinance 2022-38 additional columns were added changing the additional waterbody setbacks from 9.e. to 12.e. This amendment seeks to correct the item from 9.e. to 12.e in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

SECTION 3, ANALYSIS:

The purpose of the Land Development Code amendment is to (1) correct the rear yard setback in R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts from 25' to 20', (2) correct the label for Street Side/Corner in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, (3) amend the purpose of the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district, and (4) correct the additional waterbody setbacks label in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

The R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts rear yard setback has been established at 20' for a number of years. Maintaining the rear yard setback of 25' would make single-family structures permitted with the 20' setback non-conforming.

SECTION 4, CONCLUSION:

Section 1-15(d)(3) of the Land Development Code requires certain criteria must be evaluated before adoption of a Land Development Code amendment when making their recommendation, as follows:

1. The proposed development conforms to the standards and requirements of this Code and will not create undue crowding beyond the conditions normally permitted in the zoning district, or adversely affect the public health, safety, welfare or quality of life.

   Staff views this amendment as a cleanup of the rear yard setbacks, street side/corner in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, and the purpose section and additional waterbody setbacks label in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district. It is not expected that the proposed Land Development Code amendment would create undue crowding beyond the conditions normally permitted in the zoning district, or adversely affect the public health, safety, welfare or quality of life.

2. The proposed development is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.

   The proposed Land Development Code amendment is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan. Objective 2.1 of the Future Land Use Element of the Comprehensive Plan discussed the need to update Land Development Code regulations.

3. The proposed development will not adversely impact environmentally sensitive lands or natural resources, including but not limited to waterbodies, wetlands, xeric communities, wildlife habitats, endangered or threatened plants and animal species or species of special concern, wellfields, and individual wells.

   The proposed Land Development Code amendment does not approve any site-specific development and will not have an adverse impact on environmentally sensitive lands.

4. The proposed use will not substantially or permanently depreciate the value of surrounding property; create a nuisance; or deprive adjoining properties of adequate light and air; create excessive noise, odor, glare, or visual impacts on the neighborhood and adjoining properties.

   The proposed Land Development Code amendment does not approve any site-specific development and will not have any impacts on surrounding properties.

5. There are adequate public facilities to serve the development, including but not limited to roads, sidewalks, bike paths, potable water, wastewater treatment, drainage, fire and police safety, parks and recreation facilities, schools, and playgrounds.

   The proposed Land Development Code amendment seeks to correct errors in the dimensional standards of R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, and R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts. The amendment would not have a negative impact to public facilities.

6. Ingress and egress to the property and traffic patterns are designed to protect and promote motorized vehicle and pedestrian/bicycle safety and convenience, allow for desirable traffic flow and control, and provide adequate access in case of fire or catastrophe. This finding shall be based on a traffic report where available, prepared by a qualified traffic consultant, engineer or planner which details the anticipated or projected effect of the project on adjacent roads and the impact on public safety.

   There is no development proposed as part of the proposed amendment. The application pertains to a Land Development Code amendment. Any new development would have a traffic review as part of the site plan review process.

7. The proposed development is functional in the use of space and aesthetically acceptable.

   There is no development proposed as part of the proposed amendment. The application pertains to a Land Development Code amendment.

8. The proposed development provides for the safety of occupants and visitors.

   There is no development proposed as part of the proposed amendment. The application pertains to a Land Development Code amendment.

9. The proposed use of materials and architectural features will not adversely impact the neighborhood and aesthetics of the area.

   There is no development proposed as part of the proposed amendment. The application pertains to a Land Development Code amendment.

10. The testimony provided at public hearings.

    There has not been a public hearing at this time. The comments from the Planning Board meeting will be incorporated into the City Commission packet.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE an administrative amendment to the Land Development Code (LDC), Chapter 2, District and General Regulations, Article II, District Regulations: Section 2-17(B)(12)(b)(d), 2-18(B)(12)(b)(d), 2-19(A), 2-19(B)(12)(b)(d)(e) to (1) amend the rear yard setbacks from 25' to 20' for all uses except townhouses in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, (2) clarify street side corner label in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts, (3) amend the purpose section for the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district, and (4) correct the additional waterbody setbacks label in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

LDC-2024-011

Land Development Code Amendments

R-4, R-5, and R-6 zoning district amendments

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull commented that she didn't understand why some sites have one sign versus two signs and asked why this occurs.

Ms. Cushing responded that staff reviews sites independently. Corner lots are allowed to have up to two building premises signs, but they are not required to and the building owner can design their signs as long as they meet the signage regulations in the LDC.

Board Recommendation

Chairman Thomas opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Ms. Shull motioned to approve PZ 2024-018, 7-Eleven Electronic Changeable Copy Signage, 1546 West Granada Boulevard, Special Exception. Mr. du Moulin seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (5-1), with Mr. Scudiero in opposition.

J. PZ 2024-011, Land Development Code Amendment, R-4, R-5, and R-6 Zoning District Amendments

Mr. Spraker stated that this an administrative amendment to the Land Development Code (LDC) and displayed a PowerPoint slide of the proposed amended sections that included: Chapter 2, District and General Regulations, Article II, District Regulations: Section 2-17 (B)(12)(b)(d), 2-18(B)(12)(b)(d), 2-19(A), 2-19(B)(12)(b)(d)(e) to (1) amend the rear yard setbacks from 25' to 20' for all uses except townhouses in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium Density zoning districts; (2) clarify street side corner label in the R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse, R-5, Multifamily Medium Density, R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning districts; (3) amend the purpose section for the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district; and (4) correct the additional waterbody setbacks label in the R-6, Multifamily Medium-High Density zoning district.

Mr. Spraker stated that a previous LDC Amendment had some unintended consequences/errors including the rear yard setbacks and labels within the R-4, R-5, and R-6 zoning district. He reviewed the amendments of each zoning district. Mr. Spraker concluded that staff recommended approval of the proposed Land Development Code (LDC) amendments.

Board Discussion and Questions

Mr. Jorczak inquired why the rear yard setback went from 20' to 25'. Mr. Spraker stated that it was an inadvertent error that once recognized, staff proceeded with this amendment.
Ms. Shull inquired into the amendment to 9.e. Mr. Spraker stated that there are two 9.e and that the second label should be 12.e and there is no change to the text, just the numbering.

Board Recommendation

Chairman Thomas opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Jorczak motioned to approve PZ 2024-011, Land Development Code Amendment, R-4, R-5, and R-6 Zoning District Amendments. Ms. Shull seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

VIII. PUBLIC COMMENTS

The opportunity was announced and it was determined that there was no one in attendance that wished to deliver any public comments.

IX. OTHER BUSINESS

None.

X. MEMBER COMMENTS

Mr. Galloway asked for the Ormond Beach Police Department to research the presence of a vehicle and trailer with a 7-Eleven sign on it, on the south bound lane of A1A and to the south of the Charlie Horse Restaurant. Mr. Spraker advised that he will look into the matter.

Ms. Shull read a letter from of the residents that spoke on the Tattersall project at the February 2024 Planning Board meeting that was addressed to the Planning Board:

> "I appreciate the opportunity to speak about traffic issues relating to the Tattersall project at last month's meeting. It was a bit intimidating to be "presenting" in the Chambers but you made it a comfortable and educational experience. I thank you for your politeness, patience, understanding, and feedback/suggestions of how to best handle my pursuit with the traffic concerns. The entire meeting was quite engaging! Clarification of responsibilities of the Planning Board raised awareness that certain subject matters are out of your hands, they need to be directed to a different entity. I intend to pursue the traffic at the Pathways Elementary location with the School Board… we shall see how it goes! Thank YOU again! I wish more people could see the admirable work you are doing for our community."

Item Category:	Public Hearing - Ordinances	Res./Ord. No:	2024-2
Strategic Goal:	Transportation & Community Development - Other
Department:	Planning & Building
Subject:	Woodsprings Suites, Comp Plan Land Use Map Amendment
Summary:	This is a request submitted by Ridge Land Holdings, LLC, and RCM Properties, LLC, property owners, for a Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for approximately 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Road, Volusia County Parcel Identification Numbers (3136-01-34-0220, 3136-01-01-0022, and 3136-01-34-0140) from “Medium Density Residential” to “Low Intensity Commercial.” The property is within the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) area that contains land use conditions of a maximum of 8 units per acre and a maximum Floor Area Ratio that shall not exceed 0.50 for Retail and 0.55 for all other Nonresidential uses. The subject property is a total of 2.66 acres with a split land use of “Low Intensity Commercial” for 1.33 acres and “Medium Density Residential” for 1.33 acres. The purpose of the Comprehensive Plan Small Scale Land Use Map amendment is to amend the 1.33 acres of “Medium Density Residential” to “Low Intensity Commercial.” There has been a conceptual site plan submittal for a 4-story hotel of 51,945 square feet with 122 rooms. Based upon the existing split land use and zoning, both this Comprehensive Plan Small Scale Land Use Map amendment and a zoning map amendment would be required. There are also unused alleyways that will require a separate application for right-of-way vacations. The Planning Board reviewed the amendment at the March 14, 2024 meeting and recommended approval by a 6-0 vote. There were no individuals who spoke for or against the Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment.
Financial Impact:	None

Citizen Impact:	No citizen impact is expected as the result of this request. The area immediately behind the North U.S. corridor is a transition area where a hotel would be an appropriate use.
Recommended Action (Staff, Advisory Board and/or Other):	The Planning Board recommended APPROVAL of the Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for approximately 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Road, Volusia County Parcel Identification Numbers (3136-01-34-0220, 3136-01-01-0022, and 3136-0134-0140) from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial."

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is a request submitted by Ridge Land Holdings, LLC, and RCM Properties, LLC, property owners, for a Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for approximately 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Avenue, Volusia County Parcel Identification Numbers (3136-01-34-0220, 3136-01-01-0022, and 3136-0134-0140) from “Medium Density Residential” to “Low Intensity Commercial”. The property is within the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) area that contain land use conditions of a maximum of 8 units per acre and a maximum Floor Area Ratio that shall not exceed 0.50 for Retail and 0.55 for all other Nonresidential uses.

SECTION 2, BACKGROUND:

The subject property is a total of 2.66 acres with a split land use of “Low Intensity Commercial” for 1.33 acres and “Medium Density Residential” for 1.33 acres. The purpose of the Comprehensive Plan Small Scale Land Use Map amendment is to amend the 1.33 acres of “Medium Density Residential” to “Low Intensity Commercial”.

The subject property is within the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). The North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement between the City of Ormond Beach and the County of Volusia established a municipal service area designed to:

- Encourage intergovernmental coordination in planning, service delivery, and boundary adjustments;
- Reduce intergovernmental conflicts and litigation between local governments;
- Promotes sensible boundaries that reduce the costs of local governments;
- Avoid duplicating local services;
- Increase political transparency and accountability; and
- Prevent inefficient service delivery and an insufficient tax base to support the delivery of those services.

The City Commission adopted the original North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) on August 19, 2014 per Ordinance No. 2014-27. Volusia County Council adopted the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement on August 21, 2014 by Volusia County Ordinance No. 2014-12. Ordinance 2015-05 established the land use amendments for the ISBA and was adopted on January 20, 2015. As part of the land use map amendment adoption, a map annotation was included that limits density to eight (8) units per acre and a maximum floor area ratio of 0.50 for retail uses and 0.55 for all other non-residential uses. Ordinance 2015-13 established the city zoning designations for properties within the ISBA and was approved on April 7, 2015.

There has been a conceptual site plan submittal for a four-story hotel of 51,945 square feet with 122 rooms. Based upon the existing split land use and zoning, both this Comprehensive Plan Small Scale Land Use Map amendment and a zoning map amendment would be required. There are also unused alleyways that will require a separate application for right-of-way vacations.

Existing Land Use, "Low Intensity Commercial" – 1.33 acres:

The City of Ormond Beach Comprehensive Plan provides the directive text for the existing City land use of "Low Intensity Commercial" that states the following:

> Purpose: A multi-use land use category to depict those areas of the city that are now developed, or appropriate to be developed, for retail, office and professional services, residential, and restaurants consistent with the surrounding uses, transportation facilities and natural resource characteristics of such areas. For projects that propose a mixture of residential and non-residential uses, the minimum FAR should be 0.2.
> Density: Maximum 10 units per acre.
> Maximum FAR: 0.6

Policy 9.1.4. of the Future Land Use Element of the Comprehensive Plan contains table 4 that provides land use map annotations as follows:

- Low Intensity Commercial (LIC): Density shall not exceed 8 dwelling units per acre. Maximum FAR shall not exceed 0.50 for Retail or 0.55 for all other Nonresidential uses.

Existing Land Use, "Medium Density Residential" – 1.33 acres:

The City of Ormond Beach Comprehensive Plan provides the directive text for the existing City land use of "Medium Density Residential" that states the following:

> Purpose: To allow a variety of highly aesthetic dwelling units, encouraging the establishment of recreation areas and open space and discouraging look-alike rows of dwellings. MDR also allows the development of relatively low-density duplex, townhouse and multi-family projects which emphasize open space and maintain a low profile, thus maximizing the compatibility with single-family areas. Institutional uses may be permitted in accordance with the maximum floor area ratio.
>
> Density: Minimum 5-12 units per acre except in the Downtown Community Redevelopment Area where 5 - 15 units shall be allowed.
> Maximum FAR: 0.3

Proposed Land Use, ""Low Intensity Commercial" – 2.66 acres:

The City of Ormond Beach Comprehensive Plan provides the directive text for the existing City land use of "Low Intensity Commercial" that states the following:

> Purpose: A multi-use land use category to depict those areas of the city that are now developed, or appropriate to be developed, for retail, office and professional services, residential, and restaurants consistent with the surrounding uses, transportation facilities and natural resource characteristics of such areas. For projects that propose a mixture of residential and non-residential uses, the minimum FAR should be 0.2.
> Density: Maximum 10 units per acre.
> Maximum FAR: 0.6

Policy 9.1.4. of the Future Land Use Element of the Comprehensive Plan contains table 4 that provides land use map annotations as follows:

- Low Intensity Commercial (LIC): Density shall not exceed 8 dwelling units per acre. Maximum FAR shall not exceed 0.50 for Retail or 0.55 for all other Nonresidential uses.

Application process: The proposed land use amendment schedule of the subject property is as follows:

EXHIBIT 1: Tentative land use map amendment schedule:

Action	Date
Planning Board	March 14, 2024
City Commission, 1st Reading	April 16, 2024
City Commission, 2nd Reading	May 7, 2023

After City action, the application is required to be submitted to the Volusia County Growth Management Commission (VGMC) to allow review by other Volusia County jurisdictions. The amendment would also be transmitted to the Department of Florida Commerce.

The following public notices have or are required to occur:

The project information has also been posted on the city website under the Planning Department at: (1) Development Reports, https://www.ormondbeach.org/247/Development-Projects and (2) Public Hearing Advertisements and Notices, https://www.ormondbeach.org/1000/Public-Hearing-Advertisements-and-Notice.

SECTION 3, ANALYSIS:

The application seeks an amendment from a commercial land use designation to a commercial land use designation with the goal of constructing a hotel (transient lodging) use.

Policy 2.5.2. of the Future Land Use Element of the Comprehensive Plan provides the criteria listed below to review land use amendments:

1. Whether the future land use amendment is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan Goals, Objectives and Policies.

The Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area contains both commercial and industrial areas. The change to a commercial use is consistent with the city's Comprehensive Plan. The amendment is consistent with the goal, objective, and policies of the Future land Use Element as shown below:

GOAL 1. LAND USE DISTRIBUTION

FUTURE DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES SHOULD BE DIRECTED IN APPROPRIATE AREAS AS DEPICTED ON THE FUTURE LAND USE MAP TO MEET THE LAND USE NEEDS OF THE ANTICIPATED POPULATION, IN A MANNER CONSISTENT WITH SOUND PLANNING PRINCIPLES, THE GOALS, OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES CONTAINED HEREIN, AND THE DESIRED COMMUNITY CHARACTER.

THE FUTURE LAND USE ELEMENT SHOULD ALLOW LIMITED COMMERCIAL EXPANSION, PROMOTE INDUSTRIAL USE, AND MAINTAIN CURRENT RESIDENTIAL DENSITIES IN THE CORE AREA WHILE ESTABLISHING LOWER DENSITIES IN THE PERIMETER AREAS, FOCUSING REDEVELOPMENT IN THE DOWNTOWN COMMUNITY REDEVELOPMENT AREA, US1, AND SRA1A, AND PROVIDING A CONTINUED HIGH LEVEL OF OPEN SPACE. FUTURE GROWTH SHALL BE TIMED AND LOCATED TO MAXIMIZE EXISTING PUBLIC INFRASTRUCTURE.

2. Whether the proposed plan amendment meets the criteria established in the Florida Statutes.

In accordance with Chapter 163.3187(1), Florida Statutes, any local government Comprehensive Plan amendments directly related to proposed small-scale development activities may be approved without regard to statutory limits on the frequency of consideration of amendments to the local Comprehensive Plan. A small-scale development amendment may be adopted only under the following conditions:

a. The proposed amendment involves a use of 50 acres or fewer.

The subject property is 2.66± acres (less than 50 acres).

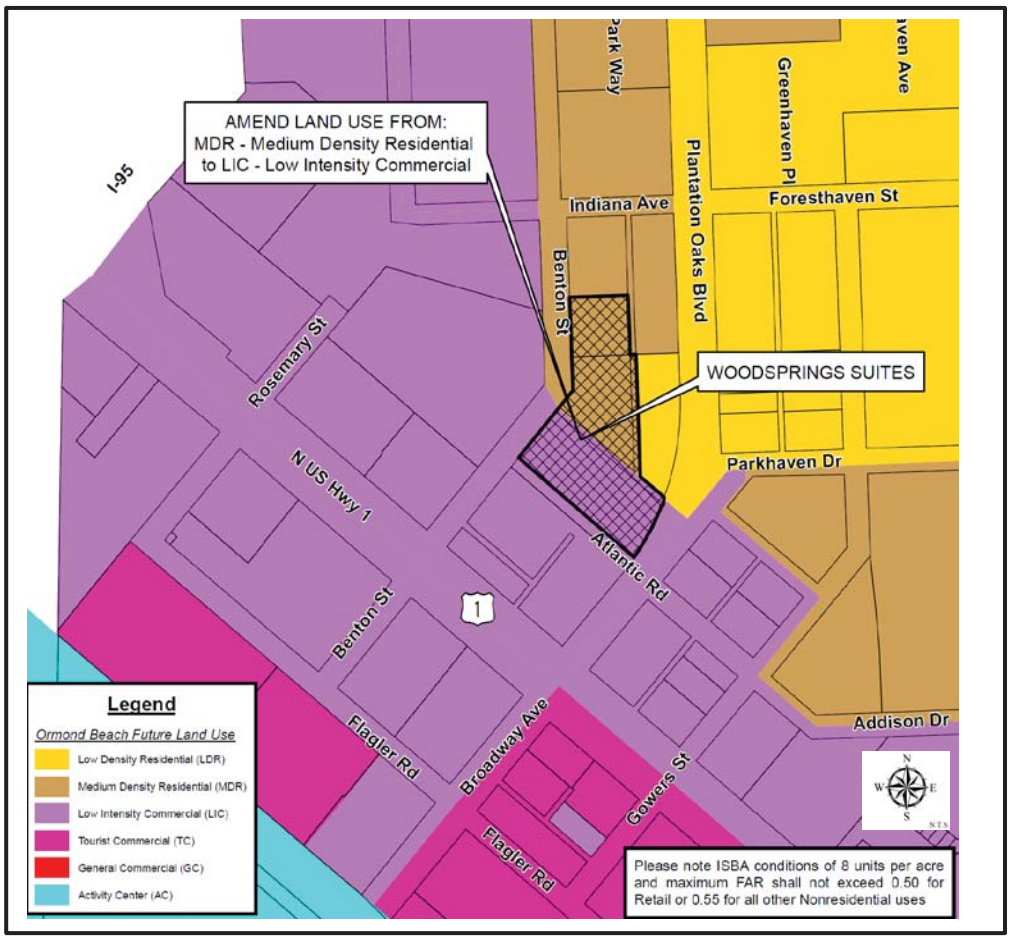
b. The proposed amendment does not involve a text change to the goals, policies, and objectives of the local government's Comprehensive Plan, but only proposes a land use change to the future land use map for a site-specific small-scale development activity. However, text changes that relate directly to, and are adopted simultaneously with, the small-scale future land use map amendment shall be permissible under this section.

The proposed amendment is solely for the Future Land Use Map and does not propose any text amendments to the City's Comprehensive Plan.

c. The property that is the subject of the proposed amendment is not located within an area of critical state concern, unless the project subject to the proposed amendment involves the construction of affordable housing units meeting the criteria of s. 420.0004(3), and is located within an area of critical state concern designated by s. 380.0552 or by the Administration Commission pursuant to s. 380.05(1).

This criterion is not applicable as the site location is not located within an area of state critical concern.

3. Whether the land use is an appropriate use of the land.



Commercial land use designations exist to the west and east and south across North U.S. Highway 1. The conceptual use of a hotel is consistent with the North U.S. Highway 1 corridor. Additionally, the land area is too far off the North U.S. 1 right-of-way to support a commercial use. The hotel use at four stories would likely be visible to the U.S. 1 corridor without needing the direct frontage other commercial uses would require. The use is also a good transition from the commercial uses along U.S. 1 to the proposed residential uses (duplexes, townhomes, and single-family) further to the north along Plantation Oaks Boulevard.

The adjacent land use designations and zoning classifications are shown in Exhibit 3 and the Existing Future Land Use designations are shown in Exhibit 4 below:

EXHIBIT 3: Land use and zoning designations:

Land Use and Zoning Designations of Adjacent Property
	Current Land Uses	Existing Future Land Use Designation	Existing Zoning Classifications
North	Vacant Residential – Townhomes proposed	“Medium Density Residential”	R-4, Single-Family Cluster & Townhouse
South	RaceTrac gas station & Dunkin Donuts	“Low Intensity Commercial”	B-7, Highway Tourist Commercial
West	Vacant	“Low Intensity Commercial”	B-7, Highway Tourist Commercial
East	Plantation Oaks stormwater pond & RidgeHaven subdivision	“Low Density Residential” & “Medium Density Residential”	PRD, Planned Residential Development

EXHIBIT 4: Existing Future Land Use map for the area:

4. Whether there is adequate infrastructure to serve the proposed land use.

The analysis of infrastructure needs for a comprehensive plan amendment is different from a concurrency review for a site plan. The impact analysis examines the maximum expected impacts of the current designation versus the requested designation based on a preliminary development scenario. This analysis is not meant to replace or contradict the findings of a Concurrency Management Review. However, the relative differences between designations can provide useful information in the long-range planning process. The analysis is based on 2.66 acres with the existing land use of "Low Intensity Commercial" and "Medium Density Residential" the proposed land use of "Low Intensity Commercial" for the entire parcel.

EXHIBIT 5: Impact analysis:

Property acreage = 2.66 acres
Allowed entitlements	Existing LIC & MDR land use	Proposed LIC land use
Maximum density (residential) units per acre*	8	8
Maximum density (residential)	20 units	20 units
Maximum floor area ratio*	0.55 & 0.30	0.55
Maximum building square footage (SF)	49,245 SF	63,728 SF

*Based upon map annotations in the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area

The maximum number of residential uses of 20 units would remain unchanged with the land use amendment. The proposed land use would allow a maximum building size of 63,728 square feet.

EXHIBIT 6: Water and Sewer impact analysis:

Existing
Land Use	Water (gallons per day)	Sewer (gallons per day)
"Low Intensity Commercial" & "Medium Density Residential"	7,387	6,279
Proposed
Land Use	Water (gallons per day)	Sewer (gallons per day)
"Low Intensity Commercial"	9,559	8,125
INCREASE	+2,172	+1,846

Notes:

- Commercial/Industrial water = (square feet/100) X 15 gallons of water per day
- Commercial/Industrial sewer = Water gallons per day X 85%

The existing wastewater treatment plant is currently permitted for a rated capacity of 8 million Gallons per Day (MGD) for wastewater influent flow from the sanitary sewer collection system. The most recent annual period average daily flow to the facility is 4.98 MGD. The most recent annual period average daily treated effluent flow for reuse customers is 3.30 MGD. Approved development projects proposed, 0.58 MGD for wastewater treatment added with current wastewater plant flow is estimated at 5.56 MGD at build out. The plant capacity remaining is 2.44 MGD if all approved projects are built out. The LOS for sanitary sewer continues to be met.

The City operates a single water treatment plant having a permitted and rated capacity remaining at 12 million Gallons per Day (MGD). The existing demand for water uses during the most recent annual period is 5.50 MGD. When the proposed projects of 0.55 for the city's service area are added to the existing demand, the total is 6.05 MGD. There is a remaining capacity of 5.95 MGD if all approved projects are built out. The LOS for potable water service continues to be met.

Traffic:

Below is a theoretical review of traffic impacts.

EXHIBIT 7: Traffic impact analysis:

Existing
Land Use	ITE land use category	Trip Generation
"Low Intensity Commercial"	#820, Shopping Center	37.01
"Medium Density Residential"	#565, Day Care	47.62
Total existing land use average daily trips		1,900
Proposed
Land Use	ITE land use category	Trip Generation
"Low Intensity Commercial"	#310, Hotel	7.99 per room
Total proposed land use average daily trips		998 (see application)
	NET REDUCTION	902

The traffic impacts were performed based upon the known use of the hotel with the project engineer providing a trip generation sheet based on the ITE Trip Generation Manual, 11th Edition. The most intensive use would likely by a retail use, using the trip generation of a Shopping Center (#820). Assuming a 0.50 FAR, the maximum building square footage would be 57,934 resulting in 2,144 average daily trips or an increase of 244 average daily trips in the most intensive scenario.

Traffic capacity exists for the proposed change of the land use from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial" for a 1.33-acre portion of the property.

Stormwater Management: The site development of each land development area has designed a stormwater management system.

Solid Waste: Solid waste provision would be addressed at the time of site development.

Schools: The proposed amendment does not increase the residential uses allowed.

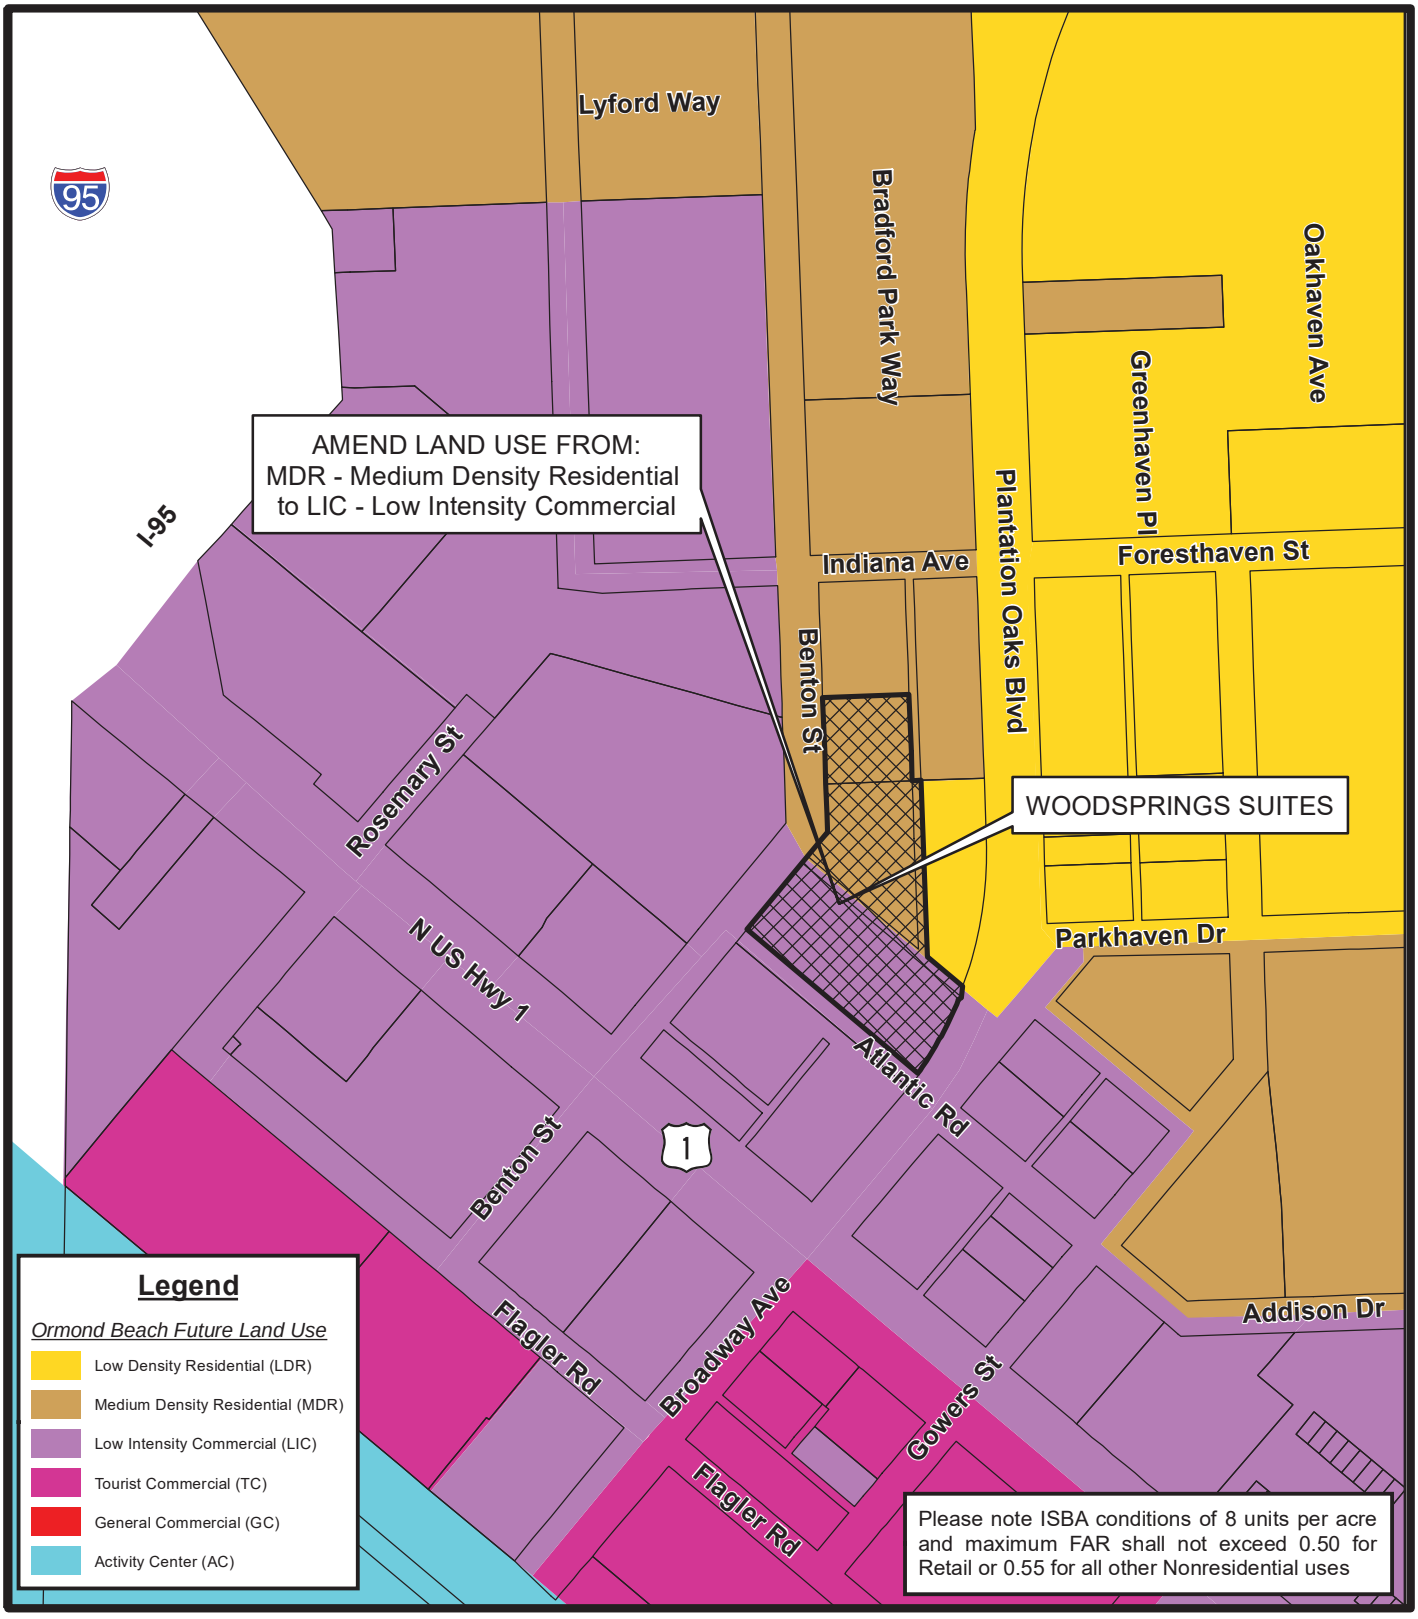
Recreation: Ormond Beach has approximately 602 acres of parkland and facilities and the proposed amendment would have no impact on the city recreation level of service. Based on a city population of 44,671 acres and a required 13 acres of parkland per 1,000 residents, 580.72 acres of parkland is required. The city is in the process of acquiring 901 Airport Road to add an additional 18.60 acres of parkland.

Other Services: City police and fire protection services serve this area. The parcel is located within an approximate 4-5-minute response time from emergency facilities. There is no impact to other city services.

5. Whether the proposed map amendment impacts surrounding jurisdictions.

The proposed land use amendment is not expected to impact surrounding jurisdictions. The property is within the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area.

SECTION 4, RECOMMENDATION:



It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for an approximately 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Avenue, Volusia County Parcel Identification Numbers (3136-01-34-0220, 3136-01-01-0022, and 3136-0134-0140) from “Medium Density Residential” to “Low Intensity Commercial”.

REQUEST STATEMENT

Germana Engineering & Associates, LLC proposes a rezone and small comprehensive plan amendment application on behalf of the property owner, RCM Properties, LLC.

The applicant requests a rezone to a PBD, to allow up to 51,945 square feet (122 rooms) of hotel/motel use with 4 habitable stories. A site plan is provided in the submission documents. The applicant intends to connect the proposed development to existing central potable water and sanitary sewer service.

AMENDED SITE DESCRIPTION

The total project area consists of (3) parcels. Alt Key # 7075971, 2470020, 6814767. The existing alleys will be vacated, and the vacated lands will become part of the subject property. Therefore, the existing alleys need to be included in the rezone and land use amendment. A boundary survey of the subject property and a sketch and description of the alleyways have been included in the supplemental documents. Separate legal descriptions are provided for the survey and sketch and description of the alleyways.

EXISTING AND PROPOSED USES

The existing zoning classification is B-7 (1.33 ± acres) and R-4 (1.33 ± acres). A rezone to PBD is requested to allow for the transient lodging development. The existing future land use is LIC (1.33 ± acres) and MDR (1.33 ± acres). The MDR needs to be amended to allow for transient lodging.

LAND USE COMPATABILITY

The proposed tourist oriented hotel development is located near the highway interchange and the rezone and small scale comprehensive plan amendment should satisfy the general intent of the City of Ormond Beach comprehensive plan. The development will have appropriate buffers to adjacent lands as specified in the land development code.

The proposed use, hotel/motel, is appropriate at the proposed location and is compatible with existing and planned uses in the surrounding area. The project will provide sufficient access to support the proposed development intensity.

The intended development will not have an adverse impact on surrounding land uses.

SERVICES AND FACILITIES

POTABLE WATER

An existing 8” water main stub is available for connection southwest of Atlantic Road. A utility availability letter is included in the supplemental documents to illustrate capacity of available for the proposed hotel use.

TRAFFIC IMPACT STATEMENT

As shown within the attached site plan, the proposed Woodsprings Suites hotel is located within the City of Ormond Beach. The proposed project consists of a 51,945 square foot (4 story) hotel with 122 rooms.

Trip generation potential for the proposed development was calculated based upon equations contained in the ITE Trip Generation Manual, 11th Edition. Based on land use code, 310, for a hotel with 122 rooms, Table 1 identifies the projected trip generation for this project. No internal capture or pass-by was assumed in the trip generation calculations.

The proposed development has the potential to generate 998 daily trips, 73 PM peak hour trips, 37 entering, and 36 exiting. Table 1 illustrates the trip generation calculations for the site.

RE: Water and Sewer Service Availability for Parcel 3136-01-34-0140

Dear Ms. Heiny,

The City of Ormond Beach is the utility provider for the above referenced parcel. Our records indicate this property is at the southeast corner of Atlantic Rd. and Benton St. Water and irrigation service can be provided from an 8" water main located on the west side of Atlantic Rd. There is also a 12" water main on Plantation Oaks Blvd. that runs along the south property line.

There is no gravity sanitary sewer service available for this property. There is a 4" force main on the west side of Atlantic Rd. and an 8" force main on the south side of Plantation Oaks Blvd. A lift station would need to be constructed from the property to the force main.

This letter does not obligate the City to provide service without payment of all applicable utility service and connection fees and compliance with all applicable City codes.

If you should need any further clarification, please feel free to contact me at (386) 676-3305.

Sincerely,

Robert C Preis Jr.

DRAFT

Planning Board minutes from March 14, 2024

ITEM:

PZ-2024-015

Comprehensive Plan Amendment, Land Use Map

Resolution 2023-109. Mr. Spraker stated that the project is under construction. He stated the final plat is a legal document to subdivide land after constructing improvements or posting a performance bond. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat was reviewed by the SPRC, City Attorney's Office, and the City Surveyor. He concluded that the SPRC recommends approval of the final plat.

Mr. Spraker stated that the project was awarded an Outstanding Sustainability Initiative from the Surfcoast Chapter of the Florida Planning and Zoning Association in December 2023.

Board Discussion and Questions

Mr. du Moulin asked if the irrigation for the subdivision was drawn from the stormwater pond. Mr. Spraker confirmed that was correct. Mr. du Moulin asked if the stormwater pond was not adequate if there is a secondary well. Mr. Spraker stated that this is correct and there is a well to supplement the stormwater pond if necessary.

Mr. Galloway stated there are a lot of homes getting ready to be built in this area.

Board Recommendation

Chairman Thomas opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Scudiero motioned to approve PZ 2024-009, RidgeHaven Subdivision, Final Plat. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

F. PZ 2024-015, Woodsprings Suites, Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map Amendment

Mr. Spraker stated that this is a request for a Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map amendment for an approximate 1.33 acres located at Benton Street and Atlantic Avenue, from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial". He reviewed the process for a land use amendment that includes: (1) review by Planning staff, (2) Planning Board review and recommendation, (3) City Commission action and if approved (4) transmittal to the Volusia County Growth Management Commission and Department of Florida Commerce.

Mr. Spraker reviewed the proposed Future Land Use Map with the amendment. He stated that the map amendment sought to go from "Medium Density Residential" to "Low Intensity Commercial". He stated that the goal of the application is to make the entire project a "Low Intensity Commercial" land use designation in order to construct a hotel. Mr. Spraker reviewed the uses in the area including U.S. Highway 1 and stated the subject property was in a transitional area where a hotel would be appropriate. He continued that the property is within the North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) area that contains land use conditions of a maximum of 8 units per acre and a maximum Floor Area Ratio that shall not exceed 0.50 for retail and 0.55 for all other nonresidential uses. Mr. Spraker concluded that staff recommended approval of the land use amendment application.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull inquired about the allowed residential density. Mr. Spraker confirmed that a hotel would be reviewed based upon the Floor Area Ratio. He stated that the residential density would apply to single-family houses, townhomes or multi-family uses. Mr. Spraker noted that the project would need a right-of-way (ROW) vacation and a zoning map amendment to Planned Business Development.

Mr. du Moulin asked if the applicant agreed to install a lift station. Mr. Spraker stated that the project is not that far yet and this is a land use map amendment. He stated the application changes colors on a map and determines the appropriateness of a use category. Mr. Spraker stated that there is no site plan with this application and speculated that the project would construct a private lift station. Mr. du Moulin questioned if the applicant would be responsible for that. Mr. Spraker confirmed that the lift station and sewer service is the responsibility of the applicant.

Mr. Galloway inquired to a parcel next to the amendment area. Mr. Spraker confirmed that this area is part of the Benton Street right-of-way.

Board Recommendation

Chairman Thomas opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Jorczak motioned to approve PZ 2024-015, Woodsprings Suites, Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map Amendment. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

G. PZ 2024-016, 7-Eleven Electronic Changeable Copy Signage, 3 North Yonge Street, Special Exception

Ms. Cushing stated that this a request submitted for a Special Exception to allow two (2) electronic changeable copy signs for the retail prices of gasoline at the 7-Eleven convenience store located at 3 North Yonge Street per Section 3-47(G). She stated that there are no other site or building improvements proposed. Ms. Cushing reviewed the development order review process for the Special Exception that included (1) Planning staff review, (2) Planning Board review and recommendation, and (3) City Commission action. She stated that this process is applied to the following two 7-Eleven applications.

Ms. Cushing stated that electronic changeable copy signage for the retail display of gasoline is allowed as a Special Exception. She stated that the application is a face change to modify the manual changeable copy to electronic changeable copy signage. Ms. Cushing stated that the application complies with Section 3-47(G) of the LDC and staff recommended approval of the application.

Board Discussion and Questions

Mr. Jorczak asked staff if the proposed signs would be increased in size.

Ms. Cushing responded that they are simply doing a face change to remove the manual changeable copy sign area to electronic changeable copy sign. She confirmed that there will be no increase in the sign size and the proposed electronic changeable copy area will meet the requirements of Section 3-47(G).

AGENDA ITEM

Number: 9.D

Section:	PUBLIC HEARINGS
Item Category:	Public Hearing - Ordinances	Res./Ord. No:	2024-8
Strategic Goal:	Transportation & Community Development - Other
Department:	Planning & Building
Subject:	Comprehensive Plan Amendments, Water Supply Work Plan
Summary:	This is an administrative request to amend the Comprehensive Plan related to the Water Supply Work Plan, including text amendments to the (1) Utilities Element, (2) Conservation Element, and (3) Capital Improvements Element and adoption of the Water Supply Plan as Appendix A to the Utilities Element. Florida Statutes require local jurisdictions, Sections 373.709 and 163.3177(6)(c)3, to update their water supply work plan within 18 months after their water management district approves an updated regional water supply plan. The overall purpose of this Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is to summarize the City of Ormond Beach's current water supply, water treatment, and effluent disposal methods, along with projecting future water demands based upon anticipated development projects scheduled to occur over the next 10 years. The City is working towards meeting the projected water demands and the requirements of Senate Bill 64, which dictates the elimination of nonbeneficial surface water discharge. The City has selected a multi-tiered planning period for this document. Flows are projected, and capital projects are planned through 2033, representing a 10 year time horizon. The identified infrastructure improvement timeframes within this report are categorized by the following planning periods: Short Term (0-2 years), Intermediate (3-5 years), and Long Term (5-10 years). This categorization is aimed at creating an implementation schedule for the City. Actual implementation of recommended projects would occur yearly through adopting the Capital Improvement Plan. The Planning Board reviewed the proposed Comprehensive Plan amendments at the April 11, 2024 meeting and recommended approval by a 6-0 vote. There were no individuals who spoke for or against the proposed amendments.

Financial Impact:	The proposed amendments have no direct financial impact. The capital funding schedule is part of the adopted Capital Improvement Plan.
Citizen Impact:	State law requires the Water Supply Work Plan Comprehensive Plan amendments to ensure capital planning of water supply and coordination with the water management district. No citizen impacts are expected.
Recommended Action (Staff, Advisory Board and/or Other):	The Planning Board recommended APPROVAL of the proposed Water Supply Work Plan Comprehensive Plan amendments to the City Commission. If approved on the first reading, the amendments would be transmitted to state agencies, the Volusia County Growth Management Commission, and abutting cities for review and comments. The second reading of the Ordinance will occur after the review comments are received.

WATER SUPPLY WORK PLAN UPDATES TO COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

Utilities Element

POLICY 1.2.5

The City will implement the traditional and alternative water supply projects ~~scheduled for completion by 2013~~ as identified in the Water Supply ~~w~~Work Plan.

POLICY 1.2.6.
The City will expand its reclaimed water system in accordance with the 2015 Utility Master Plan and subsequent updates in an effort to improve water quality throughout the region. The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge.

POLICY 1.7.2.
Projected demands ~~through the year 2015~~ shall be met by undertaking those projects as identified in the Capital Improvements Element.

POLICY 5.2.1.
The City shall maintain a ~~w~~Water ~~s~~Supply ~~facilities w~~Work ~~p~~Plan that is coordinated with St. Johns River Water Management District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Work Plan by updating the work plan within 18 months of an update to the District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan that affects the City.

POLICY 5.2.2.
The City will participate in the development of updates to St. Johns River Water Management District's water supply assessment and ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan and other water supply development-related initiatives facilitated by the District's that affect the City.

POLICY 5.2.3.
The City's Water Supply Work Plan is incorporated into the Comprehensive Plan as Appendix A of the Utilities Element. The City will implement the Water Supply Work Plan through the annual Capital Improvement Plan process.

POLICY 5.3.2.
Potable water supplies shall be conserved to the maximum extent practicable through the continued implementation of water conservation techniques and programs. Such techniques and programs may include, but are not limited to:

a. The City shall ~~work through the Water Authority of Volusia (WAV)~~ continue to incentivize water conservation using low-flow showers and toilets, rain sensors for lawn irrigation, and xeriscape.

b. The City will continue to implement and expand its program to provide for water reuse and/or reclamation and where appropriate require effluent reuse for irrigation, industrial use and other appropriate non-potable water use applications.

c. The City shall require new development to install 'dry-lines' for reclaimed water distribution. Developments with greater than 100 units shall provide on-site storage and pumping, integrated with the stormwater management system. Under certain conditions, the developer may be allowed to contribute an equivalent value of the infrastructure into a reclaimed water construction fund.

d. The City shall ~~purchase a~~ continue its leak detection systems ~~by 2010~~ which will enable water distribution crews to monitor the entire City's water distribution system through the use of leak noise loggers.

Conservation Element

POLICY 1.2.7.

~~By the year 2010, the City shall develop a plan to further reduce the amount of treated effluent discharged to the Halifax River to 10% of the total volume of wastewater treated at the plant.~~

The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge.

POLICY 5.3.8.
The City shall reduce groundwater withdrawal through the utilization of a reclaimed water scheduling program as mentioned in section 2C of the 2023 Water Supply Plan. The reclaimed water schedule may be updated by the Utility Manager or Public Works Director as deemed necessary. Additionally, the City will continue to communicate the importance of watering conservation with its customers.

Capital Improvements Element

POLICY 1.3.2.

The City shall use the following level-of-service standards to determine the impacts of new development and redevelopment upon public facility provision:

a. Fire Fighting: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) unit per acre shall be served by a public/private central water system capable of delivering the required fire flows having adequate firefighting capacity of a minimum of 1,000 gpm or greater as determined by the Chief Fire Official in conjunction with the City Engineer or National Fire Protection Associates (NFPA) guidelines (or its equivalent where a sprinkler system is used) and minimum 20 psi residual for a minimum two- (2-) hour duration depending upon the specific structure and/or use. Single-family home development at less than one (1) unit per acre or less, or other development of equivalent intensity (e.g., average daily water use of less than 300 gpd per acre), may be served by an individual well. All required fire flows will be in addition to the peak daily demand established.

b. Parks (acres per population): 13 acres per 1,000 population

A capital facilities recovery fee to develop lands dedicated by developers to meet the acreage level of service standards shall be pursued. The recovery fee may be either assessed to the developer of the subdivision or the builder of the home in the form of an impact fee.

Subdivisions which provide private recreation lands and facilities shall be provided a credit against the land dedication and capital facilities recovery fee.

c. Roads: The following level-of-service standards are adopted for roadways Citywide:

	LOS Daily	LOS Peak Hour
City	C	D
County	D	E
State	C (SIS/FIHS)	D (TRIP)

d. Water:

Raw:	~~An average daily volume of 124 gallons of raw water per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 330 gallons per Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU).
Potable:	~~An annual average daily volume of 110 gallons per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 300 gallons per ERU.

Sewer:	An average daily volume of 270 gallons per ERU.
Reclaimed:	~~An average of daily volume of 600 GPD per ERU.~~ An average daily volume of 300 GPD per ERU.

Other uses water standards:

Types of Establishments*

Factories (with Showers or Chemicals)	0.1 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Factories (without Showers or Chemicals)	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
General Commercial / Office Buildings	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Gas Stations (no car wash)	1.5 ERU per bathroom
Hospitals	0.7 ERU per bed
Hotels and Motels	0.4 ERU per room
Movie theaters, auditoriums, churches	0.02 ERU per seat
Nursing Homes / A.L.F.	0.5 ERU per bed
Restaurants	0.15 ERU per seat
Single-Family residence	1.00 ERU per unit
Schools	0.05 ERU per seat
Townhouse residence	0.7 ERU per unit

*The Site Plan Review Committee will consider alternate flow rates for various establishments if the applicant/Engineer of Record can provide supporting documentation.

e. ~~Sanitary Sewer: An annual average daily volume of 281 gallons equivalent residential unit (ERU).~~

Sanitary Sewer Treatment: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) ERU per acre shall be served by a public/private wastewater treatment system capable of handling the projected design flows with an appropriate peak factor, as determined by the applicant or design professional. The peak factor shall not be less than 2.5. For developments having a density of less than one (1) ERU per acre, the applicant may elect to install a septic system provided that the applicant obtains an appropriate permit from the Volusia County Health Department and the City's existing gravity collection system is not within 200 feet of the proposed development.

f. Solid Waste:

Average residential pick-ups per truck.....	1,600
Average commercial pick-ups/truck/route	155
Average residential pick-ups/man/day.....	226
Pounds/capita/day for residential, commercial and industrial waste.....	5.69
Pounds/capita/day for special wastes.....	3

g. Drainage: The difference in the volume of run-off for 25 years frequency, 24-hour duration storm event between pre-development and post-development conditions shall be retained on-site. The difference between the pre-development and post-development conditions for peak run-off rates for the 100-year frequency, 24-hour duration rainfall event shall be retained on-site. Individual development facility capacity shall be maintained so that there is no potential flooding increase above the base year elevation. There shall be no degradation of water quality of Class III waters. An equal or greater volume of storage capacity must be created for any volume of the regulatory flood that would be displaced by fill or structures. The velocity of the regulatory flood must not be adversely altered on any watercourse.

Areas not filled are to generally be left in their natural state. However, such areas may be used to meet landscaping and/or retention requirements, provided that the design is consistent with the then-existing City standards and ordinance requirements. Fill limitations consistent with the Land Development Code and the performance standards for each wetland classification established by the Conservation Element shall be enforced for all developments lying within areas of special flood hazard, as defined by the 100-year floodplain boundaries of the FEMA FIRM maps.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 GENERAL

Chapters 163 and 373 of Florida Statutes create a link between a regional water supply adopted by the Saint John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD) and local government comprehensive plans. Florida Statutes require water management districts to prepare a water supply plan for a twenty-year planning period to ensure that existing water sources are adequate to meet projected water demand. Local governments within a regional water supply planning area must develop a Water Supply Work Plan (WSWP) to ensure that adequate water supply is available to meet future demands over a 10-year planning period.

The overall purpose of this Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is to summarize the City of Ormond Beach's current water supply, water treatment, and effluent disposal methods, along with projecting future water demands based upon anticipated development projects scheduled to occur over the next ten years. The city is working towards meeting the projected water demands and the requirements of Senate Bill 64, which dictates the elimination of nonbeneficial surface water discharge. The City has selected a multi-tiered planning period for this document. Flows are projected, and capital projects are planned through 2033, representing a ten (10) year time horizon. The identified infrastructure improvement timeframes within this report are categorized by the following planning periods: Short Term (0-2 years), Intermediate (3-5 years), and Long Term (5-10 years). This categorization is aimed at creating an implementation schedule for the City. Actual implementation of recommended projects would occur yearly through adopting the Capital Improvement plan. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan has been prepared in accordance with Sections 373.709 and 163.3177(6)(c)3 of the Florida Statutes. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan demonstrates adequate water supply over the next ten years to serve utility customers within the adopted utility service area. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is intended to facilitate discussions between the city and the Saint John's River Water Management District's (SJRWMD) governing board and other regional government agencies that the city could form partnerships with.

1.2 REQUIREMENTS OF THE WATER SUPPLY FACILITIES WORK PLAN

The Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (now known as Florida Commerce) published "A Guide to the Preparation of the Water Supply Facilities Work Plan" and provides the statutory requirements for water supply and facility planning as follows:

1. Coordinate appropriate aspects of their comprehensive plan with the appropriate water management district's regional water supply plan. [Section 163.3177(4)(a), F.S]
2. Revise the Potable Water Sub-Element to adopt a water supply facility work plan covering at least a 10-year planning period to meet existing and projected demand. The work plan should address those water supply facilities for which the local government is responsible and include the facilities needed to develop alternative water supplies. The work plan should also identify conservation and reuse measures to meet future needs. [Section 163.3177(6)(c), F.S]

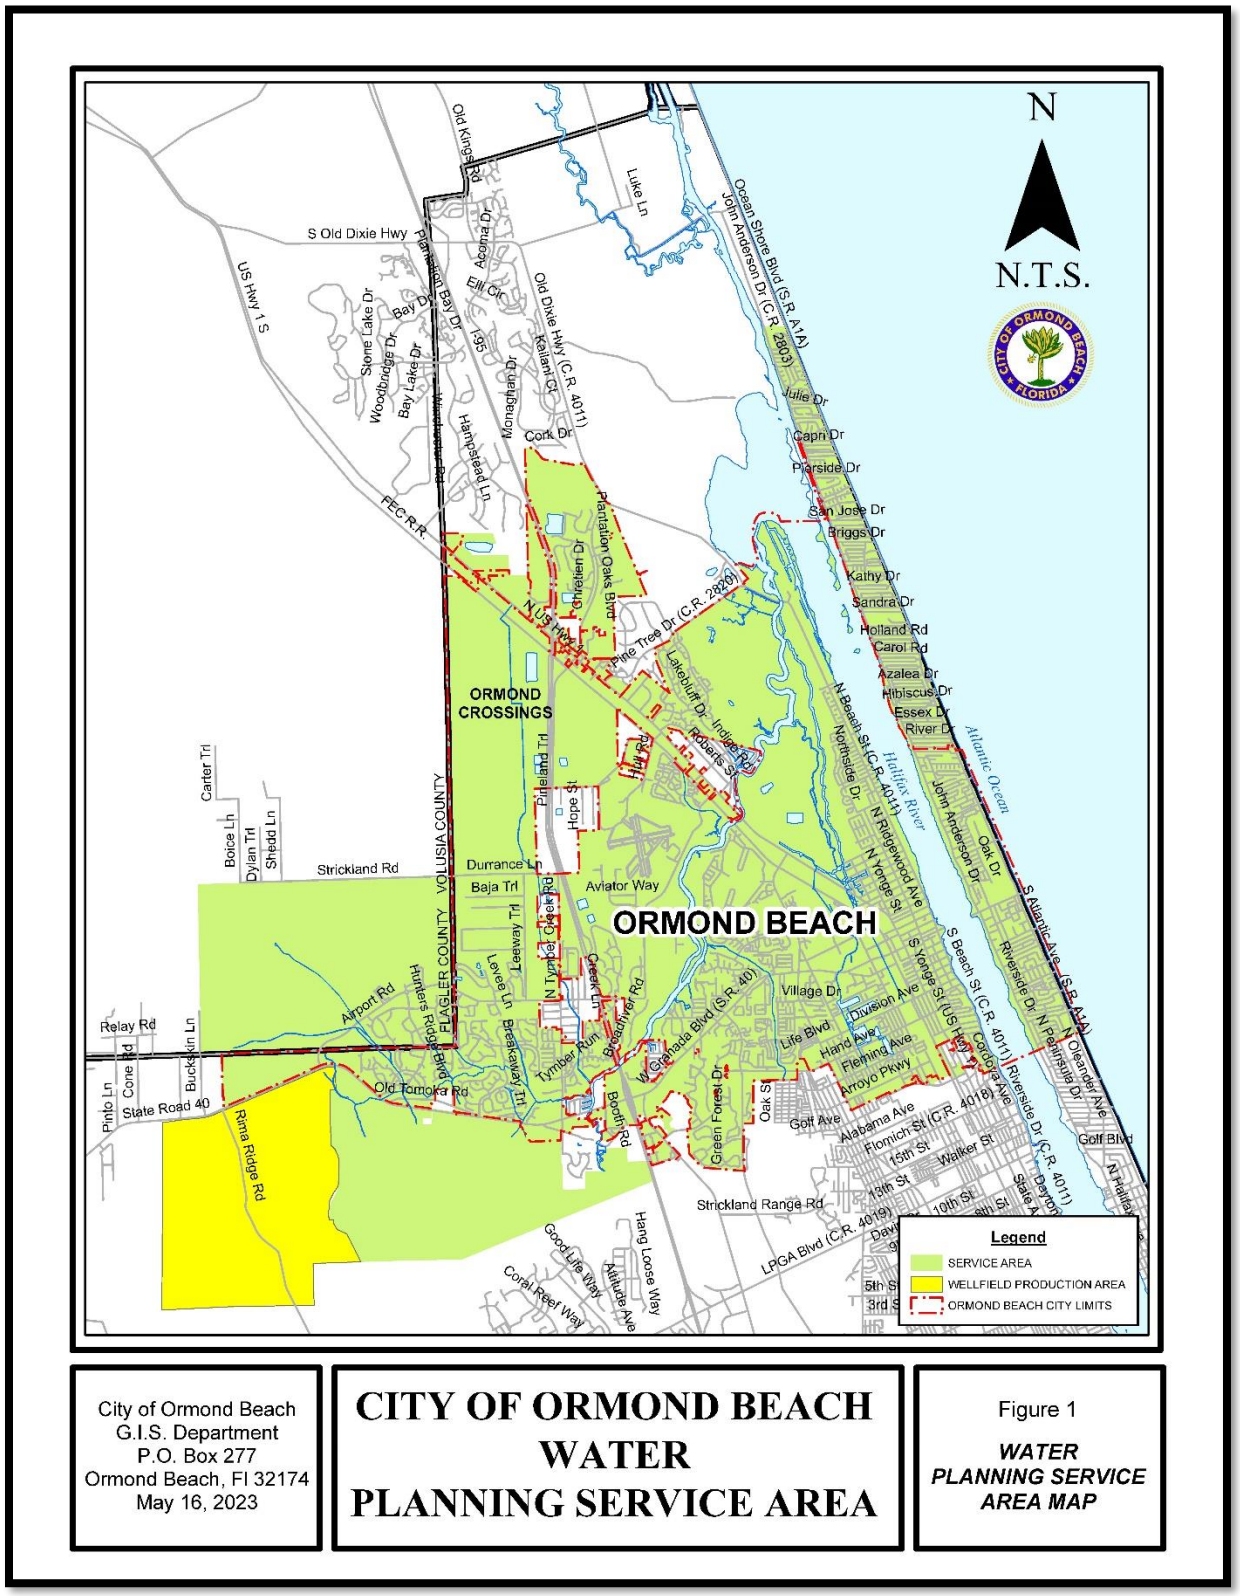
3. Revise the Conservation Element to assess current and projected water needs and sources for at least a 10-year planning period. The analysis must consider the existing levels of water conservation, use, and protection, as well as the applicable policies of the water management district and the district's approved regional water supply plan. Without an approved regional water supply plan, the analysis must consider the district's approved water management plan. [Section 163.3177(6)(d)3, F.S.]
4. Revise the Capital Improvements Element to identify capital improvements projects to be implemented in the first five years of the work plan for which the local government is responsible, including both publicly and privately funded water supply projects necessary to achieve and maintain adopted level of service standards; and adopt a 5-year schedule of capital improvements to include those projects as either funded or unfunded, and if unfunded, given a level of priority for funding [163.3177(3)(a)4, F.S.]
5. Revise the Intergovernmental Coordination Element to adopt principles and guidelines to coordinate the comprehensive plan with the regional water supply authority (If applicable) and the applicable regional water supply plan. [163.3177(6)(h)1, F.S.]
6. During the Evaluation and Appraisal review, determine if comprehensive plan amendments are necessary to reflect statutory changes related to water supply and facilities planning since the last update to the comprehensive plan. If required, transmit the amendments to incorporate the statutory changes as appropriate. [Section 163.3191(1) and (2), F.S.]

2. DATA AND ANALYSIS

2.1 SERVICE AREA

The City of Ormond Beach is in northeastern Volusia County, North of Daytona Beach and Holly Hill, and South of Flagler County. It has a municipal boundary encompassing approximately 38 square miles and a utility service area encompassing approximately 57 square miles. The city provides potable water service to residential, retail, commercial, and industrial customers throughout its service area. The City currently has approximately 56,000 potable water customers. In addition to the corporate limits of the City of Ormond Beach, the utility service area includes:



1. The North Peninsula Water District: This area includes portions of unincorporated Volusia County, including Ormond by the Sea;
2. Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County Development of Regional Impact (DRI): The City of Ormond Beach and Flagler County entered into an interlocal agreement for the provision by the City of water and wastewater services to that portion of the Hunter's Ridge Development of Regional Impact that is located in the unincorporated territory of Flagler County (Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County DRI

Service Area), said interlocal agreement having been amended on November 16, 2009, and recorded at Book 6421, pages 2821-2829 in the Public Records of Volusia County, Florida; and

3. West Ormond Utilities District that includes lands within the City of Daytona Beach. This area contains multiple land areas including the Chelsea Place subdivision, Pineland subdivision, lands west of Tymber Creek Road, including Hunter's Ridge, Breakaway Trails, and a land area within the City of Daytona Beach. In 2006, Ormond Beach and Daytona Beach each approved a Settlement Agreement that governs the portion of the Ormond Beach utility service area within the City of Daytona Beach. The Settlement Agreement incorporates four interrelated documents: (1) a Second Amended Water and Sewer Service Area Agreement; (2) an Interlocal Wholesale and Wastewater Treatment Service Agreement; (3) an Interlocal Agreement for the Operation, Administration, and Maintenance of Finished Water Interconnects East [and West] of I-95; and (4) a Wholesale Water and Wastewater Rate Analysis by Black & Veatch.

2.2 EXISTING RAW WATER INFRASTRUCTURE

The City obtains its water supply to serve the utility service areas from four (4) separate wellfields. The wellfield names are as follows: Division, SR40, Hudson, and Rima Ridge. Within these four wellfields, 33 active primary and secondary groundwater production wells are drilled into the upper producing zones of the Floridan aquifer. Additionally, the City owns and operates three wells in the Breakaway (BAT) Trails wellfield region. These BAT wells are currently only being utilized for reclaimed augmentation purposes as needed. Table 1 Below is summarized current information regarding the city's wellfields and corresponding capacities. Three new wells were "proposed" for construction within the Hudson wellfield in the 2015 Master Plan and are included Table 1. These three new wells are currently in the design process and are scheduled to be constructed in 2024 as part of a capital improvement project.

Maximum Production (All Wellfields)						9,692

Utilizing the maximum production GPM value calculated within Table 1, the City can theoretically withdraw 9,692 GPM from the upper Floridan aquifer in its current condition. This flow rate translates to 13.9 million gallons per day (MGD). However, removing the BAT reclaimed augmentation wells from the equation results in a theoretical maximum production value of 8,992 GPM or roughly 12.9 MGD. This 12.9 MGD value is the City's current maximum production capability as of 2019. Figure 2 shows the approximate geographic location of wells throughout the City's service area.

2.3 EXISTING WATER QUALITY

The primary water quality concern for the City's existing wellfields is chloride levels. Table 2 summarizes the overall chloride levels for the Division and SR40 wellfields from 2015 to the middle of 2019. The Hudson, Rima Ridge, and BAT wellfields are not required to have their chlorides documented and recorded. Typical chloride levels are a concern and are considered elevated when they exceed 250 mg/L. As such, wells numbered 4D, 5D, 6D, 8D, and 16D have experienced 'high' levels of chlorides within the past few years. Having chloride levels exceeding 250 mg/L is not a critical concern because the city has a reverse osmosis membrane water treatment plant, but high chloride levels typically increase overall treatment, operating, and maintenance costs. As such, the city would like to reduce the overall usage of the wells above with higher chloride levels to the maximum extent allowable within their CUP limits during the renewal process.

Wells 18SR and 20SR are offline and need repairs or relocation. The city is working on re-establishing these wells soon. Having them back online will aid the City with raw water supply capacity and wellfield rotation and will likely help lower the measured chloride levels. The city intends to discuss these out-of-service wells with SJRWMD during their CUP renewal process.

2.4 EXISTING RAW WATER PIPING

The raw water transmission system comprises approximately 134,701 lineal feet, or approximately 25.5 miles, of various pipe sizes. Table 3 illustrates the estimated length of each type of material present throughout the raw water transmission system according to the latest GIS information. Figure 3 show a portion of the existing raw water main system in the western portion of the City's service area. The purpose of the raw water transmission piping system is to transfer all water withdrawn from the aquifer by the city's wells to the water treatment plant, where it can be treated and distributed to the city's potable customers.

2.5 EXISTING CONSUMPTIVE USE PERMIT STATUS

The City's current Consumptive Use Permit (CUP) was established in 2012 by the SJRWMD and is set to expire in 2024. Table 4 The chart shows the City's current permitted withdrawal limit and historical usage for past years through 2022. The City is currently in the process of renewing its CUP with the SJRWMD. SJRWMD is currently calibrating the Springs model, and the City looks forward to discussing the revised model with the management district.

2.6 HISTORIC RAW WATER USAGE

Historical raw water use data has been compiled from records kept by the City. Table 6 The data range from 2015 to 2022. The main point is that the City's raw water system has experienced peak day ratios up to 1.43 times the annualized average daily flow values.

2.7 EXISTING WATER TREATMENT SYSTEM

Once raw water is pulled from the upper Floridan aquifer from the City's wellfields, the water is transferred to the City's water treatment plant (WTP), which is treated and conditioned before entering the potable distribution system. The permitted capacity of the City's WTP is listed as 12.0 MGD. This 12.0 capacity is split between an 8.0 MGD lime softening process and a 4.0 MGD low-pressure reverse osmosis (LPRO) process, with both processes being at the same plant location. The physical address of the plant is 298 Tomoka Avenue. The lime softening process includes the following treatment processes: aeration, lime softening, recarbonation, filtration, and disinfection. The LPRO process consists of the following treatment processes: pre-treatment via cartridge filters, feed pumps, membrane skids, chlorine contact chambers, and transfer pumps. The LPRO plant has the advantage of treating raw water with higher chloride levels, but the treatment process requires sacrificing additional raw water. This sacrificed water is designated as a concentrate, which ultimately gets sent to the City's water reclamation facility (WRF) for blending with the City's reclaimed water. Figure 4 showcases the City's WTP process diagram.

The potable water distribution system primarily includes the following components:

- Four (4) inline booster pump stations
- Main plant storage tanks (2.5 MG Capacity split between two (2) tanks)
- Standish storage tank (1.0 MG Capacity)
- Leeway storage tank (1.0 MG Capacity)
- Approximately 370 miles of distribution piping

2.8 EXISTING RECLAIMED WATER INFRASTRUCTURE

The City operates a public-access reclaimed water system. The primary source of reclaimed water produced and distributed in the system is treated effluent generated at the City's Regional WRF at 550 North Orchard Street. The Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) regulates the system under the terms of operating permit # FL0020532.

The City's reclaimed water distribution system primarily includes the following components:

- WRF plant storage tanks (7.0 MG split between two tanks)
- WRF high-service pumping station
- A 2.0 MG storage tank and pump station at Breakaway Trails
- A 0.8 MG storage tank and pump station at Shadow Crossings
- One (1) inline booster station on Airport Road
- Approximately 75 miles of distribution piping

Table 7 showcases the City's average daily reclaimed water flow by month throughout the calendar year of 2022, with the yearly average daily flow into the WRF being 5.39 MGD. The showcased data is based on data recorded by WRF personnel. The primary item to note is that while the city has an annual average reuse rate of 80%, the overall reuse rate fluctuates from roughly 60% to nearly 100% based on the months or time of year. In essence, the city has enough reclaimed supply during the wetter (winter) months but generally does not have enough supply during the drier (summer) months. Additionally, the City does not currently have adequate storage capacity to allow for a more uniform year-round distribution of reclaimed demand. As such, the city is forced to discharge the excess reclaimed water to the Halifax River during periods of low usage, both during the non-growing season (Oct-March) and during periods of high rainfall.

Table 7: 2022 Historical Reuse Flows

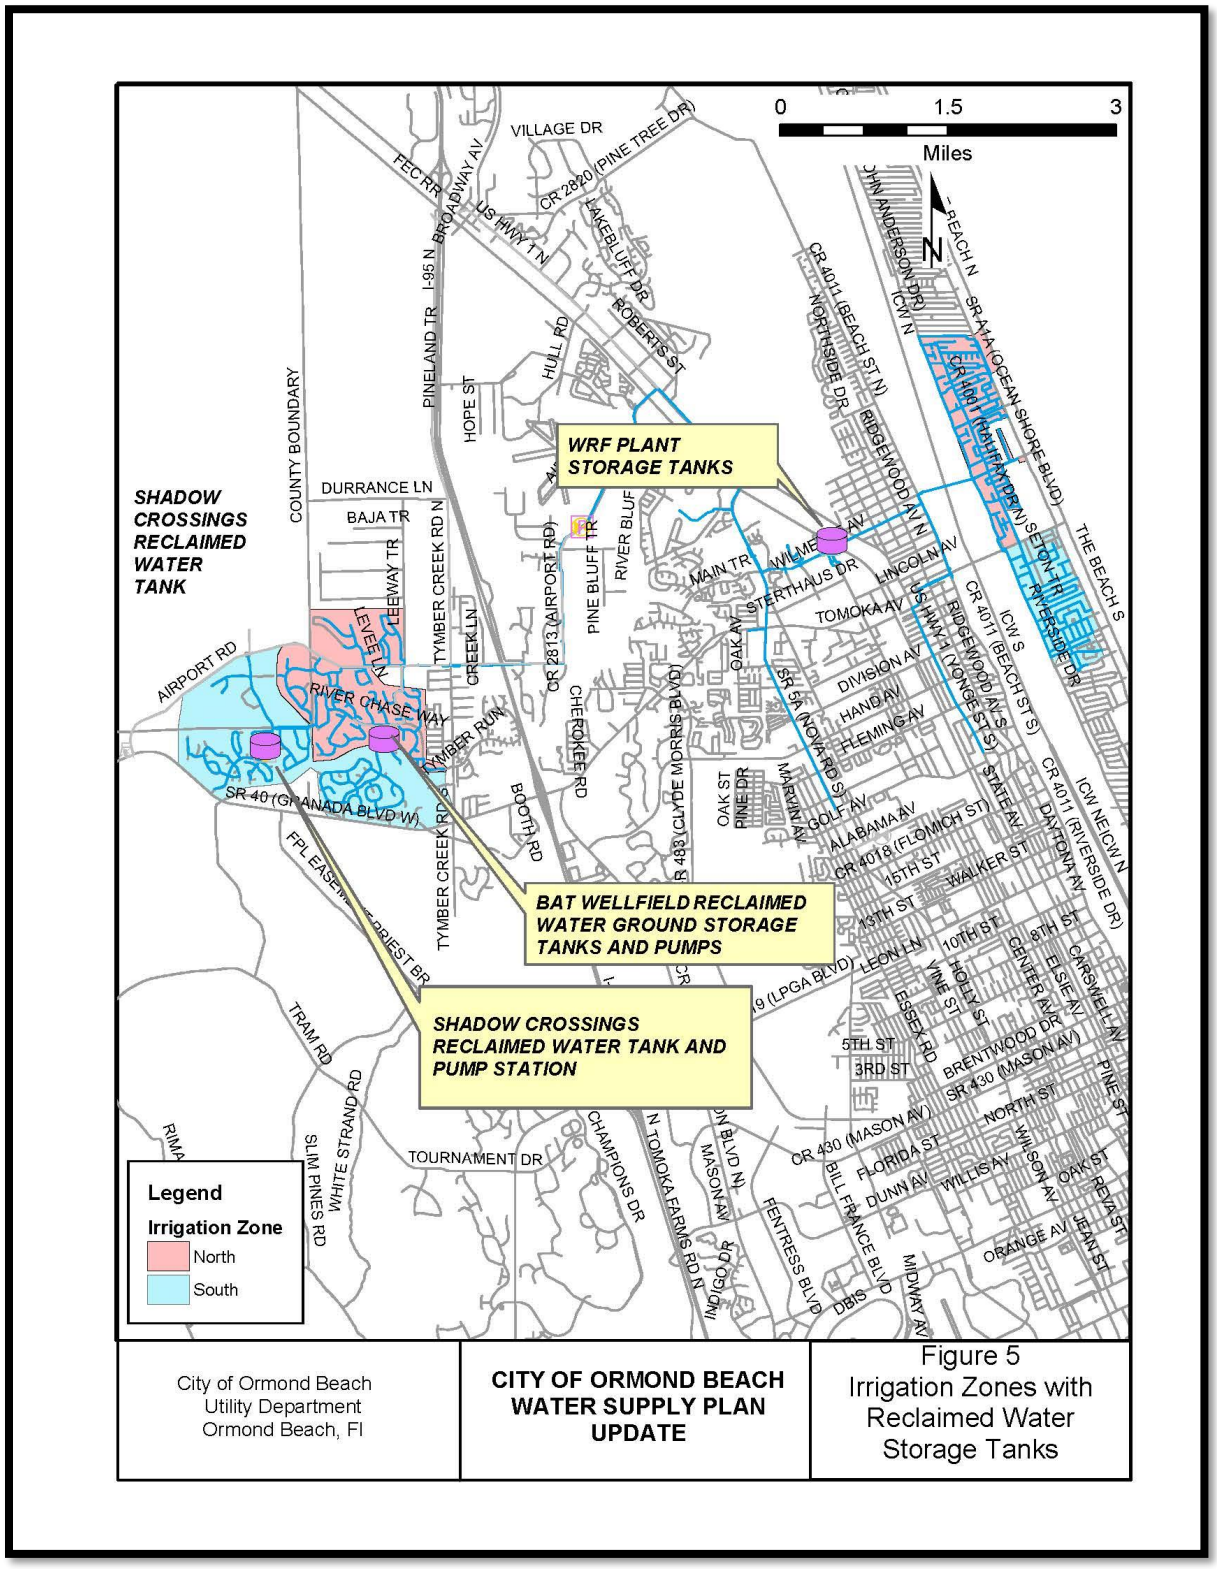
Other sources of reclaimed water, aside from treated effluent, include:

- Concentrate from the City's WTP RO process: Approx. 0.5-1.0 MGD
- Holly Hill reclaimed interconnect: Approx. 0.5-1.0 MGD
- Five (5) irrigation wells in the Hudson Wellfield (turned on as needed)



2.9 RECLAIMED WATER SCHEDULING

City ordinances state that under normal conditions, irrigation may only occur between 4 PM and 10 AM. Available reclaimed water, however, is generally fully utilized on most nights, especially during the drier months in the early growing season. During these peak irrigation periods, the city regularly runs out of reclaimed water before 10 AM, showcasing the city's current reclaimed water schedule. Conceptually, the schedule was set up to allow half of the City's customers to irrigate at a time, thereby reducing excess consumption and helping to alleviate pressure drops. Implementing this watering schedule has enabled the city to meet the demands of its reclaimed water customers on most days.

2.10 RECLAIMED WATER CONSERVATION CHALLENGES

The City currently serves approximately 3,000 reclaimed customers. Based upon the average reclaimed demand of 4.44 MGD showcased in Table 7, this equates to the average City customer using approximately 1,480 gallons per day of reclaimed water. According to SJRWMD's recommendations, the average reclaimed customer should utilize no more than 500-900 gallons of reclaimed water per day. As such, the current demand data suggests that the City's existing customers are using more reclaimed water than they should be.

In the future, the City would like to add additional reclaimed water customers to the City's infrastructure. Adding reclaimed customers would likely reduce potable irrigation demand and also likely reduce surface water effluent discharges. In order to add additional customers, however, the City will need to look at the use of large volume storage to buffer the reclaimed demand, as well as implementing additional policy changes aimed at curbing excess reclaimed water usage. The City welcomes any input or discussion SJRWMD would like to have regarding reclaimed water conservation practices. Implementing the watering scheduling system has been shown to curb some of the excess usage that was present many years ago, but there is still room for improvement. Some methods for managing reclaimed water currently being discussed internally by City staff include public education, metering, remote valving, and increasing enforcement of existing regulations.

2.11 INTERCONNECTS

The City of Ormond Beach currently has six (6) local interconnects with utilities in the surrounding area. These interconnects are not typically utilized, but they are inspected and maintained by City staff on a routine basis as the City recognizes the overall importance of these interconnects.

The City of Holly Hill has three (3) emergency interconnects with the City. These are generally located on Ridge Avenue, South Center Street, and South Nova Road. The City of Daytona Beach has two (2) emergency interconnects with the City. These are generally located on Williamson Boulevard and North Atlantic Avenue. Volusia County has one (1) emergency interconnect with the City. This interconnect is generally located north of Plantation Oaks Boulevard.

3. IDENTIFICATION OF NEEDED FACILITIES

3.1 ANTICIPATED WATER DEMAND PROJECTIONS

The City of Ormond Beach anticipates developments throughout the service area over the next ten years. These planned developments include Avalon Park Daytona Beach, Hunter's Ridge—Flagler County Development of Regional Impact, Plantation Oaks, and Ormond Crossing.

Table 9 and Table 10 have been created to showcase the projected potable and wastewater demands anticipated for the city over the next 10 years. This includes the demands from the aforementioned developments along with an additional column being added to the account for overall organic growth. This column is meant to represent the overall increase in demand that would occur on its own regardless of any development. The organic growth rate of 1.5% was chosen based upon historical data and previous master plan documents. This growth values are subject to change and are monitored as part of the annual; Capital Improvement Plan. Additionally, a projected population for the City's service area has also been included within Table 9. The initial population for calendar year of 2024 was obtained by multiplying the City's current potable water meter count of 23,685 by 2.30. Subsequent projection years were estimated by taking the increase in total project average annual daily flow (AADF) value per each calendar year and dividing it by 125 gallons per person while rounding to four digits. These aforementioned values of 2.30 and 125 are estimates utilized by Staff based primarily off of historical trends within the City's service area.

Table 10 utilizes the same projection values of Table 9, but the 2024 calendar year value for the reclaimed AADF was obtained by reviewing 2023 discharge monitoring reports (DMR) for the City's water reclamation facility (WRF). The different starting values for the water demand and the reclaimed availability are predominately due to not every existing customer within the City's service area utilizing the City's sewer services. When considering the values present in Table 10, staff would like to inform the SJRWMD team that the city currently plans on constructing a secondary WRF in the upcoming calendar years. This new facility will aid the City with future wastewater treatment capacity. Additional detail pertaining to this planned facility was left out of this report due to staff feeling such information was not pertinent to a water supply planning document. With that being said, however, staff welcomes any conversations that the SJRWMD team would like to have with the City regarding this facility if reviewers at the district feel it would be beneficial to conservation efforts.

3.3 PROJECTED CONSUMPTIVE USE PERMIT ALLOCATION

Table 11 showcases the City's current permitted raw water withdrawal limit and the projected raw water demands for the years 2024 to 2034. The anticipated CUP requested allocation was calculated by adding 1.0 MGD to the projected raw water demands previously shown in Table 9. The values showcased within Table 11 suggests that the City's projected raw water withdrawal requirements will escalate in the upcoming years primarily due to the proposed developments mentioned in section 3 of this report. The City is currently in discussion with SJRWMD regarding renewing their CUP allocations. As such, the request allocation values in this report are subject to change.

Table 11: Projected CUP Values

Year	Current Permitted Annual Average Raw Water Withdrawal (MGD)	Projected Raw Water Demands (MGD)	Anticipated CUP Request Allocation (MGD)
2024	8.18	6.817

3.4 RAW WATER SOURCE NEEDS

Based upon the projected raw water usage requirements shown in Table 11, the City will need the ability to withdrawal at least 11.754 MGD worth of raw water by 2033. Using the existing wellfield information summarized in Table 2 of this report, the City's existing wells can currently supply a theoretical maximum of 13.9 MGD worth of raw water withdrawal. Typical raw water rotation guidelines recommend that the City should have the capability to withdrawal at least 2.0 times the anticipated demand from the upper Floridan aquifer. Having this 2.0 factor of safety allows for rotation of wells and also reduces the criticality of any single well going out of service. In order to reach this 2.0 factor of safety, the City will need to look at adding approximately 7.6 MGD worth of withdrawal capabilities over the course of the next ten years. Assuming approximately 500 GPM from a new well, this would correspond to the City needing to construct approximately 12 new wells. The location, depth, and GPM value for these new wells is currently being discussed within the CUP renewal process.

Alternative options for the City to obtain additional raw water include: utilizing Lower Floridan Aquifer (LFA) ground water, withdrawing surface water from the St. Johns River, and demineralization of seawater. Implementation of any of these alternative ideas, however, would have a significant cost burden placed upon the City. As such, these ideas are not currently being pursued, but may be considered if significant funding opportunities or partnerships present themselves.

3.5 RAW WATER CAPITAL PROJECTS

The projects listed within this section are intended to highlight the City's anticipated path forward with regard to capital project construction for anticipated raw water needs identified in section 3 of this report. The capital improvement projects shall be reviewed annually as part of the city's budget and capital improvement plan process. In order to meet the projected demands of the raw water projection of 10.75 listed in Table 11 for the calendar year 2034 with a 2.0 factor of safety, the City's existing raw water system will need to be reinforced and expanded upon. The projects listed within this section are aimed at establishing redundancy and adequate supply for the City in the years to come.

3.5.1 Raw Water Main Reinforcement

One of the main concerns the City has regarding the existing raw water transmission system is the overall dependence on the existing 24-inch main that runs along Granada Blvd from the utility easement located between Shadow Crossings and Breakaway Trails to the existing Walmart. If anything were to ever happen to this 24-inch main, the City would lose the capability to transfer water from the Hudson and Rima Ridge wellfields back to the existing water treatment plant. To reduce this overall potential vulnerability, the City is currently in the process of completing the design of a secondary, redundant, raw water main from Hunter's Ridge to Williamson Boulevard. A preliminary cost estimate is shown in Table 12. This project is intended to be implemented in the short term.

Table 12: Raw Water Main Reinforcement - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost
16-inch Raw Water Main	13,500	LF	$120	$1,620,000

			Contingency @ 20%	$400,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$300,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$2,700,000

3.5.2 Hudson Wellfield Expansion

The City currently has three (3) additional wells permitted for construction within the Hudson Wellfield as was permitted in the previous CUP application. The City has executed a task order with one of the consultants for the design of these new wells and the goal is to bring these wells online by the end of calendar year 2024. As such, this project is categorized as short term. A preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 13.

Table 13: Hudson Wellfield Expansion - Preliminary Cost Estimate

			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$285,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$2,565,000

3.5.3 Rima Ridge Wellfield Expansion

The City would benefit from constructing additional raw water wells in the Rima Ridge wellfield. This proposed project currently seeks to add three (3) new wells in the medium to long term time horizon. Estimated withdrawal capacity from each future well is approximately 500 GPM. A preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 14. This project along with the prospect of a new wellfield will be discussed with SJRWMD during the CUP renewal process and is listed an intermediate project in the City's capital improvement program.

Table 14: Rima Ridge Wellfield Expansion - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost
New UFA Wells, Pumps and Mechanical Equipment	3	EA	$375,000	$1,125,000

			Construction Sub-Total	$2,450,000
			Contingency @ 20%	$490,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$367,500
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$3,307,500

3.5.4 Establish New Wellfield

The projected raw water demands demonstrate that the city will need to add raw water withdrawal capabilities in the upcoming years and construction of a new wellfield will be the most cost-effective option. Achieving a factor of 2.0 for raw water production to raw water demand would give the city greater flexibility to rotate wells, reducing saltwater up-coning and allowing for better control over elevated chloride levels. As previously mentioned, in order to reach this recommended 2.0 production capability, the city would need to construct at least 12 new wells in the future. Assuming three (3) additional wells are installed within the Hudson Wellfield and three (3) additional wells are installed within the Rima Wellfield, the City should anticipate approximately six (6) wells within the new wellfield. At this point in time, no cost estimate has been established due to the unknown future wellfield site location. This project will be discussed with SJRWMD during the CUP renewal process and is considered a long-term project.

3.6 WATER TREATMENT SYSTEM CAPACITY IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Based upon the average day potable water demand flow projection of 10.75 listed in Table 9 for the year 2034, the City's existing water treatment plant will be challenged to provide adequate treated potable water in the long-term future. Typical FDEP recommendations are to plan for additional treatment capacity once the facility nears 80% capacity, which would be 9.6 MGD for the City. As such, the City is currently looking at constructing an additional potable water treatment facility in the future. The projects listed below are aimed at establishing such a facility.

3.6.1 Future Water Treatment Plant Evaluation Report

Due to the complexity of bringing a water treatment plant online, the City plans on conducting an evaluation report prior to the design process. The evaluation report is aimed at reviewing the following items as a minimum: site usability, technology selection, permitting requirements, staffing requirements, raw water quality, any potential blending requirements, and storage and pumping needs. Table 15 shows a conceptual cost estimate for this evaluation report. This project is currently listed as long term.

Table 15: Future Water Treatment Plant - Evaluation Report

Site Evaluation and Technology Report	1	LS	$250,000	$250,000
			Contingency @ 20%	$50,000

3.7 WATER SYSTEM CAPACITY IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

The City currently owns undeveloped property west of I-95 near the intersection of Airport Road and Granada Boulevard. This property has been discussed as being a suitable location for a new water treatment facility. Establishing a new facility at this site would allow the City to treat raw water and distribute finished water to the western service area from this location, as opposed to pumping raw water from the western wellfields to the existing WTP only to then have the existing WTP redistribute the treated water back to the western region. The final site location and potential treatment process, however, will be impacted by the evaluation report. The City would welcome any input from SJRWMD for this upcoming facility. This project is currently listed as long term and a preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 16.

Table 16: New Western Water Treatment Plant - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost

			Contingency @ 20%	$6,000,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$4,500,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$40,500,000

3.8 RECLAIMED WATER DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS

With the establishment of Policy 1.3.5, which is aimed at 100% reuse utilization by 2030, the City will need to add additional storage capacity and also add additional customers to its existing reclaimed water system. The projects within this section are poised to achieve this objective by creating and connecting a reclaimed water reservoir and by showcasing regions of the City's service area that the reclaimed system could be expanded to in the upcoming years.

3.8.1 Reclaim Main Extension to Reservoir

Based upon previous hydraulic modeling endeavors, the existing 10-inch reclaimed main on Airport Road has been identified as experiencing velocities around 12.0 ft/s during the daytime when filling the City's western storage tanks. For reclaimed water distribution systems, velocities greater than 8 ft/s are typically considered unacceptable. As such, this main is considered undersized and is considered by Staff as being the primary issue with transferring reclaimed water to the western portion of the City's service area. To remedy this situation, the City intends to replace the existing reclaimed main with a new pipe of a greater diameter to increase reliability, reduce experienced velocities, and add capacity to accommodate increased future demand. Additionally, this proposed project would also install a new main to the north of Airport Road such that it would connect the City's existing water reclamation facility to a future reclaimed water reservoir site. The City currently believes an 18-inch diameter main from the Airport Road booster station to the reclaimed reservoir site will achieve the desired outcomes of reducing velocities while also increase storage capabilities. A conceptual cost estimate for this project is shown in Table 17. City staff is currently in the initial design phase of this project. As such, this project is listed as being short term.

3.8.2 Reclaim Water Reservoir Tank and Station

Creating a reclaimed water reservoir would allow the City's WRF to store additional reuse water during periods of low demand while also providing an augmentation source when periods of high demand occur. The City is currently in the planning process of constructing a reservoir in Flagler County near Strickland Road. A conceptual cost estimate is included in Table 18. This project is currently listed with a short-term designation.

3.8.3 New Reclaim Water Storage Tank and Pump Station

With the potential construction of a new water treatment plant and a new water reclamation facility in the western service area, the construction of a reclaimed water storage tank and pump station in the same general vicinity would be a reasonable addition. As such, the City anticipates constructing a 3.0 MG reclaimed water storage tank to add additional reclaimed water storage.

A conceptual cost estimate for this project is included in Table 19. This is considered an intermediate term project. This project is partially dependent on the completion of the new western plants projects previously mentioned, and may ultimately be combined within those future projects.

3.8.4 Southern Peninsula Reclaimed Expansion

The City currently has a large number of reclaimed customers on the peninsula portion of the City's service area. As such, expansion of the reclaimed water system on the peninsula to serve customers that do not currently have reclaimed available would make practical sense. Based upon recent hydraulic modeling reports, however, the City has found that the reclaimed system cannot accommodate additional flow due to having only one subaqueous reclaimed crossing. To alleviate this bottleneck, the City is currently in the process of planning for a secondary subaqueous crossing under the Halifax River in the intermediate time frame. With this project completed, the City would be able to expand the existing reclaimed water system on the beachside to serve additional customers. Establishing additional customers on the peninsula would allow for the City to reduce the amount of potable water used for irrigation purposes. This project is currently on the City's long-term radar and conceptual cost estimate will be made during the next major master plan update.

3.8.5 Ormond Crossings Reclaimed Transmission Loop

With the proposed Ormond Crossings development, the developer is currently looking at the potential for installing a reclaimed water main system in the developed area. Theoretically, if the City and developer could work together to install a reclaimed system that spanned to both the north and south side of the Ormond Crossings region, then this would allow for the City to establish a reclaimed water main looped system from US1 to Airport road. Doing so would allow the City to add additional customers to the reclaimed water system, decrease the amount of potable water used for irrigation purposes in the planned development, and improve reliability in the overall reclaimed system. This project, however, is currently tentative due the overall nature of development. As such, this project is currently listed as a long-term endeavor dependent upon the developer's timetable. A conceptual cost estimate will be made during the next major master plan update.

5. WATER SUPPLY POLICY UPDATES TO COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

Utilities Element

POLICY 1.2.5 (Modified)

The City will implement the traditional and alternative water supply projects ~~scheduled for completion by 2013~~ as identified in the Water Supply ~~w~~Work Plan.

POLICY 1.2.6. (New)

The City will expand its reclaimed water system in accordance with the 2015 Utility Master Plan and subsequent updates in an effort to improve water quality throughout the region. The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge.

POLICY 1.7.2. (Modified)

Projected demands ~~through the year 2015~~ shall be met by undertaking those projects as identified in the Capital Improvements Element.

POLICY 5.2.1. (Modified)

The City shall maintain a ~~w~~Water ~~s~~Supply ~~facilities~~ ~~w~~Work ~~p~~Plan that is coordinated with St. Johns River Water Management District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Work Plan by updating the work plan within 18 months of an update to the District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan that affects the City.

POLICY 5.2.2. (Modified)

The City will participate in the development of updates to St. Johns River Water Management District's water supply assessment and ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan and other water supply development-related initiatives facilitated by the District's that affect the City.

POLICY 5.2.3. (New)

The City's Water Supply Work Plan is incorporated into the Comprehensive Plan as Appendix A of the Utilities Element. The City will implement the Water Supply Work Plan through the annual Capital Improvement Plan process.

POLICY 5.3.2. (Modified)

Potable water supplies shall be conserved to the maximum extent practicable through the continued implementation of water conservation techniques and programs. Such techniques and programs may include, but are not limited to:

a. The City shall ~~work through the Water Authority of Volusia (WAV)~~ continue to incentivize water conservation using low-flow showers and toilets, rain sensors for lawn irrigation, and xeriscape.

b. The City will continue to implement and expand its program to provide for water reuse and/or reclamation and where appropriate require effluent reuse for irrigation, industrial use and other appropriate non-potable water use applications.

c. The City shall require new development to install 'dry-lines' for reclaimed water distribution. Developments with greater than 100 units shall provide on-site storage and pumping, integrated with the stormwater management system. Under certain conditions, the developer may be allowed to contribute an equivalent value of the infrastructure into a reclaimed water construction fund.

d. The City shall ~~purchase a~~ continue its leak detection systems ~~by 2010~~ which will enable water distribution crews to monitor the entire City's water distribution system through the use of leak noise loggers.

Conservation Element

~~By the year 2010, the City shall develop a plan to further reduce the amount of treated effluent discharged to the Halifax River to 10% of the total volume of wastewater treated at the plant.~~

The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge

POLICY 5.3.8. (New)

The City shall reduce groundwater withdrawal through the utilization of a reclaimed water scheduling program as mentioned in section 2C of the 2023 Water Supply Plan. The reclaimed water schedule may be updated by the Utility Manager or Public Works Director as deemed necessary. Additionally, the City will continue to communicate the importance of watering conservation with its customers.

Capital Improvements Element

POLICY 1.3.2. (Modified)

The City shall use the following level-of-service standards to determine the impacts of new development and redevelopment upon public facility provision:

a. Fire Fighting: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) unit per acre shall be served by a public/private central water system capable of delivering the required fire flows having adequate firefighting capacity of a minimum of 1,000 gpm or greater as determined by the Chief Fire Official in conjunction with the City Engineer or National Fire Protection Associates (NFPA) guidelines (or its equivalent where a sprinkler system is used) and minimum 20 psi residual for a minimum two- (2-) hour duration depending upon the specific structure and/or use. Single-family home development at less than one (1) unit per acre or less, or other development of equivalent intensity (e.g., average daily water use of less than 300 gpd per acre), may be served by an individual well. All required fire flows will be in addition to the peak daily demand established.

b. Parks (acres per population): 13 acres per 1,000 population

A capital facilities recovery fee to develop lands dedicated by developers to meet the acreage level of service standards shall be pursued. The recovery fee may be either assessed to the developer of the subdivision or the builder of the home in the form of an impact fee.

Subdivisions which provide private recreation lands and facilities shall be provided a credit against the land dedication and capital facilities recovery fee.

c. Roads: The following level-of-service standards are adopted for roadways Citywide:

	LOS Daily	LOS Peak Hour
City	C	D
County	D	E
State	C (SIS/FIHS)	D (TRIP)

d. Water:

Raw:	~~An average daily volume of 124 gallons of raw water per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 330 gallons per Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU).

Potable:	~~An annual average daily volume of 110 gallons per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 300 gallons per ERU.
Sewer:	An average daily volume of 270 gallons per ERU.
Reclaimed:	~~An average of daily volume of 600 GPD per ERU.~~ An average daily volume of 300 GPD per ERU.

Other uses water standards:

Types of Establishments*
Apartments	0.7 ERU per unit
Bars and cocktail lounges	0.05 ERU per seat
Barbershop	0.25 ERU per seat
Beauty Shop	0.5 ERU per seat
Car Wash	8.5 ERU minimum
Dentist	0.7 ERU per wet chair
Factories (with Showers or Chemicals)	0.1 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Factories (without Showers or Chemicals)	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
General Commercial / Office Buildings	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Gas Stations (no car wash)	1.5 ERU per bathroom
Hospitals	0.7 ERU per bed
Hotels and Motels	0.4 ERU per room
Movie theaters, auditoriums, churches	0.02 ERU per seat
Nursing Homes / A.L.F.	0.5 ERU per bed
Restaurants	0.15 ERU per seat
Single-Family residence	1.00 ERU per unit
Schools	0.05 ERU per seat

*The Site Plan Review Committee will consider alternate flow rates for various establishments if the applicant/Engineer of Record can provide supporting documentation.

e. ~~Sanitary Sewer: An annual average daily volume of 281 gallons equivalent residential unit (ERU).~~

Sanitary Sewer Treatment: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) ERU per acre shall be served by a public/private wastewater treatment system capable of handling the projected design flows with an appropriate peak factor, as determined by the applicant or design professional. The peak factor shall not be less than 2.5. For developments having a density of less than one (1) ERU per acre, the applicant may elect to install a septic system provided that the applicant obtains an appropriate permit from the Volusia County Health Department and the City's existing gravity collection system is not within 200 feet of the proposed development.

f. Solid Waste:

Average residential pick-ups per truck.....	1,600
Average commercial pick-ups/truck/route	155
Average residential pick-ups/man/day.....	226
Pounds/capita/day for residential, commercial and industrial waste.....	5.69
Pounds/capita/day for special wastes.....	3

g. Drainage: The difference in the volume of run-off for 25 years frequency, 24-hour duration storm event between pre-development and post-development conditions shall be retained on-site. The difference between the pre-development and post-development conditions for peak run-off rates for the 100-year frequency, 24-hour duration rainfall event shall be retained on-site. Individual development facility capacity shall be maintained so that there is no potential flooding increase above the base year elevation. There shall be no degradation of water quality of Class III waters. An equal or greater volume of storage capacity must be created for any volume of the regulatory flood that would be displaced by fill or structures. The velocity of the regulatory flood must not be adversely altered on any watercourse. Areas not filled are to generally be left in their natural state. However, such areas may be used to meet landscaping and/or retention requirements, provided that the design is consistent with the then-existing City standards and ordinance requirements. Fill limitations consistent with the Land Development Code and the performance standards for each wetland classification established by the Conservation Element shall be enforced for all developments lying within areas of special flood hazard, as defined by the 100-year floodplain boundaries of the FEMA FIRM maps.

STAFF REPORT
Comprehensive Plan Amendments
Water Supply Work Plan
Project Number: PZ-2023-077

PLANNING BOARD DATE:	April 11, 2024
TENTATIVE CITY COMMISSION DATES:	May 21, 2024 (first reading) and to be determined (second reading)
APPLICANT:	Administrative
REQUEST:	An administrative request to amend the Comprehensive Plan related to the Water Supply Work Plan, including the Utilities Element, Conservation Element, and the Capital Improvements Element
STAFF RECOMMENDATION:	Approval
STAFF CONTACT:	Michael Stephenson, P.E., Utilities Engineer Steven Spraker, AICP, Planning Director

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is an administrative request to amend the Comprehensive Plan related to the Water Supply Work Plan, including text amendments to the (1) Utilities Element, (2) Conservation Element, and (3) Capital Improvements Element and adoption of the Water Supply Plan as Appendix A to the Utilities Element. Florida Statutes require local jurisdictions, Sections 373.709 and 163.3177(6)(c)3, to update their water supply work plan within 18 months after their water management district approves an updated regional water supply plan.

SECTION 2, BACKGROUND:

Chapters 163 and 373 of Florida Statutes create a link between a regional water supply adopted by the Saint John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD) and local government comprehensive plans. Florida Statutes require water management districts to prepare a water supply plan for a twenty-year planning period to ensure that existing water sources are adequate to meet projected water demand. Local governments within a regional water supply planning area must develop a Water Supply Work Plan (WSWP) to ensure sufficient water supply to meet future demands over a 10-year planning period.

The overall purpose of this Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is to summarize the City of Ormond Beach's current water supply, water treatment, and effluent disposal methods, along with projecting future water demands based upon anticipated development projects scheduled to occur over the next ten years. The city is working towards meeting the projected water demands and the requirements of Senate Bill 64, which dictates the elimination of nonbeneficial surface water discharge. The city has selected a multi-tiered planning period for this document. Flows are projected, and capital projects are planned through 2033, representing a ten (10) year time horizon. The identified infrastructure improvement timeframes within this report are categorized by the following planning periods: Short Term (0-2 years), Intermediate (3-5 years), and Long Term (5-10 years). This categorization is aimed at creating an implementation schedule for the city. Actual implementation of recommended projects would occur yearly through adopting the Capital Improvement plan. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan has been prepared in accordance with Sections 373.709 and 163.3177(6)(c)3 of the Florida Statutes. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan demonstrates adequate water supply over the next ten years to serve utility customers within the adopted utility service area.

SECTION 3, ANALYSIS:

The City of Ormond Beach has a municipal boundary encompassing approximately 38 square miles and a utility service area encompassing approximately 57 square miles. The city provides potable water service to residential, retail, commercial, and industrial customers throughout its service area. The city currently has approximately 56,000 potable water customers. In addition to the corporate limits of the City of Ormond Beach, the utility service area includes:

1. The North Peninsula Water District: This area includes portions of unincorporated Volusia County, including Ormond by the Sea;
2. Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County Development of Regional Impact (DRI): The City of Ormond Beach and Flagler County entered into an interlocal agreement for the provision by the City for water and wastewater services to that portion of the Hunter's Ridge Development of Regional Impact that is located in the unincorporated territory of Flagler County (Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County DRI Service Area), said interlocal agreement having been amended on November 16, 2009; and
3. West Ormond Utilities District, including lands within the City of Daytona Beach. This area includes multiple land areas including the Chelsea Place subdivision, Pineland subdivision, lands west of Tymber Creek Road, including Hunter's Ridge, Breakaway Trails, and a land area within the City of Daytona Beach. In 2006, Ormond Beach and Daytona Beach each approved a Settlement Agreement that governs the portion of the Ormond Beach utility service area within the City of Daytona Beach. The Settlement Agreement incorporates four interrelated documents: (1) a Second Amended Water and Sewer Service Area Agreement; (2) an Interlocal Wholesale and Wastewater Treatment Service Agreement; (3) an Interlocal Agreement for the Operation, Administration, and Maintenance of Finished Water Interconnects East [and West] of I-95; and (4) a Wholesale Water and Wastewater Rate Analysis by Black & Veatch.

POLICY 1.2.6. (New)

The City will expand its reclaimed water system in accordance with the 2015 Utility Master Plan and subsequent updates in an effort to improve water quality throughout the region. The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge.

POLICY 5.2.1. (Modified)

The City shall maintain a ~~w~~Water ~~s~~Supply ~~w~~Work ~~p~~Plan that is coordinated with St. Johns River Water Management District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Work Plan by updating the work plan within 18 months of an update to the District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan that affects the City.

POLICY 5.2.2. (Modified)

The City will participate in the development of updates to St. Johns River Water Management District's water supply assessment and ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan and other water supply development-related initiatives facilitated by the District's that affect the City.

POLICY 5.2.3. (New)

The City's Water Supply Work Plan is incorporated into the Comprehensive Plan as Appendix A of the Utilities Element. The City will implement the Water Supply Work Plan through the annual Capital Improvement Plan process.

POLICY 1.7.2. (Modified)

Projected demands ~~through the year 2015~~ shall be met by undertaking those projects as identified in the Capital Improvements Element.

POLICY 5.3.2. (Modified)

Potable water supplies shall be conserved to the maximum extent practicable through the continued implementation of water conservation techniques and programs. Such techniques and programs may include, but are not limited to:

a. The City shall ~~work through the Water Authority of Volusia (WAV)~~ continue to incentivize water conservation using low-flow showers and toilets, rain sensors for lawn irrigation, and xeriscape.

b. The City will continue to implement and expand its program to provide for water reuse and/or reclamation and where appropriate require effluent reuse for irrigation, industrial use and other appropriate non-potable water use applications.

c. The City shall require new development to install 'dry-lines' for reclaimed water distribution. Developments with greater than 100 units shall provide on-site storage and pumping, integrated with the stormwater management system. Under certain conditions, the developer may be allowed to contribute an equivalent value of the infrastructure into a reclaimed water construction fund.

d. The City shall ~~purchase a~~ continue its leak detection systems ~~by 2010~~ which will enable water distribution crews to monitor the entire City's water distribution system through the use of leak noise loggers.

Conservation Element

~~By the year 2010, the City shall develop a plan to further reduce the amount of treated effluent discharged to the Halifax River to 10% of the total volume of wastewater treated at the plant.~~

The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge

The City shall reduce groundwater withdrawal through the utilization of a reclaimed water scheduling program as mentioned in section 2C of the 2023 Water Supply Plan. The reclaimed water schedule may be updated by the Utility Manager or Public Works Director as deemed necessary. Additionally, the City will continue to communicate the importance of watering conservation with its customers.

Capital Improvements Element

POLICY 1.3.2. (Modified)

The City shall use the following level-of-service standards to determine the impacts of new development and redevelopment upon public facility provision:

a. Fire Fighting: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) unit per acre shall be served by a public/private central water system capable of delivering the required fire flows having adequate firefighting capacity of a minimum of 1,000 gpm or greater as determined by the Chief Fire Official in conjunction with the City Engineer or National Fire Protection Associates (NFPA) guidelines (or its equivalent where a sprinkler system is used) and minimum 20 psi residual for a minimum two- (2-) hour duration depending upon the specific structure and/or use. Single-family home development at less than one (1) unit per acre or less, or other development of equivalent intensity (e.g., average daily water use of less than 300 gpd per acre), may be served by an individual well. All required fire flows will be in addition to the peak daily demand established.

b. Parks (acres per population): 13 acres per 1,000 population

A capital facilities recovery fee to develop lands dedicated by developers to meet the acreage level of service standards shall be pursued. The recovery fee may be either assessed to the developer of the subdivision or the builder of the home in the form of an impact fee.

Subdivisions which provide private recreation lands and facilities shall be provided a credit against the land dedication and capital facilities recovery fee.

c. Roads: The following level-of-service standards are adopted for roadways Citywide:

	LOS Daily	LOS Peak Hour
City	C	D
County	D	E
State	C (SIS/FIHS)	D (TRIP)

d. Water:

Raw:	~~An average daily volume of 124 gallons of raw water per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 330 gallons per Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU).

e. Sanitary Sewer Treatment: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) ERU per acre shall be served by a public/private wastewater treatment system capable of handling the projected design flows with an appropriate peak factor, as determined by the applicant or design professional. The peak factor shall not be less than 2.5. For developments having a density of less than one (1) ERU per acre, the applicant may elect to install a septic system provided that the applicant obtains an appropriate permit from the Volusia County Health Department and the City's existing gravity collection system is not within 200 feet of the proposed development.

g. Drainage: The difference in the volume of run-off for 25 years frequency, 24-hour duration storm event between pre-development and post-development conditions shall be retained on-site. The difference between the pre-development and post-development conditions for peak run-off rates for the 100-year frequency, 24-hour duration rainfall event shall be retained on-site. Individual development facility capacity shall be maintained so that there is no potential flooding increase above the base year elevation. There shall be no degradation of water quality of Class III waters. An equal or greater volume of storage capacity must be created for any volume of the regulatory flood that would be displaced by fill or structures. The velocity of the regulatory flood must not be adversely altered on any watercourse. Areas not filled are to generally be left in their natural state. However, such areas may be used to meet landscaping and/or retention requirements, provided that the design is consistent with the then-existing City standards and ordinance requirements. Fill limitations consistent with the Land Development Code and the performance standards for each wetland classification established by the Conservation Element shall be enforced for all developments lying within areas of special flood hazard, as defined by the 100-year floodplain boundaries of the FEMA FIRM maps.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 GENERAL

Chapters 163 and 373 of Florida Statutes create a link between a regional water supply adopted by the Saint John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD) and local government comprehensive plans. Florida Statutes require water management districts to prepare a water supply plan for a twenty-year planning period to ensure that existing water sources are adequate to meet projected water demand. Local governments within a regional water supply planning area must develop a Water Supply Work Plan (WSWP) to ensure that adequate water supply is available to meet future demands over a 10-year planning period.

The overall purpose of this Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is to summarize the City of Ormond Beach's current water supply, water treatment, and effluent disposal methods, along with projecting future water demands based upon anticipated development projects scheduled to occur over the next ten years. The city is working towards meeting the projected water demands and the requirements of Senate Bill 64, which dictates the elimination of nonbeneficial surface water discharge. The City has selected a multi-tiered planning period for this document. Flows are projected, and capital projects are planned through 2033, representing a ten (10) year time horizon. The identified infrastructure improvement timeframes within this report are categorized by the following planning periods: Short Term (0-2 years), Intermediate (3-5 years), and Long Term (5-10 years). This categorization is aimed at creating an implementation schedule for the City. Actual implementation of recommended projects would occur yearly through adopting the Capital Improvement plan. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan has been prepared in accordance with Sections 373.709 and 163.3177(6)(c)3 of the Florida Statutes. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan demonstrates adequate water supply over the next ten years to serve utility customers within the adopted utility service area. The Water Supply Facilities Work Plan is intended to facilitate discussions between the city and the Saint John's River Water Management District's (SJRWMD) governing board and other regional government agencies that the city could form partnerships with.

1.2 REQUIREMENTS OF THE WATER SUPPLY FACILITIES WORK PLAN

The Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (now known as Florida Commerce) published "A Guide to the Preparation of the Water Supply Facilities Work Plan" and provides the statutory requirements for water supply and facility planning as follows:

1. Coordinate appropriate aspects of their comprehensive plan with the appropriate water management district's regional water supply plan. [Section 163.3177(4)(a), F.S]
2. Revise the Potable Water Sub-Element to adopt a water supply facility work plan covering at least a 10-year planning period to meet existing and projected demand. The work plan should address those water supply facilities for which the local government is responsible and include the facilities needed to develop alternative water supplies. The work plan should also identify conservation and reuse measures to meet future needs. [Section 163.3177(6)(c), F.S]

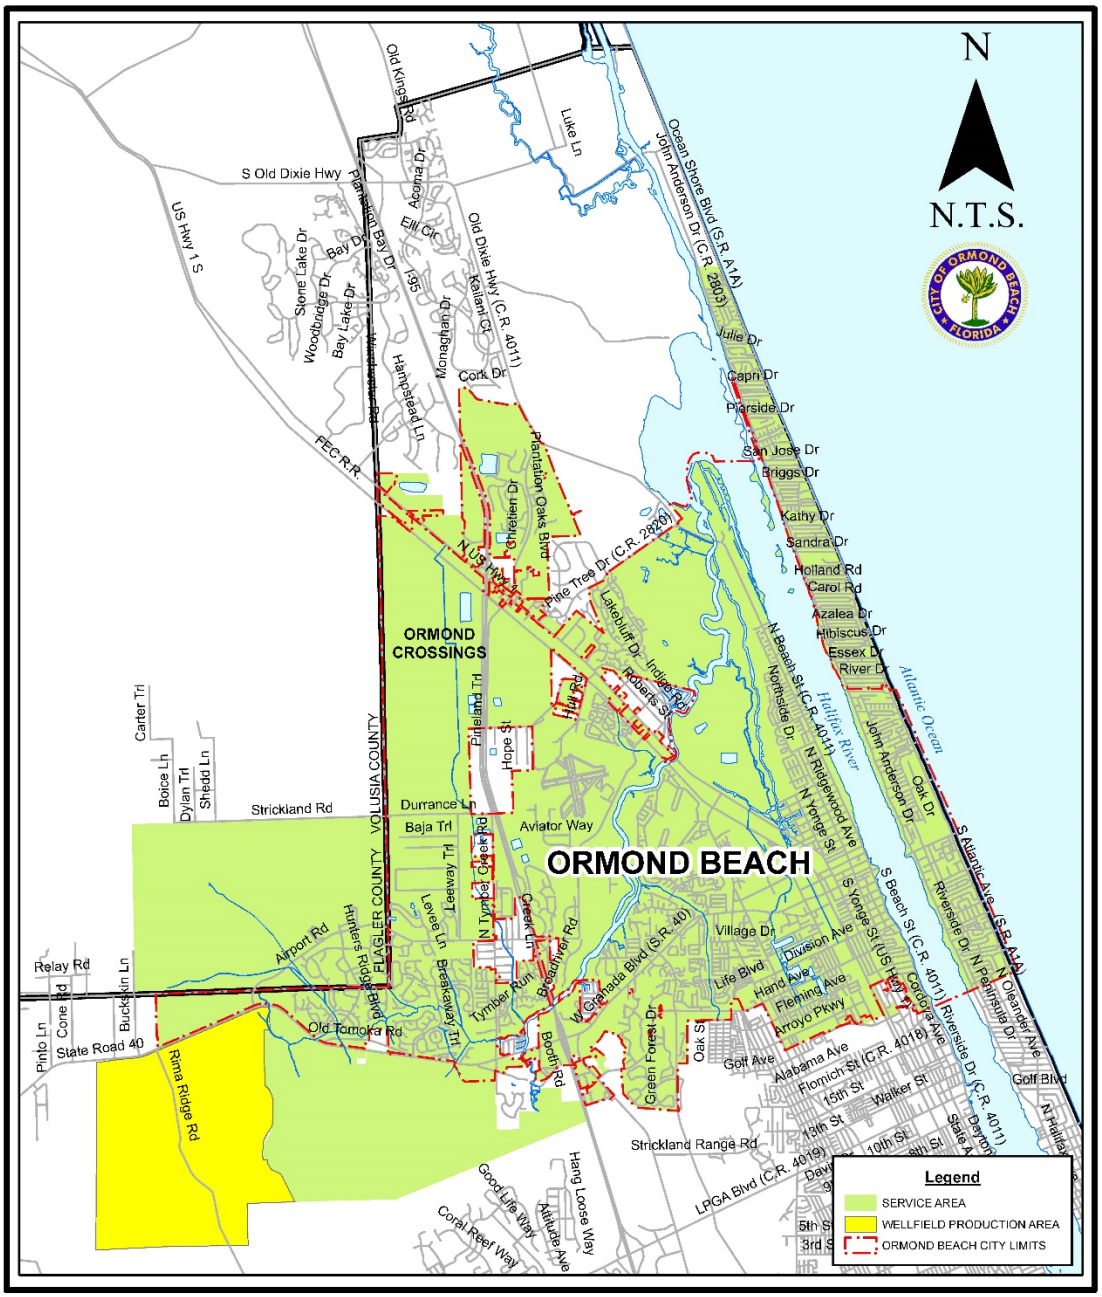
3. Revise the Conservation Element to assess current and projected water needs and sources for at least a 10-year planning period. The analysis must consider the existing levels of water conservation, use, and protection, as well as the applicable policies of the water management district and the district's approved regional water supply plan. Without an approved regional water supply plan, the analysis must consider the district's approved water management plan. [Section 163.3177(6)(d)3, F.S.]
4. Revise the Capital Improvements Element to identify capital improvements projects to be implemented in the first five years of the work plan for which the local government is responsible, including both publicly and privately funded water supply projects necessary to achieve and maintain adopted level of service standards; and adopt a 5-year schedule of capital improvements to include those projects as either funded or unfunded, and if unfunded, given a level of priority for funding [163.3177(3)(a)4, F.S.]
5. Revise the Intergovernmental Coordination Element to adopt principles and guidelines to coordinate the comprehensive plan with the regional water supply authority (If applicable) and the applicable regional water supply plan. [163.3177(6)(h)1, F.S.]
6. During the Evaluation and Appraisal review, determine if comprehensive plan amendments are necessary to reflect statutory changes related to water supply and facilities planning since the last update to the comprehensive plan. If required, transmit the amendments to incorporate the statutory changes as appropriate. [Section 163.3191(1) and (2), F.S.]

2. DATA AND ANALYSIS

2.1 SERVICE AREA

The City of Ormond Beach is in northeastern Volusia County, North of Daytona Beach and Holly Hill, and South of Flagler County. It has a municipal boundary encompassing approximately 38 square miles and a utility service area encompassing approximately 57 square miles. The city provides potable water service to residential, retail, commercial, and industrial customers throughout its service area. The City currently has approximately 56,000 potable water customers. In addition to the corporate limits of the City of Ormond Beach, the utility service area includes:



1. The North Peninsula Water District: This area includes portions of unincorporated Volusia County, including Ormond by the Sea;
2. Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County Development of Regional Impact (DRI): The City of Ormond Beach and Flagler County entered into an interlocal agreement for the provision by the City of water and wastewater services to that portion of the Hunter's Ridge Development of Regional Impact that is located in the unincorporated territory of Flagler County (Hunter's Ridge-Flagler County DRI

Service Area), said interlocal agreement having been amended on November 16, 2009, and recorded at Book 6421, pages 2821-2829 in the Public Records of Volusia County, Florida; and

3. West Ormond Utilities District that includes lands within the City of Daytona Beach. This area contains multiple land areas including the Chelsea Place subdivision, Pineland subdivision, lands west of Tymber Creek Road, including Hunter's Ridge, Breakaway Trails, and a land area within the City of Daytona Beach. In 2006, Ormond Beach and Daytona Beach each approved a Settlement Agreement that governs the portion of the Ormond Beach utility service area within the City of Daytona Beach. The Settlement Agreement incorporates four interrelated documents: (1) a Second Amended Water and Sewer Service Area Agreement; (2) an Interlocal Wholesale and Wastewater Treatment Service Agreement; (3) an Interlocal Agreement for the Operation, Administration, and Maintenance of Finished Water Interconnects East [and West] of I-95; and (4) a Wholesale Water and Wastewater Rate Analysis by Black & Veatch.

A Utility Service Area Map illustrating Ormond Beach's municipal boundary and service area is included Figure 1. Residents within the utility service area receive potable water, wastewater, and reclaimed water services from the City where service is available.

2.2 EXISTING RAW WATER INFRASTRUCTURE

The City obtains its water supply to serve the utility service areas from four (4) separate wellfields. The wellfield names are as follows: Division, SR40, Hudson, and Rima Ridge. Within these four wellfields, 33 active primary and secondary groundwater production wells are drilled into the upper producing zones of the Floridan aquifer. Additionally, the City owns and operates three wells in the Breakaway (BAT) Trails wellfield region. These BAT wells are currently only being utilized for reclaimed augmentation purposes as needed. Table 1 Below is summarized current information regarding the city's wellfields and corresponding capacities. Three new wells were "proposed" for construction within the Hudson wellfield in the 2015 Master Plan and are included Table 1. These three new wells are currently in the design process and are scheduled to be constructed in 2024 as part of a capital improvement project.

Maximum Production (All Wellfields)						9,692

Utilizing the maximum production GPM value calculated within Table 1, the City can theoretically withdraw 9,692 GPM from the upper Floridan aquifer in its current condition. This flow rate translates to 13.9 million gallons per day (MGD). However, removing the BAT reclaimed augmentation wells from the equation results in a theoretical maximum production value of 8,992 GPM or roughly 12.9 MGD. This 12.9 MGD value is the City's current maximum production capability as of 2019. Figure 2 shows the approximate geographic location of wells throughout the City's service area.

2.3 EXISTING WATER QUALITY

The primary water quality concern for the City's existing wellfields is chloride levels. Table 2 summarizes the overall chloride levels for the Division and SR40 wellfields from 2015 to the middle of 2019. The Hudson, Rima Ridge, and BAT wellfields are not required to have their chlorides documented and recorded. Typical chloride levels are a concern and are considered elevated when they exceed 250 mg/L. As such, wells numbered 4D, 5D, 6D, 8D, and 16D have experienced 'high' levels of chlorides within the past few years. Having chloride levels exceeding 250 mg/L is not a critical concern because the city has a reverse osmosis membrane water treatment plant, but high chloride levels typically increase overall treatment, operating, and maintenance costs. As such, the city would like to reduce the overall usage of the wells above with higher chloride levels to the maximum extent allowable within their CUP limits during the renewal process.

Wells 18SR and 20SR are offline and need repairs or relocation. The city is working on re-establishing these wells soon. Having them back online will aid the City with raw water supply capacity and wellfield rotation and will likely help lower the measured chloride levels. The city intends to discuss these out-of-service wells with SJRWMD during their CUP renewal process.

2.4 EXISTING RAW WATER PIPING

The raw water transmission system comprises approximately 134,701 lineal feet, or approximately 25.5 miles, of various pipe sizes. Table 3 illustrates the estimated length of each type of material present throughout the raw water transmission system according to the latest GIS information. Figure 3 show a portion of the existing raw water main system in the western portion of the City's service area. The purpose of the raw water transmission piping system is to transfer all water withdrawn from the aquifer by the city's wells to the water treatment plant, where it can be treated and distributed to the city's potable customers.

2.5 EXISTING CONSUMPTIVE USE PERMIT STATUS

The City's current Consumptive Use Permit (CUP) was established in 2012 by the SJRWMD and is set to expire in 2024. Table 4 The chart shows the City's current permitted withdrawal limit and historical usage for past years through 2022. The City is currently in the process of renewing its CUP with the SJRWMD. SJRWMD is currently calibrating the Springs model, and the City looks forward to discussing the revised model with the management district.

2.6 HISTORIC RAW WATER USAGE

Historical raw water use data has been compiled from records kept by the City. Table 6 The data range from 2015 to 2022. The main point is that the City's raw water system has experienced peak day ratios up to 1.43 times the annualized average daily flow values.

2.7 EXISTING WATER TREATMENT SYSTEM

Once raw water is pulled from the upper Floridan aquifer from the City's wellfields, the water is transferred to the City's water treatment plant (WTP), which is treated and conditioned before entering the potable distribution system. The permitted capacity of the City's WTP is listed as 12.0 MGD. This 12.0 capacity is split between an 8.0 MGD lime softening process and a 4.0 MGD low-pressure reverse osmosis (LPRO) process, with both processes being at the same plant location. The physical address of the plant is 298 Tomoka Avenue. The lime softening process includes the following treatment processes: aeration, lime softening, recarbonation, filtration, and disinfection. The LPRO process consists of the following treatment processes: pre-treatment via cartridge filters, feed pumps, membrane skids, chlorine contact chambers, and transfer pumps. The LPRO plant has the advantage of treating raw water with higher chloride levels, but the treatment process requires sacrificing additional raw water. This sacrificed water is designated as a concentrate, which ultimately gets sent to the City's water reclamation facility (WRF) for blending with the City's reclaimed water. Figure 4 showcases the City's WTP process diagram.

The potable water distribution system primarily includes the following components:

- Four (4) inline booster pump stations
- Main plant storage tanks (2.5 MG Capacity split between two (2) tanks)
- Standish storage tank (1.0 MG Capacity)
- Leeway storage tank (1.0 MG Capacity)
- Approximately 370 miles of distribution piping

2.8 EXISTING RECLAIMED WATER INFRASTRUCTURE

The City operates a public-access reclaimed water system. The primary source of reclaimed water produced and distributed in the system is treated effluent generated at the City's Regional WRF at 550 North Orchard Street. The Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) regulates the system under the terms of operating permit # FL0020532.

The City's reclaimed water distribution system primarily includes the following components:

- WRF plant storage tanks (7.0 MG split between two tanks)
- WRF high-service pumping station
- A 2.0 MG storage tank and pump station at Breakaway Trails
- A 0.8 MG storage tank and pump station at Shadow Crossings
- One (1) inline booster station on Airport Road
- Approximately 75 miles of distribution piping

Table 7 showcases the City's average daily reclaimed water flow by month throughout the calendar year of 2022, with the yearly average daily flow into the WRF being 5.39 MGD. The showcased data is based on data recorded by WRF personnel. The primary item to note is that while the city has an annual average reuse rate of 80%, the overall reuse rate fluctuates from roughly 60% to nearly 100% based on the months or time of year. In essence, the city has enough reclaimed supply during the wetter (winter) months but generally does not have enough supply during the drier (summer) months. Additionally, the City does not currently have adequate storage capacity to allow for a more uniform year-round distribution of reclaimed demand. As such, the city is forced to discharge the excess reclaimed water to the Halifax River during periods of low usage, both during the non-growing season (Oct-March) and during periods of high rainfall.

Table 7: 2022 Historical Reuse Flows

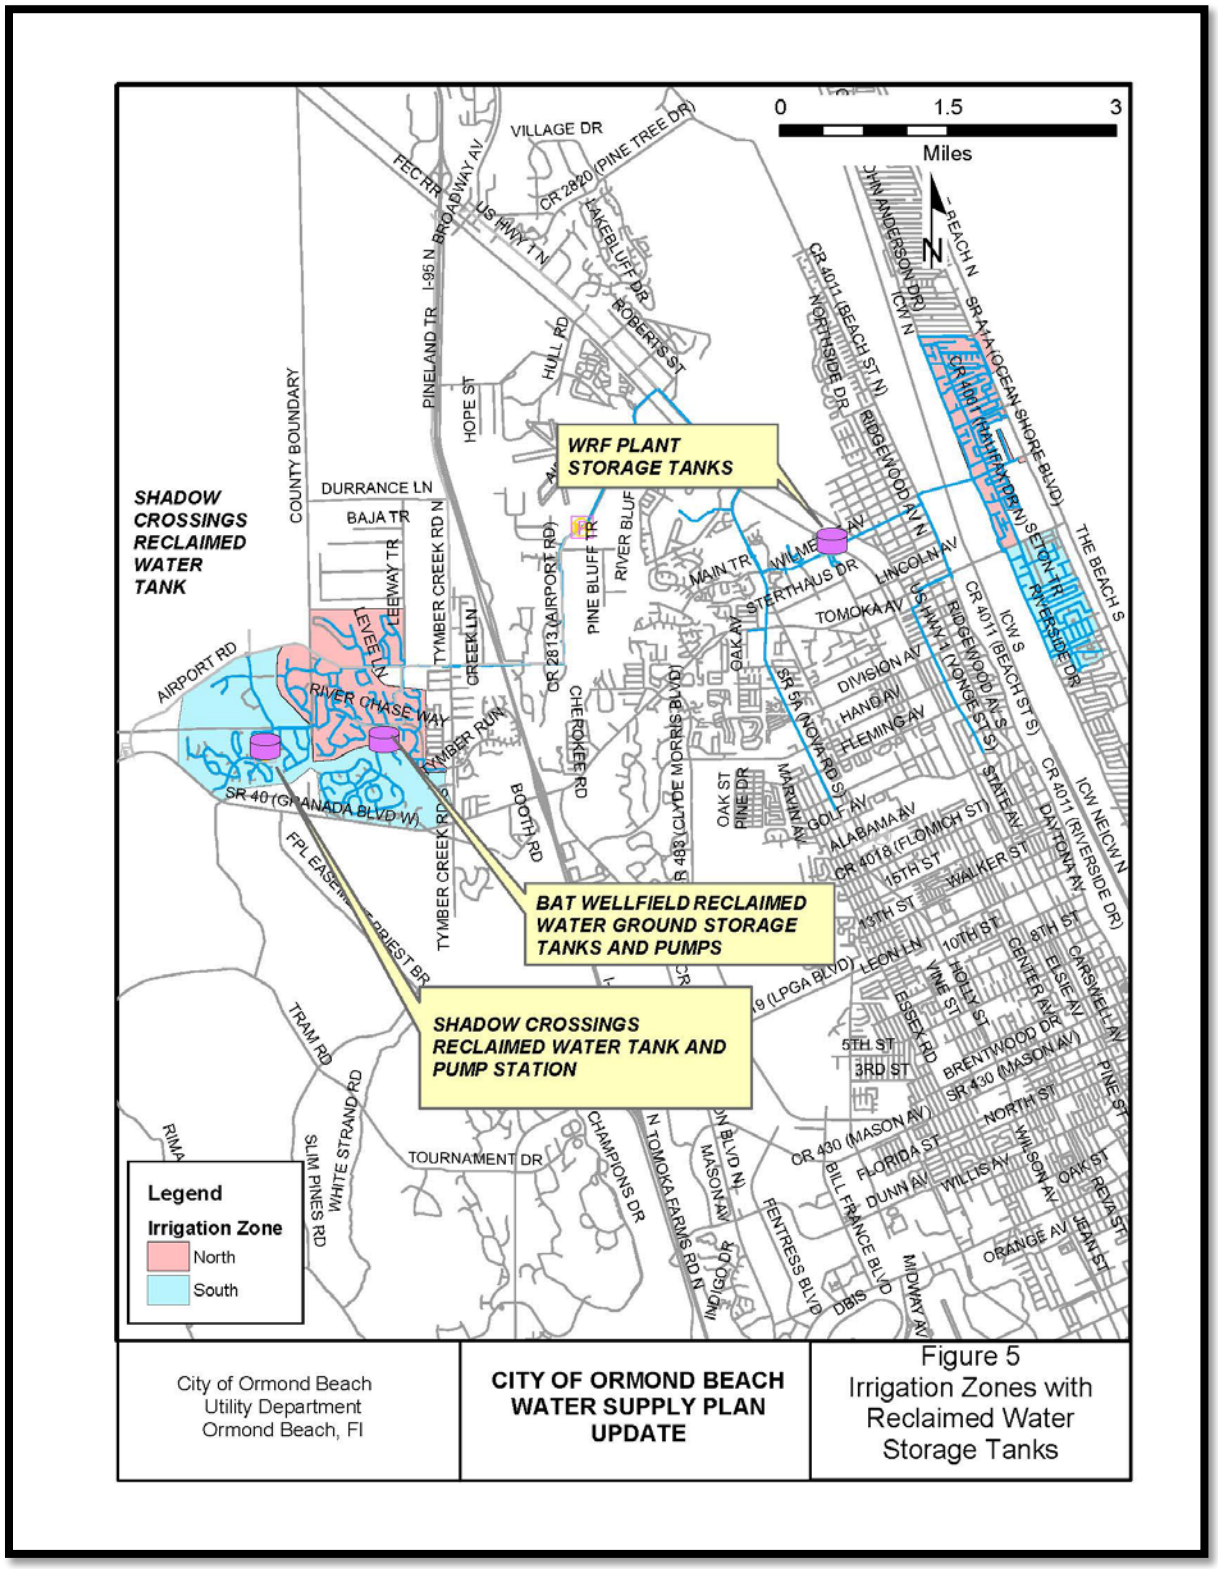
Other sources of reclaimed water, aside from treated effluent, include:

- Concentrate from the City's WTP RO process: Approx. 0.5-1.0 MGD
- Holly Hill reclaimed interconnect: Approx. 0.5-1.0 MGD
- Five (5) irrigation wells in the Hudson Wellfield (turned on as needed)



2.9 RECLAIMED WATER SCHEDULING

City ordinances state that under normal conditions, irrigation may only occur between 4 PM and 10 AM. Available reclaimed water, however, is generally fully utilized on most nights, especially during the drier months in the early growing season. During these peak irrigation periods, the city regularly runs out of reclaimed water before 10 AM, showcasing the city's current reclaimed water schedule. Conceptually, the schedule was set up to allow half of the City's customers to irrigate at a time, thereby reducing excess consumption and helping to alleviate pressure drops. Implementing this watering schedule has enabled the city to meet the demands of its reclaimed water customers on most days.

2.10 RECLAIMED WATER CONSERVATION CHALLENGES

The City currently serves approximately 3,000 reclaimed customers. Based upon the average reclaimed demand of 4.44 MGD showcased in Table 7, this equates to the average City customer using approximately 1,480 gallons per day of reclaimed water. According to SJRWMD's recommendations, the average reclaimed customer should utilize no more than 500-900 gallons of reclaimed water per day. As such, the current demand data suggests that the City's existing customers are using more reclaimed water than they should be.

In the future, the City would like to add additional reclaimed water customers to the City's infrastructure. Adding reclaimed customers would likely reduce potable irrigation demand and also likely reduce surface water effluent discharges. In order to add additional customers, however, the City will need to look at the use of large volume storage to buffer the reclaimed demand, as well as implementing additional policy changes aimed at curbing excess reclaimed water usage. The City welcomes any input or discussion SJRWMD would like to have regarding reclaimed water conservation practices. Implementing the watering scheduling system has been shown to curb some of the excess usage that was present many years ago, but there is still room for improvement. Some methods for managing reclaimed water currently being discussed internally by City staff include public education, metering, remote valving, and increasing enforcement of existing regulations.

2.11 INTERCONNECTS

The City of Ormond Beach currently has six (6) local interconnects with utilities in the surrounding area. These interconnects are not typically utilized, but they are inspected and maintained by City staff on a routine basis as the City recognizes the overall importance of these interconnects.

The City of Holly Hill has three (3) emergency interconnects with the City. These are generally located on Ridge Avenue, South Center Street, and South Nova Road. The City of Daytona Beach has two (2) emergency interconnects with the City. These are generally located on Williamson Boulevard and North Atlantic Avenue. Volusia County has one (1) emergency interconnect with the City. This interconnect is generally located north of Plantation Oaks Boulevard.

3. IDENTIFICATION OF NEEDED FACILITIES

3.1 ANTICIPATED WATER DEMAND PROJECTIONS

The City of Ormond Beach anticipates developments throughout the service area over the next ten years. These planned developments include Avalon Park Daytona Beach, Hunter's Ridge—Flagler County Development of Regional Impact, Plantation Oaks, and Ormond Crossing.

Table 9 and Table 10 have been created to showcase the projected potable and wastewater demands anticipated for the city over the next 10 years. This includes the demands from the aforementioned developments along with an additional column being added to the account for overall organic growth. This column is meant to represent the overall increase in demand that would occur on its own regardless of any development. The organic growth rate of 1.5% was chosen based upon historical data and previous master plan documents. This growth values are subject to change and are monitored as part of the annual; Capital Improvement Plan. Additionally, a projected population for the City's service area has also been included within Table 9. The initial population for calendar year of 2024 was obtained by multiplying the City's current potable water meter count of 23,685 by 2.30. Subsequent projection years were estimated by taking the increase in total project average annual daily flow (AADF) value per each calendar year and dividing it by 125 gallons per person while rounding to four digits. These aforementioned values of 2.30 and 125 are estimates utilized by Staff based primarily off of historical trends within the City's service area.

Table 10 utilizes the same projection values of Table 9, but the 2024 calendar year value for the reclaimed AADF was obtained by reviewing 2023 discharge monitoring reports (DMR) for the City's water reclamation facility (WRF). The different starting values for the water demand and the reclaimed availability are predominately due to not every existing customer within the City's service area utilizing the City's sewer services. When considering the values present in Table 10, staff would like to inform the SJRWMD team that the city currently plans on constructing a secondary WRF in the upcoming calendar years. This new facility will aid the City with future wastewater treatment capacity. Additional detail pertaining to this planned facility was left out of this report due to staff feeling such information was not pertinent to a water supply planning document. With that being said, however, staff welcomes any conversations that the SJRWMD team would like to have with the City regarding this facility if reviewers at the district feel it would be beneficial to conservation efforts.

3.3 PROJECTED CONSUMPTIVE USE PERMIT ALLOCATION

Table 11: Projected CUP Values

Year	Current Permitted Annual Average Raw Water Withdrawal (MGD)	Projected Raw Water Demands (MGD)	Anticipated CUP Request Allocation (MGD)
2024	8.18	6.817
2025		8.126	9.126

2033		10.517	11.517

3.4 RAW WATER SOURCE NEEDS

Based upon the projected raw water usage requirements shown in Table 11, the City will need the ability to withdrawal at least 11.754 MGD worth of raw water by 2033. Using the existing wellfield information summarized in Table 2 of this report, the City's existing wells can currently supply a theoretical maximum of 13.9 MGD worth of raw water withdrawal. Typical raw water rotation guidelines recommend that the City should have the capability to withdrawal at least 2.0 times the anticipated demand from the upper Floridan aquifer. Having this 2.0 factor of safety allows for rotation of wells and also reduces the criticality of any single well going out of service. In order to reach this 2.0 factor of safety, the City will need to look at adding approximately 7.6 MGD worth of withdrawal capabilities over the course of the next ten years. Assuming approximately 500 GPM from a new well, this would correspond to the City needing to construct approximately 12 new wells. The location, depth, and GPM value for these new wells is currently being discussed within the CUP renewal process.

Alternative options for the City to obtain additional raw water include: utilizing Lower Floridan Aquifer (LFA) ground water, withdrawing surface water from the St. Johns River, and demineralization of seawater. Implementation of any of these alternative ideas, however, would have a significant cost burden placed upon the City. As such, these ideas are not currently being pursued, but may be considered if significant funding opportunities or partnerships present themselves.

3.5 RAW WATER CAPITAL PROJECTS

The projects listed within this section are intended to highlight the City's anticipated path forward with regard to capital project construction for anticipated raw water needs identified in section 3 of this report. The capital improvement projects shall be reviewed annually as part of the city's budget and capital improvement plan process. In order to meet the projected demands of the raw water projection of 10.75 listed in Table 11 for the calendar year 2034 with a 2.0 factor of safety, the City's existing raw water system will need to be reinforced and expanded upon. The projects listed within this section are aimed at establishing redundancy and adequate supply for the City in the years to come.

3.5.1 Raw Water Main Reinforcement

One of the main concerns the City has regarding the existing raw water transmission system is the overall dependence on the existing 24-inch main that runs along Granada Blvd from the utility easement located between Shadow Crossings and Breakaway Trails to the existing Walmart. If anything were to ever happen to this 24-inch main, the City would lose the capability to transfer water from the Hudson and Rima Ridge wellfields back to the existing water treatment plant. To reduce this overall potential vulnerability, the City is currently in the process of completing the design of a secondary, redundant, raw water main from Hunter's Ridge to Williamson Boulevard. A preliminary cost estimate is shown in Table 12. This project is intended to be implemented in the short term.

Table 12: Raw Water Main Reinforcement - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost
16-inch Raw Water Main	13,500	LF	$120	$1,620,000

			Contingency @ 20%	$400,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$300,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$2,700,000

3.5.2 Hudson Wellfield Expansion

The City currently has three (3) additional wells permitted for construction within the Hudson Wellfield as was permitted in the previous CUP application. The City has executed a task order with one of the consultants for the design of these new wells and the goal is to bring these wells online by the end of calendar year 2024. As such, this project is categorized as short term. A preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 13.

Table 13: Hudson Wellfield Expansion - Preliminary Cost Estimate

			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$285,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$2,565,000

3.5.3 Rima Ridge Wellfield Expansion

The City would benefit from constructing additional raw water wells in the Rima Ridge wellfield. This proposed project currently seeks to add three (3) new wells in the medium to long term time horizon. Estimated withdrawal capacity from each future well is approximately 500 GPM. A preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 14. This project along with the prospect of a new wellfield will be discussed with SJRWMD during the CUP renewal process and is listed an intermediate project in the City's capital improvement program.

Table 14: Rima Ridge Wellfield Expansion - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost
New UFA Wells, Pumps and Mechanical Equipment	3	EA	$375,000	$1,125,000

			Contingency @ 20%	$490,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$367,500
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$3,307,500

3.5.4 Establish New Wellfield

The projected raw water demands demonstrate that the city will need to add raw water withdrawal capabilities in the upcoming years and construction of a new wellfield will be the most cost-effective option. Achieving a factor of 2.0 for raw water production to raw water demand would give the city greater flexibility to rotate wells, reducing saltwater up-coning and allowing for better control over elevated chloride levels. As previously mentioned, in order to reach this recommended 2.0 production capability, the city would need to construct at least 12 new wells in the future. Assuming three (3) additional wells are installed within the Hudson Wellfield and three (3) additional wells are installed within the Rima Wellfield, the City should anticipate approximately six (6) wells within the new wellfield. At this point in time, no cost estimate has been established due to the unknown future wellfield site location. This project will be discussed with SJRWMD during the CUP renewal process and is considered a long-term project.

3.6 WATER TREATMENT SYSTEM CAPACITY IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Based upon the average day potable water demand flow projection of 10.75 listed in Table 9 for the year 2034, the City's existing water treatment plant will be challenged to provide adequate treated potable water in the long-term future. Typical FDEP recommendations are to plan for additional treatment capacity once the facility nears 80% capacity, which would be 9.6 MGD for the City. As such, the City is currently looking at constructing an additional potable water treatment facility in the future. The projects listed below are aimed at establishing such a facility.

3.6.1 Future Water Treatment Plant Evaluation Report

Due to the complexity of bringing a water treatment plant online, the City plans on conducting an evaluation report prior to the design process. The evaluation report is aimed at reviewing the following items as a minimum: site usability, technology selection, permitting requirements, staffing requirements, raw water quality, any potential blending requirements, and storage and pumping needs. Table 15 shows a conceptual cost estimate for this evaluation report. This project is currently listed as long term.

Table 15: Future Water Treatment Plant - Evaluation Report

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost
Site Evaluation and Technology Report	1	LS	$250,000	$250,000
			Contingency @ 20%	$50,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$300,000

3.7 WATER SYSTEM CAPACITY IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

The City currently owns undeveloped property west of I-95 near the intersection of Airport Road and Granada Boulevard. This property has been discussed as being a suitable location for a new water treatment facility. Establishing a new facility at this site would allow the City to treat raw water and distribute finished water to the western service area from this location, as opposed to pumping raw water from the western wellfields to the existing WTP only to then have the existing WTP redistribute the treated water back to the western region. The final site location and potential treatment process, however, will be impacted by the evaluation report. The City would welcome any input from SJRWMD for this upcoming facility. This project is currently listed as long term and a preliminary cost estimate is included in Table 16.

Table 16: New Western Water Treatment Plant - Preliminary Cost Estimate

Item Description	Qty	Unit	Unit Cost	Total Cost

			Contingency @ 20%	$6,000,000
			Engineering & CEI @ 15%	$4,500,000
			Total Estimated Project Cost	$40,500,000

3.8 RECLAIMED WATER DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS

With the establishment of Policy 1.3.5, which is aimed at 100% reuse utilization by 2030, the City will need to add additional storage capacity and also add additional customers to its existing reclaimed water system. The projects within this section are poised to achieve this objective by creating and connecting a reclaimed water reservoir and by showcasing regions of the City's service area that the reclaimed system could be expanded to in the upcoming years.

3.8.1 Reclaim Main Extension to Reservoir

Based upon previous hydraulic modeling endeavors, the existing 10-inch reclaimed main on Airport Road has been identified as experiencing velocities around 12.0 ft/s during the daytime when filling the City's western storage tanks. For reclaimed water distribution systems, velocities greater than 8 ft/s are typically considered unacceptable. As such, this main is considered undersized and is considered by Staff as being the primary issue with transferring reclaimed water to the western portion of the City's service area. To remedy this situation, the City intends to replace the existing reclaimed main with a new pipe of a greater diameter to increase reliability, reduce experienced velocities, and add capacity to accommodate increased future demand. Additionally, this proposed project would also install a new main to the north of Airport Road such that it would connect the City's existing water reclamation facility to a future reclaimed water reservoir site. The City currently believes an 18-inch diameter main from the Airport Road booster station to the reclaimed reservoir site will achieve the desired outcomes of reducing velocities while also increase storage capabilities. A conceptual cost estimate for this project is shown in Table 17. City staff is currently in the initial design phase of this project. As such, this project is listed as being short term.

3.8.2 Reclaim Water Reservoir Tank and Station

Creating a reclaimed water reservoir would allow the City's WRF to store additional reuse water during periods of low demand while also providing an augmentation source when periods of high demand occur. The City is currently in the planning process of constructing a reservoir in Flagler County near Strickland Road. A conceptual cost estimate is included in Table 18. This project is currently listed with a short-term designation.

3.8.3 New Reclaim Water Storage Tank and Pump Station

With the potential construction of a new water treatment plant and a new water reclamation facility in the western service area, the construction of a reclaimed water storage tank and pump station in the same general vicinity would be a reasonable addition. As such, the City anticipates constructing a 3.0 MG reclaimed water storage tank to add additional reclaimed water storage.

A conceptual cost estimate for this project is included in Table 19. This is considered an intermediate term project. This project is partially dependent on the completion of the new western plants projects previously mentioned, and may ultimately be combined within those future projects.

3.8.4 Southern Peninsula Reclaimed Expansion

The City currently has a large number of reclaimed customers on the peninsula portion of the City's service area. As such, expansion of the reclaimed water system on the peninsula to serve customers that do not currently have reclaimed available would make practical sense. Based upon recent hydraulic modeling reports, however, the City has found that the reclaimed system cannot accommodate additional flow due to having only one subaqueous reclaimed crossing. To alleviate this bottleneck, the City is currently in the process of planning for a secondary subaqueous crossing under the Halifax River in the intermediate time frame. With this project completed, the City would be able to expand the existing reclaimed water system on the beachside to serve additional customers. Establishing additional customers on the peninsula would allow for the City to reduce the amount of potable water used for irrigation purposes. This project is currently on the City's long-term radar and conceptual cost estimate will be made during the next major master plan update.

3.8.5 Ormond Crossings Reclaimed Transmission Loop

With the proposed Ormond Crossings development, the developer is currently looking at the potential for installing a reclaimed water main system in the developed area. Theoretically, if the City and developer could work together to install a reclaimed system that spanned to both the north and south side of the Ormond Crossings region, then this would allow for the City to establish a reclaimed water main looped system from US1 to Airport road. Doing so would allow the City to add additional customers to the reclaimed water system, decrease the amount of potable water used for irrigation purposes in the planned development, and improve reliability in the overall reclaimed system. This project, however, is currently tentative due the overall nature of development. As such, this project is currently listed as a long-term endeavor dependent upon the developer's timetable. A conceptual cost estimate will be made during the next major master plan update.

5. WATER SUPPLY POLICY UPDATES TO COMPREHENSIVE PLAN

Utilities Element

POLICY 1.2.5 (Modified)

The City will implement the traditional and alternative water supply projects ~~scheduled for completion by 2013~~ as identified in the Water Supply ~~w~~Work Plan.

POLICY 1.2.6. (New)

The City will expand its reclaimed water system in accordance with the 2015 Utility Master Plan and subsequent updates in an effort to improve water quality throughout the region. The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge.

POLICY 5.2.1. (Modified)

The City shall maintain a ~~w~~Water ~~s~~Supply ~~w~~Work ~~p~~Plan that is coordinated with St. Johns River Water Management District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Work Plan by updating the work plan within 18 months of an update to the District's ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan that affects the City.

POLICY 5.2.2. (Modified)

The City will participate in the development of updates to St. Johns River Water Management District's water supply assessment and ~~District~~ Regional Water Supply Plan and other water supply development-related initiatives facilitated by the District's that affect the City.

POLICY 5.2.3. (New)

The City's Water Supply Work Plan is incorporated into the Comprehensive Plan as Appendix A of the Utilities Element. The City will implement the Water Supply Work Plan through the annual Capital Improvement Plan process.

POLICY 1.7.2. (Modified)

Projected demands ~~through the year 2015~~ shall be met by undertaking those projects as identified in the Capital Improvements Element.

POLICY 5.3.2. (Modified)

Potable water supplies shall be conserved to the maximum extent practicable through the continued implementation of water conservation techniques and programs. Such techniques and programs may include, but are not limited to:

a. The City shall ~~work through the Water Authority of Volusia (WAV)~~ continue to incentivize water conservation using low-flow showers and toilets, rain sensors for lawn irrigation, and xeriscape.

b. The City will continue to implement and expand its program to provide for water reuse and/or reclamation and where appropriate require effluent reuse for irrigation, industrial use and other appropriate non-potable water use applications.

c. The City shall require new development to install 'dry-lines' for reclaimed water distribution. Developments with greater than 100 units shall provide on-site storage and pumping, integrated with the stormwater management system. Under certain conditions, the developer may be allowed to contribute an equivalent value of the infrastructure into a reclaimed water construction fund.

d. The City shall ~~purchase a~~ continue its leak detection systems ~~by 2010~~ which will enable water distribution crews to monitor the entire City's water distribution system through the use of leak noise loggers.

Conservation Element

~~By the year 2010, the City shall develop a plan to further reduce the amount of treated effluent discharged to the Halifax River to 10% of the total volume of wastewater treated at the plant.~~

The City shall establish a target of 100% reuse of average daily wastewater flow by the year 2030, except for operational conditions, including current weather conditions, anticipated weather patterns, reclaimed water demands, reclaimed water use patterns, system draw down restrictions, system surplus volume, interruptible customer service restrictions, system operational efficiency, production capability, reclaimed storage capacity, availability of storm and groundwater augmentation sources, and other agency regulatory restrictions that require river discharge

POLICY 5.3.8. (New)

The City shall reduce groundwater withdrawal through the utilization of a reclaimed water scheduling program as mentioned in section 2C of the 2023 Water Supply Plan. The reclaimed water schedule may be updated by the Utility Manager or Public Works Director as deemed necessary. Additionally, the City will continue to communicate the importance of watering conservation with its customers.

Capital Improvements Element

POLICY 1.3.2. (Modified)

The City shall use the following level-of-service standards to determine the impacts of new development and redevelopment upon public facility provision:

a. Fire Fighting: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) unit per acre shall be served by a public/private central water system capable of delivering the required fire flows having adequate firefighting capacity of a minimum of 1,000 gpm or greater as determined by the Chief Fire Official in conjunction with the City Engineer or National Fire Protection Associates (NFPA) guidelines (or its equivalent where a sprinkler system is used) and minimum 20 psi residual for a minimum two- (2-) hour duration depending upon the specific structure and/or use. Single-family home development at less than one (1) unit per acre or less, or other development of equivalent intensity (e.g., average daily water use of less than 300 gpd per acre), may be served by an individual well. All required fire flows will be in addition to the peak daily demand established.

b. Parks (acres per population): 13 acres per 1,000 population

A capital facilities recovery fee to develop lands dedicated by developers to meet the acreage level of service standards shall be pursued. The recovery fee may be either assessed to the developer of the subdivision or the builder of the home in the form of an impact fee.

Subdivisions which provide private recreation lands and facilities shall be provided a credit against the land dedication and capital facilities recovery fee.

c. Roads: The following level-of-service standards are adopted for roadways Citywide:

	LOS Daily	LOS Peak Hour
City	C	D
County	D	E
State	C (SIS/FIHS)	D (TRIP)

d. Water:

Raw:	~~An average daily volume of 124 gallons of raw water per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 330 gallons per Equivalent Residential Unit (ERU).

Potable:	~~An annual average daily volume of 110 gallons per capita per day.~~ An average daily volume of 300 gallons per ERU.
Sewer:	An average daily volume of 270 gallons per ERU.
Reclaimed:	~~An average of daily volume of 600 GPD per ERU.~~ An average daily volume of 300 GPD per ERU.

e. ~~Sanitary Sewer: An annual average daily volume of 281 gallons equivalent residential unit (ERU).~~ Other uses water standards:

Factories (with Showers or Chemicals)	0.1 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Factories (without Showers or Chemicals)	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
General Commercial / Office Buildings	0.05 ERU per 100 Sq. Ft.
Gas Stations (no car wash)	1.5 ERU per bathroom
Hospitals	0.7 ERU per bed
Hotels and Motels	0.4 ERU per room

e. Sanitary Sewer Treatment: All development having a density equivalent to or greater than one (1) ERU per acre shall be served by a public/private wastewater treatment system capable of handling the projected design flows with an appropriate peak factor, as determined by the applicant or design professional. The peak factor shall not be less than 2.5. For developments having a density of less than one (1) ERU per acre, the applicant may elect to install a septic system provided that the applicant obtains an appropriate permit from the Volusia County Health Department and the City's existing gravity collection system is not within 200 feet of the proposed development.

f. Solid Waste:

Average residential pick-ups per truck.....	1,600
Average commercial pick-ups/truck/route	155
Average residential pick-ups/man/day.....	226
Pounds/capita/day for residential, commercial and industrial waste.....	5.69
Pounds/capita/day for special wastes.....	3

g. Drainage: The difference in the volume of run-off for 25 years frequency, 24-hour duration storm event between pre-development and post-development conditions shall be retained on-site. The difference between the pre-development and post-development conditions for peak run-off rates for the 100-year frequency, 24-hour duration rainfall event shall be retained on-site. Individual development facility capacity shall be maintained so that there is no potential flooding increase above the base year elevation. There shall be no degradation of water quality of Class III waters. An equal or greater volume of storage capacity must be created for any volume of the regulatory flood that would be displaced by fill or structures. The velocity of the regulatory flood must not be adversely altered on any watercourse. Areas not filled are to generally be left in their natural state. However, such areas may be used to meet landscaping and/or retention requirements, provided that the design is consistent with the then-existing City standards and ordinance requirements. Fill limitations consistent with the Land Development Code and the performance standards for each wetland classification established by the Conservation Element shall be enforced for all developments lying within areas of special flood hazard, as defined by the 100-year floodplain boundaries of the FEMA FIRM maps.

Comprehensive Plan Amendments
Water Supply Work Plan

March 14, 2024

Mr. Galloway moved to approve the March 14, 2024 Minutes. Mr. Scudiero seconded the motion. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

VI. PLANNING DIRECTOR'S REPORT

No report.

VII. PUBLIC HEARINGS

A. PZ 2023-077, Comprehensive Plan Amendments, Water Supply Work Plan

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, stated that this is an administrative request to amend the Comprehensive Plan related to the Water Supply Work Plan, including text amendments. The Water Supply Work Plan is state mandated to create a link between a regional water supply adopted by the Saint John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD) and local government comprehensive plans. Mr. Spraker stated that the work plan summarizes the City of Ormond Beach's current water supply, water treatment, and effluent disposal methods, along with projecting future water demands based on anticipated development projects scheduled to occur over the next ten years. He reviewed the Water Planning Service Area and proposed text amendments to the Comprehensive Plan. Mr. Spraker introduced Mr. Mike Stephenson, city Utilities Engineer, and stated that Mr. Stephenson is available for any questions. Mr. Spraker stated that staff is recommending approval of the Comprehensive Plan amendments. He concluded that the item will go on to the City Commission, be transmitted to the State, and to abutting cities for any comments.

Board Discussion and Questions

Vice-Chair Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Railsback asked if the plan was done by a consultant. Mr. Spraker responded that it was done by Mr. Mike Stephenson, Utilities Engineer, and that he was in attendance if there were specific questions.

Mr. Jorczak commented on the significant amount of money in the capital budget and expressed his assumption on it being partly in anticipation for the Avalon development. Mr. Spraker replied that the capital budget is prepared by the Finance Director and reviewed and approved by the City Commission. He added that there are a lot of factors in play. There is capacity in the water treatment plant. One focus of the Water Supply Work Plan is on reclaimed water, as a State initiative, where the city cannot release water into the river. There are capital projects that seek to create a reuse storage pond with the goal to expand the reuse facility. Mr. Spraker stated that annually, the capital budget is reviewed as part of the Capital Improvement Plan. The funding sources are defined as it moves along in the 10-year period.

Mr. Jorczak asked if the City has been able to cover a lot of the costs, and asked how to reconcile the plan with the huge amounts of money involved. Mr. Spraker responded that there are a variety of funding sources from impact fees, to grants, and development agreements.

DRAFT

Mr. du Moulin asked if the City allows for growth of staffing at the water department due to the challenge of finding qualified and capable people to carry out the functions. Mr. Spraker replied that the staffing level is looked at annually outside of the Water Supply Plan, which is more focused on wells, reclaimed storage and capital projects, which are major capital expenses.

Mr. Galloway inquired about reclaimed/reuse water, and asked why the recapturing of rain water has not been discussed. Mr. Spraker answered that new development projects such as RidgeHaven, have the irrigation source out of the stormwater ponds, pointing out that some development projects are already doing that. Mr. Spraker stated that the goal is to decrease the potable water demand for irrigation. It was discussed that stormwater management is not the focus of the state mandated Water Supply Work Plan.

Mr. Railsback commented that rain capture in Florida may not be a solution because the aquifer water source is what the State is continually trying to replenish, whereas other states have additional capacity underground.

Mr. Galloway referenced Charleston and how they have coastal towns with the same problems of mass-flooding when getting a 10”-15” overabundance of rain, and asked if the City was going to continue letting the environmentalists dictate and state that the world is coming to an end, or if future instruments will be considered in recapturing it. Mr. Spraker responded that the Shoppes of Granada and RidgeHaven are a couple of projects that have utilized the process. Mr. Spraker refocused and explained that the goal is for the Comprehensive Plan and Water Supply Work Plan to be consistent with St. John’s River Water Management District (SJRWMD).

Mr. Jorczak referenced saltwater intrusion with the severe demand on the aquifer, and how it has other communities drawing off of the same aquifer that is feeding the City of Ormond Beach wells, and asked if there has been any other data in the plan showing the level of saltwater intrusion and its impact on the City’s well systems.

Mr. Stephenson, Utilities Engineer, City of Ormond Beach, stated that it is tracked annually and its currently around 200 milligrams per liter in the overall fluoride intake. The plants can handle up to 250-300 milligrams without any trouble. Mr. Stephenson continued that there are no major concerns for the next ten years.

Ms. Shull asked if security has been updated in the water facilities. Mr. Stephenson replied that it is not part of this plan but it is being looked into and the department is working on updating cameras at its facilities. Both the physical infrastructure and cyber level security is being worked on.

Mr. du Moulin asked if the State mandates security at the City or if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) mandates it. Mr. Stephenson responded that he thinks that it is mandated by the State but will research further.

Ms. Shull asked for Mr. Spraker to elaborate on what the interconnects are. Mr. Spraker replied that there is an interconnect with Daytona Beach, Holly Hill and Halifax Plantation. In case one city has water issues in an emergency situation, this is a great planning tool to access other municipalities water supply, Mr. Spraker said.

Ms. Shull asked for clarification on where wells are. Mr. Spraker replied that there are wells in Rima Ridge in Volusia County and within Flagler County that pull from the same aquifer.

Mr. Stephenson concurred that the wells are in Volusia County and Flagler County from the same aquifer source. He elaborated that the City converses with St. John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD), who regulates the entire waterbody. Each entity has to communicate with SJRWMD on what they are specifically allowed to draw.

Mr. Jorczak asked if the State regulates how deep a well can go. Mr. Stephenson commented that he is not certain as SJRWMD gets involved with that aspect. He added that below the normal upper Florida aquifer, there is brackish water, going through the confining layer, where a lot of the technology is moving, as opposed to affecting the upper Florida aquifer.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Jorczak motioned to approve PZ 2023-077, Comprehensive Plan Amendments, Water Supply Work Plan. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

B. PZ 2024-010, Fountain View, Phase 1B, Final Plat

Mr. Spraker explained the application for a final plat for a 137-lot single-family subdivision on approximately 63.22 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1B subdivision, part of Phase 1 of the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development (PRD), is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard next to I-95. He reviewed the zoning approval for the subdivision, Ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16, and the preliminary plat, Resolution 2024-29. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat is a legal document to subdivide land after constructing improvements or posting a performance bond. He concluded that final plats are reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC), City Attorney's Office, and a City Surveyor and the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC) recommends approval.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. du Moulin asked about flooding issues with the amount of homes going up. He continued inquiring about any Police and Fire Chiefs concerns with response time. Mr. Spraker replied that the property is not in the flood zone. It is in flood zone x. He continued that when it was in Volusia County, there was an extensive water review for both the County and SJRWMD. Mr. Spraker added that it has extensive coordinated stormwater review. He continued that the Police and Fire Chiefs have been involved since the property was annexed into the City in 2019, where the annexation commenced in 2015. Mr. Spraker commented that it is not a new subdivision and has been around since 1986 in Volusia County and has gone through a number of reiterations. If it was not built in Ormond Beach, it would have been

Subject:	ISBA Renewal
Summary:	This is an administrative request to renew the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). The North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement was adopted in 2014, amended in 2019 (Plantation Oaks – first amendment), and 2021/2022 (RidgeHaven – second amendment). The administrative request seeks a 10 year renewal and does not amend any other portions of the North U.S. 1 ISBA. The ISBA allows Ormond Beach to apply its land use and zoning standards to properties within the corridor, whether within the City or in unincorporated Volusia County. The City only requires annexation as properties are connected to City utility services. The Planning Board reviewed the proposed ISBA renewal at the April 11, 2024 meeting and recommended approval by a 6-0 vote. No individuals spoke for or against the renewal.
Financial Impact:	None
Citizen Impact:	The ISBA is a long-term commitment to seek to improve the North U.S. Highway 1 corridor. WHEREAS, in furtherance of the 1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement, the City and County also entered into a Joint Project Agreement dated July 16, 1992 ("1992 JPA"), establishing terms and conditions for the extension of water and sewer lines, and providing terms for the reimbursement of development fees for development projects in the unincorporated territory of the County; and

WHEREAS, the Parties agreed, in paragraph 10 of the 1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement, to continue to study the feasibility of future expansion of the municipal service area described in that agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Municipal Annexation or Contraction Act, Chapter 171, Part I, Florida Statutes, and the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement Act, Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, recognizes the use of interlocal service boundary agreements and joint planning agreements as a means to coordinate planning and delivery of services related to future land use, public facilities and services, and protection of natural resources in advance of annexation; and

WHEREAS, the Local Government Comprehensive Planning and Land Development Regulation Act, Chapter 163, Part II, Florida Statutes, requires that counties and cities include in their respective planning efforts intergovernmental coordination and particularly, mechanisms for identifying and implementing joint planning areas; and

WHEREAS, Section 171.204, Florida Statutes, allows a municipality to annex land that is not contiguous to the municipality, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact when a county and municipality enter into a joint planning agreement under Section 163.3171; and

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals above are true and correct and are incorporated into this ISBA and all Sub-Agreements, as if fully set forth herein, as the legislative findings of the City and County.

2. Incorporation of Sub-Agreements and Map 1. The following Sub-Agreements and Map 1 attached hereto are fully incorporated as if fully set forth herein:

a. Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement
b. Map 1 (depicting the interlocal boundary service area, joint planning area, and municipal service area)
c. Any Sub-Agreement that may be approved and executed after the approval and effective date of this Agreement
d. 1992 Joint Project Agreement (regarding water and sewer line extension and development fee reimbursement)

3. Term and Effective Date of Agreement. The ISBA and all attached Sub-Agreements shall become effective when filed with clerk of court for Volusia County Circuit Court, in accordance with section 163.01(11), Florida Statutes. The initial term of the Agreement and all attached Sub-Agreements shall be ten (10) years from the effective date of the Agreement. At the end of the fifth year, the County and City shall review the effectiveness and performance of this Agreement. Based upon the review, this Agreement, including any or all Sub-Agreements, may continue for the remainder of the initial term, be amended as the parties desire, or be terminated in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Agreement.

4. Renewal of Agreement. The City and County shall, in the event the Parties desire to extend the initial term of the Agreement, initiate negotiations in accordance with section 171.203(12), Florida Statutes, no later than eighteen months prior to the termination of the initial term.

5. Termination of Agreement. The County or City may terminate this Agreement or any Sub-Agreement at anytime upon written notice of termination to the other Party delivered no later than May 1st in order for termination to be effective on December 31st of the same calendar year. Either Party may initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice to the other Party. Initiation of the dispute resolution process shall operate as a stay of the action which is the subject of the dispute.

a. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that either Party determines in its sole discretion and good faith that it is necessary to file a lawsuit or other formal challenge in order to meet a jurisdictional time deadline, to obtain a temporary injunction, or otherwise to preserve a legal or equitable right related to this Agreement, such lawsuit or challenge may be filed, but upon the filing and any other act necessary to preserve the legal or equitable right or to obtain the temporary injunction, the Parties shall thereafter promptly file a joint motion with the reviewing court or administrative law judge requesting that the case be abated in order to afford the Parties an opportunity to pursue the dispute resolution

b. Within ten (10) days of the abatement order, the allegedly aggrieved Party shall then effect the transmittal of a notice of conflict, in the form of a certified letter, to all governmental bodies involved in the dispute at issue. Upon receipt of the notice, which shall specify the areas of disagreement, the Parties agree to conduct a conflict assessment meeting at a reasonable time and place, as mutually agreed upon, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice of conflict.

c. If discussions between the Parties at the conflict resolution meeting fail to resolve the dispute, within forty (40) days of the receipt of the notice described in subparagraph a, above, the Parties shall conduct mediation in the presence of a neutral third party mediator. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a mediator, the County shall request appointment of a mediator by the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. The mediation contemplated by this section is intended to be an informal and non-adversarial process with the objective of helping the Parties reach a mutually acceptable and voluntary agreement. The decision-making shall rest solely with the Parties. The mediator shall assist the Parties in identifying issues, fostering joint problem-solving and exploring settlement alternatives.

d. If the Parties are unable to reach a mediated settlement, within fifty (50) days of the receipt of the initial notice of conflict, the Parties shall hold a joint intergovernmental meeting. If the joint intergovernmental meeting does not successfully resolve the issues identified in the notice of conflict, the entities participating in the dispute resolution procedures described herein may avail themselves of any otherwise available rights, including the suspension of abatement of existing actions.

e. The Parties agree this dispute resolution procedure is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 163.01(5)(p), section 171.212, Florida Statutes, and Chapter 164, Florida Statutes.

7. Duplication of Services. 11. Enforcement. This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Parties hereto by whatever remedies are available in law or equity, including but not limited to injunctive relief and specific performance. Failure to insist upon strict compliance with any of the terms, covenants, or conditions hereof shall not be deemed as a waiver (or continuing waiver) of such terms, covenants, or conditions; nor shall any waiver or relinquishment of any right or power hereunder be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of such right or power at any other time.

12. Defense. If this Agreement or any portion hereof is challenged by any judicial, administrative, or appellate proceeding (each Party hereby agreeing with the other not to initiate or acquiesce to such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement), the Parties collectively and individually agree, at their individual sole cost and expense, to defend in good faith its validity through to a final judicial determination, unless both Parties mutually agree in writing not to defend such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement.

13. Amendments. Amendments to the Agreement may be offered by either Party at any time. Proposed amendments shall be in writing and must be approved by a majority of the governing bodies of each Party. No amendment shall be effective until approved by the governing bodies of the City and County.

14. Supremacy. The Parties agree and covenant, having given and received valuable consideration for the promises and commitments made herein, it is their desire, intent and firm agreement to be bound by and observe the terms of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided by this Agreement or by law, in the event the terms of this Agreement conflict with previous agreements between the Parties, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

15. Entire Understanding. Except as otherwise specifically set forth herein or in any subagreement, this Agreement embodies and constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matters addressed herein, and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are superseded by this Agreement. The City and County further acknowledge that they each participated in drafting this Agreement, and in the event of a dispute regarding the Agreement, it shall not be construed by a court of competent jurisdiction or other tribunal more or less favorably on behalf of either Party on the basis of a claim that a Party did not participate in drafting the Agreement or any part thereof.

16. Governing Law and Venue. The laws of the State of Florida shall govern this Agreement, and venue for any action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement shall only be in the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. Federal Jurisdiction and venue, if applicable shall only be in the Middle District of Florida, Orlando Division. If circumstances arise which cause a conflict between this paragraph and paragraph 6 ("Dispute Resolution") paragraph 6 shall control.

17. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provision hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction.

18. Compliance with Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes. The Parties agree that this Agreement meets the requirements of Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes. The Parties intend for this Agreement to be broadly construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions set forth herein, specifically those provisions that provide for the transfer of powers over lands within the JPA/MSA by the County to the City; and the authority by the City to exercise powers extraterritorially over said lands, including but not necessarily limited to the application and enforecement of the codes described in paragraph 4,c of the Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

19. Amendment of Intergovernmental Coordination Element of Comprehensive Plans. Consistent with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, the Parties, within six (6) months of the effective date of this Agreement, shall amend their respective Intergovernmental Coordination Elements of their adopted Comprehensive Plans to establish consistency and compliance with this Agreement.

20. Adoption by County. The County shall adopt this Agreement by ordinance in accordance with Sections 171.203(14) and 125.66, Florida Statutes.

21. Adoption by City. The City shall adopt this Agreement by ordinance in accordance with Sections 171.203(14) and 166.041, Florida Statutes.

22. 1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Agreement. The interlocal service area agreement dated September 12, 1991, between the City and County establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor shall be deemed terminated on the effective date of this ISBA and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement, and shall be superseded and replaced by the ISBA and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement

This Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement is made and entered into this 28th day of August, 2014, by and between the City of Ormond Beach ("City") and Volusia County ("County").

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is made and entered into in furtherance of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement ("ISBA"), and it is a material part of the ISBA; and

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the "Whereas" recitals in the ISBA are incorporated herein by reference.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County enter into this Sub-Agreement as follows:

1. Incorporation of recitals as legislative findings; purpose. The recitals stated in the ISBA and this Sub-Agreement are incorporated herein by reference as the legislative findings of the City and County. This Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes, specifically sections 171.203, 171.204 and [redacted]

2. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area ("JPA") and Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), which terms may herein be used synonymously and interchangeably as the context requires.

3. Planning Process and Implementation.

a. The City and the County shall amend the Intergovernmental Coordination Element of their respective comprehensive land use plans in accordance with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, by adopting a policy referencing said agreement. The County's policy shall read as follows, and shall be inserted in Chapter 14 of the county comprehensive plan:

[redacted] Pursuant to Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, Volusia County and the City of Ormond Beach have established an Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) adopted on August 28, 2014. The agreement allows the City to annex properties within the Joint Planning Area that would not otherwise be eligible for annexation subject to the provisions established in the ISBA.

b. The City shall adopt a Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), as that term is defined in Section 171.202(11), Florida Statutes, as an amendment to its comprehensive land use plan within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, in accordance with Section 171.203 (11), Florida Statutes. The MSA shall include the area depicted in Map 1, population projections for the MSA, and data and analysis supporting the provision of public facilities for the MSA.

c. Section 171.207, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a county to transfer its powers to a municipality over lands that are within a JPA/MSA; and section 171.208, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a municipality to exercise its powers, extraterritorially, over such lands. In accordance with Sections 163.3171(4) and 171.203(6)(f), Florida Statutes, the County comprehensive plan, zoning, and land development regulations shall apply to all lands in the JPA/MSA until the City annexes the land at issue or amends its comprehensive plan with respect to those lands. The City is authorized and empowered, pursuant to section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, to amend and apply its comprehensive plan to the lands within the JPA/MSA in advance of the annexation of those lands. In addition, the City's codes and regulations shall apply in advance of annexation upon the adoption by the City of a comprehensive plan amendment; and the City shall be authorized and empowered, pursuant to sections 163.3171(4), 171.207 and 171.208, Florida Statutes, to exercise extraterritorial powers over such lands.

d. The City shall serve as the single point of service for building permitting, inspections, and enforcement (including Flood Hazard Management).

4. Planning, Development and Administrative Authority. The City shall have sole and singular authority within the boundaries of the JPA to apply the City's Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Zoning Map categories over unincorporated parcels, to administer the codes and regulations described in paragraph 4,c below, and to provide for the enforcement of codes:

a. Land Use Designations. The City shall be authorized to amend its future land use map for the purpose of governing any and all unincorporated lands within the JPA. The City shall coordinate the amendment with the County prior to processing it by submitting a copy of the proposed amendment to the County no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the initial hearing. In the event the County desires to object to the proposed amendment, it must file a written objection, stating a good faith basis for same, with the City no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the initial hearing on the amendment. The Parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment. If the Parties are not able to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment, the County may pursue available remedies under applicable law.

b. Zoning Classifications. The City shall be authorized to amend the City's zoning map for all unincorporated lands within the JPA after a City land use designation has been adopted.

c. Application of Codes. The following codes and ordinances (as may be approved or amended from time to time) shall apply in their entirety to unincorporated land in the JPA:

i. City Charter,
ii. City Code of Ordinances,
iii. City Comprehensive Land Use Plan,
iv. City Land Development Code,
v. Non-codified City ordinances, resolutions, and regulations, and
vi. Florida Building Code.

d. Stormwater Conveyance Services. The County shall continue to administer and enforce its regulations regarding county stormwater conveyance systems within the boundaries of the JPA. The City will review and approve all new development in the JPA with regard to stormwater conveyance systems including but not limited to water quality, discharge volume and flow rate, as well as storm attenuation and flood control. The City shall not permit any construction, additions, renovations, or alterations of any improvements to real property, in a manner that is inconsistent or conflicts with County policy unless specific written approval is received from the County Engineer, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. The County shall continue to accept stormwater runoff and maintain stormwater conveyance systems when County predevelopment conditions related to stormwater are met.

e. Itinerant Vendor and Merchant Activities. The City shall have sole and complete jurisdiction over itinerant vendor and merchant activities, and outdoor entertainment activities, within the boundaries of the JPA/MSA, including the issuance of licenses and permits.

f. Roads; transfer of jurisdicition. This paragraph is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 335.0415(3), Florida Statutes.

i. County Thoroughfare Roads. The County shall retain jurisdiction, ownership and control of the entire length of County Thoroughfare Roads within the JPA/MSA regardless of any parcel annexations by the City, including the existing thoroughfare roads listed below and subsequent revisions to the County's thoroughfare roadways as illustrated in Figure 2-1, Volusia County Comprehensive Plan:

(1) Broadway Avenue, from Tymber Creek Road to US 1.
(2) Airport Road, from the Florida East Coast Railroad to US 1.

ii. Non-thoroughfare Roads. The permanent transfer within the JPA/MSA of non-thoroughfare roadway maintenance responsibilities from the County to the City shall occur as follows:

(1) For purposes of this agreement, "road segment" shall mean the portion of a County road between two intersecting roads.

(2) Except for those roads identified in paragraph f,i above, non-thoroughfare county roads within or adjacent to the existing City boundary shall become roads under the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility when at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the road segment is either within or adjacent to the existing City.

(3) All County non-thoroughfare roads within the MSA shall transfer to the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility by segment upon the annexation of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of a road segment.

(4) The 51% segment ratio shall be calculated based on the frontage of annexed parcels on each side of the road segment between two intersecting roads.

(5) Once 51% or more of a segment is annexed, the entire road segment between the two intersecting roads will be deemed annexed into the City and transferred to the City's jurisdiction, and ownership; and the City will be fully responsible for all maintenance and other responsibilities.

(6) As the City accepts jurisdiction and responsibility over a road segment, it shall have the same right of access for purposes of maintenance as the County, to the fullest extent the County is able to grant such right.

(7) Any County or City agreements for road improvements with other governmental or private entities existing at the time of the approval of this Sub-Agreement, if any, shall remain in full force and effect; except in the event of a conflict with this Sub-Agreement, in which case the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall prevail. It is the intention of the parties that no additional "mutual agreements" shall be necessary to effect road segment annexation. This Sub-Agreement is intended to convey the will of the parties concerning all road segments within the JPA/MSA.

iii. Transportation Planning and Coordination.

(1) The City and County agree to use the adopted Volusia Transportation Planning Organization (TPO) Transportation Impact Analysis (TIA) Guidelines to coordinate the review and mitigation of development impacts on road, transit, bicycle and pedestrian systems based upon a mutually agreed upon TIA methodology. The TIA Guidelines shall utilize the latest adopted level of service standards and transportation plans within the impacted jurisdiction's comprehensive plans including the adopted Volusia TPO Long Range Transportation Plan.

(2) In the event the standards or plans may be different, the TIA methodology and/or mitigation plan shall address coordination. When necessary, comprehensive plans shall be updated to reflect the latest coordination plans. In the event the TIA Guidelines are ever repealed or become no longer applicable, the City and County agree to continue to utilize the latest adopted version for the purpose of plan review and mitigation coordination.

iv. Funding. The City and County agree to work together to obtain funding sources for capital transportation improvements, including capital and operating expenses for the provision of transit service, within the JPA/MSA.

v. Maintenance. The City and County may enter into maintenance agreements for certain segments of permanent County roads within the JPA/MSA. The County agrees that the City shall be justly compensated for any and all maintenance responsibilities that may be transferred to the City through a maintenance agreement.

vi. Continuing jurisdiction. All roads over which jurisdiction is transferred to the City under the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall be maintained by the City unless otherwise agreed to in a separate maintenance agreement. If a road is transferred to the City, to the extent available, the County shall provide all as-builts, surveys, maintenance maps and GIS files that identify County maintenance responsibilities. Road transfers include associated roadway drainage and right-of-way infrastructure that includes but is not limited to sidewalks, guardrails, signs and multi-use trails.

g. Land Development and Planning. The City shall provide site plans and subdivision plans to the County for review and comment. The County shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of plans to submit its comments or recommendations to the City. The City shall notify the County of the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city's local planning agency (i.e., planning board) for its review and recommendation to the city commission, as well as the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city commission for final action. The County's comments or recommendation shall be included in any city staff analysis that is presented to the city planning board and city commission. The County may submit or present its comments or recommendations directly to the city planning board and city commission, regardless whether or not they have been incorporated into the site plan.

h. Enforcement of Codes. The City shall enforce City or County codes within the JPA/MSA, whichever may apply.

5. Joint Planning Area ("JPA"). The following additional findings are intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 171.204(2), Florida Statutes:

a. Urban in Character. The unincorporated area in the JPA as depicted in Map 1 is anticipated for municipal annexation because it is "urban in character", as that term is defined by section 171.031(8), Florida Statutes.

b. Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Future Land Uses to be Established by the City. The City may, in accordance with section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, amend its comprehensive land use plan, including its future land use map, for lands in the JPA in advance of annexation.

c. Transportation: as may be addressed in a separate sub-agreement.

d. Annexation as a Condition to Receiving Water and Sewer Services.

i. Annexation as a condition of municipal utility connection has long been and continues to be authorized by Section 180.02(3), Florida Statutes, and the home rule constitutional and proprietary powers of the City. The City and County entered into an interlocal agreement dated September 12, 1991, establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor ("1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement") described as being "those lands lying 660 feet east and 660 feet west of the right-of-way lines of U.S. 1, including the hinterlands under single development control lying beyond that point referred to as the Service Area." The 1991 Interlocal Service Area Agreement conferred to the City the exclusive right to extend water and/or sewer facilities and provide utility service within the designated Service Area in accordance with the City's water and sewer connection policy, which policy required and continues to require the consent of a property owner to annex into the City as a condition to connecting to the City's water and/or sewer facilities. Connection to the City's water and/or sewer facilities constitutes express or implied consent by a property owner to the annexation of the land benefitting from the receipt of such services. The City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations are set forth in Chapter 3, Article V, Section 3-61(B)(2)(b) and (c), of the Ormond Beach Land Development Code (formerly Ordinance 91-33 adopted on August 20, 1991).

ii. The City may require, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, and the City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations, the annexation of land in the JPA/MSA regardless of whether the land is contiguous, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact at the time of annexation.

iii. In accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, before the annexation of land that is not contiguous to the City, or that will create an enclave, or land that is not being served by water or sewer utilities at the time of the proposed annexation, the City shall transmit for review to the state Department of Economic Opportunity a comprehensive land use plan amendment for the lands that are to be annexed. After considering the DEO's review, the City may approve concurrently, through separate and distinct actions, the annexation and comprehensive land use plan amendment.

iv. With respect to land that is contiguous to the City, that does not create an enclave or pocket, and is being served water or sewer services by the City at the time of the proposed annexation, the City agrees to process a Future Land Use Map ("FLUM") amendment to its comprehensive land use plan prior to or concurrent with the annexation. The FLUM amendment and annexation must be accomplished as separate and distinct actions.

e. School Facilities. The JPA shall be served by the schools zoned by the Volusia County School District and shall not conflict with the Interlocal Agreement between Volusia County and the Volusia County School District, as amended. The City agrees to work with the Volusia County School District to further the requirements and goals of the School Interlocal Agreement between the County and the School District.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Sub-Agreement on behalf of the respective party set forth below, pursuant to the authority granted to each of the undersigned in the ordinance by which each party approved and adopted this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Parties agreed, in paragraph 10 of the 1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement, to continue to study the feasibility of future expansion of the municipal service area described in that agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Municipal Annexation or Contraction Act, Chapter 171, Part I, Florida Statutes, and the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement Act, Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, recognizes the use of interlocal service boundary agreements and joint planning agreements as a means to coordinate planning and delivery of services related to future land use, public facilities and services, and protection of natural resources in advance of annexation; and

WHEREAS, the Local Government Comprehensive Planning and Land Development Regulation Act, Chapter 163, Part II, Florida Statutes, requires that counties and cities include in their respective planning efforts intergovernmental coordination and particularly, mechanisms for identifying and implementing joint planning areas; and

WHEREAS, the Florida Interlocal Cooperation Act of 1969, Section 163.01, Florida Statutes, encourages and empowers local governments to cooperate with one another on matters of mutual interest and advantage, and provides for interlocal agreements between local governments on matters such as annexation, joint planning, and the delivery of services; and

WHEREAS, the City and the County wish to identify lands that are logical candidates for future annexations, the appropriate land uses and infrastructure needs and the provider for such lands, and to ensure protection of natural resources; and

WHEREAS, Sections 163.3171(4), 171.203(6)(f) and (7) , Florida Statutes, allows an interlocal service boundary agreement to establish a process for land use decisions consistent with part II of Chapter 163, including those which may allow a municipality to adopt land use changes consistent with part II of Chapter 163 for areas that are scheduled to be annexed within the term of an interlocal agreement; and

WHEREAS, Section 171.204, Florida Statutes, allows a municipality to annex land that is not contiguous to the municipality, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact when a county and municipality enter into a joint planning agreement under Section 163.3171; and

WHEREAS, Sections 163.3171(4), 171.207 and 171.208, Florida Statutes, authorizes a municipality, in accordance with an interlocal agreement, to amend its comprehensive plan to include lands that are situated in the unincorporated territory of a county, prior to the annexation of those lands; and authorizes a municipality to exercise extrajurisdictional authority over such lands, in advance of annexation; and

WHEREAS, the extension of City and County facilities and services, and the annexation of lands, are most efficiently provided if the process and timing of long range planning, annexation, and development review processes by the City and County are clearly identified and part of a coordinated joint effort, and the commitment by the City and County to do so are material inducements to the parties for entering into this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the City and the County find that the benefits of intergovernmental communications and coordination will accrue to both Parties; and

WHEREAS, an interlocal service boundary agreement may, under section 171.203, Florida Statutes, address any issue concerning service delivery, fiscal responsibilities, or adjustment of territorial boundaries, which may include but are not necessarily limited to:

1. Identification of a Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), which for purposes of this Agreement is defined (consistent with section 171.202(11), Florida Statutes) as being unincorporated land depicted in Map 1 attached to this Agreement that:

5. Addressing other service delivery issues, such as those related to itinerant vendor activities;

6. Land use planning; and

WHEREAS, an interlocal service boundary agreement that addresses responsibilities for land use planning must establish procedures for adopting comprehensive plan amendments, administration of land development regulations, and the issuance of development orders consistent with Chapter 163, Florida Statutes; and must, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, include a joint planning agreement under section 163.3171, Florida Statutes, which is to be adopted into a municipal comprehensive plan; and

WHEREAS, the City adopted initiating Resolution No. 2010-131 on September 7, 2010, and the County adopted responding Resolution No. 2010-196 on October 7, 2010, in accordance with Section 171.203, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of negotiating and entering into an interlocal service boundary agreement; and

WHEREAS, the elected officials of the City and the County have met and negotiated in good faith to resolve issues related to annexation and joint planning, and coordinating the provision of public services and infrastructure, and the Parties wish to memorialize their understanding in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is entered into pursuant to the authority of Article VIII of the Florida Constitution and Chapters 125, 163, 166, 171, and 180, Florida Statutes.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County agree as follows:

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals above are true and correct and are incorporated into this ISBA and all Sub-Agreements, as if fully set forth herein, as the legislative findings of the City and County.

2. Incorporation of Sub-Agreements and Map 1. The following Sub-Agreements and Map 1 attached hereto are fully incorporated as if fully set forth herein:

a. Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement
b. Map 1 (depicting the interlocal boundary service area, joint planning area, and municipal service area)
c. Any Sub-Agreement that may be approved and executed after the approval and effective date of this Agreement
d. 1992 Joint Project Agreement (regarding water and sewer line extension and development fee reimbursement)

3. Term and Effective Date of Agreement. The ISBA and all attached Sub-Agreements shall become effective when filed with clerk of court for Volusia County Circuit Court, in accordance with section 163.01(11), Florida Statutes. The initial term of the Agreement and all attached Sub-Agreements shall be ten (10) years from the effective date of the Agreement. At the end of the fifth year, the County and City shall review the effectiveness and performance of this Agreement. Based upon the review, this Agreement, including any or all Sub-Agreements, may continue for the remainder of the initial term, be amended as the parties desire, or be terminated in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Agreement.

4. Renewal of Agreement. The City and County shall, in the event the Parties desire to extend the initial term of the Agreement, initiate negotiations in accordance with section 171.203(12), Florida Statutes, no later than eighteen months prior to the termination of the initial term.

5. Termination of Agreement. The County or City may terminate this Agreement or any Sub-Agreement at anytime upon written notice of termination to the other Party delivered no later than May 1st in order for termination to be effective on December 31st of the same calendar year. A Party delivering such notice of termination may, in such Party's sole discretion, revoke such notice of termination at any time prior to the termination date. Lands that have been annexed prior to termination of any agreement and services provided to said lands shall not be affected by the termination. Jurisdiction over any affected transportation facilities including roadways, parks, and other public facilities shall not be affected, except though a separate agreement in writing that has been approved by both Parties.

6. Dispute Resolution. The County and City agree to resolve any dispute related to the interpretation or performance of this Agreement in the manner described in this section. Either Party may initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice to the other Party. Initiation of the dispute resolution process shall operate as a stay of the action which is the subject of the dispute.

a. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that either Party determines in its sole discretion and good faith that it is necessary to file a lawsuit or other formal challenge in order to meet a jurisdictional time deadline, to obtain a temporary injunction, or otherwise to preserve a legal or equitable right related to this Agreement, such lawsuit or challenge may be filed, but upon the filing and any other act necessary to preserve the legal or equitable right or to obtain the temporary injunction, the Parties shall thereafter promptly file a joint motion with the reviewing court or administrative law judge requesting that the case be abated in order to afford the Parties an opportunity to pursue the dispute resolution

b. Within ten (10) days of the abatement order, the allegedly aggrieved Party shall then effect the transmittal of a notice of conflict, in the form of a certified letter, to all governmental bodies involved in the dispute at issue. Upon receipt of the notice, which shall specify the areas of disagreement, the Parties agree to conduct a conflict assessment meeting at a reasonable time and place, as mutually agreed upon, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice of conflict.

c. If discussions between the Parties at the conflict resolution meeting fail to resolve the dispute, within forty (40) days of the receipt of the notice described in subparagraph a, above, the Parties shall conduct mediation in the presence of a neutral third party mediator. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a mediator, the County shall request appointment of a mediator by the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. The mediation contemplated by this section is intended to be an informal and non-adversarial process with the objective of helping the Parties reach a mutually acceptable and voluntary agreement. The decision-making shall rest solely with the Parties. The mediator shall assist the Parties in identifying issues, fostering joint problem-solving and exploring settlement alternatives.

d. If the Parties are unable to reach a mediated settlement, within fifty (50) days of the receipt of the initial notice of conflict, the Parties shall hold a joint intergovernmental meeting. If the joint intergovernmental meeting does not successfully resolve the issues identified in the notice of conflict, the entities participating in the dispute resolution procedures described herein may avail themselves of any otherwise available rights, including the suspension of abatement of existing actions.

e. The Parties agree this dispute resolution procedure is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 163.01(5)(p), section 171.212, Florida Statutes, and Chapter 164, Florida Statutes.

7. Duplication of Services. In furtherance of the purpose of this Agreement, the City and County shall not undertake any action that will result in the overlapping, duplication, or competition of services or exercise of powers provided herein without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8. Notice. All notices, consents, approvals, waivers, and elections that either Party requests or gives under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be provided by certified mail, return receipt requested; or by hand delivery for which a receipt is obtained. Notices shall be mailed or delivered to the addresses set forth below or as either Party may otherwise designate in writing.

If to the County:	County of Volusia Attn: County Manager Copy to: County Attorney 123 West Indiana Avenue DeLand, FL 32720
If to the City:	City of Ormond Beach Attn: City Manager Copy to: City Attorney 22 South Beach Street Ormond Beach, FL 32174

Notices, consents, approvals, waivers, and elections will be deemed given when received by the Party for whom intended.

9. Sole Benefit. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the County and City, and no right or cause of action shall accrue upon or by reason hereof, to or for the benefit of any third party. Nothing in this Agreement, either expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person, corporation or governmental entity other than the Parties any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or any provisions or conditions hereof, and all of the provisions, representations, covenants, and conditions herein contained shall inure to the sole benefit of and shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective representatives, successors and assigns.

10. Authority. The County and City each represent and warrant to the other its respective authority to enter into this Agreement, acknowledge the validity and enforceability of this Agreement. The County and City hereby represents, warrants and covenants this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding contract enforceable by the Parties in accordance with its terms, and that the enforceability hereof is not subject to any impairment by the applicability of any public policy or police powers.

11. Enforcement. This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Parties hereto by whatever remedies are available in law or equity, including but not limited to injunctive relief and specific performance. Failure to insist upon strict compliance with any of the terms, covenants, or conditions hereof shall not be deemed as a waiver (or continuing waiver) of such terms, covenants, or conditions; nor shall any waiver or relinquishment of any right or power hereunder be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of such right or power at any other time.

12. Defense. If this Agreement or any portion hereof is challenged by any judicial, administrative, or appellate proceeding (each Party hereby agreeing with the other not to initiate or acquiesce to such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement), the Parties collectively and individually agree, at their individual sole cost and expense, to defend in good faith its validity through to a final judicial determination, unless both Parties mutually agree in writing not to defend such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement.

13. Amendments. Amendments to the Agreement may be offered by either Party at any time. Proposed amendments shall be in writing and must be approved by a majority of the governing bodies of each Party. No amendment shall be effective until approved by the governing bodies of the City and County.

14. Supremacy. The Parties agree and covenant, having given and received valuable consideration for the promises and commitments made herein, it is their desire, intent and firm agreement to be bound by and observe the terms of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided by this Agreement or by law, in the event the terms of this Agreement conflict with previous agreements between the Parties, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

15. Entire Understanding. Except as otherwise specifically set forth herein or in any subagreement, this Agreement embodies and constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matters addressed herein, and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are superseded by this Agreement. The City and County further acknowledge that they each participated in drafting this Agreement, and in the event of a dispute regarding the Agreement, it shall not be construed by a court of competent jurisdiction or other tribunal more or less favorably on behalf of either Party on the basis of a claim that a Party did not participate in drafting the Agreement or any part thereof.

16. Governing Law and Venue. The laws of the State of Florida shall govern this Agreement, and venue for any action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement shall only be in the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. Federal Jurisdiction and venue, if applicable shall only be in the Middle District of Florida, Orlando Division. If circumstances arise which cause a conflict between this paragraph and paragraph 6 ("Dispute Resolution") paragraph 6 shall control.

WHEREAS, the "Whereas" recitals in the ISBA are incorporated herein by reference.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County enter into this Sub-Agreement as follows:

1. Incorporation of recitals as legislative findings; purpose. The recitals stated in the ISBA and this Sub-Agreement are incorporated herein by reference as the legislative findings of the City and County. This Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes, specifically sections 171.203, 171.204 and [redacted]

2. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area ("JPA") and Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), which terms may herein be used synonymously and interchangeably as the context requires.

3. Planning Process and Implementation.

a. The City and the County shall amend the Intergovernmental Coordination Element of their respective comprehensive land use plans in accordance with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, by adopting a policy referencing said agreement. The County's policy shall read as follows, and shall be inserted in Chapter 14 of the county comprehensive plan:

[redacted] Pursuant to Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, Volusia County and the City of Ormond Beach have established an Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) adopted on August 28, 2014. The agreement allows the City to annex properties within the Joint Planning Area that would not otherwise be eligible for annexation subject to the provisions established in the ISBA.

b. The City shall adopt a Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), as that term is defined in Section 171.202(11), Florida Statutes, as an amendment to its comprehensive land use plan within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, in accordance with Section 171.203 (11), Florida Statutes. The MSA shall include the area depicted in Map 1, population projections for the MSA, and data and analysis supporting the provision of public facilities for the MSA.

c. Section 171.207, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a county to transfer its powers to a municipality over lands that are within a JPA/MSA; and section 171.208, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a municipality to exercise its powers, extraterritorially, over such lands. In accordance with Sections 163.3171(4) and 171.203(6)(f), Florida Statutes, the County comprehensive plan, zoning, and land development regulations shall apply to all lands in the JPA/MSA until the City annexes the land at issue or amends its comprehensive plan with respect to those lands. The City is authorized and empowered, pursuant to section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, to amend and apply its comprehensive plan to the lands within the JPA/MSA in advance of the annexation of those lands. In addition, the City's codes and regulations shall apply in advance of annexation upon the adoption by the City of a comprehensive plan amendment; and the City shall be authorized and empowered, pursuant to sections 163.3171(4), 171.207 and 171.208, Florida Statutes, to exercise extraterritorial powers over such lands.

d. The City shall serve as the single point of service for building permitting, inspections, and enforcement (including Flood Hazard Management).

4. Planning, Development and Administrative Authority. The City shall have sole and singular authority within the boundaries of the JPA to apply the City's Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Zoning Map categories over unincorporated parcels, to administer the codes and regulations described in paragraph 4,c below, and to provide for the enforcement of codes:

a. Land Use Designations. The City shall be authorized to amend its future land use map for the purpose of governing any and all unincorporated lands within the JPA. The City shall coordinate the amendment with the County prior to processing it by submitting a copy of the proposed amendment to the County no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the initial hearing. In the event the County desires to object to the proposed amendment, it must file a written objection, stating a good faith basis for same, with the City no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the initial hearing on the amendment. The Parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment. If the Parties are not able to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment, the County may pursue available remedies under applicable law.

b. Zoning Classifications. The City shall be authorized to amend the City's zoning map for all unincorporated lands within the JPA after a City land use designation has been adopted.

c. Application of Codes. The following codes and ordinances (as may be approved or amended from time to time) shall apply in their entirety to unincorporated land in the JPA:

i. City Charter,
ii. City Code of Ordinances,
iii. City Comprehensive Land Use Plan,
iv. City Land Development Code,
v. Non-codified City ordinances, resolutions, and regulations, and
vi. Florida Building Code.

d. Stormwater Conveyance Services. The County shall continue to administer and enforce its regulations regarding county stormwater conveyance systems within the boundaries of the JPA. The City will review and approve all new development in the JPA with regard to stormwater conveyance systems including but not limited to water quality, discharge volume and flow rate, as well as storm attenuation and flood control. The City shall not permit any construction, additions, renovations, or alterations of any improvements to real property, in a manner that is inconsistent or conflicts with County policy unless specific written approval is received from the County Engineer, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. The County shall continue to accept stormwater runoff and maintain stormwater conveyance systems when County predevelopment conditions related to stormwater are met.

e. Itinerant Vendor and Merchant Activities. The City shall have sole and complete jurisdiction over itinerant vendor and merchant activities, and outdoor entertainment activities, within the boundaries of the JPA/MSA, including the issuance of licenses and permits.

f. Roads; transfer of jurisdicition. This paragraph is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 335.0415(3), Florida Statutes.

i. County Thoroughfare Roads. The County shall retain jurisdiction, ownership and control of the entire length of County Thoroughfare Roads within the JPA/MSA regardless of any parcel annexations by the City, including the existing thoroughfare roads listed below and subsequent revisions to the County's thoroughfare roadways as illustrated in Figure 2-1, Volusia County Comprehensive Plan:

(1) Broadway Avenue, from Tymber Creek Road to US 1.
(2) Airport Road, from the Florida East Coast Railroad to US 1.

ii. Non-thoroughfare Roads. The permanent transfer within the JPA/MSA of non-thoroughfare roadway maintenance responsibilities from the County to the City shall occur as follows:

(1) For purposes of this agreement, "road segment" shall mean the portion of a County road between two intersecting roads.

(2) Except for those roads identified in paragraph f,i above, non-thoroughfare county roads within or adjacent to the existing City boundary shall become roads under the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility when at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the road segment is either within or adjacent to the existing City.

(3) All County non-thoroughfare roads within the MSA shall transfer to the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility by segment upon the annexation of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of a road segment.

(4) The 51% segment ratio shall be calculated based on the frontage of annexed parcels on each side of the road segment between two intersecting roads.

(5) Once 51% or more of a segment is annexed, the entire road segment between the two intersecting roads will be deemed annexed into the City and transferred to the City's jurisdiction, and ownership; and the City will be fully responsible for all maintenance and other responsibilities.

(6) As the City accepts jurisdiction and responsibility over a road segment, it shall have the same right of access for purposes of maintenance as the County, to the fullest extent the County is able to grant such right.

(7) Any County or City agreements for road improvements with other governmental or private entities existing at the time of the approval of this Sub-Agreement, if any, shall remain in full force and effect; except in the event of a conflict with this Sub-Agreement, in which case the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall prevail. It is the intention of the parties that no additional "mutual agreements" shall be necessary to effect road segment annexation. This Sub-Agreement is intended to convey the will of the parties concerning all road segments within the JPA/MSA.

iii. Transportation Planning and Coordination.

(1) The City and County agree to use the adopted Volusia Transportation Planning Organization (TPO) Transportation Impact Analysis (TIA) Guidelines to coordinate the review and mitigation of development impacts on road, transit, bicycle and pedestrian systems based upon a mutually agreed upon TIA methodology. The TIA Guidelines shall utilize the latest adopted level of service standards and transportation plans within the impacted jurisdiction's comprehensive plans including the adopted Volusia TPO Long Range Transportation Plan.

(2) In the event the standards or plans may be different, the TIA methodology and/or mitigation plan shall address coordination. When necessary, comprehensive plans shall be updated to reflect the latest coordination plans. In the event the TIA Guidelines are ever repealed or become no longer applicable, the City and County agree to continue to utilize the latest adopted version for the purpose of plan review and mitigation coordination.

iv. Funding. The City and County agree to work together to obtain funding sources for capital transportation improvements, including capital and operating expenses for the provision of transit service, within the JPA/MSA.

v. Maintenance. The City and County may enter into maintenance agreements for certain segments of permanent County roads within the JPA/MSA. The County agrees that the City shall be justly compensated for any and all maintenance responsibilities that may be transferred to the City through a maintenance agreement.

vi. Continuing jurisdiction. All roads over which jurisdiction is transferred to the City under the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall be maintained by the City unless otherwise agreed to in a separate maintenance agreement. If a road is transferred to the City, to the extent available, the County shall provide all as-builts, surveys, maintenance maps and GIS files that identify County maintenance responsibilities. Road transfers include associated roadway drainage and right-of-way infrastructure that includes but is not limited to sidewalks, guardrails, signs and multi-use trails.

g. Land Development and Planning. The City shall provide site plans and subdivision plans to the County for review and comment. The County shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of plans to submit its comments or recommendations to the City. The City shall notify the County of the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city's local planning agency (i.e., planning board) for its review and recommendation to the city commission, as well as the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city commission for final action. The County's comments or recommendation shall be included in any city staff analysis that is presented to the city planning board and city commission. The County may submit or present its comments or recommendations directly to the city planning board and city commission, regardless whether or not they have been incorporated into the site plan.

h. Enforcement of Codes. The City shall enforce City or County codes within the JPA/MSA, whichever may apply.

5. Joint Planning Area ("JPA"). The following additional findings are intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 171.204(2), Florida Statutes:

a. Urban in Character. The unincorporated area in the JPA as depicted in Map 1 is anticipated for municipal annexation because it is "urban in character", as that term is defined by section 171.031(8), Florida Statutes.

b. Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Future Land Uses to be Established by the City. The City may, in accordance with section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, amend its comprehensive land use plan, including its future land use map, for lands in the JPA in advance of annexation.

c. Transportation: as may be addressed in a separate sub-agreement.

d. Annexation as a Condition to Receiving Water and Sewer Services.

i. Annexation as a condition of municipal utility connection has long been and continues to be authorized by Section 180.02(3), Florida Statutes, and the home rule constitutional and proprietary powers of the City. The City and County entered into an interlocal agreement dated September 12, 1991, establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor ("1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement") described as being "those lands lying 660 feet east and 660 feet west of the right-of-way lines of U.S. 1, including the hinterlands under single development control lying beyond that point referred to as the Service Area." The 1991 Interlocal Service Area Agreement conferred to the City the exclusive right to extend water and/or sewer facilities and provide utility service within the designated Service Area in accordance with the City's water and sewer connection policy, which policy required and continues to require the consent of a property owner to annex into the City as a condition to connecting to the City's water and/or sewer facilities. Connection to the City's water and/or sewer facilities constitutes express or implied consent by a property owner to the annexation of the land benefitting from the receipt of such services. The City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations are set forth in Chapter 3, Article V, Section 3-61(B)(2)(b) and (c), of the Ormond Beach Land Development Code (formerly Ordinance 91-33 adopted on August 20, 1991).

ii. The City may require, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, and the City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations, the annexation of land in the JPA/MSA regardless of whether the land is contiguous, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact at the time of annexation.

iii. In accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, before the annexation of land that is not contiguous to the City, or that will create an enclave, or land that is not being served by water or sewer utilities at the time of the proposed annexation, the City shall transmit for review to the state Department of Economic Opportunity a comprehensive land use plan amendment for the lands that are to be annexed. After considering the DEO's review, the City may approve concurrently, through separate and distinct actions, the annexation and comprehensive land use plan amendment.

iv. With respect to land that is contiguous to the City, that does not create an enclave or pocket, and is being served water or sewer services by the City at the time of the proposed annexation, the City agrees to process a Future Land Use Map ("FLUM") amendment to its comprehensive land use plan prior to or concurrent with the annexation. The FLUM amendment and annexation must be accomplished as separate and distinct actions.

e. School Facilities. The JPA shall be served by the schools zoned by the Volusia County School District and shall not conflict with the Interlocal Agreement between Volusia County and the Volusia County School District, as amended. The City agrees to work with the Volusia County School District to further the requirements and goals of the School Interlocal Agreement between the County and the School District.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Sub-Agreement on behalf of the respective party set forth below, pursuant to the authority granted to each of the undersigned in the ordinance by which each party approved and adopted this Agreement.

EXHIBIT "C"

Itinerant Vendor Criteria

These Itinerant Vendor Criteria are to be established in furtherance of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement, and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement between the City of Ormond Beach and County of Volusia regarding the North U.S. 1 Joint Planning Area/Municipal Service Area (JPA/MSA). The criteria are intended to be established as part the city's adopted land development regulations.

1. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area (JPA) and Municipal Service Area (MSA) for purposes of the following criteria.

2. Area of application. These provisions shall apply to all land in the unincorporated territory of Volusia County as more fully described and depicted in the JPA/MSA to the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

3. Definitions.

a. Improved land shall mean land on which permanent improvements consisting of one or more buildings are being utilized for the express purpose of engaging in a primary and lawful business use.

b. Vacant or unimproved land shall mean land on which permanent improvements consisting of one or more buildings do not exist or are NOT being utilized for the express purpose of engaging in a primary and lawful business use.

c. Local business tax receipt (BTR) shall have the meaning prescribed in Chapter 205, Florida Statutes. Specifically, it is a receipt issued by the County or City granting a privilege to engage in a lawful business activity, exclusive of any fees for applicable licenses, permits, registrations, examinations or inspections.

d. Business use shall be broadly construed to mean any lawful activity that is commonly and customarily recognized as a business or commercial activity, regardless whether or not such activity is for-profit or not-for-profit.

e. Primary business use shall mean being actively engaged in a chief, dominate or main business use of permanent and continuous existence, on a year-round basis, on improved land that is authorized by a valid local business tax receipt, regardless whether such activity is for-profit or not-for-profit.

f. Itinerant commercial activity shall mean a business use or activity of intermittent or temporary existence, or not being of a permanent and continuous existence on a year-round basis, regardless whether such use or activity is for-profit or not-for-profit. These activities commonly include but shall not be limited to tattoo services, food vending, retail, and portable stationary simulation rides. Itinerant commercial activity shall not be a primary business use.

g. Master Vendor Permit shall mean a permit that is issued to a property owner authorizing one or more individual itinerant vendors to conduct itinerant commercial activities on the property owner's land for a temporary duration specified in the permit.

h. Itinerant Vendor Permit shall mean a permit issued to an individual person or business authorizing the person or business to engage in itinerant commercial activities at a specific location and for a temporary duration specified in the permit.

i. High Impact Use shall mean itinerant commercial uses or activities.

j. High Impact Use on Improved Land Category shall mean itinerant commercial use or activities on improved land.

k. High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category shall mean itinerant commercial uses or activities on vacant or unimproved land.

l. Outdoor Entertainment Activity shall mean an activity specific to a primary business use, that is typically smaller in scope than Recognized Event Activities, and that must occur on site as an accessory activity to the principal business use of the property. For purposes of this definition, music, participant contests, auto exhibits, games and similar activities hosted on-site of a primary business use shall not be Outdoor Entertainment Activity. Administrative approvals shall be required for outdoor entertainment activities. Except during and for the limited exception provided in paragraph 5 below for land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category, Outdoor Entertainment Activity shall not be allowed or permitted on vacant or unimproved land.

m. Outdoor Entertainment Activity Permit shall mean a permit issued for outdoor entertainment activity that is to occur on the property where a primary business use occurs, and for a temporary duration specified in the permit; except only that outdoor entertainment activities may be allowed during and for the limited exception provided in paragraph 5 below, for land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category.

n. Recognized Special Events shall mean Daytona Beach Bike Week Festival, as established by the Bike Week Executive Committee; Daytona Beach Biketoberfest Special Event, as established by the Biketoberfest Development Committee of the Daytona Beach Area Convention & Visitors Bureau; Daytona Speed Weeks, encompassing that time period commencing with the Rolex 24 Hour Race and ending with the Daytona 500 Race, as established by the Daytona International Speedway; and Pepsi 400 Race, as established by the Daytona

4. Category of Use.

a. High Impact Use on Improved Land Category. Itinerant commercial uses or activities are deemed to have significant impacts on the use of improved land, including but not necessarily limited to intensive parking, traffic, and pedestrian safety. The following businesses are known to engage in itinerant commercial uses or activities in the unincorporated territory of the County, as of the effective date of the Agreements and shall be allowed to continue engaging in such uses or activities after the effective date of said Agreements:

1. Recognized Special Event Host:

i. 1635 N. US Hwy 1, (Destination Daytona, activities as specified in County Development Order)
ii. 1065 N. US Hwy 1, (Standard Cycle/Biker Haven)
iii. 1068 N. US Hwy 1, (Iron Horse Saloon)
iv. 1106 N. US Hwy 1, (Hired Gun)
v. 253 Destination Daytona Lane, (J&P Cycles)
vi. 1658 US Hwy 1, (Love's Travel Stop)
vii. 1622 N. US Hwy 1, (Sunshine#230 Store)
viii. 1080 N. US 1, (Harris Village RV Park)
ix. 1105 N. US Hwy 1, (Beaver Bar)
x. 1481 N. US Hwy 1, (Annie Oakley's Saloon)
xi. 1074 N. US Hwy 1, (Ocean Club) xii. 470 Destination Daytona Blvd, (Wyotec)
xiii. 1041 N. US Hwy 1, (J Discount#2)

2. Outdoor Entertainment Activity:

i. 1635 N. US Hwy 1, (Destination Daytona, activities as specified in County Development Order))
ii. 1068 N. US Hwy 1, (Iron Horse Saloon)
iii. 1065 N. US Hwy 1, (Standard Cycle/Biker Haven)
iv. 1105 N. US Hwy 1, (Beaver Bar)

b. High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land. Itinerant commercial uses or activities are deemed to have the same significant impacts on vacant or unimproved land as those impacts that occur on improved land. Business establishments and lands that are not described in paragraph 4a(1) and (2) above shall be in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category for purposes of this Agreement. Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities for lands within the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category shall be subject to the amortization schedule described in paragraph 5 below.

5. Rationale for Use of Land Classification and Amortization. Property values in Florida are based on the aggregate total of building improvement and land value. Much of the total taxable value in property involves a building improvement to land value ratio of approximately 70:30. Consequently, vacant land reserved solely for the purpose of itinerate commercial activities or uses for an event that has limited duration is problematic for several reasons, including:

a. Pays little in taxes to offset the costs of public service impacts related to the event;

b. Vacant or unimproved land is not assessed by the property appraiser for the income to property owners generated by itinerate commercial activities or uses;

c. Vacant or unimproved land that is used solely for itinerate commercial activities or uses have debilitating effects on adjacent property values and the North U.S. 1 corridor in general.

In order to promote the use of land for primary business use purposes, an amortization schedule shall be imposed for itinerant activities and uses, and outdoor entertainment activities, as follows:

High Impact Use on Improved Land. The businesses and land described in paragraph 4a (1) and (2) above shall be exempt from the amortization schedule that applies to those businesses and land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category described below and from the Outdoor Activity provisions of the City's Land Development Code that would require authorization and approval by a Special Exception development order.

High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land; Amortization Schedule. Lands that are subject to the High Impact Use on Vacant Land Category described in paragraph 4b above may host Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities during Recognized Special Events for a period that shall automatically terminate five years from the effective date of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement. Permits for Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities must be obtained from the City's Site Plan Review Committee in accordance with the requirements of Section 6 or 7 of this Agreement as a condition of engaging in such activities. Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities shall be prohibited after the five year termination date prescribed in this section.

6. Specialized Itinerant Provisions in the North US 1 Corridor.

a. Specialized Itinerant Provisions ("SIP") applications shall be approved administratively by the City's Site Plan Review Committee.

b. All retail and service activities shall occur outside public rights-of-way.

c. A fully completed application for a Master Vendor Permit shall include attachments containing the following information:

1. A single site plan 8.5 x 11 inches, drawn to scale must show all necessary elements and shall include the following if applicable:

   i. Location of existing facilities/structures
   ii. Location of proposed temporary facilities/structures
   iii. Proposed traffic flow and provisions for ingress/egress
   iv. Measures for security/crowd control
   v. Measures for provision of medical care
   vi. Lighting
   vii. Solid waste disposal
   viii. Parking
   ix. Location of bands and or music venues
   x. Sanitation facilities
   xi. Vendor permits (i.e., vendor list with Vendor Names, goods and/or services to be provided.)

2. A list or schedule of events that are to occur at the location for the duration of the permit, including any host drinking contests or games, motorcycle/car washes (excluding those held by a church, school, or civic organizations). Contests involving disrobing or wet t-shirt contests, slaw/pudding/jello wrestling, bobbing or similar contests are prohibited.

3. Individual itinerate vendors will be required during special events to have a permit to do business

4. No person or business receiving a Master Vendor Permit or Individual Vendor Permit may engage in any of the following activities:

   i. Activities involving the operation of aircraft;
   ii. Events involving the discharge of explosive devices in violation of state or federal law;
   iii. Activities in which farm animals or wild animals interact with the public;
   iv. Outdoor event involving the exhibition of moving, driver-occupied motorized vehicles such as stunt shows, dynodrag or dyno unit; except that Wall of Death and burn-out pit activities, only, are allowed.
   v. Activities involving the discharge of any toxic or harmful substance.

5. Portable side-by-side stationary racing dynamometers for bike drag race simulation are permitted.

6. All vendors setting up outside a permanent building, using a tent or other temporary structure are required to have an inspection by the Building Division 24 hours prior to operating.

7. A vendor may be allowed the use of one portable out-door sign in the form of a sandwich board or other similar design to be used for advertisement of daily specials, events or services of the vendor during the event. The sign may only be set out each day at the opening of business hours and shall be removed each day at the end of business hours. All signs shall require a sign permit. The sign shall not exceed 16 square feet in size and must be constructed of sufficient material to withstand adverse weather events.

8. Vendor activities and advertising must at all times be confined to the vendor space identified either in the Master Vendor Permit or Individual Vendor License.

9. Vendor is required to leave said vending space 8 hours after the event officially closes.

10. Food vendors must operate in compliance with the requirements of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Florida Department of Business and Professional regulation. Food vendors must show proof that they meet all applicable health department regulations and hold all valid food service licenses required for their operations.

11. Zoning restrictions on tattoo services shall not apply during recognized events but must operate in compliance with the provisions set forth in F.S. §877.04, as amended, and any other applicable state laws and city regulations.

7. Outdoor Entertainment Activity (OEA) Provisions. The following items shall be required for approval of an OEA permit:

a. The permit shall be administratively reviewed and approved in accordance with the city's regulations;

b. The permit shall be for an individual outdoor activity only;

c. A drawing to scale depicting the placement of structures, tents, lighting and sound plans, and provisions for vehicular parking and access;

d. Department of Health approval for food vendors if applicable;

e. Provisions for adequate security and traffic control approval from the Ormond Beach Police Department;

f. Provisions for emergency services and fire;

g. Written notarized authorization for unlimited and unconditional 24 hour access to the site for city inspectors;

h. Compliance with local and state laws and regulations regarding food and beverage concession operations; and

i. Vendors must possess a valid Business Tax Receipt.

Rebecca: My comments regarding operational implementation are these:

1. No OEP is required at all if the event is typically smaller in scope than Recognized Events as defined in the Itinerant Vendor Criteria (IVC) and they occur on site. A 500 person event on site would not require an OEP.
2. There is nothing proposed in the IVC that would prevent the issuance of an Master Vendor Permit for a number of events to occur over a year. It is my understanding that should this need to be clarified, we will clarify it in the ordinance amending the LDC for IVC. The ordinance amending the LDC will have preamble language indicating that the LDC ordinance will take precedence over the ISBA agreement as it pertains to the Itinerant Vendor Criteria.
3. Again, the answer is the same as in 2. The IVC operating standards Outdoor Entertainment and Recognized Special Events is significantly different than that permitted elsewhere in the City. First, it will be administratively approved where elsewhere it is approved by the City Commission as Special Exception. The city recognizes the differences and it can be addressed in the LDC amendment since the ISBA ordinance does not prevent it. It was reasoned that not all operating standards can be codified at the ISBA level of approval. The LDC amendment will be more narrow, focused and can address yearly permits for multiple activities as well as setup days for events.
4. The City permits the Wall of Death in its Outdoor Entertainment Activities on US 1. A Wall of Death was approved by staff for an activity related to Bike Week at the Broken Spoke. The Outdoor Entertainment was approved for 3 years which permitted the Wall of Death provided participants were not the public. However, I believe the City Attorney amended the IVC to add the following to prevent confusion: "iv. Outdoor event involving the exhibition of moving, driver-occupied motorized vehicles such as stunt shows, dyno-drag or dyno unit; except that the Wall of Death and burn-out pit activities, only, are allowed."

I will forward your inquiry to the planning director since they relate to the administration of regulations and will let you know something as soon as I can today. There will be opportunities to tweak the regulations where necessary or desirable.

Procedurally, once the interlocal agreement is approved by the city commission and county council, the terms and conditions affecting the use of land (which would include the itinerant vendor criteria attached to the ordinance as Exhibit-C) will not actually become effective until the city completes, and approves, a comprehensive land use amendment incorporating the lands within the service area under the city's jurisdiction. The comp plan amendment process will take approximately four to six months to complete. During the comp plan amendment process, the city's Land Development Code will undergo an amendment to incorporate various conditions of the interlocal agreement to better administer the regulations, including the itinerant vendor criteria. The criteria attached as Exhibit-C to the ordinance approving the interlocal agreement may modified or tweaked during this process as well.

I'll provide additional information regarding your inquiry as soon as I can.

Thank you

Randy

Good morning Mr. Hayes:

Mr. Hood asked me to forward the below information to you this morning. Please review the following items and let us know if you agree and we can bring a close to this agreement. Please advise Mr. Hood of your comments. Thank you.

1) There is no clarification for the operating procedures for events.

For example:

a) Currently an OEP is necessary when a gathering of 500 people or more are anticipated and is generally approved as long as rules are followed.

b) We apply yearly, listing all proposed events. This allows us to better plan in advance. How will this be handled?

c) Our current set up time for major events is 5 days and tear down time is 3 days. This allows us to set up a quality event that is not simply thrown together. The listed times in the current agreement are almost physically impossible.

d) The Wall of Death has been a part of our event for many years. It appears this will not be allowed??

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is an administrative request to renew the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). The North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement was adopted in 2014, amended in 2019 (Plantation Oaks – first amendment), and 2021/2022 (RidgeHaven – second amendment). The administrative request seeks a ten (10) year renewal and does not amend any other portions of the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement.

SECTION 2, BACKGROUND:

The Legislature provided the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement Act as an alternative to F.S. 171, Part I, for local governments regarding the annexation of territory into a municipality and the subtraction of territory from the unincorporated area of the county. The principal goal was to encourage local governments to jointly determine how to provide services to residents and property in the most efficient and effective manner while balancing the needs and desires of the community. It is also intended to establish a more flexible process for adjusting municipal boundaries and to address a wider range of the effects of annexation. As a result, the use of F.S. 171 Part II encourages intergovernmental coordination in planning, service delivery, and boundary adjustments and reduces intergovernmental conflicts and litigation between local governments; promotes sensible boundaries that reduce the costs of local governments, avoids duplicating local services, and increases political transparency and accountability; and is designed to prevent inefficient service delivery and an insufficient tax base to support the delivery of those services.

The history of the existing North U.S. Highway 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement is as follows:

Action/Approval Date	Description
April 7, 1992 Resolution 1992-70	Authorized the construction of potable water and sanitary sewer force mains along North U.S. Highway 1 from the south terminus going north to 1899 North U.S. Highway 1 for the City Provisioners project and the execution of a joint project agreement between Ormond Beach and Volusia County.
September 7, 2010 Resolution 2010-131	Ormond Beach initiated the process to create an Interlocal Service Boundary area established by Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes.
October 7, 2010 Volusia County Resolution 2010-05	Responding Resolution from Volusia County identifying certain issues along the North U.S. 1 corridor.
August 19, 2014 Ordinance 2014-27	Authorized the execution of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement with Volusia County regarding the North U.S. 1 Joint planning area. The Ordinance also approved a Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement, as well as itinerant vendor criteria. Ormond Beach took control of land use planning, zoning, permitting, and code enforcement of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement for properties within Ormond Beach and unincorporated Volusia County. The agreement specified Volusia County would continue maintaining stormwater conveyance systems and when roadways would transfer to Ormond Beach.

August 21, 2014 Volusia County Ordinance 2014-12	Approved and authorized the execution of an Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement between Volusia County and the City of Ormond Beach.

April 7, 2015 Ordinances 2015-13 & 14	Amended the city's Official Zoning Map to rezone the lands in the Joint Planning Area and Municipal Service Area.
June 23, 2015 Ordinance 2015-27	Amended the Land Development Code to include itinerant merchant regulations for recognized special events and outdoor entertainment activity and temporary campsites in two categories: 1. All properties operating year-round businesses with documented Business Tax Receipts with Volusia County were placed on the "Recognized Special Event Host" list and allowed to continue operating itinerant activities with approved City permits. 2. The vacant or unimproved properties had a five (5) year period to establish a permanent business to be classified as a recognized special event host. Failure to establish a permanent business would not allow any itinerant vending activities after the five (5) year amortization period.

On January 19, 2024, City staff received Volusia County Resolution 2023-156, which initiated the process to amend the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement. Resolution 2023-156 contains two parts:

1. Expansion of the land area of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement to include the property at 874 Hull Road.
2. Extension of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement for an additional ten (10) years from the expiration of the current Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement.

City staff have reviewed Resolution 2023-156 and discussed it with Volusia County staff. Based on policy direction from the City Commission, there is no desire to annex or include the property at 874 Hull Road within the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement. A responding city Resolution is tentatively planned for the May 7, 2024, City Commission agenda. The only proposed amendment to the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement is to renew it for an additional ten (10) years from the expiration date.

SECTION 3, ANALYSIS:

The original Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement was effective on August 29, 2014, and is valid for ten (10) years. The Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement provides the ability to renew the agreement as follows:

> 4. Renewal of Agreement. The City and County shall, in the event the Parties desire to extend the initial term of the Agreement, initiate negotiations in accordance with section 171.203(12), Florida Statutes, no later than eighteen months prior to the termination of the initial term.

Section 171.203 of Florida Statutes, subsection 12 states: An interlocal service boundary agreement may be for 20 years or less. It must include a provision requiring periodic review and renegotiations to begin at least 18 months before its termination date.

The sole action sought as part of this amendment is to renew the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement for ten (10) years, the same time period as the original approval.

No other amendments are proposed to the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement.

Ormond Beach's planning efforts within the North U.S. 1 corridor started in 1992. The Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement allowed Ormond Beach to apply its land use and zoning standards to properties within the corridor, whether within the city or in unincorporated Volusia County. The city only requires annexation as properties are connected to city utility services.

During the last ten (10) years, several actions have occurred that have sought to improve the quality of life within the North U.S. 1 corridor, including:

Development projects

- Redevelopment of the Cheater's building to Dollar General at 1545 North U.S. Highway 1.
- Redevelopment of a closed gas station to a Dunkin Donuts at 1535 North U.S. Highway 1.
- Construction of Ormond Ace Hardware at 1480 North U.S. Highway 1.
- Expansion of SR Perrott at 1280 North U.S. Highway 1.
- Approval and partial construction of the Plantation Oaks subdivision.
- RidgeHaven subdivision is under construction.

Landscape improvements

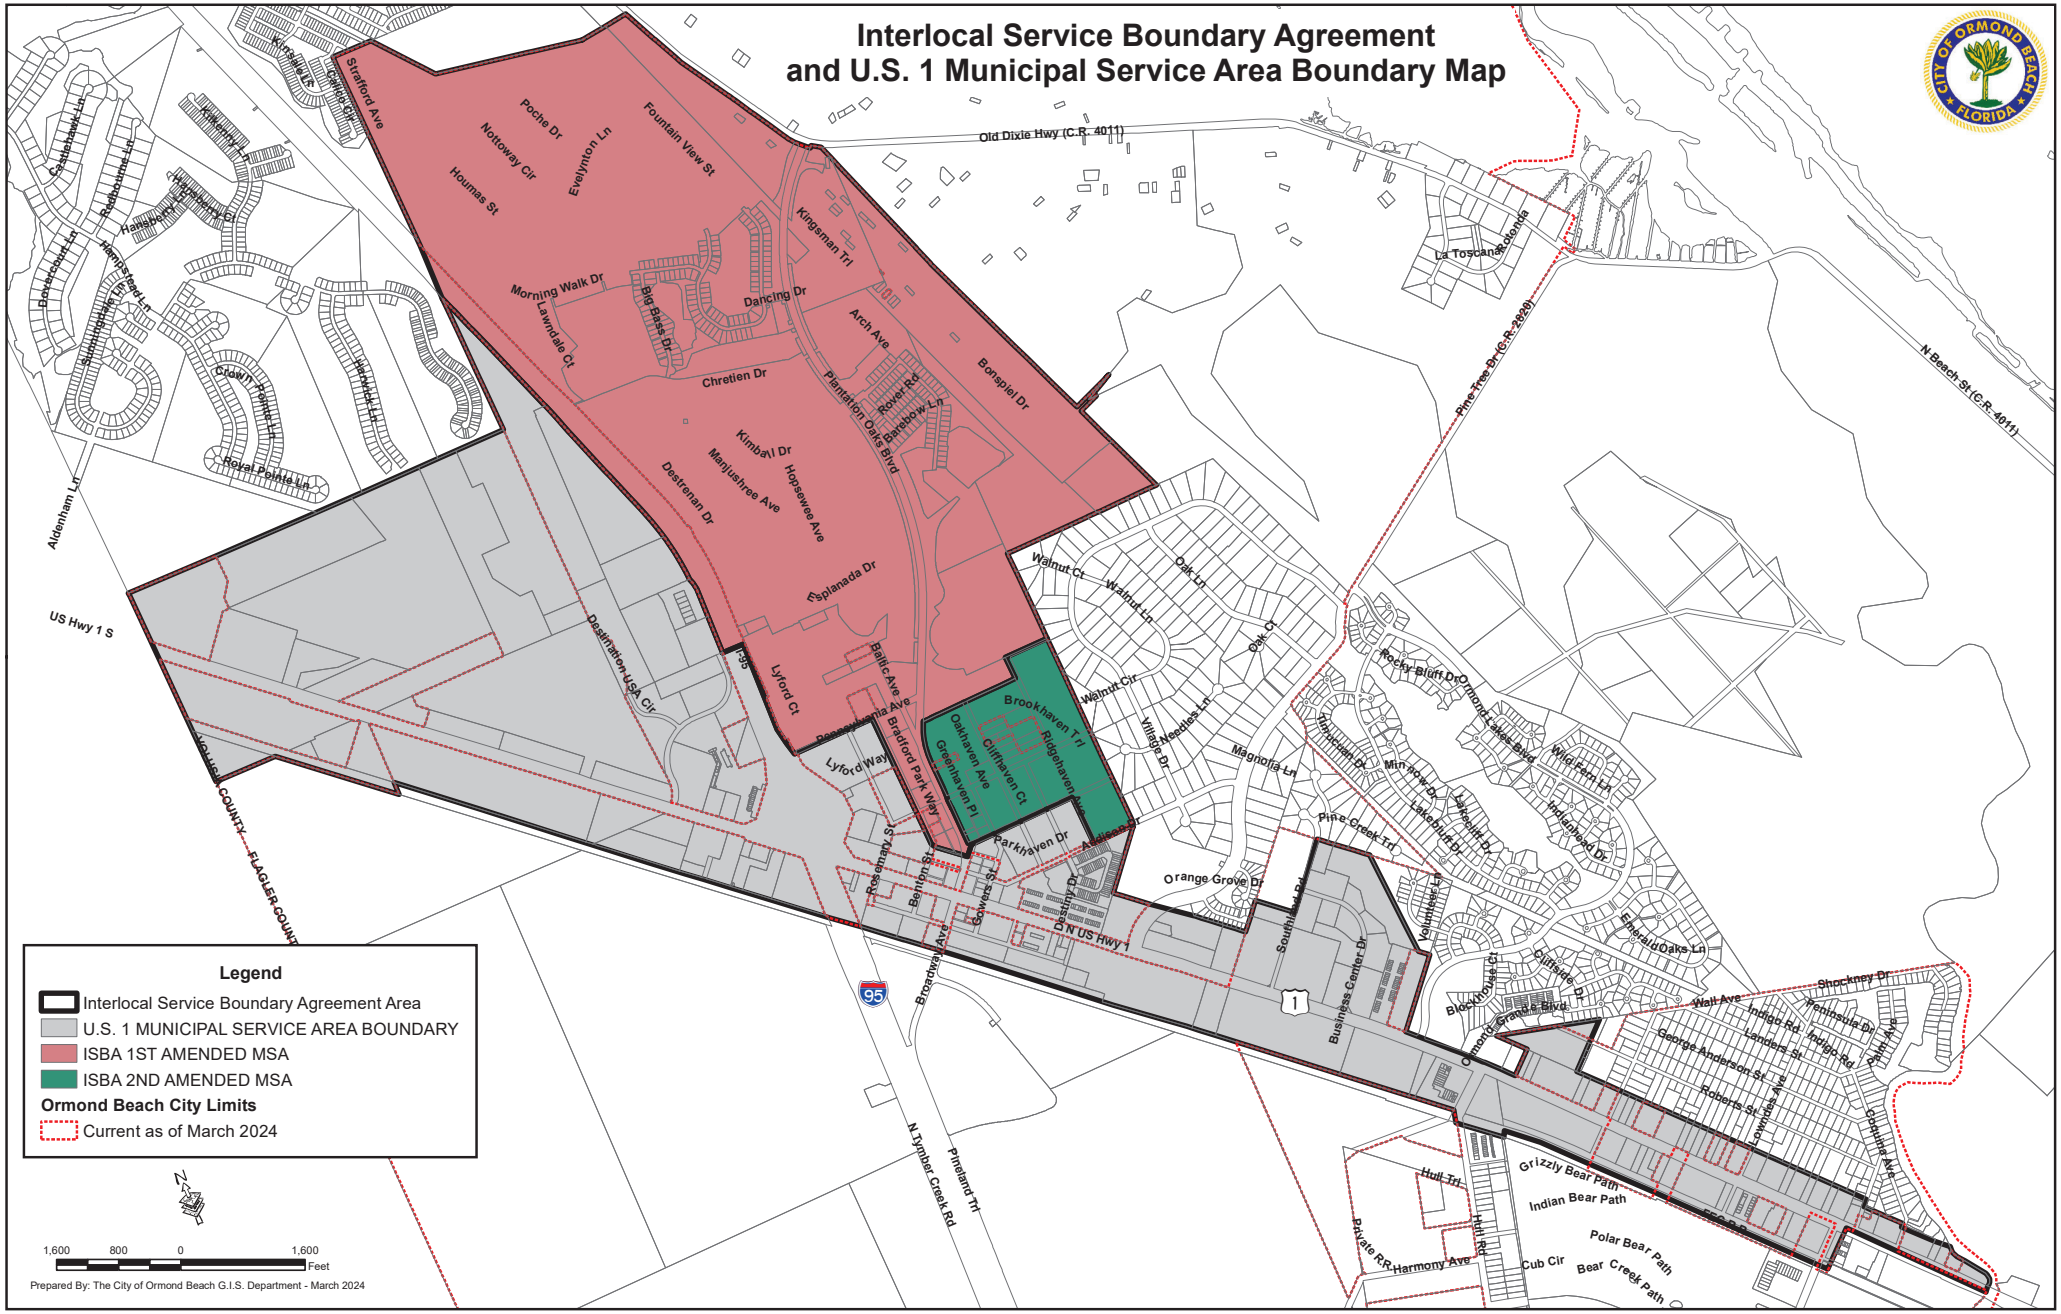
- Landscape median improvements in cooperation with the Florida Department of Transportation, North U.S. 1 Coalition, and the city.
- Landscape improvements along the entrance and exit of Interstate 95.

Infrastructure improvements

- Construction of water and sewer line extensions from Airport Road to Broadway Avenue.
- Planned improvements by the Florida Department of Transportation to the interchange at I-95 and U.S. Highway 1.

Code enforcement action within the corridor has led to improvements and the demolition of structures. There has been general discussion by property owners within the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area regarding development and redevelopment in the corridor; the residential developments of Plantation Oaks, RidgeHaven, and Ormond Crossings are expected to lead to the redevelopment of existing properties and eventual development of vacant commercial and industrial parcels in the North U.S. 1 corridor.

SECTION 4, RECOMMENDATION:



It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the administrative request to renew the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement for ten (10) years. If approved, Volusia County would need to review and act upon it.

5. Addressing other service delivery issues, such as those related to itinerant vendor activities;

6. Land use planning; and

WHEREAS, an interlocal service boundary agreement that addresses responsibilities for land use planning must establish procedures for adopting comprehensive plan amendments, administration of land development regulations, and the issuance of development orders consistent with Chapter 163, Florida Statutes; and must, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, include a joint planning agreement under section 163.3171, Florida Statutes, which is to be adopted into a municipal comprehensive plan; and

WHEREAS, the City adopted initiating Resolution No. 2010-131 on September 7, 2010, and the County adopted responding Resolution No. 2010-196 on October 7, 2010, in accordance with Section 171.203, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of negotiating and entering into an interlocal service boundary agreement; and

WHEREAS, the elected officials of the City and the County have met and negotiated in good faith to resolve issues related to annexation and joint planning, and coordinating the provision of public services and infrastructure, and the Parties wish to memorialize their understanding in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement is entered into pursuant to the authority of Article VIII of the Florida Constitution and Chapters 125, 163, 166, 171, and 180, Florida Statutes.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County agree as follows:

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals above are true and correct and are incorporated into this ISBA and all Sub-Agreements, as if fully set forth herein, as the legislative findings of the City and County.

2. Incorporation of Sub-Agreements and Map 1. The following Sub-Agreements and Map 1 attached hereto are fully incorporated as if fully set forth herein:

a. Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement
b. Map 1 (depicting the interlocal boundary service area, joint planning area, and municipal service area)
c. Any Sub-Agreement that may be approved and executed after the approval and effective date of this Agreement
d. 1992 Joint Project Agreement (regarding water and sewer line extension and development fee reimbursement)

3. Term and Effective Date of Agreement. The ISBA and all attached Sub-Agreements shall become effective when filed with clerk of court for Volusia County Circuit Court, in accordance with section 163.01(11), Florida Statutes. The initial term of the Agreement and all attached Sub-Agreements shall be ten (10) years from the effective date of the Agreement. At the end of the fifth year, the County and City shall review the effectiveness and performance of this Agreement. Based upon the review, this Agreement, including any or all Sub-Agreements, may continue for the remainder of the initial term, be amended as the parties desire, or be terminated in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Agreement.

4. Renewal of Agreement. The City and County shall, in the event the Parties desire to extend the initial term of the Agreement, initiate negotiations in accordance with section 171.203(12), Florida Statutes, no later than eighteen months prior to the termination of the initial term.

5. Termination of Agreement. The County or City may terminate this Agreement or any Sub-Agreement at anytime upon written notice of termination to the other Party delivered no later than May 1st in order for termination to be effective on December 31st of the same calendar year. A Party delivering such notice of termination may, in such Party's sole discretion, revoke such notice of termination at any time prior to the termination date. Lands that have been annexed prior to termination of any agreement and services provided to said lands shall not be affected by the termination. Jurisdiction over any affected transportation facilities including roadways, parks, and other public facilities shall not be affected, except though a separate agreement in writing that has been approved by both Parties.

6. Dispute Resolution. The County and City agree to resolve any dispute related to the interpretation or performance of this Agreement in the manner described in this section. Either Party may initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice to the other Party. Initiation of the dispute resolution process shall operate as a stay of the action which is the subject of the dispute.

a. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that either Party determines in its sole discretion and good faith that it is necessary to file a lawsuit or other formal challenge in order to meet a jurisdictional time deadline, to obtain a temporary injunction, or otherwise to preserve a legal or equitable right related to this Agreement, such lawsuit or challenge may be filed, but upon the filing and any other act necessary to preserve the legal or equitable right or to obtain the temporary injunction, the Parties shall thereafter promptly file a joint motion with the reviewing court or administrative law judge requesting that the case be abated in order to afford the Parties an opportunity to pursue the dispute resolution

b. Within ten (10) days of the abatement order, the allegedly aggrieved Party shall then effect the transmittal of a notice of conflict, in the form of a certified letter, to all governmental bodies involved in the dispute at issue. Upon receipt of the notice, which shall specify the areas of disagreement, the Parties agree to conduct a conflict assessment meeting at a reasonable time and place, as mutually agreed upon, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice of conflict.

c. If discussions between the Parties at the conflict resolution meeting fail to resolve the dispute, within forty (40) days of the receipt of the notice described in subparagraph a, above, the Parties shall conduct mediation in the presence of a neutral third party mediator. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a mediator, the County shall request appointment of a mediator by the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. The mediation contemplated by this section is intended to be an informal and non-adversarial process with the objective of helping the Parties reach a mutually acceptable and voluntary agreement. The decision-making shall rest solely with the Parties. The mediator shall assist the Parties in identifying issues, fostering joint problem-solving and exploring settlement alternatives.

d. If the Parties are unable to reach a mediated settlement, within fifty (50) days of the receipt of the initial notice of conflict, the Parties shall hold a joint intergovernmental meeting. If the joint intergovernmental meeting does not successfully resolve the issues identified in the notice of conflict, the entities participating in the dispute resolution procedures described herein may avail themselves of any otherwise available rights, including the suspension of abatement of existing actions.

e. The Parties agree this dispute resolution procedure is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 163.01(5)(p), section 171.212, Florida Statutes, and Chapter 164, Florida Statutes.

7. Duplication of Services. In furtherance of the purpose of this Agreement, the City and County shall not undertake any action that will result in the overlapping, duplication, or competition of services or exercise of powers provided herein without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8. Notice. All notices, consents, approvals, waivers, and elections that either Party requests or gives under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be provided by certified mail, return receipt requested; or by hand delivery for which a receipt is obtained. Notices shall be mailed or delivered to the addresses set forth below or as either Party may otherwise designate in writing.

If to the County:	County of Volusia Attn: County Manager Copy to: County Attorney 123 West Indiana Avenue DeLand, FL 32720
If to the City:	City of Ormond Beach Attn: City Manager Copy to: City Attorney 22 South Beach Street Ormond Beach, FL 32174

Notices, consents, approvals, waivers, and elections will be deemed given when received by the Party for whom intended.

9. Sole Benefit. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the County and City, and no right or cause of action shall accrue upon or by reason hereof, to or for the benefit of any third party. Nothing in this Agreement, either expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any person, corporation or governmental entity other than the Parties any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement or any provisions or conditions hereof, and all of the provisions, representations, covenants, and conditions herein contained shall inure to the sole benefit of and shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective representatives, successors and assigns.

10. Authority. The County and City each represent and warrant to the other its respective authority to enter into this Agreement, acknowledge the validity and enforceability of this Agreement. The County and City hereby represents, warrants and covenants this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding contract enforceable by the Parties in accordance with its terms, and that the enforceability hereof is not subject to any impairment by the applicability of any public policy or police powers.

11. Enforcement. This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Parties hereto by whatever remedies are available in law or equity, including but not limited to injunctive relief and specific performance. Failure to insist upon strict compliance with any of the terms, covenants, or conditions hereof shall not be deemed as a waiver (or continuing waiver) of such terms, covenants, or conditions; nor shall any waiver or relinquishment of any right or power hereunder be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of such right or power at any other time.

12. Defense. If this Agreement or any portion hereof is challenged by any judicial, administrative, or appellate proceeding (each Party hereby agreeing with the other not to initiate or acquiesce to such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement), the Parties collectively and individually agree, at their individual sole cost and expense, to defend in good faith its validity through to a final judicial determination, unless both Parties mutually agree in writing not to defend such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement.

13. Amendments. Amendments to the Agreement may be offered by either Party at any time. Proposed amendments shall be in writing and must be approved by a majority of the governing bodies of each Party. No amendment shall be effective until approved by the governing bodies of the City and County.

14. Supremacy. The Parties agree and covenant, having given and received valuable consideration for the promises and commitments made herein, it is their desire, intent and firm agreement to be bound by and observe the terms of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided by this Agreement or by law, in the event the terms of this Agreement conflict with previous agreements between the Parties, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

15. Entire Understanding. Except as otherwise specifically set forth herein or in any subagreement, this Agreement embodies and constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matters addressed herein, and all prior agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are superseded by this Agreement. The City and County further acknowledge that they each participated in drafting this Agreement, and in the event of a dispute regarding the Agreement, it shall not be construed by a court of competent jurisdiction or other tribunal more or less favorably on behalf of either Party on the basis of a claim that a Party did not participate in drafting the Agreement or any part thereof.

16. Governing Law and Venue. The laws of the State of Florida shall govern this Agreement, and venue for any action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement shall only be in the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. Federal Jurisdiction and venue, if applicable shall only be in the Middle District of Florida, Orlando Division. If circumstances arise which cause a conflict between this paragraph and paragraph 6 ("Dispute Resolution") paragraph 6 shall control.

17. Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any situation in any jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provision hereof or the validity or enforceability of the offending term or provision in any other situation or in any other jurisdiction.

18. Compliance with Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes. The Parties agree that this Agreement meets the requirements of Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes. The Parties intend for this Agreement to be broadly construed to effectuate the purposes and provisions set forth herein, specifically those provisions that provide for the transfer of powers over lands within the JPA/MSA by the County to the City; and the authority by the City to exercise powers extraterritorially over said lands, including but not necessarily limited to the application and enforecement of the codes described in paragraph 4,c of the Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

19. Amendment of Intergovernmental Coordination Element of Comprehensive Plans. Consistent with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, the Parties, within six (6) months of the effective date of this Agreement, shall amend their respective Intergovernmental Coordination Elements of their adopted Comprehensive Plans to establish consistency and compliance with this Agreement.

20. Adoption by County. The County shall adopt this Agreement by ordinance in accordance with Sections 171.203(14) and 125.66, Florida Statutes.

21. Adoption by City. The City shall adopt this Agreement by ordinance in accordance with Sections 171.203(14) and 166.041, Florida Statutes.

22. 1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Agreement. The interlocal service area agreement dated September 12, 1991, between the City and County establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor shall be deemed terminated on the effective date of this ISBA and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement, and shall be superseded and replaced by the ISBA and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Agreement on behalf of the respective party set forth below, pursuant to the authority granted to each of the undersigned in the resolution by which each party approved and adopted this Agreement.

Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement

This Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement is made and entered into this 28th day of August, 2014, by and between the City of Ormond Beach ("City") and Volusia County ("County").

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is made and entered into in furtherance of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement ("ISBA"), and it is a material part of the ISBA; and

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the "Whereas" recitals in the ISBA are incorporated herein by reference.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County enter into this Sub-Agreement as follows:

1. Incorporation of recitals as legislative findings; purpose. The recitals stated in the ISBA and this Sub-Agreement are incorporated herein by reference as the legislative findings of the City and County. This Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes, specifically sections 171.203, 171.204 and 163.3171.

2. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area ("JPA") and Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), which terms may herein be used synonymously and interchangeably as the context requires.

3. Planning Process and Implementation.

a. The City and the County shall amend the Intergovernmental Coordination Element of their respective comprehensive land use plans in accordance with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, by adopting a policy referencing said agreement. The County's policy shall read as follows, and shall be inserted in Chapter 14 of the county comprehensive plan:

14.1.2.13 Pursuant to Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, Volusia County and the City of Ormond Beach have established an Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) adopted on August 28, 2014. The agreement allows the City to annex properties within the Joint Planning Area that would not otherwise be eligible for annexation subject to the provisions established in the ISBA.

b. The City shall adopt a Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), as that term is defined in Section 171.202(11), Florida Statutes, as an amendment to its comprehensive land use plan within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, in accordance with Section 171.203 (11), Florida Statutes. The MSA shall include the area depicted in Map 1, population projections for the MSA, and data and analysis supporting the provision of public facilities for the MSA.

c. Section 171.207, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a county to transfer its powers to a municipality over lands that are within a JPA/MSA; and section 171.208, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a municipality to exercise its powers, extraterritorially, over such lands. In accordance with Sections 163.3171(4) and 171.203(6)(f), Florida Statutes, the County comprehensive plan, zoning, and land development regulations shall apply to all lands in the JPA/MSA until the City annexes the land at issue or amends its comprehensive plan with respect to those lands. The City is authorized and empowered, pursuant to section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, to amend and apply its comprehensive plan to the lands within the JPA/MSA in advance of the annexation of those lands. In addition, the City's codes and regulations shall apply in advance of annexation upon the adoption by the City of a comprehensive plan amendment; and the City shall be authorized and empowered, pursuant to sections 163.3171(4), 171.207 and 171.208, Florida Statutes, to exercise extraterritorial powers over such lands.

d. The City shall serve as the single point of service for building permitting, inspections, and enforcement (including Flood Hazard Management).

4. Planning, Development and Administrative Authority. The City shall have sole and singular authority within the boundaries of the JPA to apply the City's Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Zoning Map categories over unincorporated parcels, to administer the codes and regulations described in paragraph 4,c below, and to provide for the enforcement of codes:

a. Land Use Designations. The City shall be authorized to amend its future land use map for the purpose of governing any and all unincorporated lands within the JPA. The City shall coordinate the amendment with the County prior to processing it by submitting a copy of the proposed amendment to the County no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the initial hearing. In the event the County desires to object to the proposed amendment, it must file a written objection, stating a good faith basis for same, with the City no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the initial hearing on the amendment. The Parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment. If the Parties are not able to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment, the County may pursue available remedies under applicable law.

b. Zoning Classifications. The City shall be authorized to amend the City's zoning map for all unincorporated lands within the JPA after a City land use designation has been adopted.

c. Application of Codes. The following codes and ordinances (as may be approved or amended from time to time) shall apply in their entirety to unincorporated land in the JPA:

i. City Charter,
ii. City Code of Ordinances,
iii. City Comprehensive Land Use Plan,
iv. City Land Development Code,
v. Non-codified City ordinances, resolutions, and regulations, and
vi. Florida Building Code.

d. Stormwater Conveyance Services. The County shall continue to administer and enforce its regulations regarding county stormwater conveyance systems within the boundaries of the JPA. The City will review and approve all new development in the JPA with regard to stormwater conveyance systems including but not limited to water quality, discharge volume and flow rate, as well as storm attenuation and flood control. The City shall not permit any construction, additions, renovations, or alterations of any improvements to real property, in a manner that is inconsistent or conflicts with County policy unless specific written approval is received from the County Engineer, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. The County shall continue to accept stormwater runoff and maintain stormwater conveyance systems when County predevelopment conditions related to stormwater are met.

e. Itinerant Vendor and Merchant Activities. The City shall have sole and complete jurisdiction over itinerant vendor and merchant activities, and outdoor entertainment activities, within the boundaries of the JPA/MSA, including the issuance of licenses and permits.

f. Roads; transfer of jurisdicition. This paragraph is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 335.0415(3), Florida Statutes.

i. County Thoroughfare Roads. The County shall retain jurisdiction, ownership and control of the entire length of County Thoroughfare Roads within the JPA/MSA regardless of any parcel annexations by the City, including the existing thoroughfare roads listed below and subsequent revisions to the County's thoroughfare roadways as illustrated in Figure 2-1, Volusia County Comprehensive Plan:

(1) Broadway Avenue, from Tymber Creek Road to US 1.
(2) Airport Road, from the Florida East Coast Railroad to US 1.

ii. Non-thoroughfare Roads. The permanent transfer within the JPA/MSA of non-thoroughfare roadway maintenance responsibilities from the County to the City shall occur as follows:

(1) For purposes of this agreement, "road segment" shall mean the portion of a County road between two intersecting roads.

(2) Except for those roads identified in paragraph f,i above, non-thoroughfare county roads within or adjacent to the existing City boundary shall become roads under the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility when at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the road segment is either within or adjacent to the existing City.

(3) All County non-thoroughfare roads within the MSA shall transfer to the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility by segment upon the annexation of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of a road segment.

(4) The 51% segment ratio shall be calculated based on the frontage of annexed parcels on each side of the road segment between two intersecting roads.

(5) Once 51% or more of a segment is annexed, the entire road segment between the two intersecting roads will be deemed annexed into the City and transferred to the City's jurisdiction, and ownership; and the City will be fully responsible for all maintenance and other responsibilities.

(6) As the City accepts jurisdiction and responsibility over a road segment, it shall have the same right of access for purposes of maintenance as the County, to the fullest extent the County is able to grant such right.

(7) Any County or City agreements for road improvements with other governmental or private entities existing at the time of the approval of this Sub-Agreement, if any, shall remain in full force and effect; except in the event of a conflict with this Sub-Agreement, in which case the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall prevail. It is the intention of the parties that no additional "mutual agreements" shall be necessary to effect road segment annexation. This Sub-Agreement is intended to convey the will of the parties concerning all road segments within the JPA/MSA.

iii. Transportation Planning and Coordination.

(1) The City and County agree to use the adopted Volusia Transportation Planning Organization (TPO) Transportation Impact Analysis (TIA) Guidelines to coordinate the review and mitigation of development impacts on road, transit, bicycle and pedestrian systems based upon a mutually agreed upon TIA methodology. The TIA Guidelines shall utilize the latest adopted level of service standards and transportation plans within the impacted jurisdiction's comprehensive plans including the adopted Volusia TPO Long Range Transportation Plan.

(2) In the event the standards or plans may be different, the TIA methodology and/or mitigation plan shall address coordination. When necessary, comprehensive plans shall be updated to reflect the latest coordination plans. In the event the TIA Guidelines are ever repealed or become no longer applicable, the City and County agree to continue to utilize the latest adopted version for the purpose of plan review and mitigation coordination.

iv. Funding. The City and County agree to work together to obtain funding sources for capital transportation improvements, including capital and operating expenses for the provision of transit service, within the JPA/MSA.

v. Maintenance. The City and County may enter into maintenance agreements for certain segments of permanent County roads within the JPA/MSA. The County agrees that the City shall be justly compensated for any and all maintenance responsibilities that may be transferred to the City through a maintenance agreement.

vi. Continuing jurisdiction. All roads over which jurisdiction is transferred to the City under the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall be maintained by the City unless otherwise agreed to in a separate maintenance agreement. If a road is transferred to the City, to the extent available, the County shall provide all as-builts, surveys, maintenance maps and GIS files that identify County maintenance responsibilities. Road transfers include associated roadway drainage and right-of-way infrastructure that includes but is not limited to sidewalks, guardrails, signs and multi-use trails.

g. Land Development and Planning. The City shall provide site plans and subdivision plans to the County for review and comment. The County shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of plans to submit its comments or recommendations to the City. The City shall notify the County of the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city's local planning agency (i.e., planning board) for its review and recommendation to the city commission, as well as the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city commission for final action. The County's comments or recommendation shall be included in any city staff analysis that is presented to the city planning board and city commission. The County may submit or present its comments or recommendations directly to the city planning board and city commission, regardless whether or not they have been incorporated into the site plan.

h. Enforcement of Codes. The City shall enforce City or County codes within the JPA/MSA, whichever may apply.

5. Joint Planning Area ("JPA"). The following additional findings are intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 171.204(2), Florida Statutes:

a. Urban in Character. The unincorporated area in the JPA as depicted in Map 1 is anticipated for municipal annexation because it is "urban in character", as that term is defined by section 171.031(8), Florida Statutes.

b. Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Future Land Uses to be Established by the City. The City may, in accordance with section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, amend its comprehensive land use plan, including its future land use map, for lands in the JPA in advance of annexation.

c. Transportation: as may be addressed in a separate sub-agreement.

d. Annexation as a Condition to Receiving Water and Sewer Services.

i. Annexation as a condition of municipal utility connection has long been and continues to be authorized by Section 180.02(3), Florida Statutes, and the home rule constitutional and proprietary powers of the City. The City and County entered into an interlocal agreement dated September 12, 1991, establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor ("1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement") described as being "those lands lying 660 feet east and 660 feet west of the right-of-way lines of U.S. 1, including the hinterlands under single development control lying beyond that point referred to as the Service Area." The 1991 Interlocal Service Area Agreement conferred to the City the exclusive right to extend water and/or sewer facilities and provide utility service within the designated Service Area in accordance with the City's water and sewer connection policy, which policy required and continues to require the consent of a property owner to annex into the City as a condition to connecting to the City's water and/or sewer facilities. Connection to the City's water and/or sewer facilities constitutes express or implied consent by a property owner to the annexation of the land benefitting from the receipt of such services. The City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations are set forth in Chapter 3, Article V, Section 3-61(B)(2)(b) and (c), of the Ormond Beach Land Development Code (formerly Ordinance 91-33 adopted on August 20, 1991).

ii. The City may require, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, and the City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations, the annexation of land in the JPA/MSA regardless of whether the land is contiguous, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact at the time of annexation.

iii. In accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, before the annexation of land that is not contiguous to the City, or that will create an enclave, or land that is not being served by water or sewer utilities at the time of the proposed annexation, the City shall transmit for review to the state Department of Economic Opportunity a comprehensive land use plan amendment for the lands that are to be annexed. After considering the DEO's review, the City may approve concurrently, through separate and distinct actions, the annexation and comprehensive land use plan amendment.

iv. With respect to land that is contiguous to the City, that does not create an enclave or pocket, and is being served water or sewer services by the City at the time of the proposed annexation, the City agrees to process a Future Land Use Map ("FLUM") amendment to its comprehensive land use plan prior to or concurrent with the annexation. The FLUM amendment and annexation must be accomplished as separate and distinct actions.

e. School Facilities. The JPA shall be served by the schools zoned by the Volusia County School District and shall not conflict with the Interlocal Agreement between Volusia County and the Volusia County School District, as amended. The City agrees to work with the Volusia County School District to further the requirements and goals of the School Interlocal Agreement between the County and the School District.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Sub-Agreement on behalf of the respective party set forth below, pursuant to the authority granted to each of the undersigned in the ordinance by which each party approved and adopted this Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Municipal Annexation or Contraction Act, Chapter 171, Part I, Florida Statutes, and the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement Act, Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, recognizes the use of interlocal service boundary agreements and joint planning agreements as a means to coordinate planning and delivery of services related to future land use, public facilities and services, and protection of natural resources in advance of annexation; and

WHEREAS, the Local Government Comprehensive Planning and Land Development Regulation Act, Chapter 163, Part II, Florida Statutes, requires that counties and cities include in their respective planning efforts intergovernmental coordination and particularly, mechanisms for identifying and implementing joint planning areas; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth in this Agreement, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County agree as follows:

1. Incorporation of Recitals. The recitals above are true and correct and are incorporated into this ISBA and all Sub-Agreements, as if fully set forth herein, as the legislative findings of the City and County.

2. Incorporation of Sub-Agreements and Map 1. The following Sub-Agreements and Map 1 attached hereto are fully incorporated as if fully set forth herein:

a. Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement
b. Map 1 (depicting the interlocal boundary service area, joint planning area, and municipal service area)
c. Any Sub-Agreement that may be approved and executed after the approval and effective date of this Agreement
d. 1992 Joint Project Agreement (regarding water and sewer line extension and development fee reimbursement)

3. Term and Effective Date of Agreement. The ISBA and all attached Sub-Agreements shall become effective when filed with clerk of court for Volusia County Circuit Court, in accordance with section 163.01(11), Florida Statutes. The initial term of the Agreement and all attached Sub-Agreements shall be ten (10) years from the effective date of the Agreement. At the end of the fifth year, the County and City shall review the effectiveness and performance of this Agreement. Based upon the review, this Agreement, including any or all Sub-Agreements, may continue for the remainder of the initial term, be amended as the parties desire, or be terminated in accordance with paragraph 5 of this Agreement.

4. Renewal of Agreement. The City and County shall, in the event the Parties desire to extend the initial term of the Agreement, initiate negotiations in accordance with section 171.203(12), Florida Statutes, no later than eighteen months prior to the termination of the initial term.

5. Termination of Agreement. The County or City may terminate this Agreement or any Sub-Agreement at anytime upon written notice of termination to the other Party delivered no later than May 1st in order for termination to be effective on December 31st of the same calendar year. A Party delivering such notice of termination may, in such Party's sole discretion, revoke such notice of termination at any time prior to the termination date. Lands that have been annexed prior to termination of any agreement and services provided to said lands shall not be affected by the termination. Jurisdiction over any affected transportation facilities including roadways, parks, and other public facilities shall not be affected, except though a separate agreement in writing that has been approved by both Parties.

6. Dispute Resolution. The County and City agree to resolve any dispute related to the interpretation or performance of this Agreement in the manner described in this section. Either Party may initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice to the other Party. Initiation of the dispute resolution process shall operate as a stay of the action which is the subject of the dispute.

a. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that either Party determines in its sole discretion and good faith that it is necessary to file a lawsuit or other formal challenge in order to meet a jurisdictional time deadline, to obtain a temporary injunction, or otherwise to preserve a legal or equitable right related to this Agreement, such lawsuit or challenge may be filed, but upon the filing and any other act necessary to preserve the legal or equitable right or to obtain the temporary injunction, the Parties shall thereafter promptly file a joint motion with the reviewing court or administrative law judge requesting that the case be abated in order to afford the Parties an opportunity to pursue the dispute resolution

b. Within ten (10) days of the abatement order, the allegedly aggrieved Party shall then effect the transmittal of a notice of conflict, in the form of a certified letter, to all governmental bodies involved in the dispute at issue. Upon receipt of the notice, which shall specify the areas of disagreement, the Parties agree to conduct a conflict assessment meeting at a reasonable time and place, as mutually agreed upon, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice of conflict.

c. If discussions between the Parties at the conflict resolution meeting fail to resolve the dispute, within forty (40) days of the receipt of the notice described in subparagraph a, above, the Parties shall conduct mediation in the presence of a neutral third party mediator. If the Parties are unable to agree upon a mediator, the County shall request appointment of a mediator by the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Volusia County, Florida. The mediation contemplated by this section is intended to be an informal and non-adversarial process with the objective of helping the Parties reach a mutually acceptable and voluntary agreement. The decision-making shall rest solely with the Parties. The mediator shall assist the Parties in identifying issues, fostering joint problem-solving and exploring settlement alternatives.

d. If the Parties are unable to reach a mediated settlement, within fifty (50) days of the receipt of the initial notice of conflict, the Parties shall hold a joint intergovernmental meeting. If the joint intergovernmental meeting does not successfully resolve the issues identified in the notice of conflict, the entities participating in the dispute resolution procedures described herein may avail themselves of any otherwise available rights, including the suspension of abatement of existing actions.

e. The Parties agree this dispute resolution procedure is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 163.01(5)(p), section 171.212, Florida Statutes, and Chapter 164, Florida Statutes.

7. Duplication of Services. In furtherance of the purpose of this Agreement, the City and County shall not undertake any action that will result in the overlapping, duplication, or competition of services or exercise of powers provided herein without the prior written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8. Notice. All notices, consents, approvals, waivers, and elections that either Party requests or gives under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be provided by certified mail, return receipt requested; or by hand delivery for which a receipt is obtained. Notices shall be mailed or delivered to the addresses set forth below or as either Party may otherwise designate in writing.

If to the County:	County of Volusia Attn: County Manager Copy to: County Attorney 123 West Indiana Avenue DeLand, FL 32720
If to the City:	City of Ormond Beach Attn: City Manager Copy to: City Attorney 22 South Beach Street Ormond Beach, FL 32174

11. Enforcement. This Agreement shall be enforceable by the Parties hereto by whatever remedies are available in law or equity, including but not limited to injunctive relief and specific performance. Failure to insist upon strict compliance with any of the terms, covenants, or conditions hereof shall not be deemed as a waiver (or continuing waiver) of such terms, covenants, or conditions; nor shall any waiver or relinquishment of any right or power hereunder be deemed to be a waiver or relinquishment of such right or power at any other time.

12. Defense. If this Agreement or any portion hereof is challenged by any judicial, administrative, or appellate proceeding (each Party hereby agreeing with the other not to initiate or acquiesce to such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement), the Parties collectively and individually agree, at their individual sole cost and expense, to defend in good faith its validity through to a final judicial determination, unless both Parties mutually agree in writing not to defend such challenge or not to appeal any decision invalidating any portion of this Agreement.

13. Amendments. Amendments to the Agreement may be offered by either Party at any time. Proposed amendments shall be in writing and must be approved by a majority of the governing bodies of each Party. No amendment shall be effective until approved by the governing bodies of the City and County.

The City and County further acknowledge that they each participated in drafting this Agreement, and in the event of a dispute regarding the Agreement, it shall not be construed by a court of competent jurisdiction or other tribunal more or less favorably on behalf of either Party on the basis of a claim that a Party did not participate in drafting the Agreement or any part thereof.

EXHIBIT "B"

Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement

This Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement is made and entered into this 28th day of August, 2014, by and between the City of Ormond Beach ("City") and Volusia County ("County").

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is made and entered into in furtherance of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement ("ISBA"), and it is a material part of the ISBA; and

WHEREAS, this Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the "Whereas" recitals in the ISBA are incorporated herein by reference.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the City and the County enter into this Sub-Agreement as follows:

1. Incorporation of recitals as legislative findings; purpose. The recitals stated in the ISBA and this Sub-Agreement are incorporated herein by reference as the legislative findings of the City and County. This Sub-Agreement is intended to satisfy the requirements of Chapter 171 (Parts I & II), Florida Statutes, and Chapter 163 (Part II), Florida Statutes, specifically sections 171.203, 171.204 and 163.3171.

2. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area ("JPA") and Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), which terms may herein be used synonymously and interchangeably as the context requires.

3. Planning Process and Implementation.

a. The City and the County shall amend the Intergovernmental Coordination Element of their respective comprehensive land use plans in accordance with Section 171.203(9), Florida Statutes, within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, by adopting a policy referencing said agreement. The County's policy shall read as follows, and shall be inserted in Chapter 14 of the county comprehensive plan:

14.1.2.13 Pursuant to Chapter 171, Part II, Florida Statutes, Volusia County and the City of Ormond Beach have established an Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) adopted on August 28, 2014. The agreement allows the City to annex properties within the Joint Planning Area that would not otherwise be eligible for annexation subject to the provisions established in the ISBA.

b. The City shall adopt a Municipal Service Area ("MSA"), as that term is defined in Section 171.202(11), Florida Statutes, as an amendment to its comprehensive land use plan within six months of the effective date of the ISBA, in accordance with Section 171.203 (11), Florida Statutes. The MSA shall include the area depicted in Map 1, population projections for the MSA, and data and analysis supporting the provision of public facilities for the MSA.

c. Section 171.207, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a county to transfer its powers to a municipality over lands that are within a JPA/MSA; and section 171.208, Florida Statutes, expressly authorizes a municipality to exercise its powers, extraterritorially, over such lands. In accordance with Sections 163.3171(4) and 171.203(6)(f), Florida Statutes, the County comprehensive plan, zoning, and land development regulations shall apply to all lands in the JPA/MSA until the City annexes the land at issue or amends its comprehensive plan with respect to those lands. The City is authorized and empowered, pursuant to section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, to amend and apply its comprehensive plan to the lands within the JPA/MSA in advance of the annexation of those lands. In addition, the City's codes and regulations shall apply in advance of annexation upon the adoption by the City of a comprehensive plan amendment; and the City shall be authorized and empowered, pursuant to sections 163.3171(4), 171.207 and 171.208, Florida Statutes, to exercise extraterritorial powers over such lands.

d. The City shall serve as the single point of service for building permitting, inspections, and enforcement (including Flood Hazard Management).

4. Planning, Development and Administrative Authority. The City shall have sole and singular authority within the boundaries of the JPA to apply the City's Comprehensive Land Use Plan and Zoning Map categories over unincorporated parcels, to administer the codes and regulations described in paragraph 4,c below, and to provide for the enforcement of codes:

a. Land Use Designations. The City shall be authorized to amend its future land use map for the purpose of governing any and all unincorporated lands within the JPA. The City shall coordinate the amendment with the County prior to processing it by submitting a copy of the proposed amendment to the County no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the initial hearing. In the event the County desires to object to the proposed amendment, it must file a written objection, stating a good faith basis for same, with the City no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the initial hearing on the amendment. The Parties shall make a good faith effort to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment. If the Parties are not able to resolve a dispute regarding a proposed amendment, the County may pursue available remedies under applicable law.

b. Zoning Classifications. The City shall be authorized to amend the City's zoning map for all unincorporated lands within the JPA after a City land use designation has been adopted.

c. Application of Codes. The following codes and ordinances (as may be approved or amended from time to time) shall apply in their entirety to unincorporated land in the JPA:

i. City Charter,
ii. City Code of Ordinances,
iii. City Comprehensive Land Use Plan,
iv. City Land Development Code,
v. Non-codified City ordinances, resolutions, and regulations, and
vi. Florida Building Code.

d. Stormwater Conveyance Services. The County shall continue to administer and enforce its regulations regarding county stormwater conveyance systems within the boundaries of the JPA. The City will review and approve all new development in the JPA with regard to stormwater conveyance systems including but not limited to water quality, discharge volume and flow rate, as well as storm attenuation and flood control. The City shall not permit any construction, additions, renovations, or alterations of any improvements to real property, in a manner that is inconsistent or conflicts with County policy unless specific written approval is received from the County Engineer, which approval shall not be unreasonably delayed or withheld. The County shall continue to accept stormwater runoff and maintain stormwater conveyance systems when County predevelopment conditions related to stormwater are met.

e. Itinerant Vendor and Merchant Activities. The City shall have sole and complete jurisdiction over itinerant vendor and merchant activities, and outdoor entertainment activities, within the boundaries of the JPA/MSA, including the issuance of licenses and permits.

f. Roads; transfer of jurisdicition. This paragraph is intended to satisfy the requirements of section 335.0415(3), Florida Statutes.

i. County Thoroughfare Roads. The County shall retain jurisdiction, ownership and control of the entire length of County Thoroughfare Roads within the JPA/MSA regardless of any parcel annexations by the City, including the existing thoroughfare roads listed below and subsequent revisions to the County's thoroughfare roadways as illustrated in Figure 2-1, Volusia County Comprehensive Plan:

(1) Broadway Avenue, from Tymber Creek Road to US 1.
(2) Airport Road, from the Florida East Coast Railroad to US 1.

ii. Non-thoroughfare Roads. The permanent transfer within the JPA/MSA of non-thoroughfare roadway maintenance responsibilities from the County to the City shall occur as follows:

(1) For purposes of this agreement, "road segment" shall mean the portion of a County road between two intersecting roads.

(2) Except for those roads identified in paragraph f,i above, non-thoroughfare county roads within or adjacent to the existing City boundary shall become roads under the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility when at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the road segment is either within or adjacent to the existing City.

(3) All County non-thoroughfare roads within the MSA shall transfer to the City's jurisdiction and maintenance responsibility by segment upon the annexation of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of a road segment.

(4) The 51% segment ratio shall be calculated based on the frontage of annexed parcels on each side of the road segment between two intersecting roads.

(5) Once 51% or more of a segment is annexed, the entire road segment between the two intersecting roads will be deemed annexed into the City and transferred to the City's jurisdiction, and ownership; and the City will be fully responsible for all maintenance and other responsibilities.

(6) As the City accepts jurisdiction and responsibility over a road segment, it shall have the same right of access for purposes of maintenance as the County, to the fullest extent the County is able to grant such right.

(7) Any County or City agreements for road improvements with other governmental or private entities existing at the time of the approval of this Sub-Agreement, if any, shall remain in full force and effect; except in the event of a conflict with this Sub-Agreement, in which case the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall prevail. It is the intention of the parties that no additional "mutual agreements" shall be necessary to effect road segment annexation. This Sub-Agreement is intended to convey the will of the parties concerning all road segments within the JPA/MSA.

iii. Transportation Planning and Coordination.

(1) The City and County agree to use the adopted Volusia Transportation Planning Organization (TPO) Transportation Impact Analysis (TIA) Guidelines to coordinate the review and mitigation of development impacts on road, transit, bicycle and pedestrian systems based upon a mutually agreed upon TIA methodology. The TIA Guidelines shall utilize the latest adopted level of service standards and transportation plans within the impacted jurisdiction's comprehensive plans including the adopted Volusia TPO Long Range Transportation Plan.

(2) In the event the standards or plans may be different, the TIA methodology and/or mitigation plan shall address coordination. When necessary, comprehensive plans shall be updated to reflect the latest coordination plans. In the event the TIA Guidelines are ever repealed or become no longer applicable, the City and County agree to continue to utilize the latest adopted version for the purpose of plan review and mitigation coordination.

iv. Funding. The City and County agree to work together to obtain funding sources for capital transportation improvements, including capital and operating expenses for the provision of transit service, within the JPA/MSA.

v. Maintenance. The City and County may enter into maintenance agreements for certain segments of permanent County roads within the JPA/MSA. The County agrees that the City shall be justly compensated for any and all maintenance responsibilities that may be transferred to the City through a maintenance agreement.

vi. Continuing jurisdiction. All roads over which jurisdiction is transferred to the City under the terms of this Sub-Agreement shall be maintained by the City unless otherwise agreed to in a separate maintenance agreement. If a road is transferred to the City, to the extent available, the County shall provide all as-builts, surveys, maintenance maps and GIS files that identify County maintenance responsibilities. Road transfers include associated roadway drainage and right-of-way infrastructure that includes but is not limited to sidewalks, guardrails, signs and multi-use trails.

g. Land Development and Planning. The City shall provide site plans and subdivision plans to the County for review and comment. The County shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of plans to submit its comments or recommendations to the City. The City shall notify the County of the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city's local planning agency (i.e., planning board) for its review and recommendation to the city commission, as well as the date and time at which a proposed site plan will be presented to the city commission for final action. The County's comments or recommendation shall be included in any city staff analysis that is presented to the city planning board and city commission. The County may submit or present its comments or recommendations directly to the city planning board and city commission, regardless whether or not they have been incorporated into the site plan.

h. Enforcement of Codes. The City shall enforce City or County codes within the JPA/MSA, whichever may apply.

5. Joint Planning Area ("JPA"). The following additional findings are intended to satisfy the requirements of Section 171.204(2), Florida Statutes:

a. Urban in Character. The unincorporated area in the JPA as depicted in Map 1 is anticipated for municipal annexation because it is "urban in character", as that term is defined by section 171.031(8), Florida Statutes.

b. Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Future Land Uses to be Established by the City. The City may, in accordance with section 163.3171(4), Florida Statutes, amend its comprehensive land use plan, including its future land use map, for lands in the JPA in advance of annexation.

c. Transportation: as may be addressed in a separate sub-agreement.

d. Annexation as a Condition to Receiving Water and Sewer Services.

i. Annexation as a condition of municipal utility connection has long been and continues to be authorized by Section 180.02(3), Florida Statutes, and the home rule constitutional and proprietary powers of the City. The City and County entered into an interlocal agreement dated September 12, 1991, establishing a utility service area for the U.S. 1 corridor ("1991 U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Area Agreement") described as being "those lands lying 660 feet east and 660 feet west of the right-of-way lines of U.S. 1, including the hinterlands under single development control lying beyond that point referred to as the Service Area." The 1991 Interlocal Service Area Agreement conferred to the City the exclusive right to extend water and/or sewer facilities and provide utility service within the designated Service Area in accordance with the City's water and sewer connection policy, which policy required and continues to require the consent of a property owner to annex into the City as a condition to connecting to the City's water and/or sewer facilities. Connection to the City's water and/or sewer facilities constitutes express or implied consent by a property owner to the annexation of the land benefitting from the receipt of such services. The City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations are set forth in Chapter 3, Article V, Section 3-61(B)(2)(b) and (c), of the Ormond Beach Land Development Code (formerly Ordinance 91-33 adopted on August 20, 1991).

ii. The City may require, in accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, and the City's annexation and utility provision policies and regulations, the annexation of land in the JPA/MSA regardless of whether the land is contiguous, creates an enclave or is not reasonably compact at the time of annexation.

iii. In accordance with section 171.204, Florida Statutes, before the annexation of land that is not contiguous to the City, or that will create an enclave, or land that is not being served by water or sewer utilities at the time of the proposed annexation, the City shall transmit for review to the state Department of Economic Opportunity a comprehensive land use plan amendment for the lands that are to be annexed. After considering the DEO's review, the City may approve concurrently, through separate and distinct actions, the annexation and comprehensive land use plan amendment.

iv. With respect to land that is contiguous to the City, that does not create an enclave or pocket, and is being served water or sewer services by the City at the time of the proposed annexation, the City agrees to process a Future Land Use Map ("FLUM") amendment to its comprehensive land use plan prior to or concurrent with the annexation. The FLUM amendment and annexation must be accomplished as separate and distinct actions.

e. School Facilities. The JPA shall be served by the schools zoned by the Volusia County School District and shall not conflict with the Interlocal Agreement between Volusia County and the Volusia County School District, as amended. The City agrees to work with the Volusia County School District to further the requirements and goals of the School Interlocal Agreement between the County and the School District.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the undersigned has executed this Sub-Agreement on behalf of the respective party set forth below, pursuant to the authority granted to each of the undersigned in the ordinance by which each party approved and adopted this Agreement.

Itinerant Vendor Criteria

These Itinerant Vendor Criteria are to be established in furtherance of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement, and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement between the City of Ormond Beach and County of Volusia regarding the North U.S. 1 Joint Planning Area/Municipal Service Area (JPA/MSA). The criteria are intended to be established as part the city's adopted land development regulations.

1. Incorporation of Map 1. The unincorporated area depicted in Map 1 attached to the ISBA shall constitute the Joint Planning Area (JPA) and Municipal Service Area (MSA) for purposes of the following criteria.

2. Area of application. These provisions shall apply to all land in the unincorporated territory of Volusia County as more fully described and depicted in the JPA/MSA to the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement and Planning and Services Delivery Sub-Agreement.

3. Definitions.

a. Improved land shall mean land on which permanent improvements consisting of one or more buildings are being utilized for the express purpose of engaging in a primary and lawful business use.

b. Vacant or unimproved land shall mean land on which permanent improvements consisting of one or more buildings do not exist or are NOT being utilized for the express purpose of engaging in a primary and lawful business use.

c. Local business tax receipt (BTR) shall have the meaning prescribed in Chapter 205, Florida Statutes. Specifically, it is a receipt issued by the County or City granting a privilege to engage in a lawful business activity, exclusive of any fees for applicable licenses, permits, registrations, examinations or inspections.

d. Business use shall be broadly construed to mean any lawful activity that is commonly and customarily recognized as a business or commercial activity, regardless whether or not such activity is for-profit or not-for-profit.

e. Primary business use shall mean being actively engaged in a chief, dominate or main business use of permanent and continuous existence, on a year-round basis, on improved land that is authorized by a valid local business tax receipt, regardless whether such activity is for-profit or not-for-profit.

f. Itinerant commercial activity shall mean a business use or activity of intermittent or temporary existence, or not being of a permanent and continuous existence on a year-round basis, regardless whether such use or activity is for-profit or not-for-profit. For purposes of this definition, music, participant contests, auto exhibits, games and similar activities hosted on-site of a primary business use shall not be Outdoor Entertainment Activity. Administrative approvals shall be required for outdoor entertainment activities. Except during and for the limited exception provided in paragraph 5 below for land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category, Outdoor Entertainment Activity shall not be allowed or permitted on vacant or unimproved land.

m. Outdoor Entertainment Activity Permit shall mean a permit issued for outdoor entertainment activity that is to occur on the property where a primary business use occurs, and for a temporary duration specified in the permit; except only that outdoor entertainment activities may be allowed during and for the limited exception provided in paragraph 5 below, for land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category.

4. Category of Use.

a. High Impact Use on Improved Land Category. Itinerant commercial uses or activities are deemed to have significant impacts on the use of improved land, including but not necessarily limited to intensive parking, traffic, and pedestrian safety. The following businesses are known to engage in itinerant commercial uses or activities in the unincorporated territory of the County, as of the effective date of the Agreements and shall be allowed to continue engaging in such uses or activities after the effective date of said Agreements:

1. Recognized Special Event Host:

i. 1635 N. US Hwy 1, (Destination Daytona, activities as specified in County Development Order)
ii. 1065 N. US Hwy 1, (Standard Cycle/Biker Haven)
iii. 1068 N. US Hwy 1, (Iron Horse Saloon)

iv. 1105 N. US Hwy 1, (Beaver Bar)

b. High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land. Itinerant commercial uses or activities are deemed to have the same significant impacts on vacant or unimproved land as those impacts that occur on improved land. Business establishments and lands that are not described in paragraph 4a(1) and (2) above shall be in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category for purposes of this Agreement. Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities for lands within the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category shall be subject to the amortization schedule described in paragraph 5 below.

5. Rationale for Use of Land Classification and Amortization. Property values in Florida are based on the aggregate total of building improvement and land value. Much of the total taxable value in property involves a building improvement to land value ratio of approximately 70:30. Consequently, vacant land reserved solely for the purpose of itinerate commercial activities or uses for an event that has limited duration is problematic for several reasons, including:

a. Pays little in taxes to offset the costs of public service impacts related to the event;

b. Vacant or unimproved land is not assessed by the property appraiser for the income to property owners generated by itinerate commercial activities or uses;

c. Vacant or unimproved land that is used solely for itinerate commercial activities or uses have debilitating effects on adjacent property values and the North U.S. 1 corridor in general.

In order to promote the use of land for primary business use purposes, an amortization schedule shall be imposed for itinerant activities and uses, and outdoor entertainment activities, as follows:

High Impact Use on Improved Land. The businesses and land described in paragraph 4a (1) and (2) above shall be exempt from the amortization schedule that applies to those businesses and land in the High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land Category described below and from the Outdoor Activity provisions of the City's Land Development Code that would require authorization and approval by a Special Exception development order.

High Impact Use on Vacant or Unimproved Land; Amortization Schedule. Lands that are subject to the High Impact Use on Vacant Land Category described in paragraph 4b above may host Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities during Recognized Special Events for a period that shall automatically terminate five years from the effective date of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement. Permits for Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities must be obtained from the City's Site Plan Review Committee in accordance with the requirements of Section 6 or 7 of this Agreement as a condition of engaging in such activities. Itinerant Commercial Activities and Outdoor Entertainment Activities shall be prohibited after the five year termination date prescribed in this section.

6. Specialized Itinerant Provisions in the North US 1 Corridor.

a. Specialized Itinerant Provisions ("SIP") applications shall be approved administratively by the City's Site Plan Review Committee.

b. All retail and service activities shall occur outside public rights-of-way.

c. A fully completed application for a Master Vendor Permit shall include attachments containing the following information:

1. A single site plan 8.5 x 11 inches, drawn to scale must show all necessary elements and shall include the following if applicable:

   i. Location of existing facilities/structures
   ii. Location of proposed temporary facilities/structures
   iii. Proposed traffic flow and provisions for ingress/egress
   iv. Measures for security/crowd control
   v. Measures for provision of medical care
   vi. Lighting
   vii. Solid waste disposal
   viii. Parking
   ix. Location of bands and or music venues
   x. Sanitation facilities
   xi. Vendor permits (i.e., vendor list with Vendor Names, goods and/or services to be provided.)

2. A list or schedule of events that are to occur at the location for the duration of the permit, including any host drinking contests or games, motorcycle/car washes (excluding those held by a church, school, or civic organizations). Contests involving disrobing or wet t-shirt contests, slaw/pudding/jello wrestling, bobbing or similar contests are prohibited.

3. Individual itinerate vendors will be required during special events to have a permit to do business

4. No person or business receiving a Master Vendor Permit or Individual Vendor Permit may engage in any of the following activities:

   i. Activities involving the operation of aircraft;
   ii. Events involving the discharge of explosive devices in violation of state or federal law;
   iii. Activities in which farm animals or wild animals interact with the public;
   iv. Outdoor event involving the exhibition of moving, driver-occupied motorized vehicles such as stunt shows, dynodrag or dyno unit; except that Wall of Death and burn-out pit activities, only, are allowed.
   v. Activities involving the discharge of any toxic or harmful substance.

5. Portable side-by-side stationary racing dynamometers for bike drag race simulation are permitted.

6. All vendors setting up outside a permanent building, using a tent or other temporary structure are required to have an inspection by the Building Division 24 hours prior to operating.

7. A vendor may be allowed the use of one portable out-door sign in the form of a sandwich board or other similar design to be used for advertisement of daily specials, events or services of the vendor during the event. The sign may only be set out each day at the opening of business hours and shall be removed each day at the end of business hours. All signs shall require a sign permit. The sign shall not exceed 16 square feet in size and must be constructed of sufficient material to withstand adverse weather events.

8. Vendor activities and advertising must at all times be confined to the vendor space identified either in the Master Vendor Permit or Individual Vendor License.

9. Vendor is required to leave said vending space 8 hours after the event officially closes.

10. Food vendors must operate in compliance with the requirements of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Florida Department of Business and Professional regulation. Rebecca: My comments regarding operational implementation are these:

1. No OEP is required at all if the event is typically smaller in scope than Recognized Events as defined in the Itinerant Vendor Criteria (IVC) and they occur on site. A 500 person event on site would not require an OEP.
2. There is nothing proposed in the IVC that would prevent the issuance of an Master Vendor Permit for a number of events to occur over a year. It is my understanding that should this need to be clarified, we will clarify it in the ordinance amending the LDC for IVC. The ordinance amending the LDC will have preamble language indicating that the LDC ordinance will take precedence over the ISBA agreement as it pertains to the Itinerant Vendor Criteria.
3. Again, the answer is the same as in 2. The IVC operating standards Outdoor Entertainment and Recognized Special Events is significantly different than that permitted elsewhere in the City. First, it will be administratively approved where elsewhere it is approved by the City Commission as Special Exception. The city recognizes the differences and it can be addressed in the LDC amendment since the ISBA ordinance does not prevent it. It was reasoned that not all operating standards can be codified at the ISBA level of approval. The LDC amendment will be more narrow, focused and can address yearly permits for multiple activities as well as setup days for events.
4. The City permits the Wall of Death in its Outdoor Entertainment Activities on US 1. A Wall of Death was approved by staff for an activity related to Bike Week at the Broken Spoke. The Outdoor Entertainment was approved for 3 years which permitted the Wall of Death provided participants were not the public. However, I believe the City Attorney amended the IVC to add the following to prevent confusion: "iv. Outdoor event involving the exhibition of moving, driver-occupied motorized vehicles such as stunt shows, dyno-drag or dyno unit; except that the Wall of Death and burn-out pit activities, only, are allowed."

I will forward your inquiry to the planning director since they relate to the administration of regulations and will let you know something as soon as I can today. There will be opportunities to tweak the regulations where necessary or desirable.

Procedurally, once the interlocal agreement is approved by the city commission and county council, the terms and conditions affecting the use of land (which would include the itinerant vendor criteria attached to the ordinance as Exhibit-C) will not actually become effective until the city completes, and approves, a comprehensive land use amendment incorporating the lands within the service area under the city's jurisdiction. The comp plan amendment process will take approximately four to six months to complete. During the comp plan amendment process, the city's Land Development Code will undergo an amendment to incorporate various conditions of the interlocal agreement to better administer the regulations, including the itinerant vendor criteria. The criteria attached as Exhibit-C to the ordinance approving the interlocal agreement may modified or tweaked during this process as well.

I'll provide additional information regarding your inquiry as soon as I can.

Thank you

Good morning Mr. Hayes:

Mr. Hood asked me to forward the below information to you this morning. Please review the following items and let us know if you agree and we can bring a close to this agreement. Please advise Mr. Hood of your comments. Thank you.

1) There is no clarification for the operating procedures for events.

Instrument# 2014-155370 # 33

For example:

a) Currently an OEP is necessary when a gathering of 500 people or more are anticipated and is generally approved as long as rules are followed.

b) We apply yearly, listing all proposed events. This allows us to better plan in advance. How will this be handled?

c) Our current set up time for major events is 5 days and tear down time is 3 days. This allows us to set up a quality event that is not simply thrown together. The listed times in the current agreement are almost physically impossible.

d) The Wall of Death has been a part of our event for many years. It appears this will not be allowed??

Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) Renewal

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Galloway motioned to approve PZ 2024-036, 1628 West Granada Boulevard, Special Exception for Electronic Changeable Copy Signage. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (5-1), with Mr. Scudiero in opposition.

Mr. Galloway asked for clarification if the Board is going to continue going through this process for digital signs. Mr. Spraker replied that yes, unless direction is provided to staff and City Commission that the Planning Board would like to alter the process for these items.

Attorney Hayes stated that it is part of the statutory process and explained that several years ago the Florida Legislature passed a law that would allow these type of requests to be reviewed and approved by local government, based on certain conditions. He commented that without the Legislation, these would not be heard here. They have to come before the Board on a case-by-case basis to be determined on their own facts as each application stands on its own merits.

G. PZ 2024-038, Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) Renewal

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained that this is an administrative request to renew the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) for a period of ten (10) years. The North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) was adopted in 2014, amended in 2019 (Plantation Oaks – first amendment), and 2021/2022 (RidgeHaven – second amendment). The administrative request seeks a ten-year renewal and does not amend any other portions of the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). Mr. Spraker showed maps of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area and stated that after City Commission action, Volusia County must also act on the interlocal agreement.

Mr. Spraker stated that the ISBA has been successful in planning tools with property owner participation through landscaping grants, city expansion of water and sewer facilities, the interchange at U.S. Highway 1 and Interstate 95 and redevelopment as with the Ormond ACE Hardware, Dunkin Donuts, the Cheaters business that was demolished, and the Dollar General being put in there. Mr. Spraker stated that Planning staff is recommending approval of the ten year renewal of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). If approved it goes to the City Commission and then the Volusia County Council.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Jorczak referenced page 2 where is states that January 19, 2024, staff received the Volusia County Resolution and in 2023-156, where it initiated the process to amend the ISBA Resolution 2023-156 containing two parts, expansion of the land area of the ISBA to include the property at 874 Hull Road. Mr. Jorczak asked if it is an attempt by the County to dump the Belvedere project. Attorney Hayes responded that the only thing the Board is being asked to do is to make a recommendation to renew the existing agreement with adding subjects and changes and renew the term for another ten-year term. Attorney Hayes further explained that when the Hull Road matter became an issue, the County decided that because the agreement was going to expire it would ask the City if it wanted to incorporate the property in the footprint of the agreement which would expand the boundary line. The City Commission did not want to do that, therefore the property is not going to be incorporated into the ISBA and terms and conditions of the ISBA are not going to change. Attorney Hayes stated that the only thing that is being recommended is to renew for another ten-year term because it served its purpose well. Today, the City has been able to annex certain properties along the North U.S. 1 Corridor that were receiving water and had agreements to annex but could not because they did not have the contiguity. This agreement gives the City the ability to do that and to regulate and control the itinerant vending during special events.

Ms. Shull asked if the ISBA agreement has to be renewed every ten years. Mr. Spraker confirmed that yes, it does.

Ms. Shull asked if once they annex and take on Ormond utilities, if they are considered Ormond Beach. Mr. Spraker confirmed that she is correct and added that they are considered Ormond Beach versus unincorporated Volusia County. He referenced 1845 N. U.S. Highway 1, stating that it is within the ISBA, but they have a vacant piece of land and have not connected to utilities. Mr. Spraker commented that in the next five years, they will most likely annex into the City, receive utilities, and will be some type of development project.

Mr. Galloway asked if the City is clean of any lawsuit from the Belvedere issue. Attorney Hayes explained that the agreement was initiated in 2010 in the statutory process with the County to negotiate the ISBA. The history of the area was discussed. Attorney Hayes added that the agreement was negotiated in 2010 and it allowed the ability to annex properties and for the properties that were in the unincorporated County, to bring them in under the City's regulations so that any uses had to come through the City's permitting process and not the County's. Attorney Hayes added that itinerant vending during Bike week was a significant issue. The current term agreement will expire August 21, 2024 unless renewed. He continued that there is no interest in expanding the footprint and confirmed that Hull Road is not proposed to be included in the ISBA agreement and the City Commission made that determination by unanimous vote. He stated if they sue the City, the City will defend it. Attorney Hayes concluded that the City Commission decided that it is not going to annex the property or provide utilities to the property for the current use but explained that the City Commission in the future could change that determination if they so choose, although difficult to see what will happen in the future.

Mr. Scudiero stated that he supports the ISBA renewal and feels that it is the easiest vote the Board will ever get.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Scudiero motioned to approve PZ 2024-038, Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) Renewal. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

H. PZ 2024-039, Comprehensive Plan Amendment, Capital Improvements Schedule Update

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained that the administrative amendment to update the Capital Improvements Schedule of the Capital Improvements Element of the City of Ormond Beach Comprehensive Plan is consistent with the Adopted Capital Improvement Plan in accordance with State Law. He continued that the update does not include any text changes to the goals, objectives and policies of the Capital Improvements Element. He stated that the specific projects are already adopted and the new capital budget starts in the summer. Mr. Spraker concluded that Planning staff is recommending approval of the amendment.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Railsback asked if this is done annually. Mr. Spraker responded that it should be done every year and it makes sense to do with the Water Supply Plan.

Ms. Shull asked about the Tomoka Elementary funding specified in the plan. Mr. Spraker replied that it incorporates the school work plan and it is the construction that is underway now. It was discussed and determined that the money comes from Volusia County Schools.

Mr. Spraker remarked that there is also a sheet for the Transportation Planning Organization.

Mr. Jorczak inquired about general funding for the City and referenced the 2025-2026 Transportation funding segment at $24 million each. He asked for clarification on how the process works for putting the capital investment in the plan. Mr. Spraker replied that the budget process will be where those undetermined will find a source or be moved out to a further year. He added that the item before the Board is not for the individual projects or an amount, but taking a forward look at the Capital Improvement Plan. Mr. Spraker concluded that scheduling and capital budgeting are part of the City Commission budget process and that the budget workshop starts at 5:30 p.m. on June 04, 2024.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Railsback motioned to approve PZ 2024-039, Comprehensive Plan Amendment, Capital Improvements Schedule Update. Mr. du Moulin seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

4. Access is provided through Fountain View, Phase 1A and the subdivision connects with future phases 1C and 1D.
5. A public lift station for sewer services is proposed.
6. There are several lakes within or abutting the subdivision.
7. The project includes dog walks, cabanas, and pickleball courts.
8. The project abuts Interstate 95.
9. The subdivision setbacks/standards are:
   A. Front = 20 feet
   B. Rear = 20 feet
   C. Waterfront = 20 feet
   D. Side = 7.5 feet
   E. Side corner = 15 feet
   F. Height = 35 feet
   G. Maximum building coverage = 60%
   H. Maximum lot coverage = 75%

Subdivision process:

The process for the subdivision of land involves a two (2)-step process, as discussed below:

1. Preliminary Plat: After a Planned Residential Development has been approved, the following is required: (1) the applicant’s engineer designs engineered drawings in terms of the stormwater design, utilities, lot grading, and road layout and (2) the preparation of a preliminary plat document from a licensed surveyor. Preliminary plats are reviewed by the Planning Board and reviewed/approved by the City Commission to ensure compliance with the approved development order for the Planned Residential Development. There are two (2) options for development once a preliminary plat has been approved:

   Option 1 - Proceed with the application for construction to complete the required subdivision improvements before recording the final plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(a)). When the required subdivision improvements are complete, the applicant will submit the final plat and the subdivision documents to the Site Plan Review Committee. The final plat would be reviewed and acted upon by the City Commission and recorded. There are no Land Development Code requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

Option 2 - Proceed with final plat review and approval, with the completion of required improvements after recording the plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(b)). With this option, the applicant files surety documents guaranteeing that such improvements will be installed. All guarantees are incorporated in a bonded agreement to construct the required improvements in the form acceptable to the City Attorney's office. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the final plat would be recorded after action by the City Commission. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board. After recordation, the applicant would then construct the improvements.

2. Final Plat: The final plat is a legal document reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee, an independent City Surveyor, and the City's Legal Department to ensure compliance with State Statutes. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the City Commission would act on the final plat. There are currently no requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

SECTION 4, CONCLUSION:

Section 4-18, Final plat approval procedures, of the Land Development Code establishes the final plat process. Per Section 4-18 of the Land Development Code, the following should be considered in the review of the final plat:

(1) All final plats shall be prepared by a professional authorized and licensed by the state to design and prepare subdivision plats.

The final plat, ATTACHMENT 3, has been prepared by a Florida-licensed surveyor.

(2) The final plat shall demonstrate consistency with the approved development order or zoning district for the property under application.

The latest amendment for the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development is included in ATTACHMENT 4, and the proposed final plat is consistent with the zoning approval.

(3) The final plat shall demonstrate consistency with the preliminary plat.

The preliminary plat was approved with 2024-29; the resolution is included in ATTACHMENT 2. The final plat is consistent with the preliminary plat.

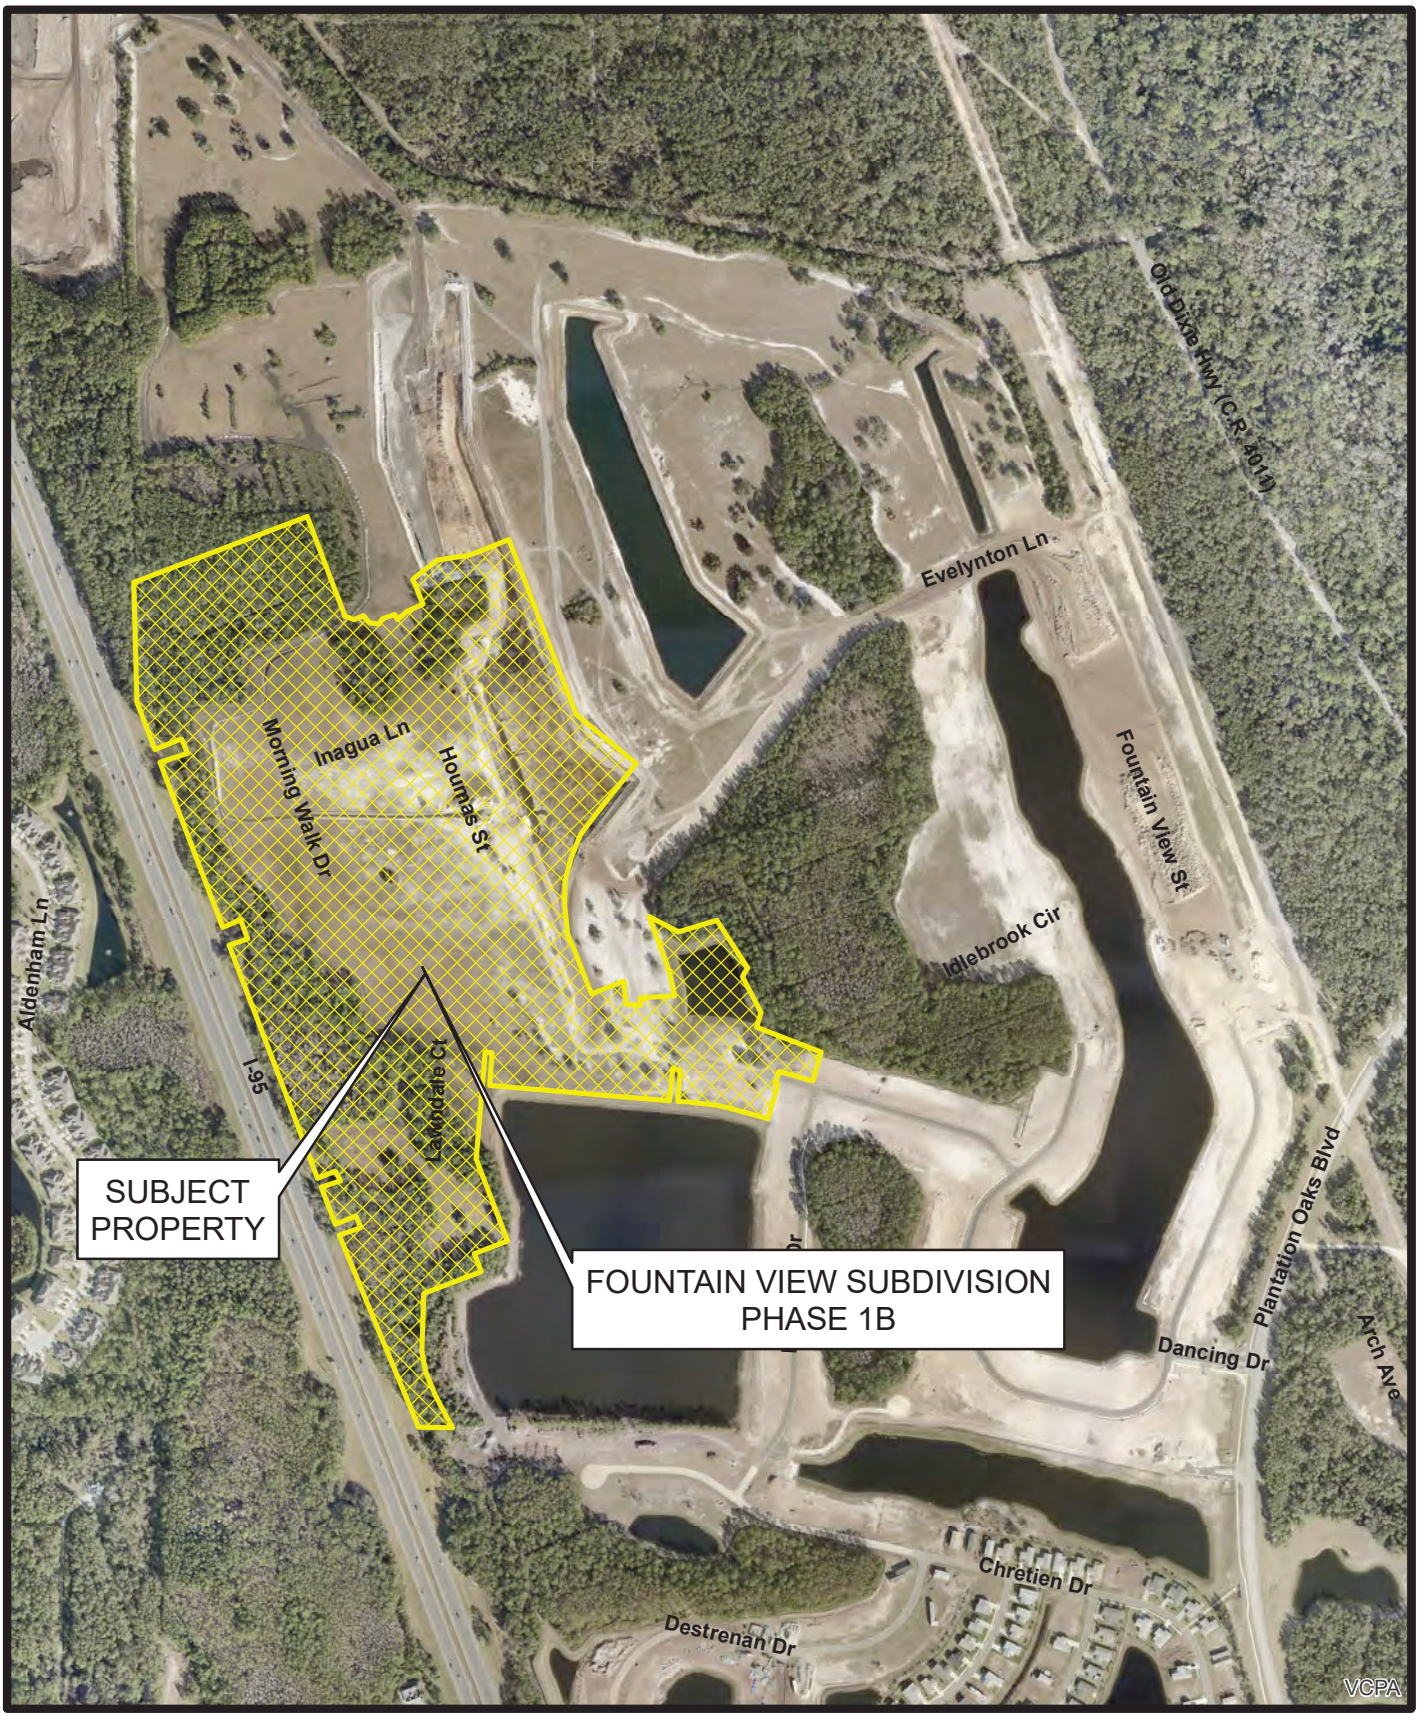
(4) Final plats shall be consistent with all applicable Florida Statutes.

The final plat has been reviewed by a Florida-licensed surveyor employed by the city to review the final plat as the city surveyor. The city surveyor is employed to review and accept that the final plat is consistent with applicable Florida Statutes.

(5) Required documents, such as title opinion, proof of taxes paid, and Homeowner's Association documents, shall be submitted to the SPRC.

The required documents have been submitted to the Site Plan Review Committee, licensed surveyor acting as the City Surveyor, and provided to the City Attorney's office for review.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:



It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the final plat for Fountain View, Phase 1B, which consists of 137 single-family lots on 63.22 acres. The final plat is consistent with the approved preliminary plat and Planned Residential Development zoning.

Planning Board minutes from April 11, 2024

ITEM:

PZ-2024-010

Fountain View, Phase 1B
Final Plat

Ms. Shull asked for clarification on where wells are. Mr. Spraker replied that there are wells in Rima Ridge in Volusia County and within Flagler County that pull from the same aquifer.

Mr. Stephenson concurred that the wells are in Volusia County and Flagler County from the same aquifer source. He elaborated that the City converses with St. John's River Water Management District (SJRWMD), who regulates the entire waterbody. Each entity has to communicate with SJRWMD on what they are specifically allowed to draw.

Mr. Jorczak asked if the State regulates how deep a well can go. Mr. Stephenson commented that he is not certain as SJRWMD gets involved with that aspect. He added that below the normal upper Florida aquifer, there is brackish water, going through the confining layer, where a lot of the technology is moving, as opposed to affecting the upper Florida aquifer.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Jorczak motioned to approve PZ 2023-077, Comprehensive Plan Amendments, Water Supply Work Plan. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

B. PZ 2024-010, Fountain View, Phase 1B, Final Plat

Mr. Spraker explained the application for a final plat for a 137-lot single-family subdivision on approximately 63.22 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1B subdivision, part of Phase 1 of the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development (PRD), is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard next to I-95. He reviewed the zoning approval for the subdivision, Ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16, and the preliminary plat, Resolution 2024-29. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat is a legal document to subdivide land after constructing improvements or posting a performance bond. He concluded that final plats are reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC), City Attorney's Office, and a City Surveyor and the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC) recommends approval.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. du Moulin asked about flooding issues with the amount of homes going up. He continued inquiring about any Police and Fire Chiefs concerns with response time. Mr. Spraker replied that the property is not in the flood zone. It is in flood zone x. He continued that when it was in Volusia County, there was an extensive water review for both the County and SJRWMD. Mr. Spraker added that it has extensive coordinated stormwater review. He continued that the Police and Fire Chiefs have been involved since the property was annexed into the City in 2019, where the annexation commenced in 2015. Mr. Spraker commented that it is not a new subdivision and has been around since 1986 in Volusia County and has gone through a number of reiterations. If it was not built in Ormond Beach, it would have been built in Volusia County. Mr. Spraker continued that one of the advantages of annexation was to ensure that they are both manufactured homes and single-family homes. The Monthly Development Report specifies all of the projects. Mr. Spraker concluded that the Master Plan has been updated and the facility planning for water and sewer have been in process for a long period of time, as with the stormwater and schools.

Applicant's Presentation

Mr. Parker Mynchenberg, 1729 Ridgewood Avenue, stated that the site is outside of the 500-year flood plain and is high-and-dry at a 35 elevation. The bottom of Plantation Oaks elevation is at a 9. He continued that gravity is working at Interstate 95 to the park and is not in the 100-year flood plane in zone x. Mr. Mynchenberg added that when the 18-hole golf course was eliminated there is now three to four times the required stormwater treatment. He commented that this development is the least prone to flooding out of all of his projects.

Mr. du Moulin expressed his water, wastewater and Waste Pro concerns with the growth of the City.

Mr. Mynchenberg commented on the high cost to treat the stormwater and with the increase in customers/residents, the cheaper it gets per gallon to do. A lot of residents money goes towards the infrastructure. He added that there are reuse lines and lake withdrawals proposed in the plats. The City has contracts with Waste Pro which are negotiated and proposed annually.

Mr. du Moulin remarked that Waste Pro increased. Mr. Mynchenberg responded that it is a big expense with the cost of gas and inflation, and explained that employee increases are up to 6 percent some places.

Mr. du Moulin asked if there was a way to decrease the number of 'pick-ups' with Waste Pro, eliminating one of them.

Mr. Spraker refocused the Board back to the topic of the final plat.

Mr. Jorczak asked Mr. Mynchenberg if there are more water retention/detention ponds in this development than in Ormond Lakes, and asked about ponding. Mr. Mynchenberg confirmed that yes, there are, and that the ponds are all interconnected.

Mr. Mynchenberg referenced the new Waterstone Community along the north property line. He advised that Strickland Canal provides the discharge for all of them and that a similar canal on Pennsylvania Avenue was created. It was discussed and determined that there is more stormwater treatment than in Ormond Lakes, but that Ormond Lakes has wetlands at much lower elevations. Mr. Mynchenberg reassured that it is not going to flood.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Jorczak motioned to approve PZ 2024-010, Fountain View, Phase 1B, Final Plat. Mr. Galloway seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

C. SPRC 2024-000016, Fountain View, Phase 1D, Preliminary Plat

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained the application for a preliminary plat for 103 single-family lots on 62.14 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1D subdivision, part of Phase 1 of Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development (PRD), is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard. He reviewed the zoning approval for the subdivision, Ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16, and stated that preliminary plats are construction plans consistent with the zoning. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat is a legal document to subdivide land after constructing improvements or posting a performance bond that would require additional public hearings. Mr. Spraker stated that the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC) recommends approval of the preliminary plat.

Applicant's Presentation

Mr. Parker Mynchenberg, 1729 Ridgewood Avenue, stated that he has been busy over the last year including weekends and explained that Plantation Oaks is completely designed including Archers Mill, Fountain View and Bradford Lakes. He reviewed the preliminary plats being reviewed this evening, D, E and F. Mr. Mynchenberg concluded that the applications for the project are coming to an end because it is completely designed.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Railsback asked if land was dedicated for a fire station. Mr. Mynchenberg responded that the County owns the fire station site as it was deeded to them, and there is a negotiation going on between the County and City for the City to acquire the site. He added that there is a fire station at Southland and Halifax Plantation which provide good service.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Railsback motioned to approve SPRC 2024-000016, Fountain View, Phase 1D, Preliminary Plat. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

D. SPRC 2024-000017, Fountain View, Phase 1E, Preliminary Plat

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained the application for a preliminary plat for 110 single-family lots on 36.19 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1E subdivision, part of Phase 1 of Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development, is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard. He reviewed the zoning approval for the subdivision, Ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16, and stated that preliminary plats are construction plans consistent with the zoning. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat is

   B. Rear = 20 feet
   C. Waterfront = 20 feet
   D. Side = 7.5 feet
   E. Side corner = 15 feet
   F. Height = 35 feet
   G. Maximum building coverage = 60%
   H. Maximum lot coverage = 75%

Subdivision process:

The process for the subdivision of land involves a two (2)-step process, as discussed below:

1. Preliminary Plat: After a Planned Residential Development has been approved, the following is required: (1) the applicant's engineer designs engineered drawings in terms of the stormwater design, utilities, lot grading, and road layout and (2) the preparation of a preliminary plat document from a licensed surveyor. Preliminary plats are reviewed by the Planning Board and reviewed/approved by the City Commission to ensure compliance with the approved development order for the Planned Residential Development. There are two (2) options for development once a preliminary plat has been approved:

Option 1 - Proceed with the application for construction to complete the required subdivision improvements before recording the final plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(a)). When the required subdivision improvements are complete, the applicant will submit the final plat and the subdivision documents to the Site Plan Review Committee. The final plat would be reviewed and acted upon by the City Commission and recorded. There are no Land Development Code requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

Option 2 - Proceed with final plat review and approval, with the completion of required improvements after recording the plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(b)). With this option, the applicant files surety documents guaranteeing that such improvements will be installed. All guarantees are incorporated in a bonded agreement to construct the required improvements in the form acceptable to the City Attorney's office. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the final plat would be recorded after action by the City Commission. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board. After recordation, the applicant would then construct the improvements.

2. Final Plat: The final plat is a legal document reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee, an independent City Surveyor, and the City's Legal Department to ensure compliance with State Statutes. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the City Commission would act on the final plat. There are currently no requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

SECTION 4, CONCLUSION:

Section 4-17, Preliminary plat approval procedures of the Land Development Code establish the preliminary plat process. Per Section 4-17 of the Land Development Code, the following should be considered in the review of the preliminary plat:

(1) All preliminary plat and plans shall be prepared by a professional authorized and licensed by the state to design and prepare subdivision plats and plans.

The preliminary plat plans (ATTACHMENT 2) have been prepared by a Florida-licensed surveyor. The subdivision construction drawings (ATTACHMENT 3) have been prepared by a Florida-licensed professional engineer.

(2) Required information, including site and development data, development plan, and master road and utility layout plan.

ATTACHMENT 3 includes the required site plan information, including utilities, stormwater, and roadway layout and construction.

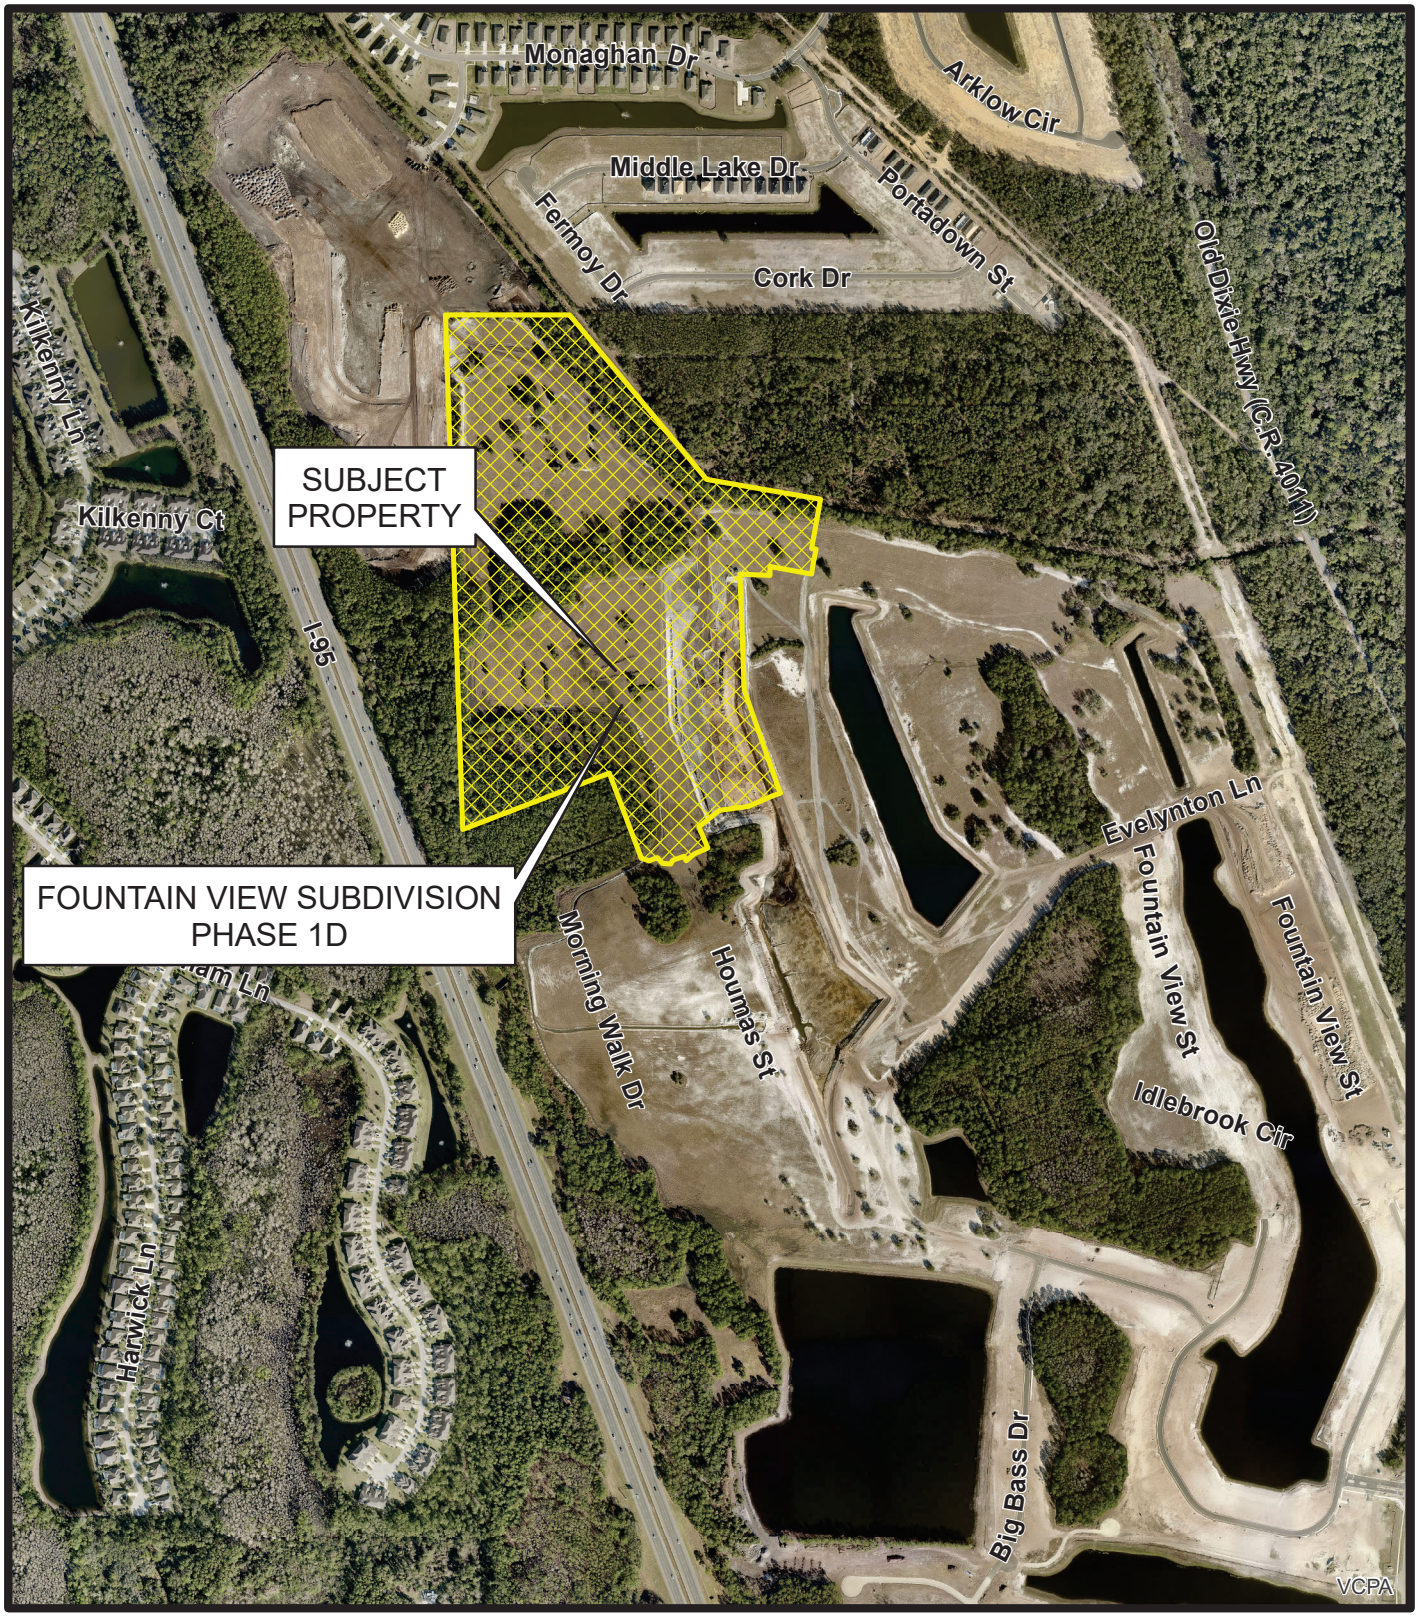
(3) Consistency with the approved development order or zoning district for the property under application.

ATTACHMENT 4 includes the latest amendment for the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development, and the proposed preliminary plat is consistent with the zoning approval.

(4) Consistency with the provisions of the Land Development Code.

The property is designated “Low Density Residential” on the City’s Future Land Use Map. The proposed preliminary plat is consistent with the land use designation and the City’s Comprehensive Plan. The subdivision is part of a master-planned subdivision and will not adversely impact environmentally sensitive lands or natural resources. There is adequate capacity in the public infrastructure to serve this project. The applicant constructed Plantation Oaks Boulevard. There are sufficient water and sewer services to the subdivision. The preliminary plat submittal complies with the Land Development Code, Comprehensive Plan, and Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:



It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the preliminary plat for Fountain View, Phase 1D, consisting of 103 lots on approximately 62.14 acres. The preliminary plat is consistent with the approved Planned Residential Development zoning.

The Fountain View, Phase 1D subdivision, part of Phase 1 of Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development (PRD), is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard. He reviewed the zoning approval for the subdivision, Ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16, and stated that preliminary plats are construction plans consistent with the zoning. Mr. Spraker stated that the final plat is a legal document to subdivide land after constructing improvements or posting a performance bond that would require additional public hearings. Mr. Spraker stated that the Site Plan Review Committee (SPRC) recommends approval of the preliminary plat.

Applicant's Presentation

Mr. Parker Mynchenberg, 1729 Ridgewood Avenue, stated that he has been busy over the last year including weekends and explained that Plantation Oaks is completely designed including Archers Mill, Fountain View and Bradford Lakes. He reviewed the preliminary plats being reviewed this evening, D, E and F. Mr. Mynchenberg concluded that the applications for the project are coming to an end because it is completely designed.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Railsback asked if land was dedicated for a fire station. Mr. Mynchenberg responded that the County owns the fire station site as it was deeded to them, and there is a negotiation going on between the County and City for the City to acquire the site. He added that there is a fire station at Southland and Halifax Plantation which provide good service.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Railsback motioned to approve SPRC 2024-000016, Fountain View, Phase 1D, Preliminary Plat. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

D. SPRC 2024-000017, Fountain View, Phase 1E, Preliminary Plat

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained the application for a preliminary plat for 110 single-family lots on 36.19 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1E subdivision, part of Phase 1 of Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development, is located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Boulevard. Number: 9.H

Section:	PUBLIC HEARINGS
Item Category:	Public Hearing - Resolution	Res./Ord. No:	2024-85
Strategic Goal:	Transportation & Community Development - Other
Department:	Planning & Building
Subject:	Fountain View, Phase 1E, Preliminary Plat
Summary:	This application was submitted from Plantation Oaks of Ormond Beach, LLC, for a preliminary plat for 110 single-family lots on 36.19 acres. The Fountain View, Phase 1E subdivision, is part of Phase 1 of the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development, located on the west side of Plantation Oaks Blvd. The subdivision land area is part of a parcel at 1700 Plantation Oaks Blvd. The preliminary plat allows the construction of subdivision improvements and land division consistent with the Planned Residential Development that is reviewed by the Planning Board and acted upon by the City Commission as a Resolution. The zoning approval for the subdivision occurred with ordinances 2021-03 and 2022-16. The preliminary plat is consistent with the approved Planned Residential Development zoning. The Planning Board reviewed the proposed preliminary plat at the April 11, 2024 meeting and recommended approval by a 6-0 vote. There were no individuals who spoke for or against the proposed preliminary plat.
Financial Impact:	The proposed preliminary plat has no direct financial impact, and the project developer is required to install all subdivision improvements. The project is a private subdivision, and the City will only be responsible for utility improvements after subdivision improvements are constructed.
Citizen Impact:	The preliminary plat is a technical review of the subdivision of land to verify consistency with the Planned Development. The Plantation Oaks subdivision has been planned with multiple public hearings through the Development of Regional Impact and planned development process.

	The subdivision is not anticipated to have a negative citizen impact. The land area is designated for single-family residential development.
Recommended Action (Staff, Advisory Board and/or Other):	The Planning Board recommends APPROVAL of the proposed preliminary plat for Fountain View, Phase 1E, consisting of 110 single-family lots on 36.19 acres.

   B. Rear = 20 feet
   C. Waterfront = 20 feet
   D. Side = 7.5 feet
   E. Side corner = 15 feet
   F. Height = 35 feet
   G. Maximum building coverage = 60%
   H. Maximum lot coverage = 75%

Subdivision process:

The process for the subdivision of land involves a two (2)-step process, as discussed below:

1. Preliminary Plat: After a Planned Residential Development has been approved, the following is required: (1) the applicant's engineer designs engineered drawings in terms of the stormwater design, utilities, lot grading, and road layout and (2) the preparation of a preliminary plat document from a licensed surveyor. Preliminary plats are reviewed by the Planning Board and reviewed/approved by the City Commission to ensure compliance with the approved development order for the Planned Residential Development. There are two (2) options for development once a preliminary plat has been approved:

   Option 1 - Proceed with the application for construction to complete the required subdivision improvements before recording the final plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(a)). When the required subdivision improvements are complete, the applicant will submit the final plat and the subdivision documents to the Site Plan Review Committee. The final plat would be reviewed and acted upon by the City Commission and recorded. There are no Land Development Code requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

Option 2 - Proceed with final plat review and approval, with the completion of required improvements after recording the plat (Land Development Code, Section 4-18(8)(b)). With this option, the applicant files surety documents guaranteeing that such improvements will be installed. All guarantees are incorporated in a bonded agreement to construct the required improvements in the form acceptable to the City Attorney's office. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the final plat would be recorded after action by the City Commission. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board. After recordation, the applicant would then construct the improvements.

2. Final Plat: The final plat is a legal document reviewed by the Site Plan Review Committee, an independent City Surveyor, and the City's Legal Department to ensure compliance with State Statutes. Under the current Land Development Code regulations, the City Commission would act on the final plat. There are currently no requirements for final plats to be reviewed by the Planning Board. There is an active Land Development Code amendment that would require final plats to include a review by the Planning Board.

SECTION 4, CONCLUSION:

Section 4-17, Preliminary plat approval procedures of the Land Development Code establishes the preliminary plat process. Per Section 4-17 of the Land Development Code, the following should be considered in the review of the preliminary plat:

(1) All preliminary plat and plans shall be prepared by a professional authorized and licensed by the state to design and prepare subdivision plats and plans.

The preliminary plat plans (ATTACHMENT 2) have been prepared by a Florida-licensed surveyor, and the subdivision construction drawings (ATTACHMENT 3) have been prepared by a Florida-licensed professional engineer.

(2) Required information, including site and development data, development plan, and master road and utility layout plan.

ATTACHMENT 3 includes the required site plan information, including utilities, stormwater, and roadway layout and construction.

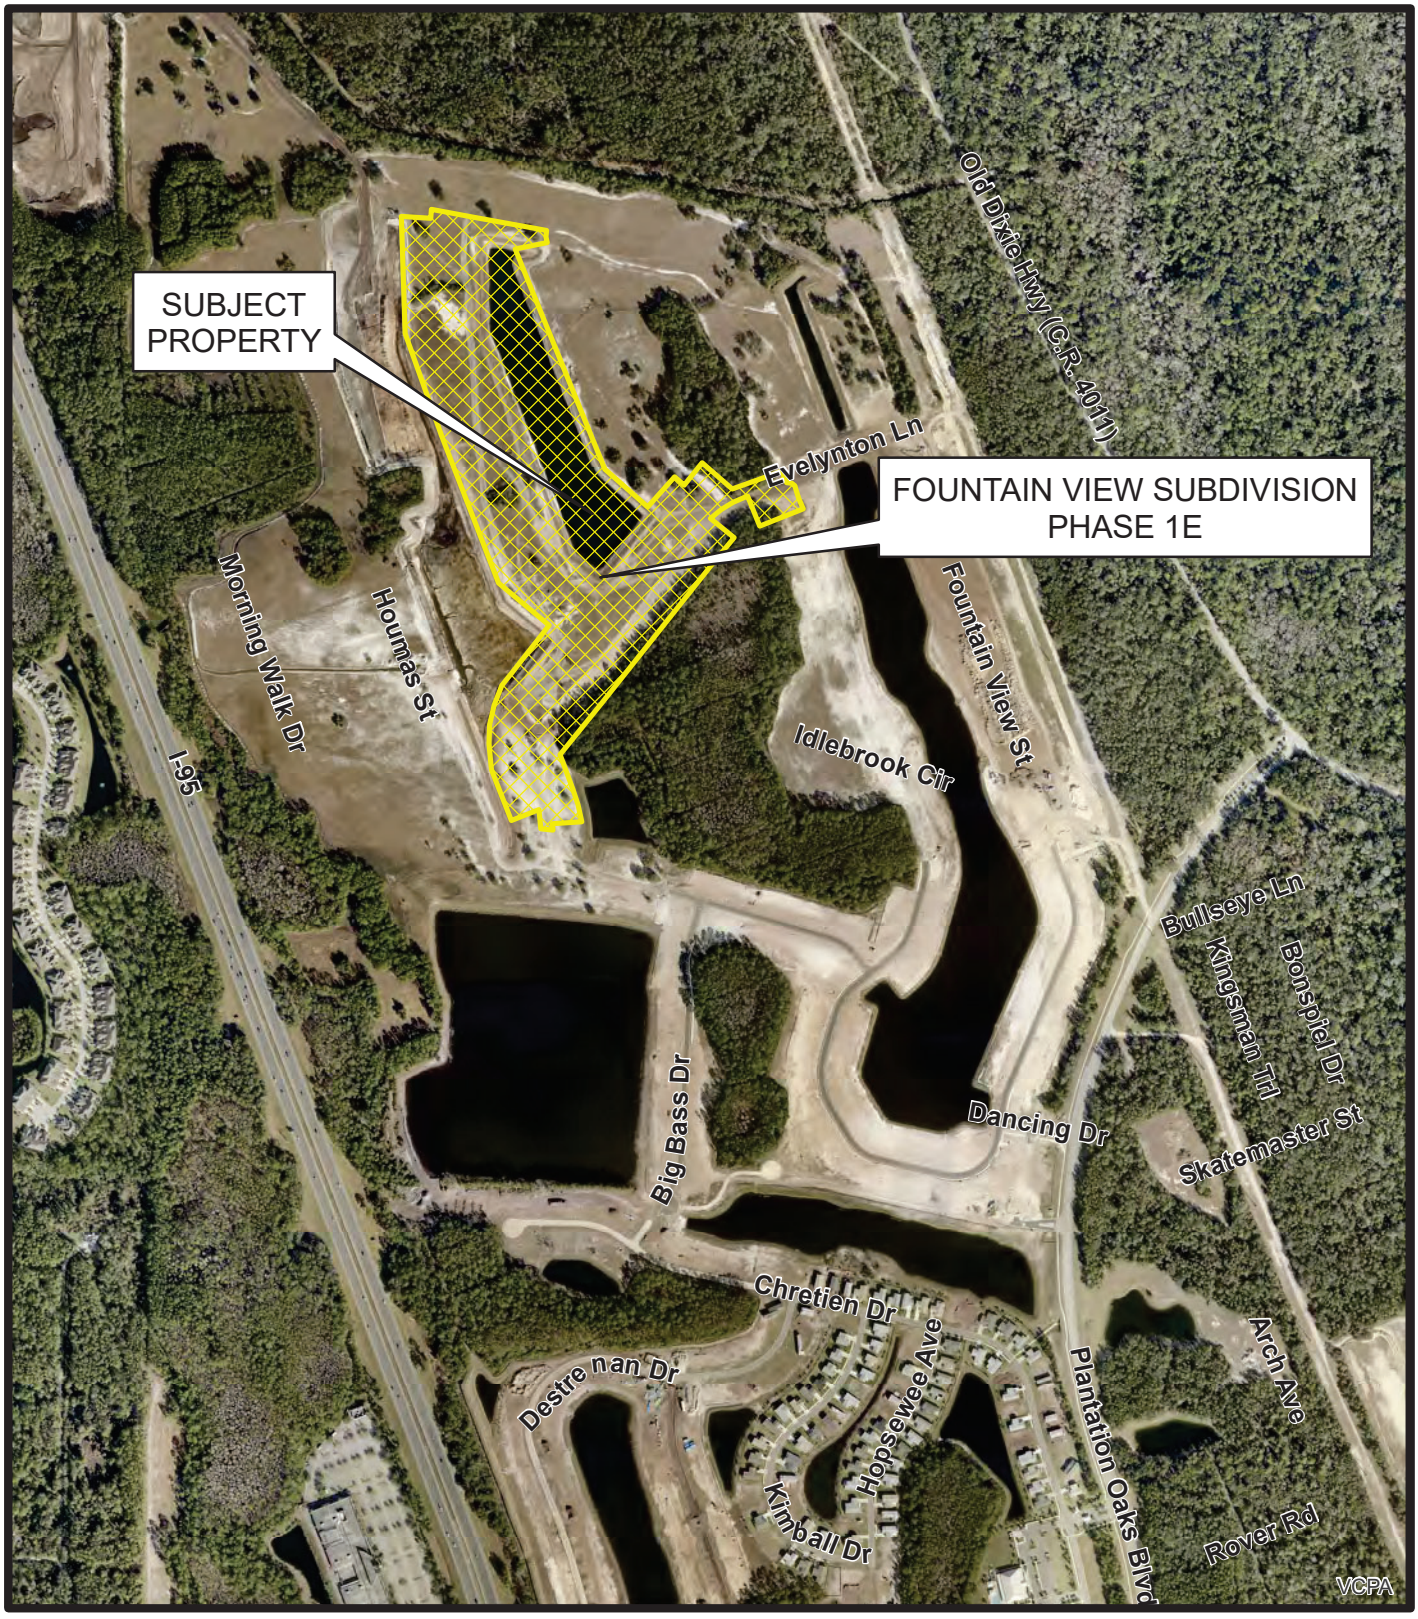
(3) Consistency with the approved development order or zoning district for the property under application.

ATTACHMENT 4 includes the latest amendment for the Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development, and the proposed preliminary plat is consistent with the zoning approval.

(4) Consistency with the provisions of the Land Development Code.

The property is designated “Low Density Residential” on the City’s Future Land Use Map. The proposed preliminary plat is consistent with the land use designation and the City’s Comprehensive Plan. The subdivision is part of a master-planned subdivision and will not adversely impact environmentally sensitive lands or natural resources. There is adequate capacity in the public infrastructure to serve this project. The applicant constructed Plantation Oaks Boulevard. There are sufficient water and sewer services to the subdivision. The preliminary plat submittal complies with the Land Development Code, Comprehensive Plan, and Plantation Oaks Planned Residential Development.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:



It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the preliminary plat for Fountain View, Phase 1E, consisting of 110 lots on approximately 36.19 acres. The preliminary plat is consistent with the approved Planned Residential Development zoning.

Project Number: PZ-2024-036

PLANNING BOARD DATE:	April 11, 2024
TENTATIVE CITY COMMISSION DATE:	May 21, 2024 (only one hearing)
APPLICANT:	Aluminum Plus, on behalf of the property owner, Monica Investment Group, Inc.
LOCATION:	1628 West Granada Boulevard
REQUEST:	Special Exception to allow one (1) electronic changeable copy sign for the retail prices of gasoline at the existing Shell Convenience store.
SITE PLAN REVIEW COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION:	Approval
STAFF CONTACT:	Sarah Cushing, Senior Planner
MAP OF PROJECT AREA:

SECTION 1, INTRODUCTION:

This is a request by Aluminum Plus, on behalf of the property owner for a Special Exception to allow for one (1) electronic changeable copy sign for retail prices of gasoline at the Shell Convenience store located at 1628 West Granada Boulevard. The use is an existing Shell Convenience store with fuel sales and a Dunkin Donuts. The applicant is proposing to replace the entire monument sign cabinet, and have requested the Special Exception so that they can place the electronic changeable copy area for the sale of gasoline prices in the new monument sign. The new sign is proposed to be in the same location, the same size, and will comply with all other monument signage standards. There are no other site or building improvements proposed.

SECTION 2, ANALYSIS: The subject property is designated as "Tourist Commercial" on the City's Future Land Use Map (FLUM), and is classified as B-7 (Highway Tourist Commercial) on the City's Official Zoning Map. The following table shows the surrounding land uses and zoning:

EXHIBIT 1: Adjacent land uses and zoning:

Direction	Uses	Land Use designation	Zoning designation
North	Texaco Convenience Store	"Tourist Commercial"	B-7 (Highway Tourist Commercial)
South	Cracker Barrel	"Tourist Commercial"	B-7 (Highway Tourist Commercial)
East	I-95 and 7-11 Convenience Store	"Tourist Commercial"	B-7 (Highway Tourist Commercial) and PBD (Planned Business Development)
West	Dry Cleaners and McDonald's	"Tourist Commercial"	B-7 (Highway Tourist Commercial)

Section 3-47(G) of the Land Development Code regulates electronic changeable copy signs and states, "an electronic changeable copy sign for the sole purpose of displaying retail prices of gasoline may be approved by special exception where such electronic display features will be clearly visible and legible to drivers of approaching motor vehicles from a vantage point of any lane of traffic in either direction on a roadway abutting the gas station premises, consistent with section 553.79(20)(a)(2), Florida Statute." The applicant has stated in their application that the operational requirements for electronic changeable copy signage from the Land Development Code standards would be met. One of the criteria in Section 3-47(G), is that the electronic changeable display area of the sign cannot exceed 60 percent of the total sign area. EXHIBIT 2 demonstrates that the proposed monument sign would not exceed this requirement.

Total Signage	42.7 square feet
Regular gas price	7.69 square feet
Diesel gas price	1.92 square feet
Total electronic signage	9.61 square feet

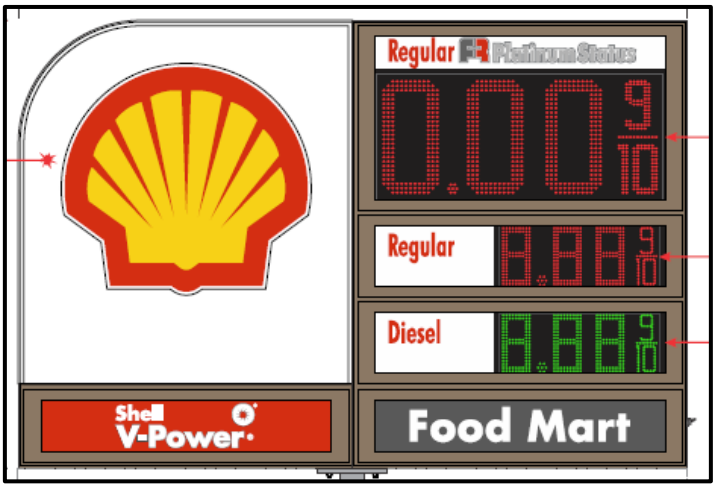
EXHIBIT 4: Proposed electronic changeable copy signage:



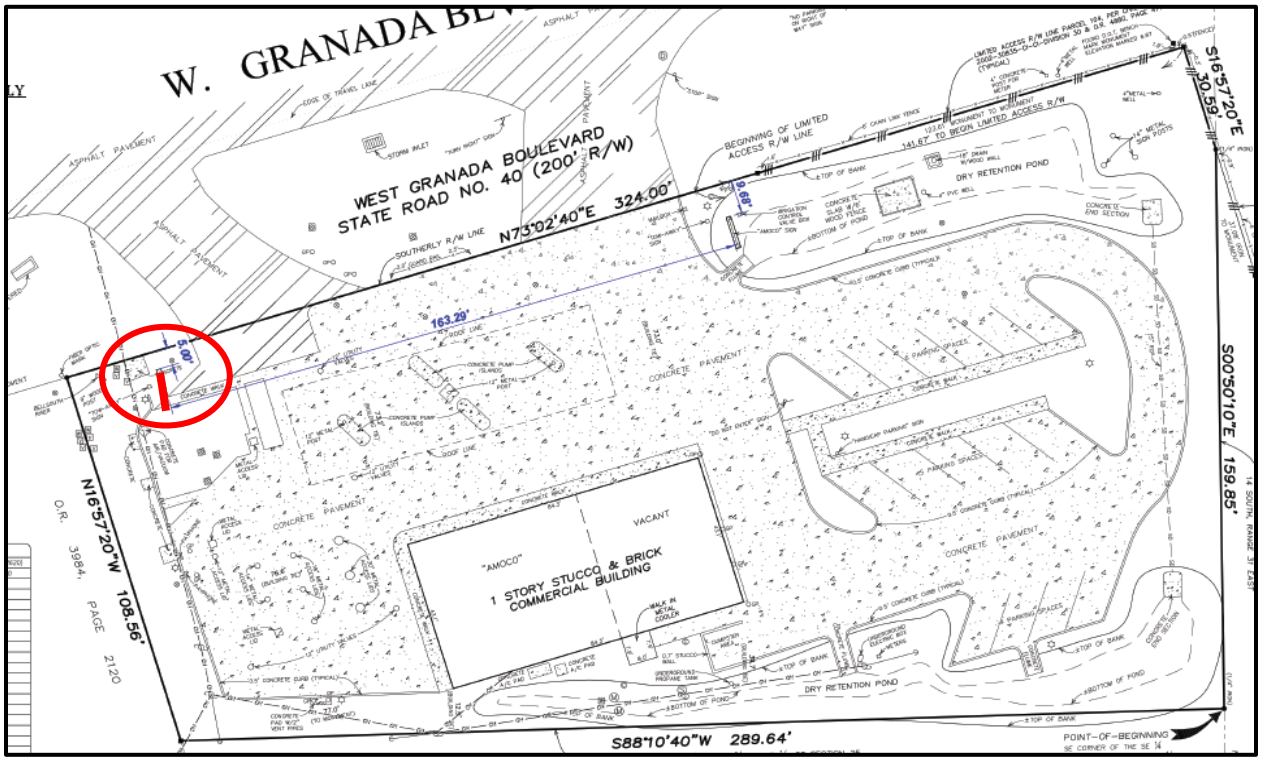


EXHIBIT 5 is an excerpt of the site plan that shows the location of the existing signage. The applicant is proposing to replace the entire monument sign cabinet, and the new sign is proposed to be in the same location and will comply with all other monument signage and electronic changeable copy sign standards.

EXHIBIT 5: Location of proposed site signage:

The Special Exception request is solely for the electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline. No other signage, site or building improvements are being proposed.

SECTION 3, SPECIAL EXCEPTION CRITERIA:

Section 2-56 of the Land Development Code outlines the general criteria for all Special Exception approvals:

A. Off-street parking, loading and service areas shall be provided and located such that there is no adverse impact on adjoining properties, beyond that generally experienced in the district.

The proposed Special Exception would not have an impact to the overall provision of approved parking. The applicant is proposing to replace the entire monument sign cabinet, and have requested the Special Exception so that they can place the electronic changeable copy area for the sale of gasoline prices in the new monument sign.

B. Required yards, screening or buffering, and landscaping shall be consistent with the district in general, the specific needs of the abutting land uses, Chapter 3, Article 1, and other applicable provisions of this Code.

The proposed Special Exception request shall not impact the site buffers or landscaping. The electronic changeable copy signage would have no impact on the site landscaping.

C. Size, location, or number of conditional or Special Exceptions in an area shall be limited so as to maintain the overall character of the district in which said conditional or Special Exceptions are located.

This is a Special Exception to allow an electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline. The Special Exception is based on Section 553.79(20) of the Florida Statutes that provides preferential treatment to certain corporate entities, specifically gasoline companies, regarding the display of communicative content in accordance with their corporate branding.

D. Hours of operation may be limited and the City may require additional information on structural design and site arrangement, to assure the compatibility of the development with existing and proposed uses in the surrounding area.

The requested Special Exception would not require any hours of operation restrictions and the site is located along a commercial corridor. The purpose of the electronic changeable copy signs for retail prices of gasoline is to be clearly visible and legible to motorists.

E. The Special Exception shall not generate hazardous waste or require use of hazardous materials in its operation without use of City-approved mitigative techniques.

This Special Exception will not generate hazardous waste.

F. All development proposed as a Special Exception within or adjacent to a historic district shall be reviewed based on applicable criteria stated herein for residential, commercial or mixed-use development and shall also comply with appearance and design guidelines for historic structures.

The project is not located within, or adjacent to, a historic district and this criterion does not apply to the project development.

G. Outdoor lighting shall have no spillover onto adjacent property or rights-of-way beyond the building site property line and the lumens shall not exceed two (2) foot-candles at the property line.

The application is solely for the electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline. Any site lighting would be approved by the Site Plan Review Committee.

SECTION 4, DEVELOPMENT ORDER CRITERIA:

Section 1-15(e) (Planning Board) and Section 1-18(e)(2) (City Commission) of the Land Development Code provides development order criteria for Special Exception applications. Below is the criterion in bold with staff's responses.

1. The proposed development conforms to the standards and requirements of this Code and will not create undue crowding beyond the conditions normally permitted in the zoning district, or adversely affect the public health, safety, welfare or quality of life.

   The proposed development conforms to the standards and requirements of the Land Development Code. The proposed use will not create undue crowding or adversely affect the public health.

2. The proposed development is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.

   The site has a Future Land Use designation of “Tourist Commercial”, which is consistent with the proposed use. The proposed Special Exception is consistent with the Comprehensive Plan.

3. The proposed development will not adversely impact environmentally sensitive lands or natural resources, including but not limited to waterbodies, wetlands, xeric communities, wildlife habitats, endangered or threatened plants and animal species or species of special concern, wellfields, and individual wells.

   The proposed Special Exception application is for one electronic changeable copy sign for the retail prices of gasoline and will not adversely impact environmentally sensitive lands or natural resources.

4. The proposed use will not substantially or permanently depreciate the value of surrounding property; create a nuisance; or deprive adjoining properties of adequate light and air; create excessive noise, odor, glare, or visual impacts on the neighborhood and adjoining properties.

   The proposed Special Exception application is for one electronic changeable copy sign for the retail prices of gasoline which will not depreciate the value of surrounding properties based on the location abutting roadways. The decision that is part of the Special Exception, is to provide a determination if the electronic display portion of the sign is appropriate.

5. There are adequate public facilities to serve the development, including but not limited to roads, sidewalks, bike paths, potable water, wastewater treatment, drainage, fire and police safety, parks and recreation facilities, schools, and playgrounds.

   Public facilities currently serve the site and there would be no impact to the existing infrastructure.

6. Ingress and egress to the property and traffic patterns are designed to protect and promote motorized vehicle and pedestrian/bicycle safety and convenience, allow for desirable traffic flow and control, and provide adequate access in case of fire or catastrophe. This finding shall be based on a traffic report where available, prepared by a qualified traffic consultant, engineer or planner which details the anticipated or projected effect of the project on adjacent roads and the impact on public safety.

   The Special Exception for electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline is sought to improve the visibility and the ability to read the gas prices as allowed under Section 553.79 (20) of the Florida Statutes. The proposed sign would not alter the approved traffic patterns or site access management and is part of the applicants corporate branding.

7. The proposed development is functional in the use of space and aesthetically acceptable.

   There is no development proposed with the Special Exception for electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline.

8. The proposed development provides for the safety of occupants and visitors.

   There is no development proposed with the Special Exception for electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline. The applicant states that the sign would provide increased visibility of the price of gasoline and safety to the employees.

9. The proposed use of materials and architectural features will not adversely impact the neighborhood and aesthetics of the area.

   There is no development proposed with the Special Exception for electronic changeable copy signage for retail prices of gasoline.

10. The testimony provided at public hearings.

    This application has not been reviewed in a public forum and no testimony has been provided.

SECTION 5, RECOMMENDATION:

It is expected that the application will be reviewed by the City Commission on May 21, 2024. It is recommended that the Planning Board APPROVE the application to allow one (1) electronic changeable copy sign for the retail prices of gasoline at the Shell Convenience store located at 1628 West Granada Boulevard.

1628 West Granada Boulevard

Special Exception, Electronic Changeable Copy Signage for the Retail Prices of Gasoline

Mr. Galloway concurred, stating that the Board approved 447 homes in a community in the part of town that is growing. The project originally came to the Board from Mr. Ronnie Bledsoe and Mr. Tommy Durrance as well, who are now both deceased. Mr. Galloway remarked that he wished that the City had more developers and development that had been built in this area by the three individuals, where the money stayed local. Mr. Galloway thanked Mr. Mynchenberg and urged him to make it look pretty. He concluded that people are moving to the area and good quality projects are needed.

Mr. Jorczak and Mr. Railsback concurred.

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull entertained a motion.

Mr. Railsback motioned to approve SPRC 2024-000018, Fountain View, Phase 1F, Preliminary Plat. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (6-0).

F. PZ 2024-036, 1628 West Granada Boulevard, Special Exception for Electronic Changeable Copy Signage

Ms. Noel Eaton, Senior Planner, stated this is an application submitted for a Special Exception to allow for one electronic changeable copy sign for retail prices of gasoline at the Shell Convenience store located at 1628 West Granada Boulevard. She stated that there are no other site or building improvements proposed. Ms. Eaton reviewed the development order review process for the Special Exception that included (1) Planning staff review, (2) Planning Board review and recommendation, and (3) City Commission action.

Ms. Eaton stated that electronic changeable copy signage for the retail display of gasoline is allowed as a Special Exception. She stated that the applicant is proposing to replace the entire monument sign cabinet, and the new sign is proposed to be in the same location and will comply with all other monument signage and electronic changeable copy sign standards as outlined in the staff report. Ms. Eaton stated that the application complies with Section 3-47(G) of the LDC and staff recommends approval of the application.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. du Moulin asked about the wind velocity for the signage since it has more height and less base to hold it securely in a storm. Ms. Eaton replied that there is a building review for all signs that reviews compliance with the Florida Building Code for wind load.

Applicant's Presentation

Mr. Michael Jackson, Aluminum Plus, stated that everything presented to building departments come with engineered signed and sealed drawings. He continued that his company installed the canopy at the Mobil, BP and Texaco Gas Stations.

DRAFT

Board Recommendation

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for a motion.

Mr. Galloway motioned to approve PZ 2024-036, 1628 West Granada Boulevard, Special Exception for Electronic Changeable Copy Signage. Mr. Jorczak seconded it. Vote was called, and the motion was approved (5-1), with Mr. Scudiero in opposition.

Mr. Galloway asked for clarification if the Board is going to continue going through this process for digital signs. Mr. Spraker replied that yes, unless direction is provided to staff and City Commission that the Planning Board would like to alter the process for these items.

Attorney Hayes stated that it is part of the statutory process and explained that several years ago the Florida Legislature passed a law that would allow these type of requests to be reviewed and approved by local government, based on certain conditions. He commented that without the Legislation, these would not be heard here. They have to come before the Board on a case-by-case basis to be determined on their own facts as each application stands on its own merits.

G. PZ 2024-038, Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) Renewal

Mr. Spraker, Planning Director, explained that this is an administrative request to renew the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) for a period of ten (10) years. The North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA) was adopted in 2014, amended in 2019 (Plantation Oaks – first amendment), and 2021/2022 (RidgeHaven – second amendment). The administrative request seeks a ten-year renewal and does not amend any other portions of the North U.S. 1 Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). Mr. Spraker showed maps of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement area and stated that after City Commission action, Volusia County must also act on the interlocal agreement.

Mr. Spraker stated that the ISBA has been successful in planning tools with property owner participation through landscaping grants, city expansion of water and sewer facilities, the interchange at U.S. Highway 1 and Interstate 95 and redevelopment as with the Ormond ACE Hardware, Dunkin Donuts, the Cheaters business that was demolished, and the Dollar General being put in there. Mr. Spraker stated that Planning staff is recommending approval of the ten year renewal of the Interlocal Service Boundary Agreement (ISBA). If approved it goes to the City Commission and then the Volusia County Council.

Board Discussion and Questions

Ms. Shull opened it up to the Board for questions.

Mr. Jorczak referenced page 2 where is states that January 19, 2024, staff received the Volusia County Resolution and in 2023-156, where it initiated the process to amend the ISBA Resolution 2023-156 containing two parts, expansion of the land area of the ISBA to include the property at 874 Hull Road. Mr. Jorczak asked if it is an attempt by the County to dump the Belvedere project. Attorney Hayes responded that the only thing the Board is being asked to do is to make a recommendation to

CITY ATTORNEY
MEMORANDUM

To: The Honorable Mayor Partington and City Commissioners

From: Randal A. Hayes, City Attorney

Date: May 7, 2024

Subject: Ordinance regulating the unsafe pedestrian use of public ROW

Introduction: The purpose of this Ordinance is to regulate the use of the public rights-of-way within the City of Ormond Beach to prohibit activities that interfere with the primary purpose of public roads and rights-of-way by causing distractions to motorists, unsafe pedestrian movement within travel lanes, sudden stoppage or slowdown of traffic, and dangerous misuse of medians within rights-of-way.

Background: City engineering staff conducted a study to determine the high speed, high volume, and high crash roadways in Ormond Beach that potentially provide a higher risk to users, including pedestrians and passive users not utilizing the roadway for travel. These roadways are: SR AIA Atlantic Avenue / Ocean Shore Blvd., SR 40 (Granada Blvd.), Hand Ave., Nova Road, U.S. Highway 1, and Williamson Blvd (hereinafter referred to as" identified roadways").

On these identified roadways, this ordinance will make it unlawful to engage in any physical interaction between a pedestrian and an occupant of a motor vehicle, including the transfer of any product, material, or monies, while the motor vehicle is located on the traveled portion of identified roadway and is not legally parked. In addition, it will make stopping, sitting, standing, or otherwise occupying or remaining within a median on an identified roadway by a person when that person is not in the process of lawfully crossing the road in accordance with applicable traffic and safety laws.[1] The first violation of this ordinance will result in a warning. All further violations shall be deemed a second-degree misdemeanor.

Protecting citizens from contact with moving vehicles is an important governmental purpose and one which Ormond Beach is always striving to improve. The City in cooperation with the FDOT has undertaken several pedestrian safety projects, particularly enhanced pedestrian crosswalks, in recent years. In addition, when Public Works and OBPD have prior notice that individuals may congregate next to a roadway (for example, protests[2] or campaigning near the intersection of Granada and Beach St., or for parades[3], special events, etc.) OBPD and Public Works will place temporary fencing or take other measures along or within a right-of-way to keep individuals safe and out of harm's way of traffic. However, the City cannot protect individuals from non-planned, spontaneous events, such as an individual choosing to dangerously place themselves on a small median strip between several lanes of fast-moving traffic, or interacting with vehicles on a dangerous roadway. Therefore, this ordinance is necessary to protect these individuals from contact with moving vehicles, maintain traffic flow, and reduce distractions to drivers.

Budget Impact: N/A

Recommendation: It is recommended that the City Commission approve the amendment to Chapter 17, streets, sidewalks and other public spaces of the code of ordinances by amending section 17-10 to add unsafe pedestrian use of rights-of-way.

ORDINANCE NO. 2024-07

AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO PEDESTRIAN AND VEHICLE SAFETY WITHIN PUBLIC ROADS AND RIGHTS-OF-WAY; AMENDING CHAPTER 17, STREETS, SIDEWALKS AND OTHER PUBLIC SPACES OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES BY AMENDING SECTION 17-10 TO ADD UNSAFE PEDESTRIAN USE OF RIGHT-OF-WAYS; ADOPTING FINDINGS OF FACT; PROVIDING FOR APPLICABILITY; PROVIDING FOR DEFINITIONS; ESTABLISHING PROHIBITED USE OF PUBLIC ROAD RIGHTS-OF-WAY; PROVIDING FOR ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES; PROVIDING FOR ADDITIONAL REMEDIES; PROVIDING FOR SEVERABILITY; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City Commission recognizes that the primary purpose of public roads and rights-of-way is to enable pedestrians and lawfully permitted vehicles to safely and efficiently move from place to place, facilitate the delivery of goods and services, and provide the general public with convenient access to goods and services; and

WHEREAS, in a recent 2022 Dangerous by Design study[1], which utilizes raw data from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the state of Florida was identified as the second-highest ranked state in the country over the period of 2016 through 2020 in both the total number of pedestrian deaths and the average pedestrian deaths per 100,000 people per year; and

WHEREAS, Ormond Beach has been specifically included in the Dangerous by Design study which found that combined with Daytona Beach and Deltona, this region was identified as posing the greatest risk for pedestrians when interacting with vehicular traffic in the entire US; and

WHEREAS, City engineering staff analyzed data from the Florida Department of Transportation, Florida Traffic Online and determined major roadways in Ormond Beach that have high daily traffic volume. The following roadways are identified as potentially providing a higher risk to users, including pedestrians and passive users not utilizing the roadway for travel, due to high traffic volume: SR AIA Atlantic Avenue / Ocean Shore Blvd., SR 40 (Granada Blvd.), Hand Ave., Nova Road, U.S. Highway 1, and Williamson Blvd (hereinafter referred to as" identified roadways"). The identified roadways all have significantly high volumes of traffic from a low of approximately 16,0000 daily trips for Hand Ave., to over 30,000 daily trips on parts of Granada Blvd. and US1. See; Corridor Safety Analysis, City of Ormond Beach Engineering Department, 2024.

WHEREAS, City engineering staff also analyzed data from the University of Florida Signal Four Analytics database and determined that the above local identified roadways experience high levels of crashes. See; Corridor Safety Analysis, City of Ormond Beach Engineering Department, 2024; and

WHEREAS, A Highway Safety Countermeasure Guide for State Highway Safety Offices, 11th Edition, 2023, cites speed of greater than 25 mph as a risk factor in areas of pedestrian activity. Most of the identified roadways are within the 35-45 mph range, with a max of 55mph in portions of US1. See; Corridor Safety Analysis, City of Ormond Beach Engineering Department, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the unexpected presence of pedestrians near a motor vehicle within the traveled portion of a road increases the risk of collisions, regardless of whether the motor vehicle is in motion or stopped at a traffic signal; and

WHEREAS, person-to-vehicle or vehicle-to-person interactions at intersections on highly traveled public roads are inherently dangerous and have the potential to distract motorists from their driving; and

WHEREAS, the time necessary to complete such interactions may cause the driver of a motor vehicle to delay proceeding in accordance with traffic signals or cause a person within a right-of-way while traffic is stopped temporarily to remain in the roadway after traffic resumes movement; and

WHEREAS, a median zone serves many purposes including: (1) providing a buffer between traffic moving in opposite directions, (2) providing a recovery area for errant vehicles, (3) providing a stopping area in case of emergencies, (4) allowing space for speed changes and storage of left-turning and u-turning vehicles, and (5) providing refuge to pedestrians crossing a street. See; Florida Department of Transportation Design Manual, January 1, 2018; and

WHEREAS, persons loitering on or within median zones of highly traveled and higher speed public roads for purposes other than crossing the road increases the risk of collision between motor vehicles and pedestrians; and

WHEREAS, protecting the health, safety, and welfare of pedestrians and motorists is a significant government interest. See Cox v. State of New Hampshire, 312 U.S. 569, 574 (1941) ("[t]he authority of a [governmental entity] to impose regulations in order to assure the safety and convenience of the people in the use of public highways has never been regarded as inconsistent with civil liberties but rather as one of the means of safeguarding the good order upon which they ultimately depend."); see Bischoff v. Florida, 242 F. Supp. 2d 1226, 1237 (M.D. Fla. 2003) ("[t]he purpose behind [a legislative act] . . . to ensure public safety on roads . . . is a compelling government interest."); and

WHEREAS, the City Commission recognizes the need for, and the benefits of significant government interests in vehicular safety and the free flow of pedestrian and vehicular traffic; and

WHEREAS, the City Commission has a significant governmental interest in providing and promoting the health, safety, and general welfare of the public by reducing distractions to motorists and unsafe pedestrian movement within or near travel lanes; and

WHEREAS, The City in cooperation with the FDOT has undertaken several pedestrian safety projects in recent years. In addition, when Public Works and the Police Department have prior notice that individuals may congregate next to a roadway (for example, protests, campaigning, parades, special events, etc.) the Police Department and Public Works will place temporary fencing or take other measures along or within a right-of-way to keep individuals safe and out of harm's way of traffic. However, the City cannot protect individuals from non-planned, spontaneous events, such as an individual choosing to dangerously remain on a small median strip between several lanes of fast-moving traffic, or interacting with vehicles on a dangerous roadway. Therefore, this ordinance is necessary to protect these individuals from contact with moving vehicles, maintain traffic flow, and reduce distractions to drivers.

WHEREAS, the purpose of this Ordinance is to regulate the use of the public rights-of-way within the City of Ormond Beach to prohibit activities that interfere with the primary purpose of public roads and rights-of-way by causing distractions to motorists, unsafe pedestrian movement within travel lanes, sudden stoppage or slowdown of traffic, rapidly changing, dangerous traffic movements, increased vehicular accidents and pedestrian and motorist injuries and fatalities; and

WHEREAS, Chapter 166 of the Florida Statutes provides for the broad exercise of home rule authority by the City of Ormond Beach for the protection of the health, safety and welfare of our residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, Section 316.008, Florida Statutes authorizes the City Commission of the City of Ormond Beach to regulate the use of streets and highways under its jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance is not intended to limit any person from exercising his or her constitutional rights or engaging in any other constitutionally protected activity unless their conduct also violates the specific terms of this Ordinance. See McDonald v. City of Pompano Beach, Fla., 556 F. Supp. 3d 1334, 1349 (S.D. Fla. 2021) ("But the act of sitting or standing on mediations generally . . . isn't by itself communicative."); also Crocker v. Betty, 995 F.3d 1232, 1242 (11th Cir. 2021) ("Needless to say, I-95's median isn't a public forum of any stripe."); and

WHEREAS, this Ordinance is intended to apply in an impartial and evenhanded manner to all persons who engage in the activities proscribed herein, regardless of whether a message is intended; and

WHEREAS, the regulations set forth below are narrowly tailored to apply only to identified roadways that present greater risks due to generally higher vehicular traffic volume, roadway speed, documented vehicle crashes and pedestrian injuries, and leave open ample alternative channels of communication; and

WHEREAS, the City Commission finds and determines that the regulations are narrowly tailored in the intent of health, safety, and welfare of the City of Ormond Beach and the general public and serve a legitimate governmental and public purpose, now therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF ORMOND BEACH, FLORIDA, THAT:

SECTION ONE. Findings of Fact. The above recitals are true and correct and incorporated by reference into the body of this Ordinance and adopted as findings of fact.

SECTION TWO. Section 17-10, Reserved, of Chapter 17, Streets, Sidewalks and Other Public Places, of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, Code of Ordinances, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 17-10. ~~Reserved.~~ Unsafe pedestrian use of public rights-of-way.

(a) Definitions. When used in this Ordinance, the following words, terms, and phrases shall have the meanings set forth below, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Identified Roadway means SR AIA Atlantic Avenue / Ocean Shore Blvd., SR 40 (Granada Blvd.). Hand Ave., Nova Road, U.S. Highway 1, and Williamson Blvd. It also encompasses the first 300 feet of local roadways intersecting with these identified roadways and any areas within the rights-of-way not designated or intended for pedestrian use. The portions of these identified roadways subject to this Ordinance include the portions within the area open for vehicular traffic (including medians), plus four feet outside of the shoulders and/or curbs.

Legally parked means a vehicle that is standing, stopped, or parked in an area designated, or legally authorized, for parking.

Median means the area dividing a public road that separates lanes of traffic traveling in opposite directions or to control and direct vehicular movement, such as turning movements, to include traffic islands. This area may be paved or unpaved, marked or unmarked, landscaped or non-landscaped, and curbed or uncurbed.

Motor vehicle means a self-propelled vehicle not operated upon rails or guideway, but not including any bicycle, electric bicycle, motorized scooter, electric personal assistive mobility device, mobile carrier, personal delivery device, swamp buggy, or moped.

Person means any natural person or nongovernmental entity or organization of any kind.

Public road means all roads which are open and available for use by the public and dedicated to the public use according to law or by prescription pursuant to Section 335.01(1), Florida Statutes.

Right-of-way means land in which the State, the Department of Transportation, a county, or municipality owns the fee or has an easement devoted to or required for use as a transportation facility pursuant to Section 334.03, Florida Statutes

Traveled portion of a identified roadway means any portion of a identified roadway (including travel lanes, turn lanes, bike lanes, and shoulders) that is normally used by moving motor vehicle traffic that is not an area designated for or routinely used as a parking area for the general public.

(b) Prohibited Use of Public Road Rights-of-Way.

1. Except as provided herein, or as otherwise permitted by law, it is unlawful to make any use of the public rights-of-way in a manner that interferes with the safe and efficient movement of people and property from place to place on a public road, street, or highway. Such prohibited activity includes by way of example and not limitation:

   i. Engaging in any physical interaction between a pedestrian and an occupant of a motor vehicle, including the transfer of any product, material, or monies, while the motor vehicle is located on the traveled portion of identified roadway and is not legally parked.

   ii. Stopping, sitting, standing, or otherwise occupying or remaining in a median on an identified roadway by a person when that person is not in the process of lawfully crossing the road in accordance with applicable traffic and safety laws, regulations, and ordinances. Stopping, sitting, standing, or otherwise occupying or remaining in a median through two (2) consecutive opportunities to cross in accordance with applicable traffic and safety laws is prima facie evidence of a violation of this subsection ii.

2. Nothing in this Section (b) shall prohibit the following:

   i. Law enforcement, fire and rescue, or other government employees or contractors acting within the scope of their lawful authority;

   ii. A person conducting inspection, construction, maintenance, repair, survey, or other legally authorized services;

   iii. A person responding to lend aid during an emergency situation or who is within the roadway due to a mechanical or physical defect in his or her vehicle that occurred while driving in the roadway;

   iv. Entering or exiting a bus or other public transit system; or

   v. Use of public road rights-of-way that have been closed to vehicular traffic for a special event permitted by the appropriate government entity.

(c) Enforcement and Penalties.

1. This Ordinance may be enforced by the Ormond Beach Police Department and other law enforcement agencies.

2. A first-time violator of this Ordinance shall be provided a warning.

3. A second or subsequent violation of this Ordinance shall be prosecuted in the same manner as misdemeanors are prosecuted. Upon conviction, a violator shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed sixty (60) days or by both such fine and imprisonment, as provided in section 775.082 or 775.083 Florida Statutes.

4. Each violation of this Ordinance shall constitute a separate violation.

5. Due to the transient nature of these activities, each incident occurring more than every twenty (20) minutes after the violation has been corrected shall constitute a separate violation.

(d) Additional Remedies. In addition to any civil or criminal penalties which may be imposed pursuant to Section (c), above, the City shall have recourse to such remedies in law and equity as may be necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of this Ordinance, including but not limited to injunctive relief to enjoin and restrain any person from violating this Ordinance and/or any other relief available pursuant to law or equity.

SECTION THREE. Severability. If any section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this Ordinance is held to be unconstitutional, preempted by federal or state law, or otherwise invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality, preemption, or invalidity shall not be construed as to render unconstitutional, preempted, or invalid the remaining sections, sentences, clauses, and phrases of this Ordinance.

SECTION FOUR. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its adoption.

PASSED UPON at the first reading of the City Commission, this 7th day of May, 2024.

PASSED UPON at the second reading of the City Commission, this 21st day of May, 2024.

Introduction

At the request of the Ormond Beach City Attorney's Office, the Engineering Department reviewed the roadway network within the City limits of the City of Ormond Beach for the purpose of identifying those roadways that pose the greatest risk to users. The City has been included in recent studies, most notably Smart Growth America's Dangerous By Design, where combined with Daytona Beach and Deltona this region was identified as posing the greatest risk for pedestrians when interacting with vehicular traffic. An excerpt of the tabulated data from this published study is provided as Table 1, below.

Rank	Metro area	Average ped deaths/100k people per year	Pedestrian deaths (2016-2020)	Difference in average daily walking trips, 2019 to 2020*	Pandemic change in fatality rate (avg. 2016-19 vs 2020)	Long term trend in fatality rate (Five-year averages for 2011-15 vs 2016-20)
1	Deltona-Daytona Beach-Ormond Beach, FL	4.25	140	61%	0.68	0.97
2	Albuquerque, NM	4.19	192	35%	-0.48	1.91
3	Memphis, TN-MS-AR	3.93	264	49%	2.15	1.77
4	Tampa-St. Petersburg-Clearwater, FL	3.55	559	50%	-0.41	0.54
5	Charleston-North Charleston, SC	3.54	140	56%	1.36	1.57
6	Jacksonville, FL	3.44	264	60%	0.19	0.24
7	Bakersfield, CA	3.41	152	31%	0.06	0.68
8	Orlando-Kissimmee-Sanford, FL	3.37	431	22%	-0.72	0.6
9	Stockton, CA	3.35	126	44%	-0.74	1.52
10	Fresno, CA	3.25	161	24%	1.22	1.24

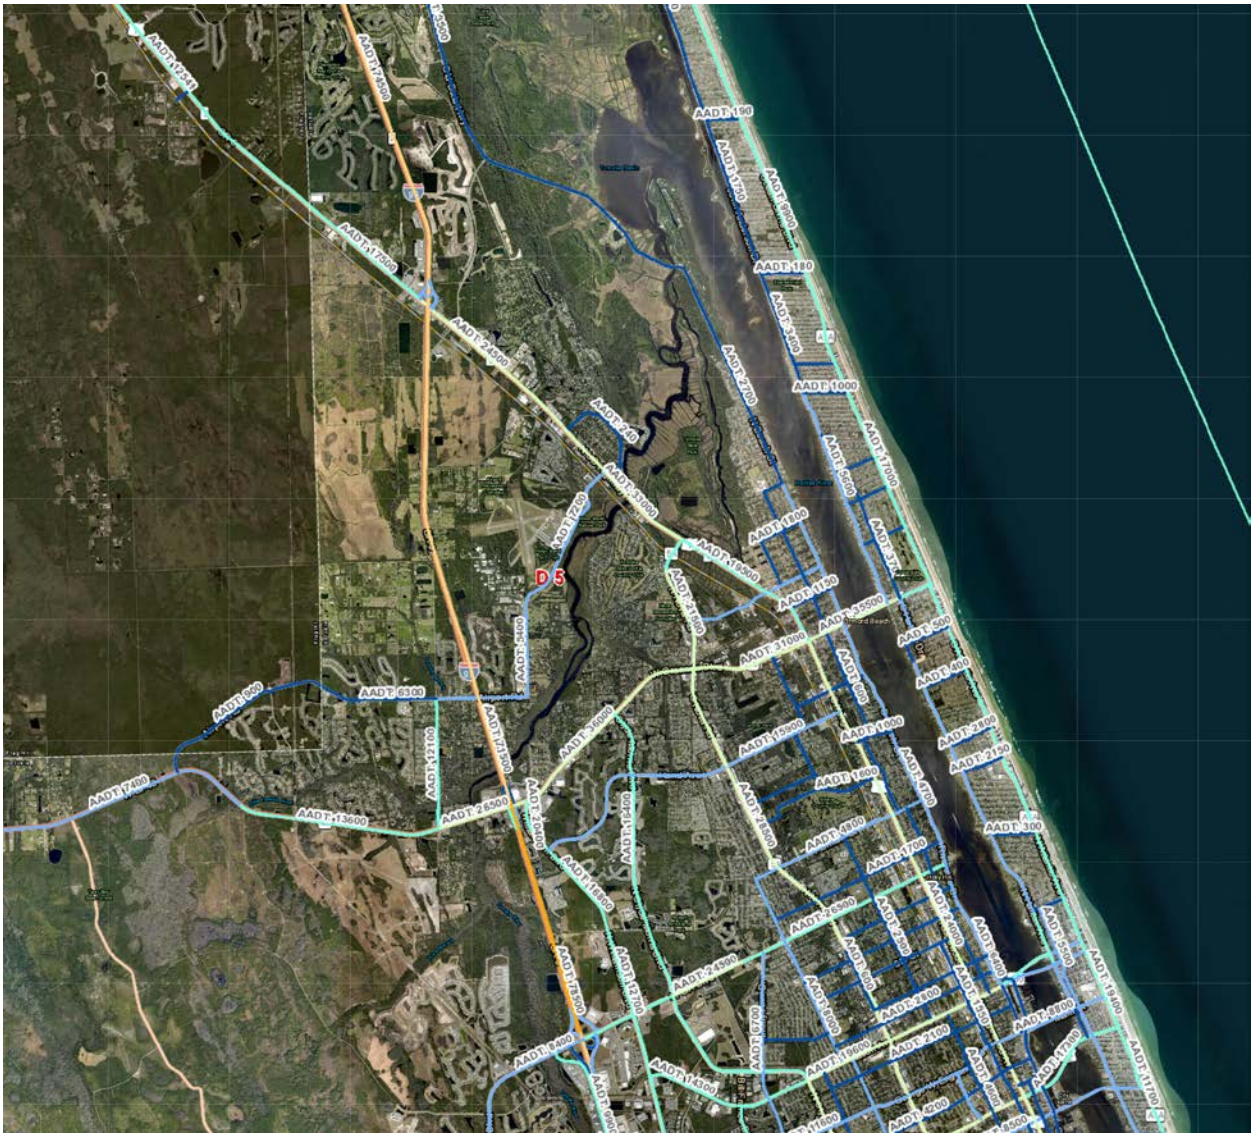

Table 1: Smart Growth America's Tabulated Metro Areas, Dangerous by Design 2023

While this community has taken a number of steps to improve safety for non-vehicular users of the public right-of-way, it is recognized that the activities of less than cautious individuals can lead to accidents, injuries, and in extreme conditions fatalities.

Traffic Volumes

In identifying those roadway segments where the incidence of dangerous interactions between motorized vehicle (passenger cars, trucks, motorcycles) and non-motorized users (pedestrians, bicyclists), the City limited its review of arterial and collector roadway, and initially reviewed published Annual Average Daily Traffic Information from the Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT_. This information provided on FDOT's website, Florida Traffic Online ((https://tdaappsprod.dot.state.fl.us/fto/) provides the expected Daily Traffic throughout the State of Florida, where for this investigation, staff focused on the Daily Traffic levels for those major roadway segments with the limits of the City of Ormond Beach. Figure 1 shows AADT data provided on the FDOT website. Values or the identified roadway corridors are provided in Table 2 below.

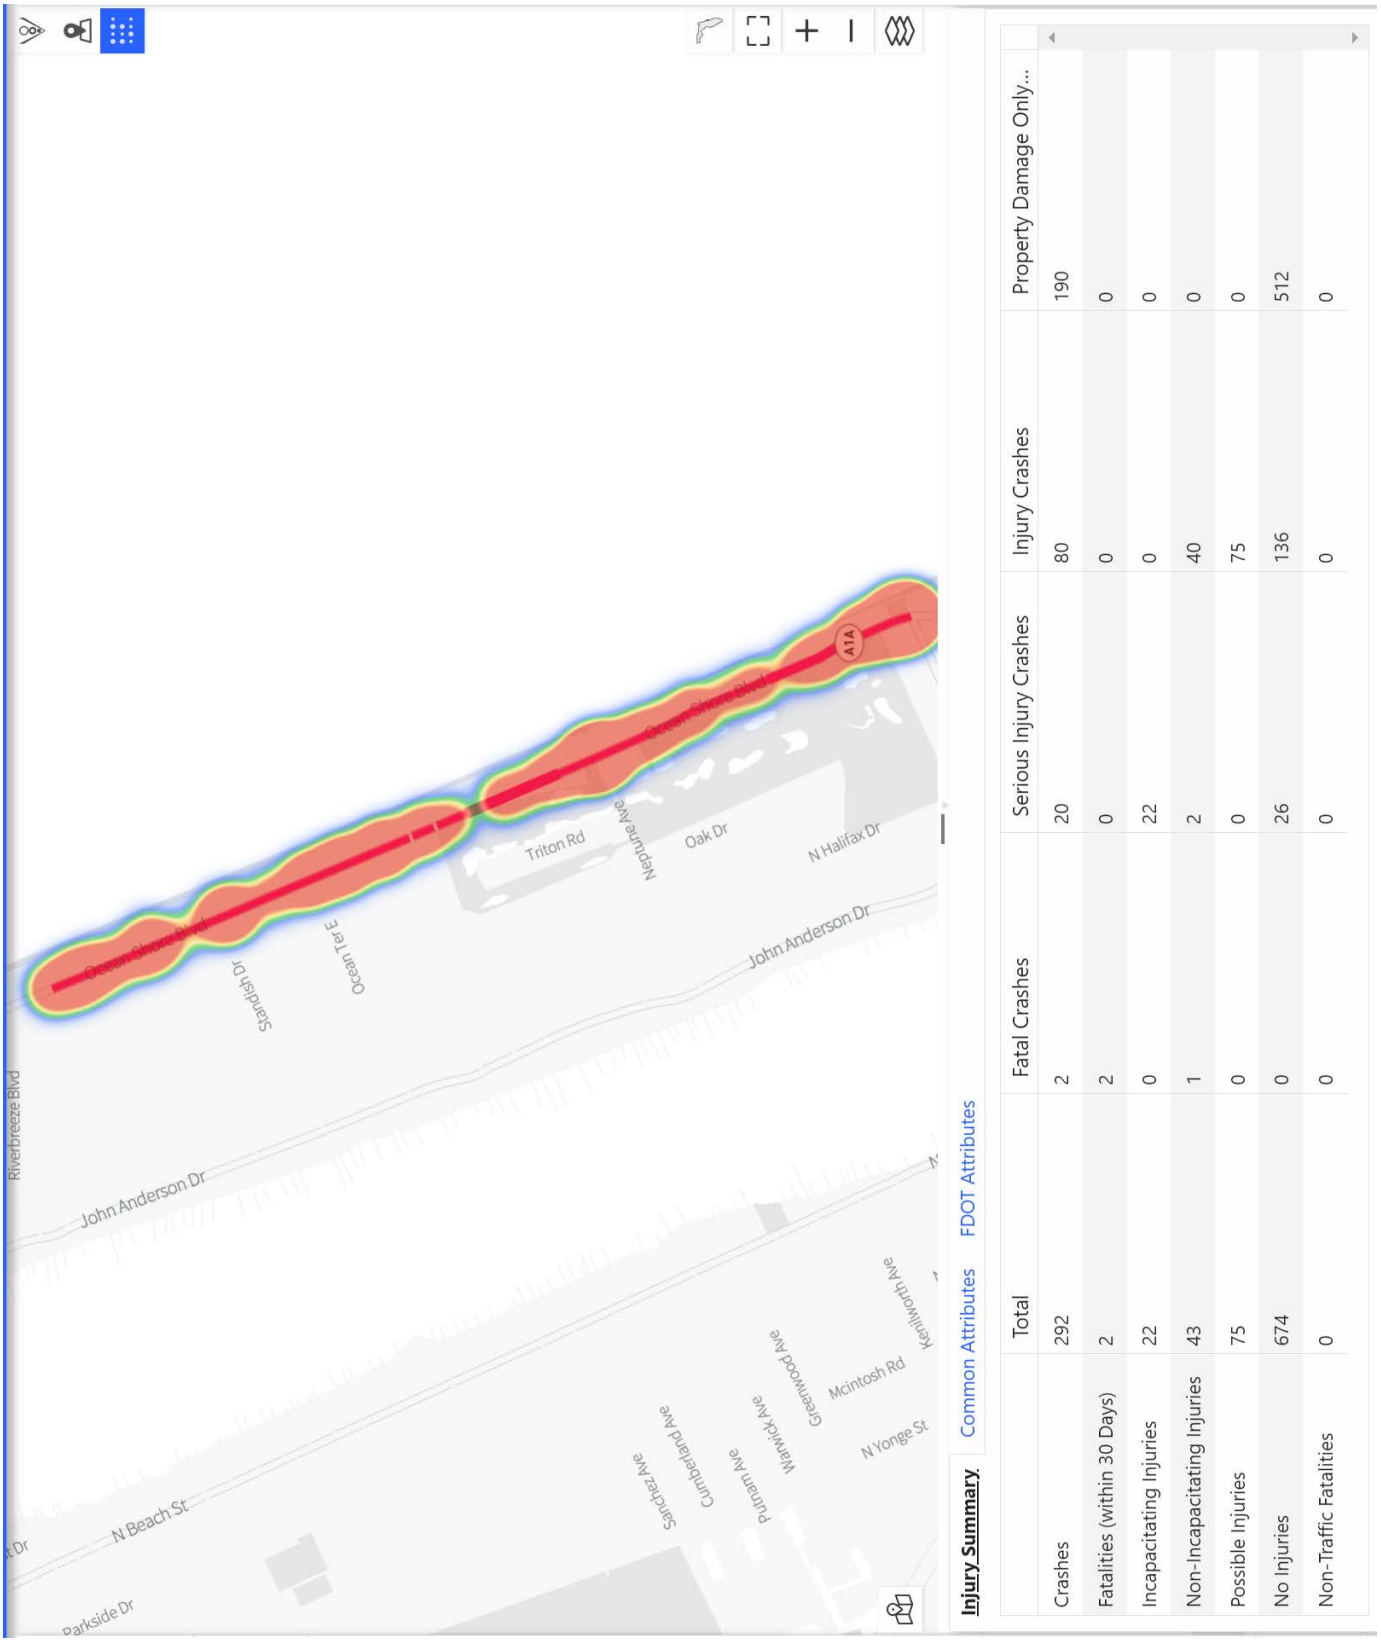
Table 2: Tabulated Data from Florida Traffic On-line

Setting the minimum threshold for significant roadways as 15,000 Average Daily Trip (Annual), the following roadway segments are ones identified as potentially providing a higher risk to users including pedestrians, and passive users not utilizing the roadway for travel.

- SR A1A Atlantic Avenue / Ocean Shore Blvd.
- SR 40 (Granada Blvd.
- Hand Avenue
- Nova Road
- U.S. Highway 1
- Williamson Blvd.

Crash Data

In order to further support the identification of these roadway segments as those where caution should be exercised, City Staff reviewed crash data for the past ten years available at the University of Florida's Signal 4 Database. The data obtained from this research is provided in Appendix 'A' to this report and show that these roadway segments are ones that experience high levels of crashes.



Conclusions

The major roadways within the City of Ormond Beach are ones that can support users of all types, however due to the high volume of traffic and risk of accidents and injury, extreme caution should be used by users and passive use of the right of way should be discouraged.

Smart Growth America’s, Dangerous By Design

DANGEROUS BY DESIGN 2022

Smart Growth America advocates for people who want to live and work in great neighborhoods. We envision a country where no matter where you live, or who you are, you can enjoy living in a place that is healthy, prosperous, and resilient. Learn more at www.smartgrowthamerica.org.

Smart Growth America
Improving lives by improving communities

The National Complete Streets Coalition, a program of Smart Growth America, is a non-profit, non-partisan alliance of public interest organizations and transportation professionals committed to the development and implementation of Complete Streets policies and practices. A nationwide movement launched by the Coalition in 2004, Complete Streets is the integration of people and place in the planning, design, construction, operation, and maintenance of transportation networks. www.completestreets.org

Smart Growth America project team: The primary authors were Ebony Venson, Abigail Grimminger, and Stephen Kenny, with additional writing by Rayla Bellis and Steve Davis. Becca Buthe and Chris McCahill conducted all analyses. Becca Buthe created all maps and figures throughout this report. Design and editorial by Steve Davis, with editorial assistance by Eric Cova and Helen Hope. This report was produced under the leadership of Beth Osborne, Vice President of Transportation. I. Summary

While the unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic upended many aspects of daily life, including how people get around, one terrible, long-term trend was unchanged: the alarming increase in people being struck and killed while walking.

The number of people struck and killed while walking has been steadily increasing since 2009, reaching another new high in 2020 and likely a historic one in 2021.

More than 6,500 people— nearly 18 per day— were struck and killed while walking in 2020, a 4.7 percent increase over 2019, even as driving decreased overall because of the pandemic's unprecedented disruptions to travel behavior.[1]

Pedestrian fatalities are up 62 percent since they began steadily rising in 2009 following years of improvement.

U.S. pedestrian fatalities
(2009-2020)

This estimate for 2021 is produced by applying the 11.5 percent increase for 2021 projected by the Governors Highway Safety Administration (GHSA) to the federal FARS data for 2020 used in this report.*

The pandemic magnified what we've always known: Our nation's streets are dangerous by design, designed primarily to move cars quickly at the expense of keeping everyone safe. The result in 2020 and 2021 was a significant increase in all traffic fatalities, even with less driving overall.

2020's record high also marks an astonishing 62 percent increase since 2009, the year these deaths first started increasing after years of improvement. In that time period drivers struck and killed a total of 64,073 people while walking. As with past editions, this report ranks the most deadly states and metro areas, though in a new way. See section IV for the state/metro rankings.

This problem is growing even worse

While Dangerous by Design uses federal data that is complete only through the end of 2020, preliminary data for 2021 is jaw-dropping. According to early estimates from the Governors Highway Safety Association (GHSA) released in May 2022, 7,485 people walking were struck and killed in 2021, which would be the highest number in 40 years and one of the biggest single-year jumps in decades.[2] While the official 2021 number from the federal data set used in this report is likely to differ from GHSA's preliminary estimates, we expect the increase for 2021 to be between 11 and 13 percent higher than the 6,529 deaths recorded in 2020, a historic jump.

Our new approach to assessing pedestrian danger

The impact of the pandemic on the data typically used in this report, coupled with significantly higher fatality rates during the pandemic, required a new approach to assessing pedestrian danger, which also allowed us to address the unique impacts of the pandemic. One effect is that the rankings in this edition are not directly comparable to previous editions of Dangerous by Design. See section III for more on how we changed our approach and the effect on the rankings.

"Walking" and inclusive language

The data in this report specifically examines only the deaths of people walking and tends to use the shorthand of "pedestrians" for this reason. The federal government groups people using assisted mobility devices in the same category with things like skateboards, making it challenging to isolate the impact on people with disabilities. We fervently believe that making our streets safer for everyone absolutely means for people of all ages and abilities, whether walking, biking, or using assistive devices like wheelchairs or walkers. We continue to look for ways to better incorporate data that includes the danger that people with disabilities face on our roadways. Across the board, better data are required to assess the impact of current infrastructure. See our data recommendations in section II.

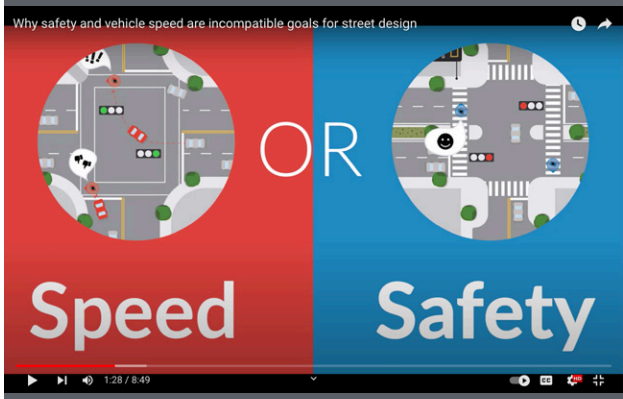
Roadway design has a strong impact on how people drive, often more influential on driver behavior than the posted speed limit. While speed limit signs may only be posted every few blocks or miles, the road's design is ever-present, continually providing guidance and visual cues. While there are myriad factors involved in these deaths, our streets are dangerous by design, designed to move many cars quickly at the expense of safety for everyone who uses them.

How did this become so commonplace? In the 1950s, we started building a system of separated highways to move vehicles quickly over long distances, removing intersections and other points of conflict, development, and pedestrians because speed was not compatible with the complexity of cities and towns. But somewhere along the way, we started applying this same high-speed highway design within complex urban environments, while keeping all of the conflicts and complexity in place, and the result has been unmitigated carnage.

When roads are wide and straight, lanes are wide and plentiful, and intersections are infrequent or non-signalized, people feel safe and comfortable driving faster—even when the speed limit is low—as the visuals of Union Avenue in Memphis, TN illustrate on the following two pages.

Higher speeds make conflict harder to spot and avoid and crashes more deadly. The higher the speed, the narrower the driver's field of vision, making it harder to see and anticipate potential problems by responding and slowing down or stopping the vehicle. And the higher the speed, any crashes that do occur are far more likely to lead to serious injury or death.



We send drivers two conflicting messages with low speed limits but designs that nudge them toward high speeds. And then, when drivers fail and strike someone walking or crossing the street, we rush to blame the driver or person walking in spite of the fact that the transportation agency should be held responsible for their design choices.

Read an insert from the National Association of City Transportation Officials (NACTO) on page 19-21 for more on safer street designs.

WATCH: Visualizing safety vs speed

For a richer, visual explanation of how street design impacts the speed of vehicles and why we have to choose between speed or safety, do not miss this video from Smart Growth America and the National Complete Streets Coalition explaining why prioritizing both safety and keeping cars moving quickly—outside of limited access roads like interstate and freeways—is impossible.

Typical arterial roadway design

The design of Union Ave., located in the heart of Memphis, TN is typical of the most dangerous roads for people on foot within metro areas: 60 percent of all 2020 deaths occurred on non-interstate arterial highways like this one.[a] (They are most often designed and controlled by the state DOT, rather than the city or locality.) At right are five ways that speed is prioritized on Union Ave. at the expense of safety, and the contradictory messages sent to drivers: expect to see and yield to people outside of vehicles, and expect to travel fast all the time.

Even the signalized intersections on Union near here don't always have crosswalks on all sides.

1. Design can be more influential on behavior than speed limits. Though the limit ranges from 25-35 mph, this road is designed for much higher speeds. It's long and straight, with clear sight lines and five travel lanes for maximum vehicle throughput, resulting in higher speeds. And though the speed limit changes, the design never does.

2. Other streets regularly intersect Union, but lack crosswalks or signals, because keeping vehicles from stopping (speed) is prioritized ahead of providing frequent crossings (safety). There are also numerous curb cuts and driveways, resulting in dozens of intersections for people walking.

3. Numerous destinations means that more people will be present. There are grocery stores, a college, a high school, a hospital, shops and stores, and hundreds of homes and higher density apartment buildings.

4. Marked, signalized crosswalks are located as much as 0.4 miles apart, potentially requiring a 10-minute round trip to reach a destination that's directly across the street. Multiple bus stops are also located in between these distant signalized crosswalks.

5. Sidewalks exist, but as an afterthought. They are narrow with numerous curb cuts for turns and frequent obstructions, and no buffer between people walking and vehicles moving at high speeds.

Most fatalities on Union Avenue occur at intersections

1. All four gently rounded corners allow right turns at high speeds, precisely when pedestrians have the right-of-way. Sharper turns require drivers to slow down and turn more slowly. In fact, a recent study shows that a 30-foot turning radius vs. a 10-foot radius will probably result in 30 percent more pedestrian crashes.[a] (See inset at bottom right.)

2. These sweeping corners—which exist for speed rather than safety—increase the distance required to cross on foot, putting people in harm's way for more time, or making it impossible to cross in time for the young, old, or disabled.

3. Existing crosswalks are faded or invisible. When signalized intersections are far apart, as they are on Union, it's even more vital that they be highly visible.

4. Sidewalks also have obstructions (utility poles, boxes, etc.) and lack rubberized or high-visibility markings to help all people safely cross. For people in wheelchairs or pushing strollers, sidewalks with obstructions can force them into the street to pass.

The pandemic exacerbated existing disparities

Although everyone is affected by dangerous street design in some way, not everyone shares this burden equally. Despite other changes, the pandemic perpetuated existing disparities in who is being killed: Black and Native Americans. Older adults and people walking in low-income neighborhoods were also struck and killed at much higher rates than other populations in 2020, as with past years.

The conditions people face when they want to walk or bike—whether to work or for recreation—are not the same for all Americans. Low-income communities are significantly less likely to have access to parks and other opportunities for safe recreational walking and are less likely to have sidewalks, marked crosswalks, and street design to support safer, slower speeds.[3,4] Lower-income neighborhoods are also much more likely to contain major arterial roads built for high speeds and higher traffic volumes at intersections, exacerbating dangerous conditions for people walking.[5] Read more about the inequality of this deadly epidemic in section V.

The pandemic had profound impacts on travel behavior that are likely here to stay

One of the most noticeable changes during the pandemic's onset was the decrease in vehicle traffic across America's cities. In many communities, the air became cleaner and quieter, and many cities temporarily returned space to pedestrians and cyclists. Yet many places saw a significant spike in deaths, even as driving dropped precipitously. This drop in driving likely contributed.[6]

Overall in 2020, all traffic fatalities were up 6.8 percent (including pedestrians, drivers, and others using our streets). This increase is even more notable in light of the significant drop in driving.[7] Our traffic deaths per mile driven increased by 21 percent compared to the 2019 rate, reaching the highest death rate per mile driven since 2007.

Seeing driving go down and deaths go up should call into question the long-held conventional wisdom among policymakers and transportation professionals that traffic fatalities are inextricably linked to the amount of driving, which is one of the reasons the GHSA and others have traditionally reported fatalities per mile driven. But during the large decrease in driving during COVID, congestion evaporated, speeds increased dramatically, and more people were killed.

It was incredibly ironic: Congestion, something transportation agencies spend billions to eliminate, seems to have been slowing traffic and reducing deadly crashes.[8] According to recent studies, there was a significant increase in speeding and even reckless driving during the pandemic, contributing to the severity of crashes and the number of lives lost on our roads during 2020.[9]

The US is an outlier when it comes to these trends. It's also worth noting that, although driving went down almost everywhere around the world during the pandemic, the US was one of the only countries in the developed world that saw an increase in the deaths of people walking when that dip in driving occurred. Most peer countries have seen continuous drops in fatality rates over the past three decades. However, the US has had much higher fatality rates and the number of deaths has increased since 2009.[10,11]

A study from the International Transport Forum found that the US was one of the only three of their 63 member countries that saw an increase in fatalities during the pandemic.[12] The other two, Ireland and Switzerland, saw smaller increases and started from a much lower baseline.

Seeing driving go down while deaths went up should call into question the long-held belief that traffic fatalities are inextricably linked to the amount of driving.

More people walked more in 2020, but that didn't lead to more deaths in all metro areas

While some metro areas did get marginally less deadly in 2020, pedestrian deaths increased overall in 67 of the 100 largest metro areas and 33 states when compared to the four years prior to the pandemic. There are many lessons that we can draw from both groups.

The pandemic unleashed significant untapped demand for more walking in nearly every community across the country. New, first-time analysis in this year's report using information from a company called StreetLight Data—based on anonymized information from cell phones and mobile devices—shows that walking trips (for all purposes) increased during the pandemic in every state and metro area we analyzed, regardless of climate or geography.

But for the most part, the metro areas that were on average already more deadly and where a lower share of people walked to work before the pandemic are the ones where death rates increased the most. Walking trips also increased the most in these metro areas, indicating significant untapped demand for more walking in these places. Over in the metro areas that were less deadly before the pandemic—also where higher shares of people were walking to work on average—death rates decreased or only increased slightly during the pandemic on average, even with the increase in walking.

This underscores the fact that these tragedies are preventable. More walking does not have to equal more deaths, if streets are designed with safety as the top priority. Read Section VI for more about how we used StreetLight Data to analyze changes in walking and the impact on metro areas.

What are we waiting for?

Too many agencies and decision makers with a hand in building our transportation system have been asleep at the switch, believing (or just hoping) that safety will improve while only making incremental changes to a deadly status quo. The result will continue to be ever-increasing and record deaths of people walking and rolling, and we'll continue in this "Groundhog Day" loop until those with the power to do so take an active role in making safety for all people the top priority of every dollar spent. To do so, they will have to unwind the deeply embedded, invisible yet powerful emphasis on speed, which is completely incompatible with safety.

Traffic engineers do not share your values

By Charles Marohn, Founder, Strong Towns

When American engineers design streets, they start the process using the values of the engineering profession.

The engineer doesn't stop to consider that their values might be questioned by others, that their core values might, in fact, be rejected by most of society. It doesn't cross their minds—not because they are immoral—but because they don't recognize their values as values.

For the engineer, it's just the way things are done. It's standard practice. When an engineer sits down to design a street, they begin the process with the design speed. I've been in countless meetings where engineers presented design plans and even preliminary studies for a street project. Never, and I mean never, was any elected official or any member of the public asked to weigh in on the design speed.

Never once did I hear one of my fellow professional engineers say, "So, what are you trying to accomplish with this street in terms of speed?" No. The design speed is solely the purview of the engineering professional. Why?

Choosing a design speed is, by its nature, an application of core values. When we pick a speed, we are selecting among different, competing priorities. Is it more important that peak traffic move quickly or is it more important to maximize the development potential of the street? Do we compromise the safety of people crossing on foot to obtain a higher automobile speed, or do we reduce speeds in order to improve safety for people outside of a vehicle?

These are policy decisions. Shouldn't public officials be given the broad range of options and be allowed to weigh them against each other? Of course they should! So, why aren't they?

Many of my engineering colleagues will reply that they, the engineers who design streets, don't control the speed at which people drive and that speeding is an enforcement issue. Such an assertion should be professional malpractice. It selectively denies both what engineers know and how they act on that knowledge. For example, professional engineers understand how to design for high speeds. When building a high-speed roadway, the engineer will design wider lanes, more sweeping curves, wider recovery areas and broader clear zones than they will on lower-speed roadways. There is a clear design objective

There is rarely any acknowledgement of the opposite, however: that slow traffic speeds can be obtained by narrowing lanes, creating tighter curves, and reducing or eliminating clear zones. High speeds are a design issue, but low speeds are an enforcement issue. That's incoherent.

The other pushback often given by professional engineers for why they, and not public officials, should set the design speed is that non-professionals are not qualified to do so. In 2016, I wrote "Engineers Should Not Design Streets," an article for which many of my fellow professionals accused me of being gratuitously provocative. I was not.

The design of streets begins with the establishment of priorities. It begins with an application of core values. Engineers generally lack the background, training, and understanding to make such a complex decision. Indeed, I think engineers have become uniquely unqualified to do so.

For local streets, setting the design speed is something that should be done only by policymakers and only after a broad and deep dialogue with the community about values and priorities. This is not a decision to be made through the myopic prism of one professional silo. It is too important for that.

If you are an elected official, demand that you and your elected colleagues set the design speed on your streets. Not the enforcement speed (that is often set by state law and can be difficult to get a waiver for) but the speed at which 85 percent of traffic will naturally flow at or below. You have this power. Exercise it.

If you are an engineering professional, recognize that establishing the design speed for a particular street is something you have an obligation to discuss with, at a minimum, the elected officials in the community.

You must give them options and inform them of the full range of alternatives and tradeoffs. Humble yourself to serve their priorities and resist the temptation to bully them into following yours.

If you are a member of the public concerned about the health and safety of your community, demand that the design speed of your streets be part of the conversation. You have all the expertise you need to be part of a dialogue about core values. And you have the right; don't let anyone take it from you. Setting these priorities—imposing a set of values—should not be the engineer's responsibility. It should be the responsibility of the entire community.

II. Addressing the problem: What can be done?

We know many of the factors responsible for these deaths, but we choose to continue designing and operating streets that prioritize the speedy movement of vehicles at the expense of safety for all people who use our streets. It's impossible to prioritize both safety and keeping cars moving quickly outside of limited access roads like interstate and freeways. On every other street in mixed-use environments where there are turns, curb cuts, and people walking, biking, or otherwise getting around outside of a car, safety and speed are fundamentally incompatible goals. We have a choice to make, and unfortunately for more than 55,000 Americans who were killed while walking over the last ten years, their safety has not been the top priority.

Changing these depressing outcomes requires a transportation paradigm shift within nearly every aspect of our current approach to designing, building, and operating our streets and roads, an approach that is deeply embedded in our policies, practices, standards, manuals, and professional cultures. Fundamental components of accepted street design actively put people at risk and increase the likelihood that people walking and moving actively using assistive devices such as wheelchairs, walkers, sight canes, prosthetics, and scooters will continue to pay the—often deadly—price. These practices also can set drivers up to fail by making mistakes more common and the consequences more deadly, even when following the rules.

Unlike last year, there has since been a massive new infusion of federal transportation spending through 2021's infrastructure law, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA).[13] This new law has been touted as a way to improve safety, but it merely allows more spending on safety. This cuts both ways, as this flexibility also allows less spending on safety, at the discretion of state and local leaders.

The following pages include a wide range of recommendations, from addressing the dangers of vehicles that are getting larger and heavier, to the measures and models that lead states to build unsafe streets in the first place, spanning national actions USDOT should take, all the way down to practical steps that cities, towns, and residents can take to make safety the top goal.

DATA

We can't properly evaluate safety without better, more comprehensive and timely data.

The only national dataset on traffic fatalities, the Fatality Analysis Reporting System (FARS), has numerous limitations. First, the 10-16 month lag in data makes it impossible to evaluate current or even very recent conditions. In a typical year, FARS data for the previous year is released sometime in the fall of the following year. This year, 2020 data took until April of 2022 to be released. Second, FARS data also fails to properly account for fatalities involving people with disabilities. While the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration recently made some improvements here, wheelchair and scooter users are still inappropriately grouped with road users like skateboarders and roller skaters. It's incredibly hard to evaluate safety with data that are never current and which fail to capture the full picture of who is harmed, where, and how. Local crash reporting that feeds into FARS has major issues too, such as a significant share of fatalities without race or ethnicity recorded, making it difficult to evaluate disparities with who is at greatest risk.

The pandemic also showed that we need better data on walking trips overall.

Transportation agencies focus almost exclusively on trips to work. But the work trip is a small minority of trips—even more so since COVID-19. Collecting comprehensive data on walking (similar to data from StreetLight Data we tap in this report) would help us measure the extent to which pedestrians are exposed to traffic danger. We can't say we care about a group of travelers that aren't counted.

FEDERAL & CONGRESS

Federal agencies must lead and use every tool at their disposal to improve safety and remove barriers to safety—especially those for which they are responsible.

First, USDOT should adopt the position that safety and speed are incompatible goals in cities, towns, villages and anywhere with many conflict points and vulnerable users; and they must stop allowing transportation agencies to claim safety benefits from congestion reduction projects because higher speeds on surface streets lead to more crashes and more deaths. Nor should USDOT use its "value of time" guidance to allow higher vehicle speeds to be credited as travel time savings, especially while failing to quantify the negative impacts on safety or increased time commuting for those traveling outside of a vehicle.

Second, NHTSA made progress by finally including pedestrian safety in their New Car Assessment Program proposed rule. However, additional improvements should be made to ensure that vehicle design does not impede direct vision of people in front of the car and incorporate pedestrian survivability into the ratings.

Third, FHWA should update design standards, like those in the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices (MUTCD), to stop prioritizing vehicle speed over safety. Also, FHWA can release stronger clarifying enforcement on federal rules like those on the protection of nonmotorized transportation traffic (23 USC 109(m)).

USDOT should steer more funding toward improving safety, and provide transparent reporting on state spending.
USDOT must prioritize safety with the $200 billion in discretionary competitive grants that they control from the the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act (IIJA). And then USDOT should steer the funding that goes out to states and metropolitan planning organizations to safety too. They could do this by monitoring and reporting on how much state funding is spent on improving safety for vulnerable users. And when states go through the required process of setting annual targets for improving safety, USDOT should use their bully pulpit to praise the states that are setting strong targets and meeting them, and they should point out the states that are taking federal taxpayers' money and setting targets for more people to die. Lastly, to make sure the local projects funded by new programs—like the Complete Streets set-aside within the Metropolitan Planning Program—contribute to reducing pedestrian fatalities, FHWA should include the best practices of a Complete Streets approach, including how to build equity, implementation, and other key tenets into their plans.

Congress should fully fund all programs intended for combating the rising rates of pedestrian fatalities.
The Healthy Streets Program and the Active Transportation Infrastructure Investment Program were created by the IIJA for protecting pedestrians, but these grant programs have so far remained unfunded by Congressional appropriators, so localities cannot take advantage of them. Congress should have made safety, and not state flexibility, the priority in the IIJA. Until they revisit the transportation program, they should at the very least fully fund these programs and others like RAISE that support safety improvements. If Congress truly cares about safety, they will not wait five more years until the next transportation authorization is due to make changes to the federal transportation program as a whole to ensure there is no flexibility to undercut or underfund clearly needed safety improvements.

In addition, Congress should enable stronger federal action by directing USDOT and FHWA to release stronger rules and guidance on protecting vulnerable road users.

States must make safety the top priority governing all street design decisions.

Instead of prioritizing moving vehicles faster in a one-size-fits-all approach to nearly every type of road, states should prioritize safe access to destinations for people walking on streets in developed areas, whether big urban areas or rural villages. This means the default approach should be building good, protected sidewalks and paths, and slowing traffic down to speeds that are appropriate for the inherently frenetic environment in busy corridors. (And prioritizing throughput only on limited access or separated highways.) It also means working with local land-use authorities to better connect communities and shorten the distances between key destinations. With walking trip rates increasing, the pandemic uncovered a massive unmet demand for walking for all purposes, including transportation. Many states need to change their mindset to treat walking and biking as important modes for everyday transportation, not merely leisure activities.

States must use the enormous freedom and flexibility of federal highway funds to prioritize safety.

State DOTs tend to fund safety projects with small, safety-specific programs while spending their remaining billions of federal highway dollars on roadway projects that increase vehicle speed and undermine their safety-focused spending. This is counterproductive. Safety is not an add-on feature or only the purview of other smaller programs. A real commitment to safety over speed means using every available dollar to fund safety projects like traffic calming, slower road design, and pedestrian infrastructure. It does not mean just tacking pedestrian facilities onto otherwise dangerous high-speed roads. The flexibility given to states means the responsibility for safety improvements and the accountability for the safety performance of their transportation system falls to them.

Cities and towns can lead the way on prioritizing safety, and they should pressure their states to follow suit.

First, one notable change in the 2021 infrastructure law: For federally funded projects, cities are allowed to adopt and use safer street design guidelines approved by the FHWA, such as those from the National Association of City Transportation Officials (NACTO), even if a state has prohibited cities from doing so. The American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials (AASHTO) also provides newer guidance on street designs for bicyclists and pedestrians, which can be used by cities or states.

Second, cities should adopt and implement their own Complete Streets policies and NACTO design guidance to prioritize the safety of all road users and set safe speed limits on their roadways. Safety investments should be targeted in the most deadly places—for instance, low-income neighborhoods and communities of color—where people are more likely to be struck and killed.

Finally, local and regional agencies must consider the impacts of land use on pedestrian safety, namely the requirements that homes be placed far from jobs, groceries, retail, banks and other essentials. Land use and zoning rules should prioritize development patterns that make it possible for more people to live closer to essential goods and services.

How to redesign your city's most dangerous streets to save the most lives

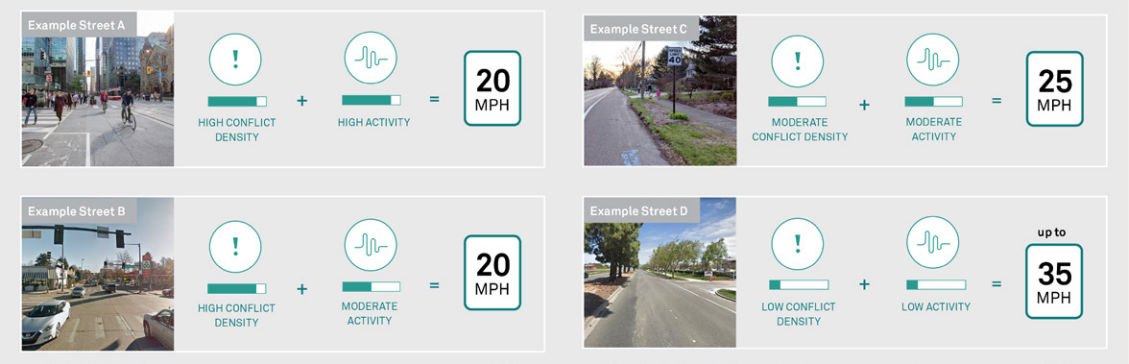
By Alex Engel and Kate Fillin-Yeh, National Association of City Transportation Officials

Far too many people walking, biking, and waiting for the bus die on North America's streets. They don't have to. Proven tools—from safer speed limit setting to safer street designs—have proven to save lives, and can quickly stem America's traffic safety crisis. Here's how.

(1) Analyze where the worst streets are and who needs to be in the room for change.

While nearly every street in the U.S. could be designed to be safer, by far the most dangerous streets are the big, fast, wide streets designed for cars to run at expressway speeds through busy cities and towns. Transportation engineers call these streets "arterials," but these car-focused streets are also where people live, work, go to school and shop.

In urban areas, arterials make up 15% of all roads but are where a whopping 67% of pedestrian deaths occur.



High Crash Network Map, from Hoboken, NJ's Vision Zero Action Plan. The city of 60,000 has not had a traffic death in more than four years.

These streets are disproportionately in lower-income communities of color, and are also disproportionately owned by states. In fact, over half of traffic fatalities in urban areas occur on state-owned roads, meaning that cities and states must work together (sometimes with an assist by advocates) to stem this deadly crisis.

By starting with the simple step of analyzing where the most dangerous streets in a city are (and overlaying it with analysis that fatality numbers by themselves may miss, like access to destinations and racial equity metrics), practitioners and policymakers gain two valuable tools. First, a ready-made prioritization list of where to save the most lives and improve equitable outcomes and, second, data-based evidence that can be presented to decision-makers to outline the case for redirecting resources where they are most needed.

(2) Reset speed limits to be compatible with human life.

Speed is the primary factor determining whether someone will live or die in a traffic crash. Yet, most speed limits in the United States are set using an oversimplified and outdated method: tracking 100 drivers going as fast as they want (without traffic) and setting the speed limit at the 15th-fastest driver.

Examples of speed limits set using conflict density and activity analyses, from NACTO City Limits. An increasing number of cities nationwide are tossing the 85th percentile and instead using modern approaches to speed limit setting.

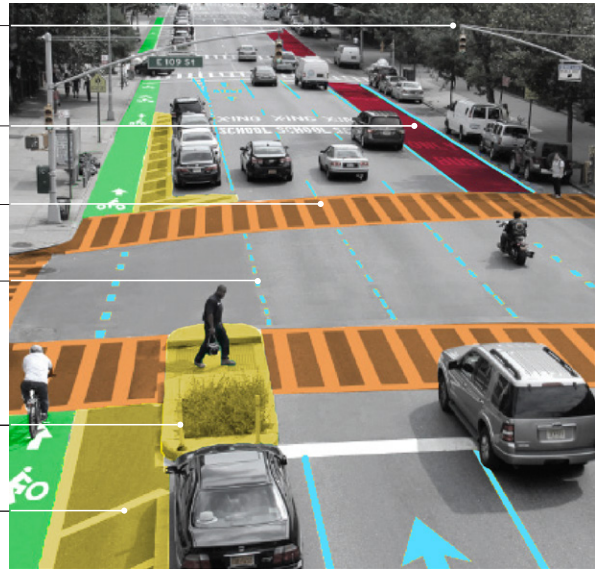
This deeply flawed approach rewards the fastest drivers with increasingly-high speed limits incompatible with safety for everyone else (including other drivers). And because we build roads to support speeds above the posted speed limit, there will always be a substantial number of drivers traveling above the already-too-high speed limit, escalating speeds further.

Modern approaches, like NACTO's peer-reviewed City Limits, offer a contextual, holistic approach to speed limit setting using multiple methods. City Limits provides a framework for holistically setting safe speed limits in urban areas, in contrast to common yet outdated approaches that result in unsafe streets. Practitioners can reset speed limits using either recommended default speed limits on many streets, or set corridor speed limits on dangerous high-priority streets through a safe speed study.

Safer speed limits, even in the absence of other interventions, can improve safety. However, safer speed limits open up an even more powerful tool: street design. In many places, options for how a street can be configured are limited by the posted speed limit of that street. Setting a safer speed limit is the first step to a safer street design.

(3) Use proven street designs that save lives and make places more vibrant.

As cities across the world have found, there is a robust, proven toolbox of design approaches that they can use to make streets safer. These include: narrowing traffic lanes and turn radii, adding curb extensions, safety islands, and high-visibility crosswalks, ensuring sidewalks and bike networks are robust, connected, and accessible. In most places, these safety enhancements produce almost immediate results—cities see significant drops in fatalities and injuries in the places where they have redesigned the street.



Another street design strategy that improves safety includes prioritizing transit—the safest travel mode—with dedicated space for buses, safe places to walk to the bus stop, and comfortable places to wait for the bus.

Design guides like the NACTO Urban Street Design Guide and the Ohio Department of Transportation's Multimodal Design Guide offer safety-focused alternatives to the outdated design guides that still use highway engineering principles for streets shared with all users.

(4) Document results, iterate, and share them out.

The country's streets will not be redesigned all at once. While the most dangerous streets should be prioritized, routine maintenance—repairing or repaving a street—provides an opportunity to evaluate and improve the design of the street under repair, stretching limited construction budgets.

Documenting the conditions on a street, including before-and-after photos, traffic speeds, the number of people walking and biking on a street, transit ridership, crashes, severe injuries, and fatalities (especially when compared to citywide or statewide trends), can build the case to engineers, residents, and officials alike for design interventions that make streets calmer, safer, and more pleasant places to be.

These evaluations can also be used to iterate and improve on a street's designs. Streets are always evolving to some degree. Successful street redesigns often attract more people walking, biking, and taking transit. Revisiting street redesigns helps accommodate these new users, and make previously-inhospitable environments even safer and more vibrant.

III. The pandemic changed how we measure walking and danger

The COVID-19 pandemic fundamentally changed traditional commute and travel patterns, as individuals and organizations transitioned to remote or hybrid work and schedules changed overnight. When it comes to how people get around, as well as walking rates, many of these shifts are here to stay and future years will likely look more like 2020 than they do like 2019. The impact of these shifts on the data we have relied upon in the past, coupled with significantly higher fatality rates during the pandemic, made it difficult to assess pedestrian danger in the same way as past reports, compelling us to reconsider how we measure danger and rank states and metros to address the unique impact of the pandemic.

After more than a decade of calculating pedestrian danger in the same way, this edition of Dangerous by Design ranks states and metro areas based on deaths per 100k residents (instead of factoring in how much people are walking) over a five-year timeframe (instead of 10 years.) These two significant changes mean that the rankings in this report are not directly comparable to previous editions. We look forward to being able to once again compare editions of this report to another in future years, but these methodological updates will allow us to better examine the dangers and deaths that occur on our streets in light of the permanent transformations brought by COVID-19.

Previously, we compared the relative danger of states and metro areas using the Pedestrian Danger Index (PDI), an equation that takes into account deaths per population and walking rates derived from U.S Census data on the share of people walking to work. This index allowed us to compare places that have a higher number of fatalities because of the large population and huge number of walking trips—like New York City—with metro areas that have fewer fatalities or people but a far greater exposure to danger per walking trip—like Jackson, MS. But the dramatic changes in commuting brought by the pandemic necessitated a shift away from this data.

Up until the pandemic shut things down in March 2020, the share of people walking to work was a good, if limited, proxy for the amount of overall walking in a region or state. With a huge share of work trips evaporating and commuting patterns indefinitely changed, this was no longer the case. For example, what about people who did not travel to work in person in 2020 due to childcare needs, unemployment, or new remote work schedules? Though walking trips for commuting went way down during the pandemic, other data sources showed that walking overall actually increased during the pandemic. So this year's report includes a brand new section (IV) that taps some new walking data from other sources to gain a better understanding of how and where people walk and how that affected fatalities, providing a deeper look into what happened on our streets in 2020.

The second notable change in the methodology is a shift to rank states and metro areas based on five years of data rather than 10. Using 10-year time periods has allowed each report to be compared to the previous edition, which also allows the public to easily see how states or metro areas are getting more or less deadly. Unfortunately, as noted above, the pandemic's impact on walking data was going to make this continuity impossible, which gave us the chance to depart from the ten-year horizon and begin assembling state and metro rankings in this 2022 edition using a five-year time period, from 2016 to 2020 in this edition.

The changes brought by COVID aren't just a blip—commuting and travel patterns have been permanently transformed. Shifting to five years allows us to both more heavily weigh what happened in the pandemic year of 2020, while also drawing a sharper focus on current and more recent conditions. Additionally, USDOT, states, and metro areas also typically operate on five-year cycles for spending, planning, and performance measurement, making it a logical timeframe.

Despite variation in deaths from year to year, this report also draws some limited comparisons between a single year (2020) and the previous four years to see which areas had the most significant changes during 2020. Nationally, fatalities rose 4.5 percent between 2019 and 2020, and preliminary estimates show an even higher increase in 2021.

When it comes to design, we must also consider the deadly impacts of ever-larger vehicles

By Mike McGinn, Executive Director of America Walks, former Seattle Mayor

While this report focuses on how our streets are "dangerous by design," the increasing size and weight of personal vehicles are also having an impact on the steadily increasing number of people struck and killed while walking. In addition to designing safer streets, improving vehicle design along four main criteria is also critical for reducing pedestrian fatalities:

Weight: Heavier vehicles like trucks and SUVs, which make up a growing share of both the current fleet and new vehicle sales each year, are more dangerous to both pedestrians and people inside of other vehicles.[a] Their increased weight, combined with higher speeds, increases the likelihood of death. A 2015 study by the Department of Transportation found that "pedestrians are 2-3 times more likely to suffer a fatality when struck by an SUV or pickup truck than when struck by a passenger car."[b]

Size: Vehicle size can also increase the likelihood of a pedestrian fatality in what should be obvious ways. Pedestrians struck in the lower body by a sedan are more likely to roll over the vehicle and survive the crash. Those struck directly in the pelvis, chest, or head by today's much taller vehicles are more likely to die upon impact or be pulled under the vehicle and crushed by the wheels.[c] d www.motorbiscuit.com/why-pickup-trucks-blind-spots-much-bigger-suvs/

Visibility: Taller vehicles decrease the visibility of people walking, increasing the likelihood of a crash. Today's typical passenger pickup trucks and SUVs have significant front blind spots caused by large hoods and bumpers that can blind the driver to pedestrians in their path, especially those who are shorter, like children.[d] Large a-pillars (the frame of the car between the windshield and the driver and passenger windows) are wider and larger on trucks and SUVs, contributing to lower visibility while making turns. In fact, when pedestrians are killed by a turning vehicle, the driver is far more likely to be behind the wheel of an SUV or pickup truck.[e] So if someone walks out into a crosswalk in front of or near a pickup truck or SUV, even if the pedestrian has the right of way, the driver is less likely to see the pedestrian, increasing the odds of a deadly crash.

e www.iihs.org/news/detail/suvs-other-large-vehicles-often-hit-pedestrians-while-turning

Like the roadway design practices discussed in this report, these vehicle designs set drivers up to fail—to not see people walking until it is too late—and both people walking and drivers pay the price.

Psychology and marketing: Low visibility and high weight create an intimidating and powerful-looking vehicle—a fact not lost on the drivers of these vehicles and leveraged by automobile manufacturers and their marketing efforts. Advertising campaigns for Ford, Hummer, and Jeep rely on militarized language that contributes to a paramilitary aesthetic and aggressive driving mentality.[a]

The evolution of each of these four design elements is producing more danger, and is likely a major culprit in our growing rate of traffic fatalities. Truck sales are increasing as a percentage of the US vehicle market share.[b] Front blind zones continue to grow.[c] Electric vehicles, which are taking up an ever-larger share of the passenger car market, are much heavier than cars with internal combustion engines.[d] Is anyone in charge of protecting the safety of the traveling public paying attention?

The pending update to the New Car Assessment Program (NCAP), a federal program that rates new cars on safety metrics, had the opportunity to penalize vehicles that perform poorly on the above metrics.[e] But USDOT decided to focus on pedestrian-sensing technology in new vehicles. While technology can help avoid some crashes—and the fact that NCAP finally mentions pedestrians at all is unfortunately an improvement—technology alone will do nothing to make crashes that do occur with these vehicles any less deadly for pedestrians.

Passenger vehicles that are proven to increase the likelihood of a pedestrian fatality should not receive five-star safety ratings. NCAP must change this or these ratings will remain useless to slow or stem the tide of pedestrian fatalities.[f] And safety ratings alone are not sufficient, since they simply provide information. We must update vehicle performance standards to require safer vehicle design for pedestrians. America Walks, among others, has been beating the drum on this, as should everyone interested in pedestrian safety.[g]

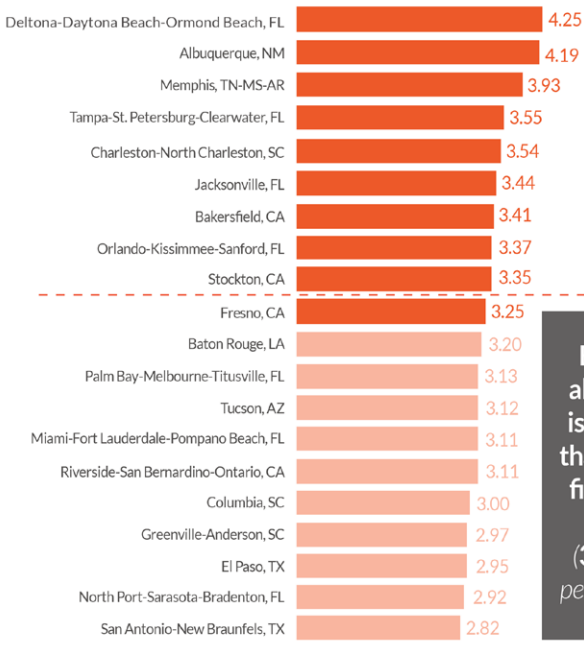
IV. The most dangerous places to walk in the United States



The top 20 most dangerous metro areas

This map highlights the 20 most dangerous metropolitan areas in the United States for people walking between 2016 and 2020, ranked by average yearly deaths per 100,000 people.

As in previous versions of this report, metro areas within the southern half of the US account for a sizable portion of the top twenty most dangerous metro areas in the nation. The top 20 list includes 15 of that region's major metro areas, including seven from Florida.

The ninth most deadly metro in 2022 would have topped this list five years ago

Every metro above this line is more deadly than the #1 rate five years ago.

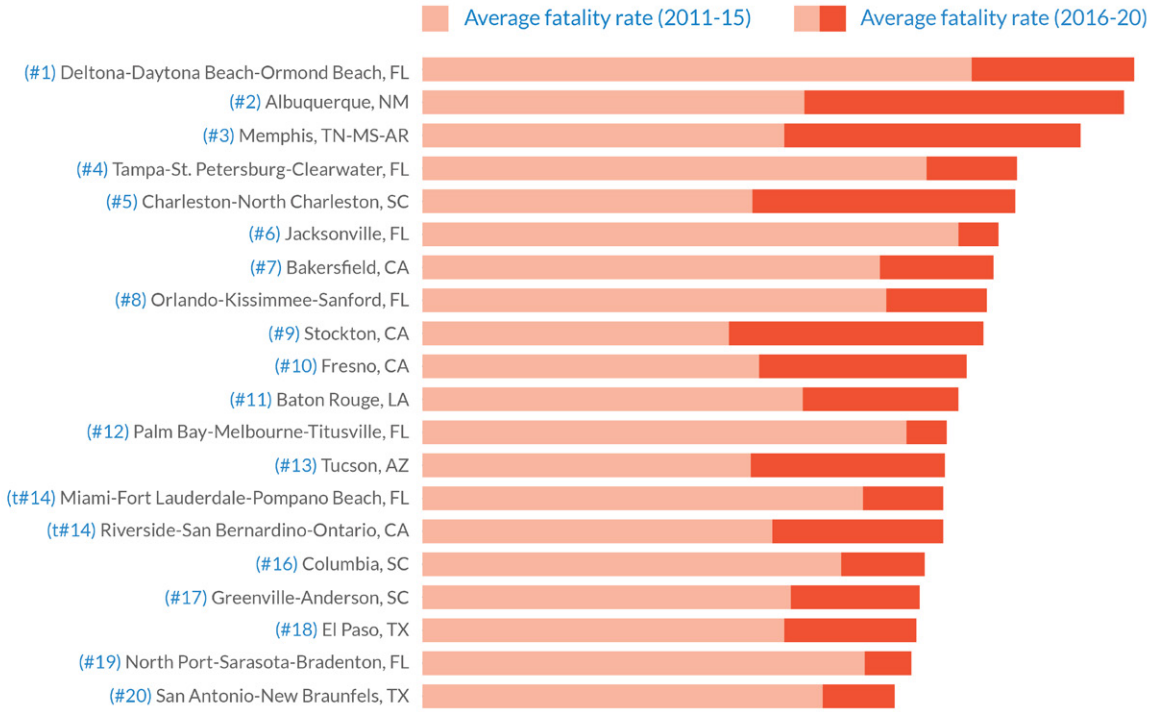
Rankings shift around, but all of the most deadly metros are getting worse



The rankings within each edition of this report shift and metro areas may slide up and down, but every single one of the 20 most deadly metro areas has grown more deadly over the last decade. As the graphic on the previous page shows, a fatality rate that would have topped these rankings five years ago is only good enough for ninth-most deadly this time around.

No top 20 metro area that improved their position in this edition achieved that feat because they reduced their fatality rate. All 20 have grown more deadly. (See the graphic at right.)

The metros that have slid down ("improved") in the rankings have done so not because they have gotten safer, but because other metro areas have grown more deadly at astonishing rates, such as Albuquerque, Memphis, Charleston, Stockton, and Fresno. (See the graphic on the following page.)

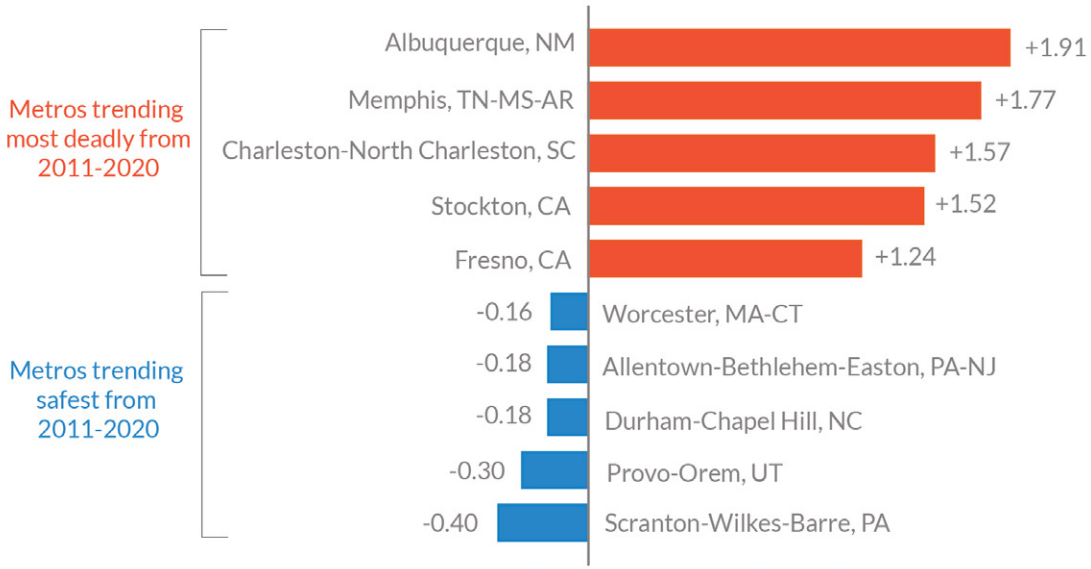
No metros in the top 20 are improving

All have gotten significantly more deadly

Dangerous by Design 2022 rank in parentheses*

Have any metro areas been trending safer over the last decade?

As deaths have been on a steady and alarming increase nationally, have any metro areas been trending in the opposite direction, getting safer over the last decade? Comparing an average fatality rate for the past five years (2016-20) with the previous five years (2011-15) we found that only a handful of metro areas (19 of 100) were bucking the national trend, albeit with only marginal gains, at best. Looking closer, the other 81 metro areas were growing far more deadly than these 19 metro areas were improving (see graphic at right). The average increase in the fatality rate in these 81 metro areas was 4.5 times greater than the average improvement within the 19 metro areas that were trending marginally safer over the decade.



There are plenty of examples of successful safety improvements that have reduced fatalities on specific corridors within many of these largest 100 metro areas. But these metro areas have built 70 years of dangerous roads to retrofit, and these improvements, while welcome and needed, are the exception and not the rule.

For this reason it has failed to lead to meaningful reductions in deaths across metro areas, states, and the nation. And at the same time states and cities are improving safety on specific corridors or intersections, many are building new roads with all of the same old issues. We need a transformation in the entire system—the task is monumental, and the effort needs to be sustained for years at the scale of this enormous problem.

We will fail to reverse this tragic trend until we fundamentally change the status quo of how we approach planning, designing, and operating our roads across every transportation project.

Long term trends in fatalities:

Which places have been trending safer or more deadly over the last decade?

Comparing average fatality rates for the past five years (2016-20) with the five years previous (2011-15)

Even as the amount of driving dropped overall, 67 of the largest 100 metro areas saw increases in the deaths of people struck and killed while walking during the pandemic, compared to the previous four years. While some variation is expected from year to year—which is why we don't typically compare a single year of data, outside of the unprecedented circumstances brought by the pandemic—these 2020 increases were significant in a number of metro areas. The ten metro areas with the highest increases (comparing 2020 with an average rate for 2016-2019) are depicted in the graphic below. These ten metro areas with the biggest increases are all also among the top 40 most dangerous in the country.

Unfortunately, only 33 metro areas saw their fatality rates decrease during the pandemic, and most of those changes were marginal, especially when compared to the increases in other metro areas.

Section VI later in this report examines the metro data, finding that metro areas where a large share of people were walking to work before the pandemic (because the infrastructure and land use support it) experienced lower increases in death rates.

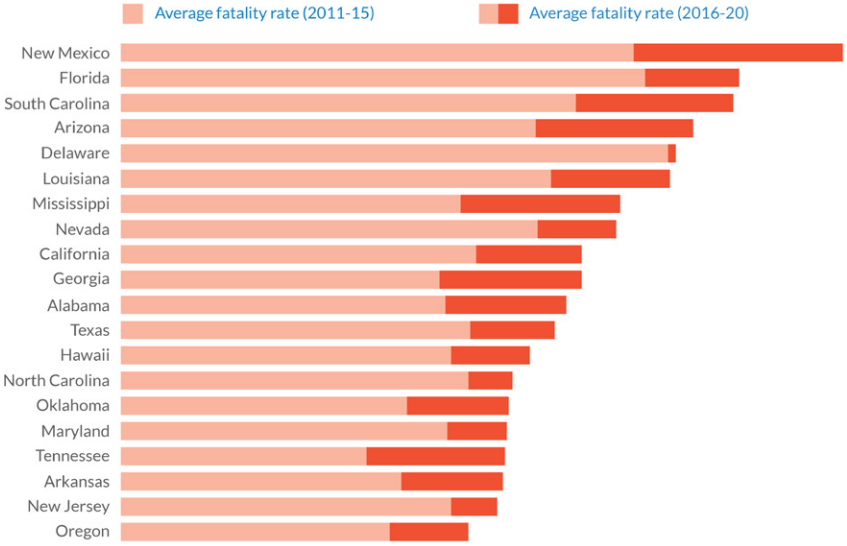
The top 20 most deadly states for pedestrians (2016-2020)

The graphic at right depicts the top twenty states with the highest number of pedestrian deaths.

States in the southern half of the US are again overrepresented in the top ten most dangerous states, which is not surprising. The bulk of the growth and development in these regions has taken place in an era (post-1960) where low-density sprawling land uses and high-speed, multi-lane arterial highways have been the dominant form, with historic amounts of state and federal transportation funding poured into street designs that are deadly for everyone, especially people walking.



THE TOP 20

Most dangerous states for pedestrians (2016-2020)

Long term trends in fatalities

Have any states been improving over the last decade?

Have any states been trending safer over the last decade?

This year, the rankings for the deadliest states for pedestrians changed slightly. Previous #1 Florida—where it should be noted that overall deaths still increased significantly in 2020—was surpassed by the increase in New Mexico, which is now the most dangerous state for pedestrians. No state that improved their position in this top 20 list achieved that feat because they reduced their fatality rate. All 20 have grown more deadly with a higher fatality rate compared to their average rate for 2011-2015.

Have any states managed to reduce their fatality rate and buck the national trend over the last decade? Have any states been trending safer? The answer is almost "no"—46 states have been in lock step with the national trend, growing yet more deadly over the last decade.

Comparing average fatality rates for the past five years (2016-20) with the five years previous (2011-15) we found that only four states, New York, North Dakota, Massachusetts, and Montana (plus the District of Columbia), managed to lower their fatality rates.

What happened during the pandemic at the state level?

Unfortunately, even though driving overall dropped precipitously, only 18 states saw their fatality rates decrease during the pandemic (compared to the previous four years) and, similar to our findings in metro areas, those decreases were mostly marginal.

Mississippi, Arkansas, Tennessee, and South Dakota saw the biggest increase in the rates of death during the pandemic compared to the previous four years. These states are also among the top twenty most dangerous states overall.

V. Most vulnerable populations

The COVID-19 pandemic perpetuated existing disparities in terms of who is most likely to be struck and killed while walking. Although people of all ages, races, income levels, and abilities are affected by dangerous street design, certain populations bear the brunt of the burden. People of color, low-income residents, and older adults are much more likely to die while walking, and the many people who exist at the intersections of these identities are even more vulnerable.

Decades of structural racism have included prioritizing travel to and from wealthier, whiter communities, forced displacement, disinvestment or neglect, a focus on building new rather than repair, and spending a greater share of transportation dollars elsewhere. The results have been a greater share of poorly designed streets that lack even the most basic pedestrian safety features like crosswalks, signals, and refuges, and are frequently divided by wide, high-speed roads that create life-threatening conflicts for people walking.

Non-drivers also face significant disparities, particularly those who rely on assisted mobility devices such as wheelchairs, walkers, prosthetics, and scooters. Existing streets lack consistent sidewalks, curb cuts, and safe intersections, making it difficult for nondrivers to navigate their communities and reach key destinations.[14]

Race and ethnicity

People of color, particularly Native and Black Americans, are more likely to die while walking than any other race or ethnic group, as illustrated in the graphic on the previous page. Despite making up a smaller proportion of the population, people of color are overrepresented in the percentage of pedestrian deaths.

It's worth noting that race and ethnicity are some of the most inconsistently reported components of federal fatality data. 11 percent of all pedestrian fatalities we examined failed to report race or ethnicity. A handful of states are particularly egregious offenders on this count, including Connecticut (43% of pedestrian deaths missing race data), New York (39%), Pennsylvania (39%), California (29%), Maryland (28%) and Hawaii (24%).

With this point in mind, the disparities we see nationally in deaths by population could be even worse in reality. With 1,381 of 4,729 pedestrian fatalities lacking race/ethnicity data, California has the largest absolute number of fatalities in this category. Consider: If Hispanic/Latinx people make up the same share of those ~1,300 deaths as they do of California's population overall (40 percent) the national fatality rate for Hispanic/Latinx people would significantly increase, from 1.8 to 2.0.

The existence of dangerous, auto-centric infrastructure in communities of color is a result of "urban renewal" projects like the construction of the interstate system, which was intentionally sited through many Black and Brown communities, displacing millions of people and causing catastrophic damage for decades to those left behind, like increased exposure to pollution, worse access to jobs and services, and devastated local economies.[15]

Black and Brown neighborhoods also tend to have more high-speed roads, poor visibility, and heavy traffic volume, and a lack of facilities for people walking.[16] In many cities, communities of color house a disproportionately high share of the most deadly roads, devoid of pedestrian infrastructure. For example, in Philadelphia, a full 46 percent of the most dangerous roads are in poor areas mostly populated by people of color.[17] And Black pedestrians are more likely to be subject to inequitable traffic enforcement and are more likely to be stopped, ticketed, and arrested for jaywalking and other walking violations.[18]

This continues to occur as transportation agencies spend enormous sums to make trips for people traveling through these communities faster and easier at the expense of those places. As just one example, this can be seen in how agencies positively assess the impact of a potential new road on congestion, while failing entirely to consider the impact on people in that community who will no longer be able to safely or easily travel from one side of the road to the other.

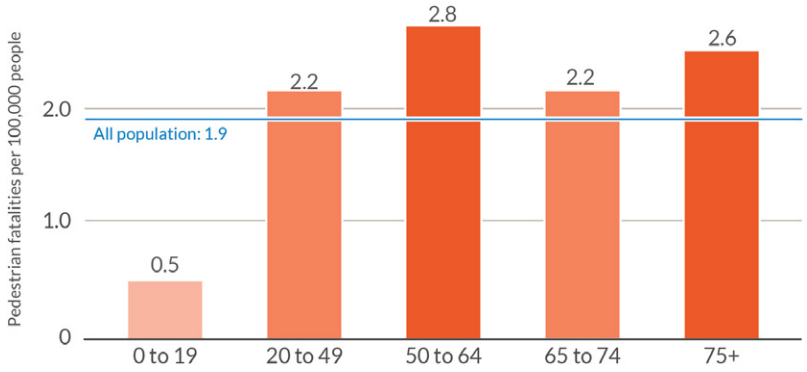
Low-income communities



While the federal database of fatalities does not include the household income of people struck and killed while walking, we do know where individuals were walking at the time of death. And the data is clear: the lower the income of the census tract, the more likely a person is to be struck and killed while walking there. Despite accounting for only 17 percent of the population, lower-income neighborhoods (those with a median household income of $2,500-$43,000) are where more than 30 percent of all pedestrian deaths occur.

Poor walking infrastructure and a lack of safety features put people walking in low-income neighborhoods at higher risk, and many lower-income households do not have access to a vehicle and must rely on walking or public transportation to get around.

Older adults

People between the ages of 50 and 65, and people over 75, are also more likely to be killed on our streets. Considering that the U.S. Census Bureau projects this segment of the population to continue growing, with 1 in every 5 Americans aged 65 or older by 2030, these deaths are likely to increase absent other changes.[19]

Pedestrian fatalities per 100,000 people by age (2016-2020)

A survey from AARP also found the majority of older adults want to age in place in their homes and communities.[20] To do that, they need safe and accessible streets that allow them to move around independently and access essential services in order to age in place comfortably. If they can't safely walk, they may experience severe social isolation, which can negatively impact their physical and mental health.

Traffic enforcement cannot do the job of better roadway design

By Priya Sarathy Jones, Fines and Fees Justice Center

After reading a report like this, some reporters, residents, and local leaders may be tempted to reach for increased traffic enforcement and financial penalties as an obvious solution. But relying on enforcement and financial penalties to solve issues that stem from street design cannot solve the epidemic of traffic fatalities. And even a simple traffic ticket can trap working families in a vicious cycle of poverty and punishment if they can't afford to pay the stiff fines and fees that jurisdictions often impose.

Design, on the other hand, is an upstream solution. When streets are designed with safety in mind, people intuitively drive more slowly, making them able to notice and process important signals from their environment, preventing dangerous behavior before it occurs, and focusing efforts on safer systems rather than individual behavior.

When streets are designed primarily to move as many cars as possible as fast as possible, and people are not provided the infrastructure they need to walk and bike safely, enforcement often punishes travelers for behaving logically. It is no mistake that one of the most common forms of speed limit enforcement is called a "speed trap." When a road looks and feels like a highway and is designed for 45mph or more but has a speed limit of 35 mph or less, many drivers are not aware they are making a mistake—until it's too late. The result of that is frequently issued citations, but not a change to overall driving behaviors.

And for state and municipal governments, using fines and fees as the primary mode of enforcement often leads to over-reliance on ticket revenue to fund basic government services, which can distort law enforcement priorities and erode trust between communities and police.[a]

Leaning so heavily on enforcement to manage individual behavior—while neglecting the more powerful systemic tool of designing streets that produce safer, slower driving overall—can increase the likelihood of abuse and exacerbate the existing disparities and inequities that people living in Black and Brown and low-income neighborhoods already face, all without reducing crashes.

According to the Bureau of Justice Statistics, traffic stops and car crashes account for at least 66 percent of contact between police and the public in the last decade, making dangerous streets the most frequent place for incidents of police brutality, particularly for low-income and minority residents.[b] In addition to often being overpoliced and being more likely to face police violence, Dangerous by Design shows how communities of color also disproportionately bear more of the burden of poor street design. This combination of factors creates a uniquely dangerous situation in these communities which requires systemic changes.

Tickets may even be given to people walking in places where there aren't any sidewalks, as with this road. Photo courtesy of Scott Crawford.

And this problem is not unique to driving, as enforcement has also become a major component of so-called "pedestrian safety" initiatives, which also tend to place a greater emphasis on communities of color.[a] Between 2012 and 2017, Black pedestrians in Jacksonville, Florida constituted 55 percent of all ticketed pedestrians despite making up only 29 percent of the population.[b]

Though several factors are likely at play, infrastructure is a key aspect. Pedestrian infrastructure tends to be least available in Black and Brown communities, while car ownership is less common. And in low-income communities, the financial penalties of traffic enforcement create economic hardships and financial burdens that can include life-altering consequences: late fees, license suspension, loss of employment, and a vicious debt cycle.

Automated enforcement (like speed cameras) is another way to enforce behavior, but without transparency and clear guardrails about how it's deployed, it can be subject to the same biases as human enforcement, further perpetuating inequities, and deepening government reliance on fines and fees for revenue. After all, decisions about where to place enforcement equipment, how much a fine is for each ticket, and what fees to add on, are still being made by state or local officials.

For example, after a recent initiative to install traffic cameras in Chicago, Black and Brown zip codes were ticketed at roughly twice the rate of white neighborhoods, leading to significant financial hardship and even bankruptcy.[c] And when Chicago changed its speed camera program in early 2021 to issue citations at 6 mph over the speed limit, the city generated $89 million in fines in one year—raising the daily tickets issued from 1,100 to 9,000. Meanwhile, the number of pedestrian fatalities in Chicago increased in 2021.

As a biker and pedestrian myself who lives with young children in a major city, I think about street safety every time I step outside my home. I understand the temptation to deal with growing traffic violence with expanded enforcement efforts. But enforcement alone will fail to solve the fundamental problem: streets designed for the very behavior that enforcement is trying to eliminate. The best strategy for more effective and equitable enforcement is to reduce how much it's needed, by redesigning streets that make safer behavior easier, more intuitive, and ultimately more likely.

VI. What pandemic walking rates tell us about making streets safer

The U.S. Census provides data on the share of people who walk to work, but as noted in section III, this data focused on work trips experienced major disruption during 2020. In this expanded new section for this edition of Dangerous by Design, we chose to look at overall walking trip rates across metro areas using data provided by StreetLight Data. Their data help show how much more overall walking is taking place, and potentially how much additional demand there is, compared to using only the U.S. Census data limited to only commute trips. Combining the Census data on walking commutes with this new set of walking indicators from Streetlight Data allows us to better understand how changes in walking during the pandemic impacted safety.

StreetLight leverages anonymized information from cellphones and mobile devices to provide us with an index of walking trips for each metro area and state analyzed in this report. These index numbers are most valuable for comparing the amount of walking trips in different places and changes over time, rather than providing an actual count of all trips.

But they also have their limits. StreetLight Data include walking trips of all purposes, both to essential places like work or grocery stores as well as walking trips for recreation or exercise that might occur in parks, in gated communities, on trails, and even on beaches. These are wonderful community amenities, but trips away from vehicle traffic are not useful in judging the relative safety for pedestrians exposed to vehicles across metro areas and states.

Four things we learned about the pandemic's increase in walking and deaths

For this portion of the analysis we used walking data from both the U.S. Census and StreetLight to examine the impact of increased walking during the pandemic. We grouped metro areas into two categories by their death rates from 2016 to 2020 (more deadly, less deadly) and discovered four basic trends:

1. StreetLight's data shows that walking increased everywhere during the pandemic, but those increases only led to more deaths in certain metro areas.

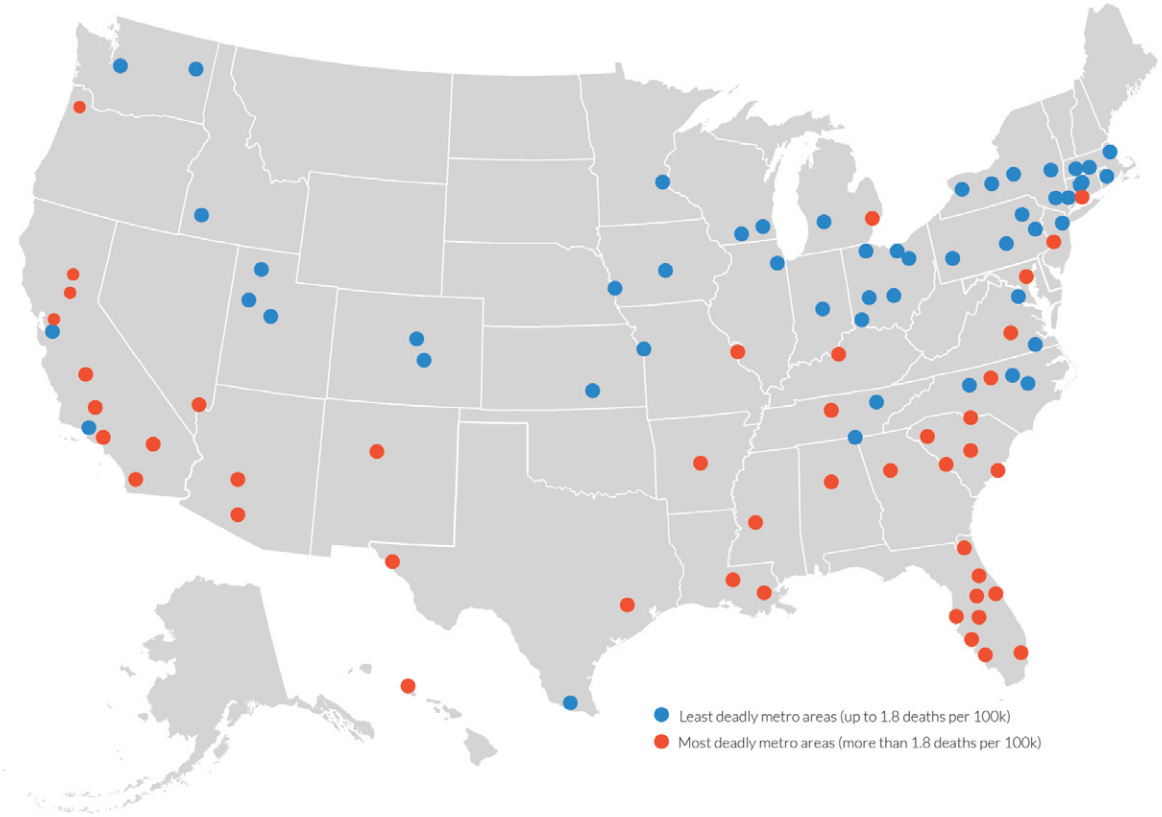
2. In 2020, fatality rates increased the most on average in the metro areas that were already more deadly and had lower shares of people walking to work before the pandemic. In short, the more deadly metros also saw the biggest increases in fatality rates. Walking rates also increased the most in these metro areas, illustrating a pent-up demand for walking in the most unwelcoming and unsafe places.

3. In 2020, fatality rates decreased (or increased the least) on average in the metro areas that were less deadly and had higher shares of people walking to work before the pandemic. The places where more people choose to walk to work tend to be places that also have the street design and land use that make it safe to do so.

4. More walking doesn't have to result in more deaths. We can get more people walking to more places without seeing deaths increase, if we prioritize their safety from the ground up. This tracks with the worldwide trend—increases in walking and drops in driving only led to more deaths in the US and two other developed countries. Most got safer.

We explain more about the process and the methodology for these four findings in the following detailed section.

Separating the more deadly from the less deadly metro areas



To get a better understanding of whether increases in walking during the pandemic led to increases in deaths, we divided the 100 largest metro areas into two groups, or clusters. One group consisted of more deadly cities (more than 1.8 deaths per 100k) and a second group consisted of less deadly cities (up to 1.8 deaths per 100k). These groups are roughly equal in size, with about 50 cities included in each. We then compared the changes in death rates and differences in walking between the two groups. There was a large difference in average death rates for 2016-2020 between these two groups: 2.7 annual deaths per 100,000 people on average in the more deadly Group 1, versus 1.3 in the less deadly Group 2.

Fewer people walk to work in the more deadly places

Looking at these two groups of metro areas, clear patterns emerged. A considerably larger share of people walked to work before the pandemic in the less deadly metro areas (Group 2, shown in blue): 2.6 percent of commuters on average versus 1.7 percent in the more deadly group of metro areas (red). There is also a clear cutoff between the two groups when it comes to walking commuters: almost all cities in the less deadly group had a higher share of people commuting by walking than any of the metro areas in the more deadly group.

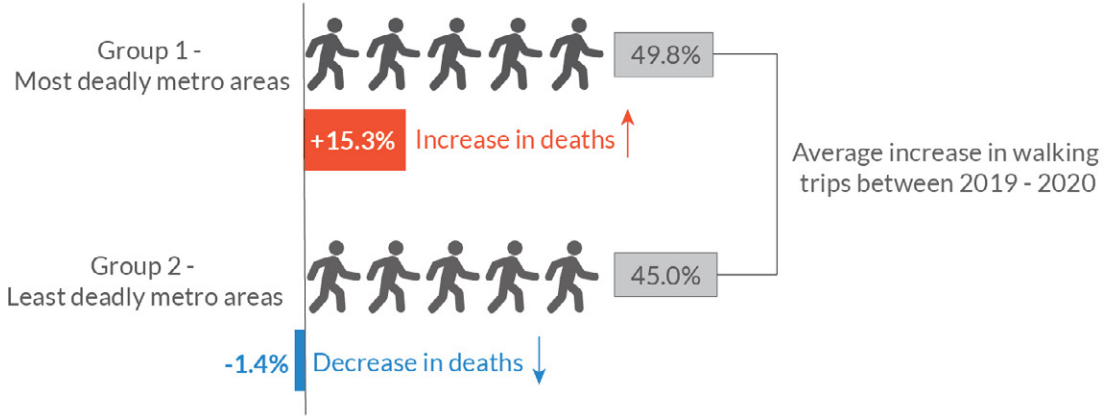
These two groups have less pronounced but still noteworthy differences in walking overall, as shown by the walking trip index values provided by StreetLight Data for 2016-2020. Overall, metro areas in the more deadly group have higher walking trip indexes, averaging 2.9, whereas the average walking trip index for the less deadly metro areas is 2.6. However, some of the most deadly cities like Orlando and Las Vegas had exceptionally high walking trip index values (greater than 4.) These cities have a large population of tourists walking in parks, beaches, and other tourist-oriented areas, which could account for these high walking index values, but are also generally heavily car-oriented in much of their surrounding regions, likely contributing to high death rates.

Grouping metro areas by fatality rates to measure the impact of walking rates during the pandemic

Many metro areas with the highest walking trip indices were also in states like Florida and California where private development often includes trails and other off-street amenities for walking recreationally in places with no exposure to cars or fast-moving traffic.

More walking only made certain metro areas more deadly in the pandemic

MSAs in the more deadly Group 1—those with lower walking to work rates—saw a significantly larger increase in death rates on average during the pandemic: 15 percent. By contrast, MSAs in the less deadly Group 2 with higher walk to work rates on average actually saw a 1.4 percent decrease in death rates on average.



Did stark differences in the amount of walking contribute to the different death rates between these two groups of metro areas during the pandemic? For many cities, the answer seems to be no. The average changes in walking trip rates in each group of metro areas were relatively comparable, but the effect was not the same.

This phenomenon is best characterized by metro areas on the extreme end of the spectrum in the more deadly group like Little Rock, AR, Augusta, GA, and Jackson, MS, where a 60 percent increase in walking trips or larger corresponded with a similar increase in death rates. For especially deadly cities like Jackson, MS, which has consistently scored near the top of our Pedestrian Danger Index, this increase is particularly concerning.

These trends can tell us a lot about how to make communities safer

These patterns are not a coincidence. It makes sense that places where people often walked to work before the pandemic would not see a significant increase in deaths when people started walking more during the pandemic, because places where people walk to work frequently also tend to be places that are better designed to support safer walking trips of all kinds. Communities that were more comfortable and more welcoming to walk in before the pandemic had more streets designed with pedestrians in mind. Infrastructure that protects people walking or using wheelchairs (like crosswalks and sidewalks) is more common, and these additions also lead to naturally slower vehicle speeds, so crashes are less likely to be fatal.

Places where people walk to work less frequently (where people might commute more often by car, for example) also tend to lack the infrastructure pedestrians need to stay safe. These communities got more dangerous when traffic evaporated on roads already designed primarily for moving cars through at high speed. A sudden increase in walking coupled with fewer cars on the road in these places likely contributed to a perfect storm of conditions and an increase in deaths. No amount of additional walking can overcome a roadway design that is fundamentally dangerous.

The dramatic increase in walking rates across the country during the pandemic shows that there is latent, unrealized demand for more opportunities to safely walk, even in places where the infrastructure is lacking. We should be striving to meet that demand by making it so people can safely walk to destinations like work, but also grocery stores, school, healthcare, and other daily needs.

Appendix A: Methodology

This report evaluates fatality data over five years (2016-2020) using Fatality Analysis Reporting System (FARS) data from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. The most recent data available from 2020 became available in Spring 2022.

The impact of the pandemic on the data we typically use, coupled with significantly higher fatality rates during the pandemic, required a new approach to assessing pedestrian danger, which also allowed us to address the unique impact of the pandemic. After more than a decade of calculating pedestrian danger in the same way—in part so that rankings could be compared over past editions to allow the public to see how places were getting more or less deadly—this edition of Dangerous by Design includes two significant changes: 1) a five-year time frame for pedestrian death rankings rather than ten years, and 2) removing any normalization by walking rates to generate a "Pedestrian Danger Index" and instead reporting on deaths per 100,000 people.

All pedestrian fatalities are reported within the five-year timeframe of 2016 to 2020 which differs from the 10-year time frame used in previous versions of the report. The pandemic's impact on walking data was already going to make continuity with previous editions impossible, giving us the chance to depart from the ten-year horizon and begin assembling state and metro rankings in this 2022 edition using a five-year time period. Shifting to five years allows us to both more heavily weight what happened in the pandemic year of 2020, while also drawing a sharper focus on current and more recent conditions. Additionally, USDOT, states, and metro areas also typically operate on five-year cycles for spending, planning, and performance measurement, making it a logical timeframe.

While previous versions of the report all used the Pedestrian Danger Index which normalized the pedestrian fatalities per 100,000 people further by walking rates, this report only uses pedestrian fatalities per 100,000 people for all comparisons. In the last report, the Pedestrian Danger Index used journey-to-work trips from the Census American Community Survey (ACS) data. Up until the pandemic shut things down March 2020, the share of people walking to work was a good, if limited, proxy for the amount of overall walking in a region or state, but with shifts in travel behavior that are likely to be somewhat permanent, this was no longer the case.

This year's report includes a brand new section (IV) analyzing how the pandemic impacted walking rates in the 100 largest MSAs using both the ACS walk to work data and StreetLight Data. To gain a better understanding of how and where people walk and how that affected fatalities, we divided MSAs into two groups: dangerous cities (more than 1.8 deaths per 100k) and safer cities (up to 1.8 deaths per 100k) to analyze and compare the average walking commute rates and StreetLight walking indices between the two groups and how death rates and walking rates changed during the pandemic on average in each group.

All population, race, age, and ethnicity data are from the 2016-2020 American Community Survey 5-year estimates, to ensure the most up-to-date information at the time of this report. NHTSA FARS data do not include information about the household income of individuals who are struck and killed while walking; however, they do reveal where people are walking when they are killed. To analyze where pedestrian fatalities occur relative to median household income of the surrounding area, fatalities were joined using GIS to census tracts. The median household income of census tracts was grouped into quintiles to determine high- and low- income communities. Pedestrian deaths were then aggregated into these five tract types, and normalized by the population of the tracts. While FARS data do not include individual-level household income data, this analysis serves as a method to determine whether pedestrians die disproportionately in low-income areas. To calculate the number of fatalities by MSA, a spatial join was performed with the longitude and latitude as reported by FARS.

Number: 11.A

Item Category:	Resolution	Res./Ord. No:	2024-87
Strategic Goal:	Transportation & Community Development - Other
Department:	Planning & Building
Subject:	253 Greenwood Ave, Lien for Partial Demolition
Summary:	This is a request for authorization to place a lien in the anticipated amount of $8,928.50 against the property at 253 Greenwood Avenue, (Volusia Co Parcel ID# 4240-03-03-0090) for the costs associated with demolishing the remaining foundation, garage floor, debris, and match existing grade with fill. On June 26, 2023, the Special Magistrate for Ormond Beach entered an order upholding the Chief Building Official's determination that the structure at 253 Greenwood Ave was unsafe. A demolition permit was issued on July 25, 2023, to demolish the existing structure of 2,656 square feet. The building was demolished but the foundation, driveway and debris remain on-site. On January 26, 2024, the Special Magistrate for Ormond Beach provided an order that provided the property owner until March 1, 2024, to remove the concrete slab, driveway and construction debris on the property and follow with proper grading and seeding. The corrective action ordered by the Special Magistrate for Ormond Beach has not occurred, and this item seeks to perform the corrective actions and place a lien on the property to recover the costs incurred by the City. Pursuant to Section 8-4 of the Code Ordinances, the City Commission may approve a Resolution imposing a lien against any real property that is or was subject to a violation of the Unsafe Building Abatement regulations of the Code of Ordinances in the amount of costs incurred by the City in abating the violation. The Chief Building Official, City Engineer, and Fire Chief unanimously deemed the residential structure as unsafe per Code of Ordinances Section 8-4. Upon failure by all parties to respond to the Notice of Unsafe Structure, a contractor has been hired by City staff to perform the corrective demolition. The City has secured a price for the demolition in the amount of $8,900, but will not record the lien until the demolition is complete. The recording cost for the lien when recorded is $28.50.

Financial Impact:	The anticipated total cost for the City will be $8,928.50 and is proposed to be funded from Fund 001 - General Fund. The purpose of imposing a lien through this Resolution is to seek to recover the expenses of the demolition.
Citizen Impact:	The unsafe structure has a negative impact on surrounding homes and the neighborhood. There is no citizen impact as a result of imposing this lien to recover the actual costs incurred by the City.
Recommended Action (Staff, Advisory Board and/or Other):	Staff requests APPROVAL to place a lien on the property located at 253 Greenwood Ave in the amount of $8,928.50 ($28.50 for recording costs and $8,900 for the demolition) for the partial demolition of the structure and improvements remaining on-site.
