5. AUDIENCE REMARKS - REGARDING ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA & ON THE CONSENT AGENDA

Volusia County Council Member Troy Kent, 130 Magnolia, congratulated the city on the award of funds from the Volusia County Tranform386 program for the Fleming Avenue Forcemain pump station. He thanked Mr. Shawn Finley, Assistant City Manager, for speaking at the Volusia County Council meeting. He voiced concerns as a resident of the city regarding the lack of a city parking program at the Andy Romano Beachfront Park and discussed the success of the Volusia County beachside parking program.

Ms. Jennifer Bright, P.O. Box 62, voiced concerns regarding the city's funding derived from Florida Power and Light (FPL). She discussed FPL's largest rate increase and the financial hardship it would impose on residents. She requested the city consider lowering their percentage rate of funds received by FPL.

Ms. Amber Bobak, 397 Collins, expressed the importance of unity within the community. She encouraged the Commission to be more vocal when it came to the State's overreach of the local Home Rule.

Mr. Jeff Boyle, 614 North Halifax Drive, discussed the Avalon Park project and the city's involvement with the utilities. He expressed concerns with the Commission's vote, lack of public input, and disapproval of a potential partnership with the City of Daytona Beach.

Mr. David Siegel, 928 Buena Vista Avenue, voiced concerns regarding audience member's reactions at a prior Commission meeting, stating police should escort out individuals displaying concerning behaviors.

Ms. Coleen McMahon, 45 Carrolwood Circle, thanked the Commission for voting no on the Avalon Park item, and requested the City Attorney's Office address the item in-house and not use city funds to pay for outside counsel. She urged the Commission to vote no on the Tomoka Commerce Park project due to flooding. She voiced the flooding issues within Zone One.

Ms. Marsha Blew, 12 Honey Bear Path, expressed concerns regarding the Ormond Beach Municipal Airport expansion and taxpayer dollars being spent, suggesting programs with public input for dollars.

Mr. Alan Burton, 915 Ocean Shore Boulevard, thanked the Commission, prior Commission, and staff for their support of ReGrow America, ReGrow Volusia, and ReGrow the Loop. He requested the Commission consider honoring Parks and Recreation employees Mr. Liviston "Stretch" Edwards and Ms. Siobhan Daly with a plaque on the buildings they worked in.

Mr. Donald Koester, 7 Lake Trail, asked for direction and assistance regarding a neighbor whose home was potentially uninhabitable.

Mayor Leslie inquired about the address; whereby, Mr. Koester stated 7 Lake Trail.

Commissioner Deaton stated she would personally look into the situation and visit the neighbor to see what assistance was needed.

Ms. Connie Colby, 108 Roble Lane, reviewed the Riverbend Golf Course lawsuit judgment against the city and inquired how the city was proceeding with the judgment. She expressed concerns of the judgment creating potential issues with receiving Volusia County grant funds. She discussed the letter the city sent to the Federal Aviation Administration and their response.

Mr. David Juhl, 2040 Toni Street, Unincorporated Volusia County, thanked Mr. Steven Spraker, Planning Director, and Mr. Finley for their help. He voiced concerns regarding the Ormond Beach Sports Complex and St. Johns River Water Management District (SJRWMD) permitting and pollution.
